Bulls Still in Control of the Chicago Wheat Trade.

FUTURES IN AN UNSETTLED CONDITION.

Report of Damage to Crops in Kansas -Chicago Live Stock Business-Government Bonds - The World's Market Reports.

CHICAGO, May 13.—The bulls were still in control of the wheat market today and they took advantage of their opportunities to force a substantial advance. The strength in the market was due much to the influences which affected it yesterday. These were higher cables, a good demand for May wheat and steadily increasing stocks here, improved financial outlook abroad, some bad crop news and an export demand at the seaboard. Shorts povered freely and there was a steady demand from other sources as well, there evidently being more confidence in higher prices at least for the near futures. Houses with English clientage were reported as buying. Eastern houses sent in buying criders and the northwest bought some-

A strongly bullish item of news was the report from a source considered reliable that the Ressian fly was doing great damage to the crops in Kansas. Reports of a drouth were received from the winter wheat belt and from Minnesota. Laverpool was quoted 1495/40 Public cables reported weather hot and dry. but private cables report the weather cold. Continental markets, with the exception of Antwerp, which was lower for California wheat, were higher, and private Paris cables said the French markets were advancing. There were a's) some bad reports regarding the Hongarian crop report and July opened at $1.0121.014 and sold up to $1.014 almost at once. Then on scalping sales it retired to $1.00%, the lowest point of the it retired to $1.00% the lowest point of the day. An advance to $1.02% followed: realizing safes depressed it to $1.01%, and then shot up to $1.00% and closed he lower and firm.

Corn was as strong as wheat early but the market collapsed under the weight of offerings of cash corn to arrive, prospective heavy receipts, and the operations of certain traders supposed to be "long" on July, which induced some of the smaller "shorts" to cover. Using conditions are generally said to be perfect, the outlook in some directions being the best in six years. July opened at 50% 2004c, advanced to 50% and dropped to 50% closing I point bisher. point higher.
Cats opened strong under an orgent demand for shorts, scoring a good advance, but losing it all subsequently and closing at the inside

The provision market was lower at the open-The provision market was lower at the opening, but there was an immediate rush of shorts to cover, which caused a speedy recovery. The early strength of corn also stimulated the buying, and the later reaction, in which most of the early advance was lost, was caused by the downward tendency of corn toward the close of the session. Packers were tuying to a fair extent in the early part of the session.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, May 13.-It is now admitted that the future of the stock market hinges almost wholly on the European financial situation. The news from the other side was of a more reassuring character than that of yesterday and London was a buyer here while reporting the score of yesterday over. This buying was confined almost exclusively to St. Paul, Louisville & Nashville, Union Pacific and Atchison, but was especially noticeable in the first named stock. The buils, however, were not nellined to push their advantage too far, as the many adverse developments of late have rendered them more numerous and commission houses are advising their customers to wait until the situation is more clear before going heavily into the market on either side. The more favorable aspect of affairs on the other side, however, was to a certain extent neutralized by the continued engagements of gold for export. The opening prices were from 1465 per cent better than last night's final figures, and while the pressure to sell was he rvy, and especially from the west, nothing but industrials yielded to any material extent. The buying of the foreigners leads to the realization of the fact that the large shipments of gold to Europe has produced a better feeling there and must react favorably on the situation here. Today prices responded promptly to the improved conditions, and after the first drive the course of values was steadily upward until near the close, when realizations on the advance of the day by the trading element caused a slight set back. The grangers were still the most important group, but the upward movement attained large proportions in Lackawanna, Wheeling & Lake Frie, Louisville, Cleveland, Columbus, Chicago & St. Louis and Pacife Mail. The industrials were the weak point in the market, but only sugar showed any material decline, which lasted until the final sale. The market closed quiet and steady after the slight reaction of the last hour, generally at close to the best figures. The float changes are all in the direction of higher prices, and while sugar was an exception with a loss of 2%, St. Paul is up 1%; Cleveland, Columbus, Chicago & St. Louis, Lackawanna and Pacific Mail each Ps. Rock Island, Rurlington and Louisville each Ps. and Wheeling & Lake Erie I per cent.

Railroad bonds were again dull, while the transactions reached to a large number of issues. The dealings, however, were devoid of special feature, as usual of late, though a firm tone provaled and the final changes are generally small advances in sympathy with the strength shown in the share list. The total sales were only $601,000.

Financial Review.

Financial Review.

New York, May 13.—The Post says: There were further reports of large engagements of gold for export this morning, which places the amount already shipped and engaged at $3.200,000 since Monday morning. But inquiry at the sub-treasury at 11:30 this morning shows that only $1,000,000 have been taken out since Monday morning, and up to 11 o'clock this morning only $1,500,000 more had been engaged. Inquiry at the custom house shows that the total amount shipped up to last night, which includes the steamers sailing this morning, was $1,737,000. But it was understood that $2,200,000 more would probably be taken for export by steamer tomorrow, which would make $4,000,000 since Monday. For the last ten days the outgo of gold has undountedly been the controlling factor in the stock market and has been the only cause of the decline in prices. The aost immediate apprehension was that the depletion of the bank reserves in this city would make tight money. But now it appears that this money which was given to Europe does not all come out of the New York banks but from the whole country. Chicago is paying its proportion of the bank reserves in this city would make tight money; but now it appears that this money which was given to Europe does not all come out of the New York banks but from the whole country. Chicago is paying its proportion of the debt of the west to Europe, and exchange on New York was yesterday up to 8 cents per thousand premium, showing an unusual movement of money to this side. But this has prevented any stringency in the money market here and brobably will continue to do so. People are also getting over the notion that there is anything peculiar in the fact that It is gold that is going out when they remember that gold is the only kind of cash in which international trade debts can be settled. The fact that the Bank of England has again raised its price for American gold to a premium of 1 penny per pound, or say fourtents of 1 per cent on the dolar, only indicates that the Bank of Engl

MANCHESTER. May El.—The Guardian in its commercial article says: Quietness prevails in the market. Business yesterday was below that of Tuesday last. This was partly due to the wants being supplied and partly to unconfirmed rumors of financial difficulty in London, and suprephensions of a higher rate of discount. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May II.—WHEAT—The wheat receipts today were light and shipments larger than usual. The offerings were small and the demand limited. It was a hard sprehensions of a higher vate of discount.

The inquiry for India was poor. There was some inquiry for China at low rates. Light business was executed. Most soilers are in too strong a position to yield. There was smaller business for the smaller foreign markets. There were few fresh orders from the home trade. There was little fresh inquiry for yarn. Exporters are buying in small quantities. The inactivity is giving splinners anxiety. The production of fine and fancy India goods is fair, engaged. Occasionally the seller of plain shirtings are waiting orders. There was a small but steady demand for most kinds of plain printing and flained cloths sufficient to keep the department fairly firm. Best makes of heavy goods were strong. The production is well engaged. The lower qualities are slow of sale.

London May 13.—The money market was still sensitive. The leading houses were cautious and would only deal at high rates. The influx of gold into the Bank of England, a report that the Rothschilds would send a large quantity of gold, etc., tended to dissipate the fears that there would be a rise in the rate of discount. Lisbon advices and firmer Paris prices on the report that powerful bankers had come to the rescue of the French operators caused a sharp recovery on the stock exchange in all international securities. Portugal rose 24 per cent and Spanish 14 per cent after varied fluctuations. Russian improved I per cent. American railroad securities opened weak, but at the close all quotations were above last night's prices, except, however, South American, which were rather weak on the advance in the premium on gold at Buenos Ayres.

On the Bourses. Parts, May 13.-A decided check was placed on the downward movement on the bourse oday by bear purchases and plentiful buying orders at home and from abroad. At the close there was a very pronounced rise all around. Three per cent rentes rose 63 centimes; Italian, 1 per cent; Russian, 14; Spanish, 14; Portuguese, nearly 3; credit foncier, 15f; Sucz Canal, 21f, and Rio tintos, 22f. Discounts were easier. The supply was large for this time of the year, and this fact and the unsatisfactory condition of the market for hos products were the causes of weakness, although shippers bought much more freely than on Tuesday. The demand did not call for nearly the number of hoss on sale, and several thousand had to be held over.

Concaco, May Es-W. G. McCormick & Co., to F. C. Swartz & Co.—The wheat market has been active and strong throughout. The publication by the department at Washington of their information as to foreign crops brought to the minds of the operators the condition of afterswhead on which they had some weeks ago builed the market, and which has in nowise changed. There was good buying for both local and outside account. The news has been rather builtsh. Antwern showed an advance equal to 3c. Paris was 25 centimes higher and late English cables showed as atong and advancing market. Shipments from New York were 201,000 bushels of wheat and 8,500 packages of flour. Receipts at eleven primary points were 200,000 bushels, and shipments 604,000. Some reports were received as to damage to the winter wheat crop in Kansas, but did not meet with general credence. Hradstreet reports the decrease in available supplies eat and west of the Rockles at 516,000 bushels. Corn ruled strong early in synpathy with wheat, the shorts being free buyers, but weakened later when it was announced that the market for car lots was 24c lower than yesterday and that Bradstreet showed an increase of 850,000 in available supplies. The close was very tame and showed indications of the buils being very much disheartened. Prov sions one do lower in consequence of a lower hog market, but the decline met good buying all around and the market shows greater strength than for several days past. The bears are still inclined to hummer it, but make little impression, as weak holders seem generally to have unloaded. We believe conservative purchases around these prices will pay good profits.

generally to have unloaded. We believe conservative purchases around these prices will pay good profits.

Chicago May 13.—Kennett Hopkins & Co., to S. A. Me Whorter.—Chicago has today demonstrated its ability to play a one hand and play it well with no assistance from abroad or outside markets. Wheat has been advanced & above the price at which it sold yesterday. Cables were not encouraging to holders and other markets lagged wearily but Chicago took the bit in its teeth and ran away from all. Last week our nevices to correspondents stated that the market was heavily short and indications pointed to much higher prices, possibly higher than had yet been seen on the crop. The advance has been rather sharper than anticipated and in spite of the bearish reports from different directions. That the price was iffed 4e to 5e undersuch conditions shows clearly that the short interest was greater than generally supposed and it also shows now difficult it is to cover short contracts when the demand becomes sufficiently urgent. The bears had been selling wind and the buils were not satisfied with such a delivery. New York reports a checking of the export business by the advance and if foreign markets should tomorrow show the same indisposition to follow us as today a moderate reaction in prices would seem probable. It looks like a built market, however, and still higher prices in the near future are indicated by the situation. It's good property to buy on breaks. Corn and oats—There was a sharp bulge on both grains early, during which shorts were generally driven in and the long interest took profits. In consequence of the elimination of the short interest the market became easy the latter part of the session and refused to respond to the closing bulge in wheat. We favor sales on good rallies. Provisions—The course of the market today is not encouraging to holders with such a builtsh feeling in grain. That provisions did not respond after the heavy decline that has already taken place indicates a fatal weakness. The volume The state poard of medical examiners were re-elected - Dr. J. C. Schrader of Iowa City president, and Dr. Kennedy of Des Moines secretary and treasurer. Both boards will meet again in November. SHENANDOAH, In., May 14,- Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-Shenandoah has again done herself proud and feels highly honored, as it was the only place in Iowa at which the presidential party stopped. This was done mainly on account of the great normal college located at this point and its president, W. M. Croan, being an acquainting of President Harrison in Indiana. As the train approached the Wabash station Company E fired the presidential salute of twenty-one guns. The college bands played "Hail to the Chief." One thousand students joined in the welcome with several thousand citizens of Shenundoah and vicinity. The president was introduced from the rear platform by Mayor Nichols. President Harrison was in good spirits and voice and was distinctly heard by the vast crowd. He said: My countrymen: I thank you for your warm welcome to the Shenandoah valley in the great state of lows, and deeply regret that the schedule time of the train forbids a longer stay. As it is I can only say thank you and good-bye." The president was again greeted with tremenous cheers. Loud calls were made for the first lady of the land, but she did not appear. Calls for Secretary Rusk brought that gentleman to the front, and he bowed his acknowledgements, as also did Postmas-ter Wanamaker. As the train pulled out the college students and faculty sang "My Country Tis of Theo, Sweet Land of Liberty."

The military fired a parting salute, and everybody cheered the presidential party of the greatest nation on earth. Supreme Court Opinions.

the course of the cattle market. In view of the recent sharp advance in the foreign market, not unfavorable eastern news, and continued moderate arrivals, the weakness of demand and lask of "tone" are not easily accounted for except on the hypothesis that the combine has "pegged" prices. The better class of shipping steers brought about steady rates. Other descriptions ranged lower, the decline averaging 550 be. Trade was doll during a greater part of the forenoon and although developing little vitality later it was at no time satisfactorily active, and the close of trading forced a goodly number of cattle still in the sale pens. There were few bunches of choice cattle here and a fair sprinkling of such as are classed as good, but there was a large preponderance of "off grades," old cows, built, thin steers and Texas cattle, therefore, while extra grades were quoted as high as $5.50 the built of trading was below $5.50 moch of it at $6.5064.55. The source from which they came has at last come to light. Last night about 11 o'clock Attorney Eilwell and Frank Bushnell of Newport, the first station west of this place in Rock county, were arrested in the latter's livery barn, while in the act of counterfeiting, by a United States marshal and a deputy from Omaha and the speriff of Rock county. A young man by the name Cooper was also arrested at Bassett, as an accomplice. It is reported that the arrest was brought about by Bushnell, who had worked into the confidence of the counterfeiters and become one of their number for that purpose. Eiwell, who is the ring leader, has lived in Newport about two years, had the confidence of the people, and was last fall a candidate for county attorney on the republican ticket in Rock county, but was defeated. It is now apparent that he was an old hand at the business while a resident of Missouri. It is rumored that other arrests will be made.

President Harrison renified in a brief spocch. My Fellow-Citizens: There is a very fine freshmess and beauty about this early morning on the prairies of Nebraska. I hope I will not suffer loss in your esteem if I make the freshmess and beauty about this series in other words, when I was told last right, on religing none too early that we would be at Hastings at 6:20. But, my friends, all these things that make the labor of travel are as nothing compared the labor of travel are as nothing compared.

lastings at 6:20. I found out this morning that that meant 5:20 by the time I went to bed by last night.

But, my friends, all these things that make the labor of travel are as nothing compared with the great gratification which we find in such assemblages at this. We have seen those parts of the United States where the distribution of the water supply, at least in its immediate application to the crops, has been put in the hands of man and the water comes in ditches and not in showers. That system has some advantages and some disadvantages. But for me, having been reared in lands of showers, it seems more home-like to get back in the edge of these states where everything is green and fresh. But out of all these diversities in the condition of agriculture and of mineral wealth, we make up this great country. It has not apparently been in the minds of the Creator to make too many things alike. Diversity is found everywhere in nature, and it is a happy thing for our country that those diversities are found in our productions.

It is another happy incident in our people. They are found in the fields and in the mines, but everywhere throughout the land any observing man can see that we are one people. [Cheers, I The people I saw in California. Arizona and all along our journey were just such people us lee here. Indeed, they were in a very strict sense the same people, because they were Yankess, Pennsylvanians, Ohoons the other man is of course everywhere—he is here somewhere. [Cheers, I Hoosier is pretty, near everywhere], the Wisconsin man, all the same people. So everywhere a traveler from any of our states makes himself known the hands of his neighbors are held up to him.

Now, out of this comes the love of one flag. And am glad to-say to you that we have not paused at any little station, even on the great desert of Arizona, when a score or two hand gathered from distant ranches who paid us welcome, that the American flag was not in the hands of some one waiting to receive us, and with an American cheer for the night and ionesomeness of the great plain, we pulled up for a few moments at a little pulled up for a few moments at a little station where a balf dozen men were gathered at the rear of the train. Upon the lapel of the cont of one or two I saw the Grand Army button, and one contrade said:

"Well, boys, there are only a few of us, but let us give a cheer for the old flag," (Cheers, I I thank you most cordially for your gathering here this morning, and wish for you and this great state of yours great prosperity, because, though I expect it is one of the preludlees of early education, I cannot help but feel that the states that raise corn are the best states in the union. I have two young secretaries traveling with me, one a secretary of agriculture, but neither of them is out of bed yet.

At the close of his speech hundreds of process struggied to get a chance to shake hands sons struggled to get a chance to shake hands with the president; a few babies were hand-ed up to be kissed, old comrades clustered around to do honor to the chief magistrate of the nation they fought for, the Hastings col-lege boys made themselves hourse in giving their college yell, and at 6:40, after a stop of twenty-eight minutes, the train pulled out of the depot. After the train was well started a colored man clambered up to the imminent risk of his neck to have a parting hand shake with the president. The grand army veter-ans marshalled their forces in splendid style and not a single accident is reported as the result of the jam.
