ATCHISON ROAD RETALIATES. It Accuses the Rock Island of Manipulating Rates. Chicago, May 13. - The Atchison road, which was recently charged by the Rock Island with reducing passenger rates through the medium of brokers, has retaliated by filing a complaint with Chairman Finley of the Western Passenger association accusing the Rock Island of systematically cutting the rate from Chicago to by the manipulation of through tickets to the Pacific coast. It is claimed that an agent of the Atchison purchased a ticket of the Rock Island issued from Chicago to the Pacific coast at a gross rate of $48 with a rebate check on a Denver scalper for $23, thereby making the rate from Chicago to Denver $15 net as against the tariff rate of $30.65. The Atchison people assert that this sort of manipulation has been going on for several months and that the Rock Island agent arrangen in the broker's office for checking the passenger's baggage to Denver in violation of the conditions which are on all limited or second-class tickets—the baggage shall be checked to destination of the ticket. Chairman Finley wall fix an early date for Chairman Finley will fix an early date for the hearing of this case and will endeavor to find out on whose shoulders rests the responsibility for this alleged manipulation of rates.

Positive denist is made by the officials of the Michigan Central Dat they are accepting Chicago & West Michigan tickets reading over the Chicago & Alton. The reports to that effect which have been put into circulation have been entirely without foundation. The Chicago & West Michigan is friendly to the Alton and would not hesitate to transfer the latter's tickets if it could get into Chicago with them, but it can only send passenger to ver the Alton by providing them with alread passenger ticket over the Michigan (*) part of the line. The conductors on and Michigan Central have positive instructions to refuse all tickets reading over the Alton, A POSITIVE DENIAL. Michigan Central have positive instructions to refuse all tickets reading over the Alton, and any conductor disobeying these orders is made to pay full fare on every Alton coupon accepted. Atchison company put into service on its lines between Chicago and St. Louis two Pullman compartment sleeping cars, said to be the handsomest and most complete palace cars yet invented. The fittings of the coaches include the Pintch gas system.

LACKS VERIFICATION.

Rumor that the Itata Has Been Sunk by the Charleston.

CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), May 13-The Angle-American Newspaper publishes rumors of the sinking of the Itata by the United States cruiser Charleston, but gives neither time nor place. The authorities here say they have no information whatever concerning the matter.

The government has given strict orders to port authorities on the Pacific coast to report the appearance of any Chilian or other war ships. It will be difficult to get news, as the government wires have to be relied on altogovernment wires have to be relied on alto-gether. The general opinion here is that the Itata and her convoys will double upon the Charleston. The government has ordered the gunboat Democrata to keep a sharp look-out for the vessels.

It is rumored here that a private telegram has been received appropriate that a figure has been received announcing that a fishing schooner yesterday saw two vessels out at sea off the coast at full speed. One of them was sighted at 1 a, m. and the other at 2 p. m., but they were so far away that the fishermen were not able to distinguish them. This report, however, cannot be traced to a reliable source.

Statement of Italian Consul Corte of New Orleans.

New ORLEANS, La., May 13 .- In an interview with a reporter today Senor Corte said relative to his alleged recall as the consular agent of the Italian government at New Orleans: "I am about the only accredited Italian who is able to officially testify in person at Rome relating to the unfortunate affair and the numberless complications which have originated therefrom, My chief desires my presence, He has summoned me and I am about to obey. Why should I be recalled? Because I have expressed my opinion as an Italian upon the barbarity of the acts complained of! God forbid that as a gentleman and a free agent in a free country, and, officially, the representative of one of the European powers, I should be taken to task for having the courage to express an opinion upon matters vital to the dearest sentiments of my countrymen.

Do your people expect it, as I think your mayor and grand jury men do!"
Mr. Corte was sliewing his feelings to overmaster him, but he checked himself and continued in a more compose! manner "Pardon me, I have spoken too animatedly, I have just now alluded to the mayor and grand jury. Let me tell you that I have saved Mayor Shakespearers life, and I have Wickinf and other leaders, I tell you this confidentially. Do not use the information ustil I have left for italy. But oah, let it go. You may say it today. The day after the killing there was a determined and almost siling there was a determined and almost uncontrollable determination among certain of my countrymen to kill the mayor and all those who had a hand in the butchery. But I restrained them. I controlled the fearless men. I told them to beware. I said that if any harm beful those gentlemen I would immediately and unreservedly denounces the perpetrators of the deed. Thus firm stand cheried them and I servedly denounce the perpetrators of the deed. This firm stand checked them and I succeeded in holding them with a promise that I would do everything in my power to that I would do everything in my power to obtain justice, redress and satisfaction in the proper and legitimate manner."

Mr. Corte, speaking of the return of his letter by the grand jury, said: "I am not surprised at their action. Could I expect anything more from a grand jury whose chairman, as president of the cotton exchange, endorsed the killing! I will not answer their letter. It is ingt I will not answer their letter. It is perfectly useless to say or to do anything more about this matter." Relative to his near departure for Italy, Mr. Corte said that he could not leave till he had heard from Signor Poma. The latter, who is in Boston, has been telegraphed to in order to let Mr. Corte know when he would be in New Orleans. If the answer

The War Portfolio.

Washington, May 13.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-It is now definitely settled that Secretary of War Proctor will resign in July, and it is equally certain that the vacant portfolio will be tendered General Alger unless he intimates beforehand that he will not accept it. Just what General Alger will do is a matter of much doubt. If he accepts it, the step will be equivalent to renouncing all the step will be equivalent to renouncing all ambitions for the presidential nomination in 1892. On the other hand, General Alger's friends realize that if he makes a losing fight for the nomination next year he will be done for all time. If he accepts the cabinet position it will be taking one step nearer the goal of his ambition with the prize deferred four years longer. It is believed that General Alger will soon have this serious problem presented for his consideration, and will want some adroit statesman like Colonel Quay or General Clarkson to tell him just what had best be done.

Our resident buyer who lives in New York, and who does nothing but buy goods for us, has recently closed out several big lots of Men's Suits. They are suits which manufacturers (who are already at work on goods for next fall) are anxious to close out. They didn't want the goods and did want the room. The suits are first class in every way, made by the leading concerns in the country, are cut, lined, made and trimmed in superb style. They come in an almost endless variety of styles, ten of one style, twenty-five of another, fifty or a hundred of another. Not a suit but what is worth fifteen dollars, and many should sell for eighteen. They were bought cheap, bought to sell, not to keep. "You know our way."
