Loantaka soon gave up, and Tenny showed in front closely pressed by Judge Morrow, who had been in the rut for a mile, with Burlington, Eon, Prince Royal and Tea Tray. Horses and jockeys both seemed to think that the crisis had arrived, and all gathered themselves together for a final effort.

Amid the flash of red and blue and gold and yellow could be seen the gloaming black face of Pikey Barnes. It was a picture in ebony set in gaudy colors. The little jockey was riding as he never rode before. He seemed to lift himself above his horse and try to to lift hir self above his horse and try to push the great swayback along a little faster. Down the stretch they are coming now. The foaming nostrils, the flashing eyes of the horses could be seen. Teany, Tea Tray, Prince Royal and Judge Morrow were all in a bunch and the spectators held their breath. Then 30,000 voices mingled in one long shout. Barnes realized that the critical moment had

When Barnes Took the Whip.

Three-sixteenths from the finish Barnes went to the whip and for the fraction of a second the favorite faitered. The cry, and a despairing cry it was, went up "Tenny is beaten." It did look like it, but the game little swavback responded nobly and with heaving sides and distended nostrils he came on like a piece of perfect mechanism, rapidly devouring ground at every stride. The race was not yet his, however, for Garrison was whipping like a demon on Prince Royal, fairly lifting him over the ground, and Tea Tray was rapidly moving up from the rear.

The excitement was intense. Hats, bonnets, handkerchiefs, umbrelias and parasols were thrown into the air and cries of "Tenny, Tenny," "Prince Royal wins," "Come on, Tea Tray," were heard on all

It was a grand struggle, but Tenny held his antagonists safe, and bounding like an India rubber ball passed the finish two good lengths in front of Prince Royal, who beat Tea Tray a short head for second money. A grin of delight sprcad over the face to Seventh.

Sr. PALL, Minn., May 15 .- [Special Telegram to Tus Bee |- The St. Paul team dropped into last place with a dull thud this afternoon, and Omaha got a good firm grip on first place. The game wasn't a pretty one, and in the early innings the visitors seemed to be trying to give it to the Apostles. Their late work, however, indicated that they were merely playing with the pigmies, with the intention of humiliating them later on.

When the local men had played their half of the eighth mning the score was 14 to 12 in their favor, and it looked quite favorable for a victory. In the last half of the inning, however, the vision of triumph speedily van-ished, and the Nebraskans made eight runs without raising a perspiration. Donnelly led off with a terrific drive over Goodenough's head at center for two bags McCauley flew out, but O Brien muffer Traffley's grounder thrown from short field, and Donnelly scored. Shannon hit for a Halligan took a base on balls. iffe and Twitchell followed with singles. Griffin put in a three-bagger and Walsh a single, the latter stealing second. Donnelly received a base for waiting, and McCauley' to center scored the eighth man. The fielding feature was a one-hand catch of a line ify by O'Erien. "Dad Clarke" was nit very hard in the early innings and Fwitcheli took his place in the fourth, utcliffe going to left field and Traffley beind the bat.

The sgeneral fielding of the visitors was rery "veilow." The Apostles made less prors, but they were more costly. Manager Watkins doesn't know whether to stengthe ip, disband or sell his franchise to Duluth. He is handicapped by the lack of money, and his daily receipts at the gate do not average 850. With men on bases Genius and Earle and olumbus others made corking hits which ought to have been productive, but they went straight into a Farmer's paws. Genins smached a ball that ought to have been good for three bases, but it struck second bag and staid there like a bandful of mush. However, uck doesn't count. The Farmers made three of their runs in the second inning. Tomney got his base or balls, Stafford hit for three bags, and scored Comney, Rogers went out at first. O'Day nit safe and scored Stafford. Cline flew out o Swartwood. Raymond got a base on balls. So did Jack Rowe. So did Burkett, crowding in O'Day. Then Dave Rowe flew out to Swartwoed. The other run was made by Lincoln in the sixth inning. After Tomney struck out Stafford got a base on balls, fouled out, but O'Day hit safe and Rogers Stafford. Then Raymond died at first after Cline had got his life oy Poorman's error. Thus the Farmers had a lead of one at the end of the sixth inning. The Corn Huskers made desperate efforts in the remaining three innings to retrieve their fortunes, but O'Day became more effective in the box as he game advanced, and the Lincolnites wased committing so numerous errors. It was useless. After dropping three games to Omaha, to-day leaves a record of two straight games

Suing for Millions.

CHICAGO, May 15 .- Four or five million dollars worth of land on the lake shore between Fourteeath and Fifteenth street is involved in litigation in the supreme court today. Emily Herrington of Geneva, Ill., is the complainant, and the Illinois Central road is the corporation with which an action is sought. Mrs. Herrington is the wife of Augustus M. Herrington, a capitalist and at one time general solicitor of the Northwestern railroad company. His father originally en tered the quarter section of which the land is a part, and Justice Herrington took the title from him. In 1850 he deeded the land to the Itinois Central, but through some oversight Mr. Herrington neglected to join in the trans-for. She claims, therefore, that she never released her dower, and is suing for her wid-ow's interest an ' rentals since 1856. She says the rental value is $500,000 per anuum.

Some nine athletic attorneys and an equal number of nimble court bailiffs will settle a dispute of some time's standing at McCormick park this afternoon according to the rules of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs. In passing it may be said that these teams contain some most excellent talent, physically and mentally, and a grea deal of light will be thrown on dark points of the great national game. Whatever money is collected at the gate will be turned over intact to the Open Door. You can well invest a quarter in this. The return will be ample.

COMBINE AGAINST FRICK.

Rival Coke Operators Will Assist the

Strikers. PITTSBURG, Pa., May 15.-There is loubt that independent operators have formed some sort of a combination to support the strikers so that the mammoth Frick works will not be able to undersell them. Operator Hogsett plainly stated today that ie would discharge any man who refused to contribute to the strikers' fund. The formid able W. J. Rainey non-union works have been thrown open to collectors for the strikers' fund for the first time in years. This is a sort of revenge Rainey desires in years of the many contracts he bet to be view of the many contracts he lost to Frick while he had trouble with his men

WINNIPEG, Man., May 15 .- Clifford Sifton member of the legislature for North Brandon, has been chosen attorney general of Mantoba, to succeed Hon. Joseph Martin, who resigned.

Hall took the witness and asked him if he had ever volunteered any information of any kind to the prosecution to which he replied : "No, sir. I didn't wish to be a witness."

"No, sir, I didn't wish to be a witness." "When first approached by Malone did you tell him anything about carrying notes?" "No, sir, I didn't." tell Malone anything about carrying notes and catables back and forth from Mrs, Sheedy. I didn't propose to tell anything he didn't ask me about. I carried a ring pouch didn't ask me about. I carried a ring pouch from Mrs. Sheedy to Walstrom." Stearns then made some sarcastic remark about Detective Malone, whereupon Lambertson retorted: "If Jim Malone should happen to die I don't know what you fellows would have to kick about. The witness was then excused and court having prepared a draft of the constitution for the proposed federation, which will be submitted to the people of the colonies for their approval. As soon as these colonies have accepted the constitution as it stands, for they cannot amend it, the bill will be sent to England for the assent of the imperial parliament, and, if satisfactory, the queen by proclamation may appoint a day when the Commonwealth of Australia is to be established and will appoint a governor general. On his arrival the constitutional process of forming a ministry will be gone through and a parliament be elected. The powers of the parliament as to the making of laws include the regulation of coinage, trade and commerce, and are in gen-eral the same as the senate and congress under the constitution of the United States.

Appropriation or taxation bills must be sent down by message from the governor. The governor general is to assent to all measures and have the power of reserving any bill for the queen's approval, and the queen may disallow within two years afte, its receipt.

executive power of the common The wealth is vested in the queen and exercised by the governor general as the queen's representative. The governor is to be advised by an executive council consisting of a ministry. The ministers are to be members of the folderate executive council and the queen's ministers of state for the commonwealth. They may sit in either house of parliament.

The supreme court is to consist of a chief justice and not less than four other justices to be appointed by garliament and hold office during good behavior.

As soon as uniform tariff has been imposed inter-colonial free trade is to prevail between all the colonies. The states are to retain the powers which they at present possess with the exception of 10550 expressly delegated to the federal parliamint.

Sensation in Cotton Circles.

NEW YORK, May 10 -Rumors of forgeries and defalcation have been current in the cotton market for some time, but too vague and indefinite to notice. Today it leaked out. The closing time of a loan disclosed a numper of forged receipts drawn by Medad W. Stone in his own name for cotton supposed to be stored in the cotton warehouse of the American dock and trust company on Staten Island. Stone was president of the American dock and trust company and is said to have forged a large number of certificates besides those which were brought to light today and said to have borrowed large sums on them from banks in this and other eastern cities. He died a few weeks ago and was supposed to be very wealthy. At present the total amount of certificates outstanding cannot be ascertained, but is believed to be very large.

Charities and Corrections.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 15 .- At this morn ing's session the charity conference listened to a paper on the "Care and Treatment of the Insane," by A. R. Moulton of Boston. Dr. Dowey, superintendent of the Illinois insane cratic convention nominated ex-Congress man John Young Brown of Henderson for governor. Under a rule adopted at the opening of the balloting last night the name of Dr. Clardy, the farmers' alliance candidate having the largest number of votes, was withdrawn on the eleventh ballot. T. C. Alfred of Lexington was nominated for lieu tenant governor.
