

THE DAILY BEE

E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee without Sunday One Year, $5.00...

OFFICE: Omaha, The Bee Building, South Omaha, Corner N and 26th Streets.

CORRESPONDENCE. All communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to the Editor.

BUSINESS LETTERS. All business letters and remittances should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company.

The Bee Publishing Company, Proprietors THE BEE BUILDING.

SWORN STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION State of Nebraska, 1891.

George H. Teschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the week ending May 16, 1891, was as follows:

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 16th day of May, A. D. 1891.

Notary Public.

State of Nebraska, 1891.

George H. Teschuck, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, and that the actual average daily circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the month of June, 1890, was 25,140 copies...

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 20th day of May, A. D. 1891.

Notary Public.

THE Shoddy trial continues sensational; it is likewise expensive.

WITH bright prospects for crops, reciprocity and good prices, the calamity wailers of Cincinnati are really in hard luck to explain why they exist.

THE heavy rain in South Dakota and the fine prospects for crops in Nebraska and Kansas are the hardest strokes which have been struck at the third party movement.

THE democrats are hard up for an issue when they seek to make one out of the alleged refusal of the president to shake hands with a black woman named Mary Jones, at Portland, Ore.

High life in the effects east has made Peffer and Simpson conservative, but the 800 jayhawkers who have not tasted its sweets are radical as ever.

THE Kansas City Times says: "Monuments are yet un-built whose enduring marble is to carry down the story that America honors her great dead."

THE geography of other days is valuable now, as is shown by the authentic statement of General Osborn of Argentina Republic, who says Patagonia is one of the richest of South American countries.

THE Shoddy trial affords another striking example of the utter worthlessness of expert medical testimony.

A FINER appearing body of men than the State Business Men's association in session in this city is seldom if ever seen.

ACCORDING to the statements made by the state relief commission there has been a great deal of the worst phase of human nature presented to that organization by shameless individuals who pretended to be suffering, but whom investigations proved to be above want.

IN THE opinion of one of the leading bankers of Berlin, Russia cannot think of war for at least three years.

IT BEGINS to look as if Governor Hill of New York will seek a third nomination and if he makes up his mind to do

ROUGH ON THE COLONELS.

Iowa is about to enter upon an acrimonious temperance campaign. A movement is well under way for the repeal of the prohibitory law in that state, and the next five months promise to be incessantly hot and interesting on both sides.

THE New York Voice, an able but wholly conscientious sheet, proposes to manage the campaign from its New York office. It insists upon taking charge of the fight in all its details and is now obtaining lists of voters who are to be furnished with copies of the newspaper.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

THE long haired man and the short haired woman who made the walk in from Keya Paha to Oketo in Nebraska during the late memorable campaign will probably resent this slight upon their presence and powers as an assault upon their pocket books.

PRESENT ADMINISTRATION CAN DO SOMETHING TOWARD IT BY ENCOURAGING THE CONSTRUCTION OF STEAMSHIP LINES UNDER THE LAW OF THE LAST CONGRESS PROVIDING FOR POSTAL SUBSIDY, AND IT IS PROBABLE THAT BEFORE ITS TERM EXPIRES IT WILL HAVE ENTERED INTO ARRANGEMENTS WHICH WILL INSURE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NUMBER OF NEW STEAMSHIP LINES AND THE ENLARGEMENT OF EXISTING LINES.

President Harrison has firmly settled views regarding the currency, and the country may depend upon him to put a check upon any and all schemes which might depreciate the value of any part of the currency and thereby damage all values.

IT is less than six weeks until July 1. The warehouse bill becomes a law on that date. There is a vast amount of work to be performed before July 1, and the board of trade and grain men must get together soon if they are to lead the warehouse procession in Nebraska.

BY the time the Douglas street hog-back is removed, the St. Mary's avenue hole is filled, the union depot is completed, the million dollar hotel is opened and the new postoffice is ready for business, Omaha will have 250,000 people at least.

THE interstate commerce commissioners can learn a good deal about practical railway politics from John M. Thurston in a trip from Fargo, N. D. to the coast, if they will induce him to convey to them the information he possesses.

OMAHA talk continues cheap, but talk will not create a great grain and provision market, or enlarge our trade and manufactures.

ALL the world will applaud the gallant though futile defense of ex-Queen Natalie by the students of Belgrade.

KICKING FOR RECOGNITION. St. Louis Republic. The fact that St. Louis is the greatest mule market in the country—probably in the world—is something calculated to make the blood run not in all the commercial veins and arteries of every citizen's anatomy.

NO FEAT TO GET A DIVORCE. St. Louis Republic. In Dakota they grant a divorce if the plaintiff proves a case of cold feet against the defendant. The commonwealth is a real paradise for those who wish to throw off the old law in order that they may make the second venture.

MOST HAVE HAD 'EM. We came across a snake a few days ago that surpassed anything in the snake line we have ever seen. The reptile was no larger than a led pencil, and it was about one or two feet long, and its head was about the size and shape of a pea saucer.

GOOD ABANDONED. Philadelphia Ledger. The trip has been highly successful in every way. The president has seen a large part of the country of which he is the executive, and the people of a score of states have, for the first time, seen a president while he was in office.

REACTION FOR BOYD. It is more than doubtful whether the republicans of Nebraska will gain anything by the hasty and partisan action of the supreme court of the state in ousting Boyd from the office of governor and reinstating Thayer as a hold-over.

THERE may be some truth in the complaint of Sidwalk Inspector Birmingham as regards his treatment by the board of public works. But the taxpayers will prefer to side with the board rather than the inspector for manifest reasons.

NEW YORK Herald: "You kissed him and I saw you." She (tearful)—I know it, John, dear. But there's no harm in that. He knows I am engaged to you and that it can mean nothing. You are so unreasonable.

NEW YORK Herald: "When I see all these Italians coming into this country," said Wilkins, "I am impressed with one thing." "What is that, as you say, Wilkins?" "That Italy must be getting to be quite a desirable place to live in."

INDIANAPOLIS Journal: "Will you love me as long as you live?" "Will you love me as long as you live?" "I will love you as long as you live." "That's enough, don't you think?"

Punch: Paalster—Would you believe it! This is the picture they've thought proper to select. I'll be so bold as to say there are not twenty better in the whole exhibition! "Friend—Dear me, I—such a poor academy as that!"

NEW YORK Herald: Brobnon—I fall to see how it is possible for you to have rocked the cradle of a man as old as Filkins. "It was not I, as you say, Brobnon, who was over thirty before he had to buy one."

PARDONED BY THE GOVERNOR.

David Rogers Will Not Serve a Term in the Penitentiary. Nebraska's Executive Addresses a Ploated but Polite Letter to His Excellency of Wyoming Regarding the Affair.

Lincoln, Neb., May 19.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Governor Thayer this morning pardoned David Rogers of Pawnee county, who had been sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for shooting Rosa Moore in the arm, and the affair made a rather exciting scene.

BY the time the Douglas street hog-back is removed, the St. Mary's avenue hole is filled, the union depot is completed, the million dollar hotel is opened and the new postoffice is ready for business, Omaha will have 250,000 people at least.

THE interstate commerce commissioners can learn a good deal about practical railway politics from John M. Thurston in a trip from Fargo, N. D. to the coast, if they will induce him to convey to them the information he possesses.

OMAHA talk continues cheap, but talk will not create a great grain and provision market, or enlarge our trade and manufactures.

ALL the world will applaud the gallant though futile defense of ex-Queen Natalie by the students of Belgrade.

KICKING FOR RECOGNITION. St. Louis Republic. The fact that St. Louis is the greatest mule market in the country—probably in the world—is something calculated to make the blood run not in all the commercial veins and arteries of every citizen's anatomy.

NO FEAT TO GET A DIVORCE. St. Louis Republic. In Dakota they grant a divorce if the plaintiff proves a case of cold feet against the defendant. The commonwealth is a real paradise for those who wish to throw off the old law in order that they may make the second venture.

MOST HAVE HAD 'EM. We came across a snake a few days ago that surpassed anything in the snake line we have ever seen. The reptile was no larger than a led pencil, and it was about one or two feet long, and its head was about the size and shape of a pea saucer.

GOOD ABANDONED. Philadelphia Ledger. The trip has been highly successful in every way. The president has seen a large part of the country of which he is the executive, and the people of a score of states have, for the first time, seen a president while he was in office.

REACTION FOR BOYD. It is more than doubtful whether the republicans of Nebraska will gain anything by the hasty and partisan action of the supreme court of the state in ousting Boyd from the office of governor and reinstating Thayer as a hold-over.

THERE may be some truth in the complaint of Sidwalk Inspector Birmingham as regards his treatment by the board of public works. But the taxpayers will prefer to side with the board rather than the inspector for manifest reasons.

NEW YORK Herald: "You kissed him and I saw you." She (tearful)—I know it, John, dear. But there's no harm in that. He knows I am engaged to you and that it can mean nothing. You are so unreasonable.

NEW YORK Herald: "When I see all these Italians coming into this country," said Wilkins, "I am impressed with one thing." "What is that, as you say, Wilkins?" "That Italy must be getting to be quite a desirable place to live in."

INDIANAPOLIS Journal: "Will you love me as long as you live?" "Will you love me as long as you live?" "I will love you as long as you live." "That's enough, don't you think?"

Punch: Paalster—Would you believe it! This is the picture they've thought proper to select. I'll be so bold as to say there are not twenty better in the whole exhibition! "Friend—Dear me, I—such a poor academy as that!"

NEW YORK Herald: Brobnon—I fall to see how it is possible for you to have rocked the cradle of a man as old as Filkins. "It was not I, as you say, Brobnon, who was over thirty before he had to buy one."

PARDONED BY THE GOVERNOR.

David Rogers Will Not Serve a Term in the Penitentiary. Nebraska's Executive Addresses a Ploated but Polite Letter to His Excellency of Wyoming Regarding the Affair.

Lincoln, Neb., May 19.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Governor Thayer this morning pardoned David Rogers of Pawnee county, who had been sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for shooting Rosa Moore in the arm, and the affair made a rather exciting scene.

BY the time the Douglas street hog-back is removed, the St. Mary's avenue hole is filled, the union depot is completed, the million dollar hotel is opened and the new postoffice is ready for business, Omaha will have 250,000 people at least.

THE interstate commerce commissioners can learn a good deal about practical railway politics from John M. Thurston in a trip from Fargo, N. D. to the coast, if they will induce him to convey to them the information he possesses.

OMAHA talk continues cheap, but talk will not create a great grain and provision market, or enlarge our trade and manufactures.

ALL the world will applaud the gallant though futile defense of ex-Queen Natalie by the students of Belgrade.

KICKING FOR RECOGNITION. St. Louis Republic. The fact that St. Louis is the greatest mule market in the country—probably in the world—is something calculated to make the blood run not in all the commercial veins and arteries of every citizen's anatomy.

NO FEAT TO GET A DIVORCE. St. Louis Republic. In Dakota they grant a divorce if the plaintiff proves a case of cold feet against the defendant. The commonwealth is a real paradise for those who wish to throw off the old law in order that they may make the second venture.

MOST HAVE HAD 'EM. We came across a snake a few days ago that surpassed anything in the snake line we have ever seen. The reptile was no larger than a led pencil, and it was about one or two feet long, and its head was about the size and shape of a pea saucer.

GOOD ABANDONED. Philadelphia Ledger. The trip has been highly successful in every way. The president has seen a large part of the country of which he is the executive, and the people of a score of states have, for the first time, seen a president while he was in office.

REACTION FOR BOYD. It is more than doubtful whether the republicans of Nebraska will gain anything by the hasty and partisan action of the supreme court of the state in ousting Boyd from the office of governor and reinstating Thayer as a hold-over.

THERE may be some truth in the complaint of Sidwalk Inspector Birmingham as regards his treatment by the board of public works. But the taxpayers will prefer to side with the board rather than the inspector for manifest reasons.

NEW YORK Herald: "You kissed him and I saw you." She (tearful)—I know it, John, dear. But there's no harm in that. He knows I am engaged to you and that it can mean nothing. You are so unreasonable.

NEW YORK Herald: "When I see all these Italians coming into this country," said Wilkins, "I am impressed with one thing." "What is that, as you say, Wilkins?" "That Italy must be getting to be quite a desirable place to live in."

INDIANAPOLIS Journal: "Will you love me as long as you live?" "Will you love me as long as you live?" "I will love you as long as you live." "That's enough, don't you think?"

Punch: Paalster—Would you believe it! This is the picture they've thought proper to select. I'll be so bold as to say there are not twenty better in the whole exhibition! "Friend—Dear me, I—such a poor academy as that!"

NEW YORK Herald: Brobnon—I fall to see how it is possible for you to have rocked the cradle of a man as old as Filkins. "It was not I, as you say, Brobnon, who was over thirty before he had to buy one."

PARDONED BY THE GOVERNOR.

David Rogers Will Not Serve a Term in the Penitentiary. Nebraska's Executive Addresses a Ploated but Polite Letter to His Excellency of Wyoming Regarding the Affair.

Lincoln, Neb., May 19.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Governor Thayer this morning pardoned David Rogers of Pawnee county, who had been sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for shooting Rosa Moore in the arm, and the affair made a rather exciting scene.

BY the time the Douglas street hog-back is removed, the St. Mary's avenue hole is filled, the union depot is completed, the million dollar hotel is opened and the new postoffice is ready for business, Omaha will have 250,000 people at least.

THE interstate commerce commissioners can learn a good deal about practical railway politics from John M. Thurston in a trip from Fargo, N. D. to the coast, if they will induce him to convey to them the information he possesses.

OMAHA talk continues cheap, but talk will not create a great grain and provision market, or enlarge our trade and manufactures.

ALL the world will applaud the gallant though futile defense of ex-Queen Natalie by the students of Belgrade.

KICKING FOR RECOGNITION. St. Louis Republic. The fact that St. Louis is the greatest mule market in the country—probably in the world—is something calculated to make the blood run not in all the commercial veins and arteries of every citizen's anatomy.

NO FEAT TO GET A DIVORCE. St. Louis Republic. In Dakota they grant a divorce if the plaintiff proves a case of cold feet against the defendant. The commonwealth is a real paradise for those who wish to throw off the old law in order that they may make the second venture.

MOST HAVE HAD 'EM. We came across a snake a few days ago that surpassed anything in the snake line we have ever seen. The reptile was no larger than a led pencil, and it was about one or two feet long, and its head was about the size and shape of a pea saucer.

GOOD ABANDONED. Philadelphia Ledger. The trip has been highly successful in every way. The president has seen a large part of the country of which he is the executive, and the people of a score of states have, for the first time, seen a president while he was in office.

REACTION FOR BOYD. It is more than doubtful whether the republicans of Nebraska will gain anything by the hasty and partisan action of the supreme court of the state in ousting Boyd from the office of governor and reinstating Thayer as a hold-over.

THERE may be some truth in the complaint of Sidwalk Inspector Birmingham as regards his treatment by the board of public works. But the taxpayers will prefer to side with the board rather than the inspector for manifest reasons.

NEW YORK Herald: "You kissed him and I saw you." She (tearful)—I know it, John, dear. But there's no harm in that. He knows I am engaged to you and that it can mean nothing. You are so unreasonable.

NEW YORK Herald: "When I see all these Italians coming into this country," said Wilkins, "I am impressed with one thing." "What is that, as you say, Wilkins?" "That Italy must be getting to be quite a desirable place to live in."

INDIANAPOLIS Journal: "Will you love me as long as you live?" "Will you love me as long as you live?" "I will love you as long as you live." "That's enough, don't you think?"

Punch: Paalster—Would you believe it! This is the picture they've thought proper to select. I'll be so bold as to say there are not twenty better in the whole exhibition! "Friend—Dear me, I—such a poor academy as that!"

NEW YORK Herald: Brobnon—I fall to see how it is possible for you to have rocked the cradle of a man as old as Filkins. "It was not I, as you say, Brobnon, who was over thirty before he had to buy one."

PARDONED BY THE GOVERNOR.

David Rogers Will Not Serve a Term in the Penitentiary. Nebraska's Executive Addresses a Ploated but Polite Letter to His Excellency of Wyoming Regarding the Affair.

Lincoln, Neb., May 19.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Governor Thayer this morning pardoned David Rogers of Pawnee county, who had been sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for shooting Rosa Moore in the arm, and the affair made a rather exciting scene.

BY the time the Douglas street hog-back is removed, the St. Mary's avenue hole is filled, the union depot is completed, the million dollar hotel is opened and the new postoffice is ready for business, Omaha will have 250,000 people at least.

THE interstate commerce commissioners can learn a good deal about practical railway politics from John M. Thurston in a trip from Fargo, N. D. to the coast, if they will induce him to convey to them the information he possesses.

OMAHA talk continues cheap, but talk will not create a great grain and provision market, or enlarge our trade and manufactures.

ALL the world will applaud the gallant though futile defense of ex-Queen Natalie by the students of Belgrade.

KICKING FOR RECOGNITION. St. Louis Republic. The fact that St. Louis is the greatest mule market in the country—probably in the world—is something calculated to make the blood run not in all the commercial veins and arteries of every citizen's anatomy.

NO FEAT TO GET A DIVORCE. St. Louis Republic. In Dakota they grant a divorce if the plaintiff proves a case of cold feet against the defendant. The commonwealth is a real paradise for those who wish to throw off the old law in order that they may make the second venture.

MOST HAVE HAD 'EM. We came across a snake a few days ago that surpassed anything in the snake line we have ever seen. The reptile was no larger than a led pencil, and it was about one or two feet long, and its head was about the size and shape of a pea saucer.

GOOD ABANDONED. Philadelphia Ledger. The trip has been highly successful in every way. The president has seen a large part of the country of which he is the executive, and the people of a score of states have, for the first time, seen a president while he was in office.

REACTION FOR BOYD. It is more than doubtful whether the republicans of Nebraska will gain anything by the hasty and partisan action of the supreme court of the state in ousting Boyd from the office of governor and reinstating Thayer as a hold-over.

THERE may be some truth in the complaint of Sidwalk Inspector Birmingham as regards his treatment by the board of public works. But the taxpayers will prefer to side with the board rather than the inspector for manifest reasons.

NEW YORK Herald: "You kissed him and I saw you." She (tearful)—I know it, John, dear. But there's no harm in that. He knows I am engaged to you and that it can mean nothing. You are so unreasonable.

NEW YORK Herald: "When I see all these Italians coming into this country," said Wilkins, "I am impressed with one thing." "What is that, as you say, Wilkins?" "That Italy must be getting to be quite a desirable place to live in."

INDIANAPOLIS Journal: "Will you love me as long as you live?" "Will you love me as long as you live?" "I will love you as long as you live." "That's enough, don't you think?"

Punch: Paalster—Would you believe it! This is the picture they've thought proper to select. I'll be so bold as to say there are not twenty better in the whole exhibition! "Friend—Dear me, I—such a poor academy as that!"

NEW YORK Herald: Brobnon—I fall to see how it is possible for you to have rocked the cradle of a man as old as Filkins. "It was not I, as you say, Brobnon, who was over thirty before he had to buy one."

THE man or woman who lives 100 miles from Muncie, as Sidney Smith declared that he lived 120 miles from a woman, will hardly be tempted by what we have to say regarding some new and beautiful pianos just received from the well known makers, C. C. Briggs & Co. of Boston.

But scarcely any other person can escape the temptation to call at our warerooms and see the latest product of American art and artissanship in the form of an 1891 Piano.

THESE BRIGGS instruments are equipped with the Patented Soft Stop, which makes practising possible at any time or in any place, without disturbing one's neighbors, or making the whole house musical.

In other respects they are finished instruments of the finest quality. They have that wonderful and rare tone which makes them notable as the best accompaniment to the human voice.

We shall be pleased to exhibit these choice Pianos to anyone whose business or curiosity may prompt him to call at our warerooms. Visitors and purchasers are equally welcome.

C. C. BRIGGS & CO., Office, Factory and Warerooms in Boston, Mass.

MAX MEYER & BRO. CO. AGENTS, BRIGGS PIANOS, 1530 to 1524 1/2 Street, 215 to 223 South 16th Street, Omaha, Neb.

LIEBIG COMPANY'S EXTRACT OF BEEF "IN DARKEST AFRICA," By Henry M. Stanley.

EDUCATIONAL KENILWORTH HALL Mrs. Babcock's Kenilworth Hall, a boarding and day school for girls, will open September 20, 1891, in Kenilworth, Ill., 7 miles north of Chicago on Lake Shore. New and thoroughly equipped buildings erected especially for the school, but three minutes walk from the city station. Superior advantages and beautiful location. For circulars address Mrs. MARY KEENE BABCOCK, Kenilworth, Ill.

MASTERS and MEN A ROMANCE OF OUR TIMES. By RUGENR J. HALL. 1 Vol. Paper Cover, 96 pages illustrations, $6. 1 Vol. Cloth Cover, 104 pages illustrations, $10. A strong story of the rights and wrongs of labor, with a charming love story, interesting and picturesque characterizations, the abundant humor and the author's combination to make it one of the best novels of the year.

CHARLES H. SERGEL & CO., 348-350 Dearborn Street, Chicago. HARPER'S MAGAZINE JUNE, 1891. Peter Ibbotson.

Up the River Paraná. By Theodore Child. Illustrations and map of the basin of the Paraná, of Mr. Child's series of papers on South America. Town and Village Government. By Henry Louis Nelson. Shows the practical advantages of placing the local affairs of each community entirely under the control of a popular primary assembly or town meeting.

Some American Riders. By Colonel Theodore Ayrault Dodge, U. S. A. Second paper. Illustrated from paintings by Frederic Remington. The Warwickshire Avon. By A. T. Quiller Couch. Second paper. 31 illustrations drawn by Alfred Parsons. The Technique of Rest. By Anna C. Brackett. A practical paper of special interest and value to busy workers who feel that the amount of nervous force at their disposal is in danger of being overtaxed.

The Royal Chateau of the Loire. By Louis Frechette. With illustrations. The Failure of David Barry. A story. By Sarah Orne Jewett. London—After the Romans. By Walter Besant. The story of the fall of Augustus, or Roman London. An ingenious and satisfactory solution of a question upon which history has shed but little light.

In the "Stranger People's" Country. A story. By Charles Egbert Craddock. Part sixth. Illustrated by W. T. Smedley. Wessex Folk. By Thomas Hardy. Part fourth. Illustrated by Charles Green. Poems. By Will Carleton, Louis C. Moulton, Elizabeth Stoddard, and George Horton. The Editorial Departments. Conducted as usual, by George William Curtis, William Dean Howells, and Charles Dudley Warner.

Published by Harper & Brothers, H. Y.

Advertisement for 'The Great Leavening Power' featuring a large illustration of a woman and child, and text: 'The Great Leavening Power. ABSOLUTELY PURE. ABSOLUTELY PURE.' Includes a testimonial from a woman named Mrs. M. J. ...