GOLD HILL grows better and better from day to day. It is a rich mining camp unless all signs are to be discounted 100 per cent.

NATURALLY the question arises what sort of a pallid force Chicago must have enjoyed if 400 of them could be retained for incompetency in a bench.

MAYOR CUSHING is disgusted with the democratic majority of the city council. Mayor Cushing is in entire harmony with the people of Omaha in this particular.

RELIGIOUS intelligence from all directions indicates that there is something in the atmosphere which breeds dissensions. It is possibly a microbe of charity, liberality and tolerance.

LAST week Delaware held a constitutional convention, presumably on the principle that the fossilized form under which the "three counties" have been governed should be exposed to the sunshine at least once a century.

OMAHA officials, especially those connected with the street improvement departments, are devoting themselves chiefly to drawing their salaries. It is about time they began to do something toward earning as well as drawing their monthly stipends.

THE returned Nebraska delegates to the Cincinnati convention are of the opinion that the tariff question is of small importance in the next presidential contest. Flat money and sub-treasury schemes are in their judgment of far more vital interest.

THE prince of Wales' health is said to be in a precarious condition, but it does not deter the heir apparent to the crown of Great Britain from visiting the theatres, participating in the court balls or betting on the horse races.

YANKTON will entertain the convention of aiding citizens of South Dakota for devising ways and means to participate in the world's fair, this week. It goes without saying that our enterprising sister on the north will make her presence felt in Chicago in 1893, in spite of the want of patriotism exhibited by her late loose jointed and lamented alliance legislature.

No level headed farmer will grieve because the April ocean shipments of corn are less than for years before, so long as he can sell what little he offers now for 60 cents a bushel and buyers are willing at this time to contract for all he can raise this year at from 35 to 45 cents. The American farmer is perfectly satisfied with a home market, so long, at least, as these prices prevail.

THE unveiling of the statue of Lincolneus, the Swedish botanist, brings to mind the marvelous researches of this scientist, whose discovery and early home was in the frigid north, where both the number and variety of plants is limited and the season of observation confined to a few months of the year.

THERE is no warrant of law for hiring a special attorney by the board of education. When the position was created four years ago, the city attorney was without assistance and there was a good excuse for the board's action.

A BRIGHTER DAY FOR FARMERS.

For several years the agriculturist has suffered from the low price of stock and farm products. The supply of both has greatly exceeded the demand throughout the greater part of the world.

One of the most important resolutions passed by the commercial convention at Denver was that in favor of the general government ceding its arid non-mineral lands, under proper conditions, to the various states within whose boundaries such lands are located.

Washington reports go to show that there is no agreement between the Insurgents of Chili and the United States government for the peaceable delivery of the Itata at an American port.

It is not easy to determine how far American interests might be affected by the projected European customs coalition, of which the latest cable dispatches make mention.

It is evident that the democratic party intends to make the appropriations of the last congress a conspicuous subject of discussion in the next presidential campaign.

It is a fact that the democratic party has a considerable sum to meet the deficiencies which the previous congress did not provide for.

There was a large increase in appropriations by the last congress, considerably more than many republicans believed to be wise or necessary.
