RATES ON DRESSED BEEF.

Eastern Roads Still Struggling with a Very Knotty Problem.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE ON THE SUBJECT.

Resolution of General Freight Agents—East-Bound Shipments—Tourist Rates—A New Railroad Project.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Whether the eastern roads will succeed in an arrangement of the dressed beef, live stock and provision traffic from Chicago to the seaboard is still an open question. Another conference on this subject was held today at the rooms of the Central Traffic association. It was called by the committee of shippers appointed at the former meeting, and among the prominent packing house representatives were those of Nelson Morris, Swift & Co., Hammond & Co., Armour & Co., S. W. Allerton and North packers.

At a meeting of the general freight agents of the Chicago east-bound lines today the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That it be the sense of the Chicago committee that upon all traffic for the world's exhibition the rates of freight be made delivery at current rates established on the expiration of the exhibition, the latter company to accept the same for delivery at the expiration of the exhibition, and to assume payment and collection of charges, if any.

THE TOURIST RATES PROBLEM.

The lines in the Western Passenger association did not find a month sailing when they not today to fix summer tourist rates. The agreement entered into by the Chicago & Alton, the Wabash and the Burlington to the effect that a rate on the entire route, except points should be less than 50 per cent of the standard round trip rates was quietly set aside upon Chairman Finley, who ruled that the members of individual lines had no right to make independent agreements of that kind. Accordingly the matter was submitted to a vote of the entire association but it could not be settled because some of those present were not authorized to vote on the question.
