

THE DAILY BEE

E. ROSEWATER Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Sunday) One Year, $3.00...

OFFICES: Omaha, The Bee Building, South Omaha, Corner N and 26th Streets...

CORRESPONDENCE: All communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to the Editorial Department.

BUSINESS LETTERS: All business letters and communications should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company...

The Bee Publishing Company, Proprietors THE BEE BUILDING.

SWORN STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION: State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss.

George B. Tzschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the week ending May 23, 1891, was as follows:

State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss. George B. Tzschuck, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of THE BEE Publishing Company...

IF ALL the insurgents of Chili are as skillful in keeping out of the way of danger as the Hata it will take Balmaine a good many years to end the rebellion.

BOULANGER might rise to prominence in France "by a song," but he will have to leave Belgium if he continues mixing in politics.

THE enterprising Denver reporter failed to induce Sidney Dillon to go into the earthquake topic which made his gifted but garrulous predecessor temporarily unpopular in Colorado.

THE rice courses in France are under the control of the government and the proceeds, a tax on "bookies," goes to charitable institutions.

VENEZUELA is in need of being advertised. A war is to be inaugurated with Great Britain at no far distant date over the possession of territory which both governments claim.

IN THE death of Congressman Houk of Tennessee the republicans of the south lose an able representative in congress. He represented the loyal east Tennesseeans of the Knoxville district, and was a conspicuous figure upon the floor of the house.

THE question agitating the public is if the prospective arctic expedition is to be sent out by the world's fair directors to secure the north pole for the Columbian exposition.

"THE third party will fall into the democratic boom," says the Atlanta Constitution. "Anything for victory" is the democratic cry, so we may expect to see the people's party platform incorporated in that beautifully vague document to be written for the democratic platform next year.

FOREIGN diplomats who have business with this country will be in error if they happen to suspect that James G. Blaine is on the point of retiring from the state department on account of ill health.

THE trial of 170 members of the Mala Vita society in Italy has resulted in the conviction of 165. The Mala Vita are kindred of the Mafia. America's interest in the proceeding against the former is in the fact that not more than 14 of this gang can by any possibility come to this country for at least six years, the shortest term to which any were sentenced.

THE Iowa independents will hold their convention at Des Moines June 3. Prior to the Cincinnati convention a fusion with the democrats was a probability. The determination at that meeting to form a third party will have its effect upon Iowa independents, and with 1892 in view they will probably reject all propositions for a combination of interests.

THE ex-congressmen are gradually becoming absorbed into the army of officeholders. General Grosvenor has just gone abroad to examine into immigration matters. Carter is commissioner of the general land office.

SOME legislation is needed to put an end to this Sunday contempt of law which enables corporations to accomplish between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday what the courts would prevent by injunction on any other day of the week.

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRIES.

Various movements have been inaugurated in Omaha having in view the development of the milling and manufacturing industries. The object deserves the active support and co-operation of all classes.

It is not sufficient, however, to secure the location of a new factory in the city. Every citizen has a direct interest in its success. The community is obligated to give it every possible assistance.

The manufacturing interests of Omaha are large and varied. One hundred and sixty-eight in number, they comprise a vast range of industries, and produce all the materials required in the building trades, besides domestic utensils, boots and shoes, clothing, carriages and wagons, food products, the various manufactures of iron, shot, lead pipe, white lead, and a host of other articles of practical utility and necessity.

It is a lamentable fact that this great interest does not receive the home support and encouragement its importance deserves. Local factories are discriminated against and frequently ignored by men who are vitally concerned in the prosperity of the city.

In like manner the school board proposes to disburse abroad the substance of the taxpayers. Experiments are to be made with new systems of heating, the success of which is a matter of speculation.

Such facts furnish an unanswerable argument in favor of liberal encouragement by the government of the production of sugar, at least until the experiment shall be given a thorough trial and the fact demonstrated whether or not it is possible for this country to largely or wholly supply the requirements of its people.

THE indications are that in the development of the sugar industry in the United States, Nebraska is to play a large part. The secretary of agriculture has publicly stated that he found the conditions here far more favorable to success than in California.

Now that the Denver congress is ended and the executive officer of the board of trade of this city is at home again, the subject of warehouses and a grain and produce market ought again to come to the front for consideration.

THE alarm which England is manifesting over the reciprocity policy of this country indicates that the democrats' friends on the other side of the Atlantic despair of democratic chances for victory next year.

What does Governor Hill mean? In his memorandum upon the last bill passed by the legislature he speaks of it as "the last legislative act to which I shall have the pleasure of affixing my official signature."

the face of an impending danger, the possibilities of which no one could foresee, and which for a time threatened overwhelming disaster, our securities stood fast in the confidence of investors.

WALTER S. MAXWELL, the chief of the bureau of horticulture of the world's fair, is a prominent coat dealer at Los Angeles. His acquaintance with horticulture is largely confined to the vintage of the California grape.

THE term is no near closed for the present year that the board of education may properly postpone the election of a special teacher in drawing and penmanship until the beginning of the next year.

WHILE the fine silver coinage advocates are rejoicing over the action of the Denver congress in favor of their hobby, it would be well for them to reflect that although the congress convened in a silver state and a silver city and drew delegations from the entire silver producing region, the resolution was carried by the significant vote of 58 to 55.

THE tour of the postmaster general has opened his big business eyes to the fact that the west has grown faster than its mail facilities and he announces that they must be improved.

ON the principle "the better the day the better the deed," the inhabitants of Dundee Place good naturedly excuse the Sunday work which resulted in the laying of a whole street railway from Fortieth street to the pretty suburb.

THE Methodists of Omaha have successfully accomplished the difficult task of raising $30,000 in a single week to lift their beautiful new temple of worship out of debt. They deserve the congratulatory letters they are receiving, for in these times $30,000 is a large sum of money to raise for any purpose.

ALTHOUGH the election is still more than five months off the thrifty politicians are utilizing the fitful sunshine for haymaking. This explains why two new clerks at $75 per month each have been authorized in the office of the register of deeds.

THE Real Estate Owners' association is not a hide-bound, close corporation. Every man is welcome to a participation in its meetings, and every man will enjoy the results of well directed efforts under its auspices.

THE Grain and Produce Market. Now that the Denver congress is ended and the executive officer of the board of trade of this city is at home again, the subject of warehouses and a grain and produce market ought again to come to the front for consideration.

WHEN Boston comes to Omaha for points on municipal matters Omaha may be justifiably gratified and self-complacent.

THE alarm which England is manifesting over the reciprocity policy of this country indicates that the democrats' friends on the other side of the Atlantic despair of democratic chances for victory next year.

used it for all it was worth in accomplishing his personal political ends—and has no intention of running for governor again! We venture to say that, if he should be elected for governor and fall, he would not allow any statement like this to stand in the way of his acceptance.

Nature Back-Caps the New Party. The gentle rain has been falling in the northwest, much to the relief of the wheat crop, and presumably much to the disgust of the leaders of the farmers' alliance.

Prohibition Don't Prohibit. We gave a synopsis the other day of the new and extremely radical law to enforce prohibition in Maine. But it doesn't enforce a wet one. At Belfast there are twenty places where intoxicating liquors are sold without let or hindrance.

Yankee Blade: Sharpson—Phalts, what makes your nose so red? Phalts—it goes with pride because it never pokes itself into other peoples' business.

Indianapolis Journal: Mrs. Figg—I have a mind to take Tommy to see the doctor. He seems to be getting more round-shouldered every day. Mr. Figg—He does not need any doctor, but shortly up the bottom of his pockets about an inch and he will be all right again.

Yankee Blade: Mamma [severely]—I am sure I heard Mr. Sweetener kissing you last evening. Daughter—Impossible, mamma. I am positive that my voice, telling him to stop, drowned all sound of it.

Mrs. Wannamaker has shaken 30,000 hands since her husband has been in Washington. "That's nothing. Her husband has shaken twice that number in the postoffice."

Sydney Bulletin: Visiting committeeman—Well, Joe, old man, you've been in this hospital a long while, and there does not seem to be any prospect of your getting out. Have you no friends or relatives? Old Joe—Well, no. You see, sir, I've plenty of relatives, but no friends.

CHOCTAWS AND CHICKSAWS. Judge Durant Explains Their Title to Their Lands.

PARIS, Tex., May 25.—The Choctaw-Chickasaw reservation trouble has been taken under advisement by Secretary Noble, who now has all the papers in the case examining them. Hon. J. H. Durant, formerly one of the judges of the supreme court of the Choctaw nation, and one of the best informed men in that nation, was called upon by a reporter who asked for his opinion. He said:

THE Choctaws acquired title to land, limited as follows: At the mouth of the Red river, three miles below the mouth of the Little River, thence down north to the Arkansas river, thence east to the river to the point where 100° west longitude crosses same, thence south along said meridian to Red river, thence down said river to place of beginning by junction of the Choctaws and a part of their country to the state of Mississippi for the treaty of September 27, 1830, and according to it the president of the United States executed a patent in fee simple to the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and by securing a guarantee of title to the lands embraced within the said limits to the Choctaws, to be held in common and every member have an undivided interest in the whole. On January 17, 1837, the United States made a treaty with the Choctaws and Chickasaws, and in that treaty the Choctaws sold to the Chickasaws an interest in their entire country, to hold in common with the Chickasaws, and in an article of that treaty the Choctaws and Chickasaws leased their common country lying between the 98th and 100th degree west longitude for the permanent settlement of the Choctaws and such other Indians as the government might desire, but the territory so leased was to remain open to settlement by the Choctaws and Chickasaws. On April 28, 1850, the United States made a treaty with the Choctaws and Chickasaws and by the third article of said treaty the Choctaws and Chickasaws were to cede to the United States the territory west of the 98th degree west longitude for the sum of $300,000, but the Choctaw general council rejected this particular article, and notified the government through Simpson Poision, who was the nation's attorney at that time, and the sale of that territory has been an open question ever since.

Continuing, Judge Durant said the Choctaws and Chickasaws leased their territory as a matter of self-preservation. If they had not done so they would have been at the mercy of the confederate soldiers and probably have been utterly destroyed. What they did in the war was done as a matter of self-preservation. After the war the United States made a proposition to the Choctaws and Chickasaws to cede to the United States their entire territory. This they rejected by an overwhelming popular vote.

WESTERNERS' PENS. Washington, May 25.—Special Telegram to THE BEE.—Pensions were granted today as follows: Iowa: Original—Jeremiah S. Felker, Thomas Henney, Cager Guyton, Y. Edward, G. Gibson, Jerome B. Scovill, J. Joseph Moore, Samuel Salt, William H. Roop, William Guitan, Samuel Hansell, Myron Lynde, Richard Horneck, David Lyran, George Hey, Alex W. Owen, James A. Jackson, Angus M. Mazy, Andrew S. Adams, D. Ripley, Martin F. Rigby, Andrew S. Grize, Henry Hurst, William H. Shields, Orlando Howes, Henry D. Jerome, Eugene L. Stricker, John A. James, William F. Wilson, Charles P. Sheldon, Zachariah W. Cole, William M. McLean, V. Linderman, Warren D. Stafford, George Strawbe, Jaron Gregory, John Jeffrey, John Cover, Restoration and release—William Cable, Increase Frank W. Yon, George W. Cunningham, William H. Barton, John Shephard, Reissue—Ezra McDuan, Original—Lizzie, widow of Ezekiel G. Gorsuch; Sarah C. widow of Edward P. Hyland, South Dakota: Original—Navy: James Devine, George W. Thomas, John N. Roper, John Schneider, William C. Turner, Alex H. Jones.

Killed His Wife's Paramour. Hiter, proprietor of the Mountain Press hotel, shot and killed Dr. Mason who, it is alleged, was too intimate with Hiter's wife. The greatest excitement prevailed and Hiter was immediately taken to the hospital, where he died after being lincned when the police arrived.

BEFORE THE HOUR. Florence Earle Coates in Lippincott's. Untimely blossom! Poor impatient thing, That, starting rashly from the sheltering mould, Bravest the reevish wind and sullen cold, Mistaking thine own ardors for the spring, Thou to my heart a memory dost bring Of hopes once fair like thee, like thee too bold To breathe their fragrance and their flow'ers ureful; That drooped, of wintry rigors languishing Nor birds, nor bees, nor waters murmuring low, Nor breezes blown from balmy Arcady, Found thee, ear's welcome waiting to be sown.

THE summer they felt, sweeter than dreams, The summer they had sought too soon to know— The summer that they should not live to see!

used it for all it was worth in accomplishing his personal political ends—and has no intention of running for governor again! We venture to say that, if he should be elected for governor and fall, he would not allow any statement like this to stand in the way of his acceptance.

Nature Back-Caps the New Party. The gentle rain has been falling in the northwest, much to the relief of the wheat crop, and presumably much to the disgust of the leaders of the farmers' alliance.

Prohibition Don't Prohibit. We gave a synopsis the other day of the new and extremely radical law to enforce prohibition in Maine. But it doesn't enforce a wet one. At Belfast there are twenty places where intoxicating liquors are sold without let or hindrance.

Yankee Blade: Sharpson—Phalts, what makes your nose so red? Phalts—it goes with pride because it never pokes itself into other peoples' business.

Indianapolis Journal: Mrs. Figg—I have a mind to take Tommy to see the doctor. He seems to be getting more round-shouldered every day. Mr. Figg—He does not need any doctor, but shortly up the bottom of his pockets about an inch and he will be all right again.

Yankee Blade: Mamma [severely]—I am sure I heard Mr. Sweetener kissing you last evening. Daughter—Impossible, mamma. I am positive that my voice, telling him to stop, drowned all sound of it.

Mrs. Wannamaker has shaken 30,000 hands since her husband has been in Washington. "That's nothing. Her husband has shaken twice that number in the postoffice."

Sydney Bulletin: Visiting committeeman—Well, Joe, old man, you've been in this hospital a long while, and there does not seem to be any prospect of your getting out. Have you no friends or relatives? Old Joe—Well, no. You see, sir, I've plenty of relatives, but no friends.

CHOCTAWS AND CHICKSAWS. Judge Durant Explains Their Title to Their Lands.

PARIS, Tex., May 25.—The Choctaw-Chickasaw reservation trouble has been taken under advisement by Secretary Noble, who now has all the papers in the case examining them. Hon. J. H. Durant, formerly one of the judges of the supreme court of the Choctaw nation, and one of the best informed men in that nation, was called upon by a reporter who asked for his opinion. He said:

THE Choctaws acquired title to land, limited as follows: At the mouth of the Red river, three miles below the mouth of the Little River, thence down north to the Arkansas river, thence east to the river to the point where 100° west longitude crosses same, thence south along said meridian to Red river, thence down said river to place of beginning by junction of the Choctaws and a part of their country to the state of Mississippi for the treaty of September 27, 1830, and according to it the president of the United States executed a patent in fee simple to the Choctaw tribe of Indians, and by securing a guarantee of title to the lands embraced within the said limits to the Choctaws, to be held in common and every member have an undivided interest in the whole. On January 17, 1837, the United States made a treaty with the Choctaws and Chickasaws, and in that treaty the Choctaws sold to the Chickasaws an interest in their entire country, to hold in common with the Chickasaws, and in an article of that treaty the Choctaws and Chickasaws leased their common country lying between the 98th and 100th degree west longitude for the permanent settlement of the Choctaws and such other Indians as the government might desire, but the territory so leased was to remain open to settlement by the Choctaws and Chickasaws. On April 28, 1850, the United States made a treaty with the Choctaws and Chickasaws and by the third article of said treaty the Choctaws and Chickasaws were to cede to the United States the territory west of the 98th degree west longitude for the sum of $300,000, but the Choctaw general council rejected this particular article, and notified the government through Simpson Poision, who was the nation's attorney at that time, and the sale of that territory has been an open question ever since.

Continuing, Judge Durant said the Choctaws and Chickasaws leased their territory as a matter of self-preservation. If they had not done so they would have been at the mercy of the confederate soldiers and probably have been utterly destroyed. What they did in the war was done as a matter of self-preservation. After the war the United States made a proposition to the Choctaws and Chickasaws to cede to the United States their entire territory. This they rejected by an overwhelming popular vote.

WESTERNERS' PENS. Washington, May 25.—Special Telegram to THE BEE.—Pensions were granted today as follows: Iowa: Original—Jeremiah S. Felker, Thomas Henney, Cager Guyton, Y. Edward, G. Gibson, Jerome B. Scovill, J. Joseph Moore, Samuel Salt, William H. Roop, William Guitan, Samuel Hansell, Myron Lynde, Richard Horneck, David Lyran, George Hey, Alex W. Owen, James A. Jackson, Angus M. Mazy, Andrew S. Adams, D. Ripley, Martin F. Rigby, Andrew S. Grize, Henry Hurst, William H. Shields, Orlando Howes, Henry D. Jerome, Eugene L. Stricker, John A. James, William F. Wilson, Charles P. Sheldon, Zachariah W. Cole, William M. McLean, V. Linderman, Warren D. Stafford, George Strawbe, Jaron Gregory, John Jeffrey, John Cover, Restoration and release—William Cable, Increase Frank W. Yon, George W. Cunningham, William H. Barton, John Shephard, Reissue—Ezra McDuan, Original—Lizzie, widow of Ezekiel G. Gorsuch; Sarah C. widow of Edward P. Hyland, South Dakota: Original—Navy: James Devine, George W. Thomas, John N. Roper, John Schneider, William C. Turner, Alex H. Jones.

Killed His Wife's Paramour. Hiter, proprietor of the Mountain Press hotel, shot and killed Dr. Mason who, it is alleged, was too intimate with Hiter's wife. The greatest excitement prevailed and Hiter was immediately taken to the hospital, where he died after being lincned when the police arrived.

BEFORE THE HOUR. Florence Earle Coates in Lippincott's. Untimely blossom! Poor impatient thing, That, starting rashly from the sheltering mould, Bravest the reevish wind and sullen cold, Mistaking thine own ardors for the spring, Thou to my heart a memory dost bring Of hopes once fair like thee, like thee too bold To breathe their fragrance and their flow'ers ureful; That drooped, of wintry rigors languishing Nor birds, nor bees, nor waters murmuring low, Nor breezes blown from balmy Arcady, Found thee, ear's welcome waiting to be sown.

THE summer they felt, sweeter than dreams, The summer they had sought too soon to know— The summer that they should not live to see!

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

BROWNING, KING & CO. Old and Experienced Manufacturers of Clothing,

Retail to the trade only such garments as win merit for themselves, gives value received for the customers money, secures the confidence of the people everywhere and justly entitles them to the name of

Reliable Clothiers

There's no slight either in cut, fit or appearance of our medium grade suits, they're our own make, and the suit we sell for $7.50 is worth just seven dollars and a half.

In our $10 suits you'll find numerous styles, sack and cut-away, they're all worth ten dollars a suit. For $12.50 you'll notice the quality is better, the trim somewhat finer.

Our $13.50 and $15.00 suits your own judgment will declare them good enough for any purpose or occasion. There's neither profit nor pleasure for us in showing garments that cannot be satisfactorily recommended.

Important to Mothers-----

25 dozen Star Shirt Waists, in dark blue percales, regular $1 and $1.25 goods, on sale Saturday morning at 75c. The Star waist needs but little comment, and we hope to see this special bargain lot equally distributed among the trade.

Men's Furnishings

Our window display affords but a meager conception of the real bargains we are offering in cool and comfortable underwear, negligee shirts, hosiery, neckwear, novelty straw hats, etc. Our facilities enable us to reach the bottom figures in supplying thirteen stores with furnishings. Our prices for first quality goods you'll always find reasonable.

Money Cheerfully Refunded where Goods do not Satisfy.

BROWNING, KING & CO., RELIABLE CLOTHIERS,

Southwest Corner 15th and Douglas Sts.

When you Pass Halt at our Windows.

(Send for Illustrated Catalogue.)

DOCTOR ACKER'S ENGLISH BLOOD ELIXIR WHY? BECAUSE YOUR BLOOD IS IMPURE! BAD BLOOD! It is the cause of the following ailments: Skin Troubles, Little Sores, Hot Skin, Boils, Blotches, Itching, Old Sores, Bad Breath, Sore Mouth, Ulcers, etc.

AMUSEMENTS. BASE BALL. OMAHA VS DENVER. TO-DAY. Game called at 4 o'clock.

BOYD'S THREE NIGHTS ONLY. SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY, MAY 24, 25, 26. A Truly Gorgeous Triumph. WM. J. GILMORE'S. Glorious Scene, Ballet and Pantomime Spectacle.

TWELVE TEMPTATIONS 70 Capable Artists 70. Five Grand Illusions. Dramatic Cast of Thirty Players. Three Famous Premiers. DON'T FAIL TO BRING THE CHILDREN. Box sheet opens Saturday at regular prices.

COLISEUM, OMAHA. Wednesday, June 3rd. (AFTERNOON AND EVENING.) Under the Auspices of the Apollo Club

AMUSEMENTS. BOYD'S. 3 Nights and Sat. Mat. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 28, 29 and 31. Elmer E. Vance's Great Realistic Rail Road Comedy-Drama.

The Limited Mail. A great star cast, superb and entrancing music, sparkling dialogue. SEE THE FLIGHT OF THE LIMITED MAIL. The thrilling wreck scene. The awe-inspiring electrical effects. The realistic saw-mill episode. The marvellous telegraph scene. Prices as usual. DIME EDEN MUSEE. Corner 11th and Farnam Streets. WEEK OF MAY 25TH. Mattie Lee from. The electric and magnetic girl. A Puzzle. A Mystery. A perfect electric victory. The Mcken Triplic. Jennie Elmer and G. G. The Mackenzie Train. In robes and black. A first-class specialty entertainment.