

THE OMAHA BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE: No. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by Carrier in any part of the City. H. W. TILTON, MANAGER. TELEPHONES: 1 Business Office, No. 43. Night Editor, No. 33.

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. P. Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal. Crafts' chattel loans, 304 Sapp block. Real Rock Springs coal, Thatcher, 16 Main. If you want water in your yard or house go to Birkby's, 392 Merriam block.

The Sunday evening dinners at the Grand are constantly increasing in popularity with the citizens of Council Bluffs. Omaha, however, W. W. Wallace has resigned the presidency of the Young Men's Christian Association, and E. M. Butler has been appointed to succeed him.

Miss Mary Kerr made her solemn profession as a Sister of Mercy in the chapel of St. Bernard's hospital last Friday, and will hereafter be known as Sister Mary Ignacia. Her father, Royce of Omaha, resides here.

The officers and members of Council Bluffs Lodge, No. 41, Independent Order Odd Fellows, are requested to meet at Odd Fellows' hall, at 10 o'clock, preparatory to attending the funeral of their brother, A. H. Ham, F. A. Sackett, N. G.

George Harper, released from the county jail last Friday morning, serving a thirty day term for stealing a monkey wrench. The first thing he did was to steal another monkey wrench and two to send to his relatives and will have a hearing tomorrow morning.

Nathan Ogden, occupant No. 8, will at a divine service, Friday, at 8 o'clock, corner Ninth and Fourth street, this Sunday evening. All old soldiers are requested to meet at Grand Army of the Republic hall at 4:30 p. m. to attend with the encampment.

Instead of being removed to Red Oak for burial, the remains of the late A. H. Ham will be interred this afternoon in Fairview cemetery under the auspices of the Oddfellows' fraternity, of which the deceased was a member. The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. T. E. Thickett.

Officer Murphy found a little child wandering about the streets yesterday, looking for its mother. He took the child to the station and after half an hour he found the mother, who had left her child in charge, and about half an hour later found the mother, who had left her child in charge, and about half an hour later found the mother, who had left her child in charge.

W. F. Scott and C. L. Bourley, two men who represent themselves as agents for the National Porters' association, with headquarters at 118 Ashland avenue, Chicago, spent last night in the city jail on the charge of assault. Mrs. M. S. Sims, living at 118 Ashland avenue, Chicago, wanted to take an order for pictures. She told them that she had no use for their pictures, but they would not take no for an answer. She called an information against them in superior court and they were arrested by Officer Murphy.

C. E. Stone received a telegram from Portland, Ore., announcing the death of his son-in-law, W. F. Meigs. Mrs. Stone has been in Portland for the past week, visiting her daughter, Mr. Meigs was stricken with paralysis of the face several months ago and the best medical attention, but the case incurable. From that time he seemed not to care to live any longer and his health became worse and worse until the end came. He was well known in this city. Mrs. Meigs and Mrs. Stone will arrive in the Bluffs in a few days with the remains, which will be interred in Fairview cemetery.

Grand opening of Schutzen park at Lake Manawa with cash and prize bowling, Sunday, May 31. Prizes: One gold-headed cane. One gold watch. One silver butter dish. One silver picnic cooler. One pair ladies' gold bracelets.

A nice new mottled custard soap, 3 cakes for 1c, sold everywhere for 10c a cake. Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Good Healthy Plants Cheap. A large variety of choice healthy bedding plants for sale at 10c per plant. Mrs. Woodbury, dentists, 30 Pearl street, next to Grand hotel. Telephone 145. High grade graft water specialties.

Black check, stripe and plaid organdies, 12 yards for $1.00, Monday at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Hon. M. F. Rohrer has returned from a month's visit in Montana. Bide Duckworth of San Francisco is the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. Weisinger. Ed E. Pethrick, president of the Northern Iron Insurance company of Sioux City, is a guest at the Grand.

Mr. Highland H. Butler, who has recently been promoted to general manager of the Iowa Central railway company, with headquarters at Marshalltown, is in the city, a guest of Mrs. T. A. Clark and family, 216 Harrison street. The Lake Manawa hotel has been remodelled, returned and connected throughout, and will be opened Wednesday noon, June 3, 1891.

Se heavy shirtings for 6c a yard at the Boston Store all day Monday and Monday night, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Church Announcements. Broadway Methodist—Services at Masonic temple at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning theme: "Discerning the Signs of the Times." First Baptist—Morning subject, "Healing and Hindering Christian Work." Evening, sixth sermon to young people. Subject: "His Ten Brothers Going to Egypt." Second Baptist—Sermon at 10 a. m. to young people, at 7 o'clock evening. Presbytery—Regular services morning and evening. Congregational—Morning subject, "God's Promises." Evening, "Our Missions." St. Paul's—Regular services morning and evening. Trinity Methodist—Services morning and evening. In the evening the Woman's Relief Corps and the Union Veteran Legion will meet with the church.

Fifth Avenue Methodist—Services morning and evening. Young Men's Christian Association—E. M. Butler will address the men's meeting at 4 o'clock.

Good apron gingham, 6c a yard. Extra quality apron gingham, 8c; will compare with any 8c goods. Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Furniture, carpets, refrigerators, baby carriages, stoves, crockery, and all house furnishing goods, cash or on easy payments, at Maudie & Klein's.

Narrow Escape. George F. Boudreau, who drives a wagon for the Consolidated Tank Line company, met with an accident yesterday morning at the Burlington crossing near the corner of Sixteenth avenue. A switch engine was at work around the company's yards, and had just passed in front of Boudreau and his team. Boudreau attempted to cross the track, but the engine returned just in time to strike the wagon and smash it into smithereens. The oil with which the wagon was loaded was scattered far and wide, and Boudreau himself narrowly escaped with his life. As it was known from the wagon to the ground and finally landed. He threatens to bring suit for damages against the railway company.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

How Memorial Day Was Observed by the Good People.

OLD SOLDIERS HONOR THEIR COMRADES, Imposing Procession to the Cemetery—Eloquent Speeches and Impressive Ceremonies—Not a Hitch in the Whole Affair.

Decorations day dawned with the sky overcast with black and angry looking clouds and the rain descending in torrents. It was the universal opinion that the celebration of the day would have to be postponed and all the preparations that had been made would go for naught. But at about 10 o'clock there was a change; the clouds disappeared, the sun came out and by noon all traces of rain and mud disappeared and the streets were in good condition for travel.

In the morning the citizens were busy hanging out the national colors over the doors of their places of business, and many of those who lived along the line of march displayed the same patriotic spirit.

At 1 o'clock the old soldiers began to gather in groups about the city, awaiting the call to the graves of the revolution. It was 2:10, however, before the forces had been mustered by the marshals and started on the journey to Fairview cemetery. The procession moved in the following order:

Platoon of police. Wall McFadden's drum corps. Carlisle Post, Grand Army of the Republic. Union Veteran Legion. Old soldiers on foot. Independent Order Oddfellows. City Council and other officials. Public school cadets. Women's Relief Corps. Floral Wagon.

Children from the Christian Home. Girls of the Public Schools. The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation.

The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation.

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

After the Decoration day, the orator of the day, was introduced, and delivered an address which was listened to with the greatest interest. He alluded to the fact that John A. Logan had invented the custom of celebrating Decoration day, and considered it the greatest honor of his life. He paid the following tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic: "The grand Army of today numbers over four hundred thousand veterans. It is a crystallization of brains and brawn, the true conservator of the republic. To preserve its rights and liberties, it is necessary to care for the needy and destitute veterans of the order, to help over bright and strong that are fast fading, and to back up the laws of the state and the people that influence the welfare of the nation."

THE NATION'S DEAD.

(CONTINUED FROM THIRD PAGE.)

large enough to hold one-half the people. The exercises were under the management of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations. The program was very entertaining. The speaker was Governor Kelly of Iowa, who addressed the crowd in a most interesting manner. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

A Big Demonstration. KEARNEY, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The biggest demonstration that has been made for years on Memorial day here was made today. The procession formed on Central avenue and was made up of a long line of old soldiers, veterans, and patriotic organizations. The parade was reviewed by Governor Thayer from the balcony of the opera house. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

A Jail Breaker Captured. OMAHA, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—James McIntire, who was charged with the murder of William King at Sioux City on December 5, 1890, and broke out of jail there on May 15, 1891, was captured here last night by Sheriff Hamilton of this county and is now in jail awaiting the arrival of the sheriff of Woodford county, Iowa. There was a reward of $750 offered for the capture of the murderer, McIntire is about twenty-two years old, five feet tall, blue eyes, brown hair, and was wearing a blue coat and dark trousers. He had a scar on his face from a fight with a man named Hirst. Hirst shot the drop on the follow and captured him without a struggle.

Seventeen Graduates. BEATRICE, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The tenth graduating exercises of the Beatrice high school took place at the school opera house last night before the largest audience ever assembled in that building. The class comprised the following seventeen members: Harry B. Allen, Ruth Hartzell, Frank R. Nickel, Clifford R. Abel, Bert E. Forbes and the Misses Martha E. Curtis, Bessie I. Shellenbarger, Vesta I. Baker, Cora E. Gargano, Clara G. Hildner, Colton, Fanny W. Davis, Leola M. Harrington, Gertrude P. Hayes, Frances A. Osborn, and Myrtle E. Sabin. Clifford R. Abel was the salutatorian and Miss Martha E. Curtis the valedictorian.

Denied a New Trial. PIERCE, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The district court has adjourned until June 5. Judge Powers denied the motion for a new trial in the case of William Tibbs, convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced him to three years in the penitentiary. The attorneys have forty days in which to file a bill of exceptions. Tibbs thinks he should have a new trial, but would not consent to a sentence of one year.

Orchard's New Postmaster. OMAHA, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—H. H. Knapp of Sherman township has received the appointment of postmaster for the district of Sherman. He is a native of Iowa and has been in the service of the government for several years. He is a member of the Republican party and is very generous in giving official positions to his political enemies. Mr. Knapp has not been a republican for several years. He is a native of Iowa and has been in the service of the government for several years. He is a member of the Republican party and is very generous in giving official positions to his political enemies. Mr. Knapp has not been a republican for several years.

Fullerton Decimates. FULLERTON, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Live Eagle post, Sons of Veterans, and the National guards met the visitors arriving by rail at the depot, where they formed a column headed by the Indians from the Indian reservation at Fullerton. The parade was very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

Mar Bourletis, music teacher, removed to 58 Broadway, over C. B. music company. The Turkey red table napkins, 5c each, or 5c a dozen. Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia. Three of our most popular makes of $1.00 concert flutes for 5c Monday at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia. Morgan's prices for furniture on installment plan lower than any other house in city. Re-holstering specialties. 2c fine French satens for the Monday at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia.

A Heavy Storm. Yesterday morning's storm was one of the heaviest that has visited Council Bluffs for years, and it played havoc with the property in various parts of the city. Indian creek overflowed last night, and water poured into the western part of the city. There are whole blocks that are under water. The storm broke out at 5:30 o'clock, and from that time until 9 o'clock there was no cessation. The water poured into the city, and the bridge on Second street, the bridge has been built only a few days, and the earth around the supports is but imperfectly packed down. The north approach to the bridge is washed away and it was impossible for teams to pass over. The break also suffered. Many cellars on Upper Broadway were flooded.

Flags and Bunting. SNEY, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Flags and bunting adorned the graves of the fallen heroes at the cemetery here today. A grand procession was formed, which was participated in by the Twenty-first United States infantry and military band, United States division No. 31, United States division No. 32, United States division No. 33, United States division No. 34, United States division No. 35, United States division No. 36, United States division No. 37, United States division No. 38, United States division No. 39, United States division No. 40, United States division No. 41, United States division No. 42, United States division No. 43, United States division No. 44, United States division No. 45, United States division No. 46, United States division No. 47, United States division No. 48, United States division No. 49, United States division No. 50, United States division No. 51, United States division No. 52, United States division No. 53, United States division No. 54, United States division No. 55, United States division No. 56, United States division No. 57, United States division No. 58, United States division No. 59, United States division No. 60, United States division No. 61, United States division No. 62, United States division No. 63, United States division No. 64, United States division No. 65, United States division No. 66, United States division No. 67, United States division No. 68, United States division No. 69, United States division No. 70, United States division No. 71, United States division No. 72, United States division No. 73, United States division No. 74, United States division No. 75, United States division No. 76, United States division No. 77, United States division No. 78, United States division No. 79, United States division No. 80, United States division No. 81, United States division No. 82, United States division No. 83, United States division No. 84, United States division No. 85, United States division No. 86, United States division No. 87, United States division No. 88, United States division No. 89, United States division No. 90, United States division No. 91, United States division No. 92, United States division No. 93, United States division No. 94, United States division No. 95, United States division No. 96, United States division No. 97, United States division No. 98, United States division No. 99, United States division No. 100.

Swiped is Buggy. J. H. Seaton reported to the police last night that a team and buggy had been swiped. The buggy had been taken from opposite Hayden Brothers' store about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by some unknown person. The buggy was taken to the police station and a search was made for it. It was not found, and a reward was offered for its return. The owner of the buggy is a well-known citizen of Council Bluffs, Ia.

At St. Louis. St. Louis, Mo., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was generally observed here today. Public business was suspended. The Grand Army and Sons of Veterans had an imposing street parade, and then, with thousands of citizens in attendance, they visited the national cemetery at Jefferson Park, twelve miles below the city, by railroad and river, where the usual exercises were held.

At Milwaukee. MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The weather was perfect and the services incident to Decoration day passed off quietly. Delegations from various Grand Army of the Republic posts, accompanied by their children, marched to the cemetery, where they decorated the graves with flags and bunting. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

At San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

Sang Patriotic Songs. CHESTER, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

Decorated at McCook. McCOOK, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

At St. Paul. ST. PAUL, Minn., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

At St. Paul. ST. PAUL, Minn., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

FIRE AND POLICE OFFICIALS.

Governor Thayer Settles the Matter by Making Appointments.

CAPTURE OF AN ESCAPED MURDERER. James McIntire Boasts of His Record and Lands in Jail—Guilty of Manslaughter—Other State News.

LIVONIA, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The matter of appointments to the positions of fire and police commissioners has been settled by Governor Thayer. Today he appointed Chris Hartman to succeed himself and William Coburn to succeed Governor Bennett.

A Jail Breaker Captured. OMAHA, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—James McIntire, who was charged with the murder of William King at Sioux City on December 5, 1890, and broke out of jail there on May 15, 1891, was captured here last night by Sheriff Hamilton of this county and is now in jail awaiting the arrival of the sheriff of Woodford county, Iowa. There was a reward of $750 offered for the capture of the murderer, McIntire is about twenty-two years old, five feet tall, blue eyes, brown hair, and was wearing a blue coat and dark trousers. He had a scar on his face from a fight with a man named Hirst. Hirst shot the drop on the follow and captured him without a struggle.

Seventeen Graduates. BEATRICE, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The tenth graduating exercises of the Beatrice high school took place at the school opera house last night before the largest audience ever assembled in that building. The class comprised the following seventeen members: Harry B. Allen, Ruth Hartzell, Frank R. Nickel, Clifford R. Abel, Bert E. Forbes and the Misses Martha E. Curtis, Bessie I. Shellenbarger, Vesta I. Baker, Cora E. Gargano, Clara G. Hildner, Colton, Fanny W. Davis, Leola M. Harrington, Gertrude P. Hayes, Frances A. Osborn, and Myrtle E. Sabin. Clifford R. Abel was the salutatorian and Miss Martha E. Curtis the valedictorian.

Denied a New Trial. PIERCE, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The district court has adjourned until June 5. Judge Powers denied the motion for a new trial in the case of William Tibbs, convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced him to three years in the penitentiary. The attorneys have forty days in which to file a bill of exceptions. Tibbs thinks he should have a new trial, but would not consent to a sentence of one year.

Orchard's New Postmaster. OMAHA, Neb., May 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—H. H. Knapp of Sherman township has received the appointment of postmaster for the district of Sherman. He is a native of Iowa and has been in the service of the government for several years. He is a member of the Republican party and is very generous in giving official positions to his political enemies. Mr. Knapp has not been a republican for several years. He is a native of Iowa and has been in the service of the government for several years. He is a member of the Republican party and is very generous in giving official positions to his political enemies. Mr. Knapp has not been a republican for several years.

Fullerton Decimates. FULLERTON, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Live Eagle post, Sons of Veterans, and the National guards met the visitors arriving by rail at the depot, where they formed a column headed by the Indians from the Indian reservation at Fullerton. The parade was very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

Mar Bourletis, music teacher, removed to 58 Broadway, over C. B. music company. The Turkey red table napkins, 5c each, or 5c a dozen. Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia. Three of our most popular makes of $1.00 concert flutes for 5c Monday at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia. Morgan's prices for furniture on installment plan lower than any other house in city. Re-holstering specialties. 2c fine French satens for the Monday at the Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia.

A Heavy Storm. Yesterday morning's storm was one of the heaviest that has visited Council Bluffs for years, and it played havoc with the property in various parts of the city. Indian creek overflowed last night, and water poured into the western part of the city. There are whole blocks that are under water. The storm broke out at 5:30 o'clock, and from that time until 9 o'clock there was no cessation. The water poured into the city, and the bridge on Second street, the bridge has been built only a few days, and the earth around the supports is but imperfectly packed down. The north approach to the bridge is washed away and it was impossible for teams to pass over. The break also suffered. Many cellars on Upper Broadway were flooded.

Flags and Bunting. SNEY, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Flags and bunting adorned the graves of the fallen heroes at the cemetery here today. A grand procession was formed, which was participated in by the Twenty-first United States infantry and military band, United States division No. 31, United States division No. 32, United States division No. 33, United States division No. 34, United States division No. 35, United States division No. 36, United States division No. 37, United States division No. 38, United States division No. 39, United States division No. 40, United States division No. 41, United States division No. 42, United States division No. 43, United States division No. 44, United States division No. 45, United States division No. 46, United States division No. 47, United States division No. 48, United States division No. 49, United States division No. 50, United States division No. 51, United States division No. 52, United States division No. 53, United States division No. 54, United States division No. 55, United States division No. 56, United States division No. 57, United States division No. 58, United States division No. 59, United States division No. 60, United States division No. 61, United States division No. 62, United States division No. 63, United States division No. 64, United States division No. 65, United States division No. 66, United States division No. 67, United States division No. 68, United States division No. 69, United States division No. 70, United States division No. 71, United States division No. 72, United States division No. 73, United States division No. 74, United States division No. 75, United States division No. 76, United States division No. 77, United States division No. 78, United States division No. 79, United States division No. 80, United States division No. 81, United States division No. 82, United States division No. 83, United States division No. 84, United States division No. 85, United States division No. 86, United States division No. 87, United States division No. 88, United States division No. 89, United States division No. 90, United States division No. 91, United States division No. 92, United States division No. 93, United States division No. 94, United States division No. 95, United States division No. 96, United States division No. 97, United States division No. 98, United States division No. 99, United States division No. 100.

Swiped is Buggy. J. H. Seaton reported to the police last night that a team and buggy had been swiped. The buggy had been taken from opposite Hayden Brothers' store about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by some unknown person. The buggy was taken to the police station and a search was made for it. It was not found, and a reward was offered for its return. The owner of the buggy is a well-known citizen of Council Bluffs, Ia.

At St. Louis. St. Louis, Mo., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was generally observed here today. Public business was suspended. The Grand Army and Sons of Veterans had an imposing street parade, and then, with thousands of citizens in attendance, they visited the national cemetery at Jefferson Park, twelve miles below the city, by railroad and river, where the usual exercises were held.

At Milwaukee. MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The weather was perfect and the services incident to Decoration day passed off quietly. Delegations from various Grand Army of the Republic posts, accompanied by their children, marched to the cemetery, where they decorated the graves with flags and bunting. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

At San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

Sang Patriotic Songs. CHESTER, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

Decorated at McCook. McCOOK, Neb., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

At St. Paul. ST. PAUL, Minn., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.

At St. Paul. ST. PAUL, Minn., May 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Decorations day was observed here today. A grand parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations, took place through the city. The exercises were very moving and patriotic. The graves were decorated by the women's relief corps and daughters of veterans. After this, the procession moved to the cemetery, where the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated with flags and bunting.