

NEW DEALS IN MORTGAGES.

Some Enterprising Operators Discouraged by Legal Interference.

AFFAIRS AT THE HASTINGS ASYLUM.

Statement Regarding the Alleged Usurpation of Authority—Struck by Lightning—Arrest of the Wrong Man.

BRONKS BOY, NEB., JUNE 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEAR.]—Some weeks ago B. S. Lilly had H. A. Caswell arrested on the charge of disposing of mortgaged property.

Mr. Lilly had no positive proof of the facts but he had reason to believe that there were others in league with Caswell who were running off mortgaged property, and Lilly and others in this community were out several hundred dollars by the work of the crook and Lilly resolved to make an effort to ferret out the parties.

A high wind was prevailing and those arriving at the scene could do nothing to rescue the children. The parents were within sight of the fire but were unable to reach home before it was too late. They are nearly crazed with grief.

Regimental Assignments Under the New Act of Congress—Reserve Agents Approved—Land Decisions Affirmed.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEAR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEAR.]—The following are the assignments of the various regiments of the army under the new act of congress.

"Will your father be a candidate for the presidency again?" "I don't know. He has not yet been asked to run, and of course could not do so until he had been asked to do so by the party representative at a convention."

"Well, what do you think about it?" "If my father were to consult the wishes of his family I don't think he would feel like being the candidate, even if the party asked him to do so, but then he is the one to make any statement that may be made on this subject and not any member of his family."

"Mad Dog Scare." BOOZE, Ia., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEAR.]—A mad dog ran through one section of the town early this morning and bit seven dogs and two cows, escaping then into the country.

CHICAGO CHIEF OF THE BAR.

Dispatch from Anoka, Minn., gives particulars of the murder of the first wife of John Sawald, who killed his second wife at Wayne, Neb., in September, 1884, thus completely establishing the truth of the confession made by him at Sacramento. Thirteen years ago Cassius Shields, a capitalist and John Sawald went to Cook Creek, Minn., from Switzerland. Mrs. Sawald stopped in Ohio for several months, arriving the next winter. Shields and Sawald began the manufacture of Swiss cheese, Mrs. Shields keeping house for them. Mrs. Sawald found no one to meet her when she arrived and told her troubles in broken English to her sympathizers. Enough was understood to give the police and John Sawald went to Cook Creek, Minn., from Switzerland. Mrs. Sawald stopped in Ohio for several months, arriving the next winter.
