The idea that an ex-patrol conductor is to be reinstated is seconded by those who claim to know, and it is stated that none of the men recently let out will be re-joined on the police force.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Association of Omaha, for election of officers and transaction of other important business, will be held on Thursday evening, June 4, at the First Presbyterian church. The attendance of every member is desired. By order of the president.

What it Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people, buying even necessities of life. It is surprising to see men, itself with special forces for the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 doses one dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

Wanted to buy—A matched carriage team, weight 2,100 to 2,400 pounds, must be sound, perfectly broken, gentle and pleasant drivers. Address O-56 Bee office with price and description.

HARRIGAN WAS ABSENT.

Coroner's Inquest Over Henry Gielow Without the Coroner.

The inquest over the body found in Florence lake on Monday afternoon was set by Coroner Harrigan for 2 p.m. yesterday at Burket's undertaking establishment.

When the time arrived about one hundred members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Troutbund and the Druids, of which orders Henry Gielow, the supposed dead man, was a member, were gathered at the place named for the purpose of the inquest and determining the identity of the body in order to pay over to the widow the $3,700 insurance which Gielow carried in these orders, and also to see that the body was properly cared for.

It quickly became known that the coroner was out of town. At the coroner's headquarters it was stated that Dr. Harrigan had gone out of town early Tuesday morning, and the statement was corroborated by his office.

Unnatural efforts on the part of the late members of the benevolent societies mentioned failed to unearth any person who had been deputized to act as coroner in the absence of Harrigan, and the county attorney was appealed to for advice. He called on Dr. Timme, who conducted the inquest in the absence of the coroner, and the proceedings were finally concluded.

It was necessary to hold the inquest in another place, and a vacant room in the vicinity was selected.

Dr. Coulter, the first witness, testified that he had made a post mortem examination of the body and had found nothing to indicate external violence. From the condition of the heart he was of the opinion that death had been sudden, by disease.

The doctor identified a plain gold ring as one of the right hand of the body, and a ring of keys and stub of a check book as having been taken from the pocket of the clothing. He testified also that there was no doubt the body was that of a young man of about 20 years. The body had brown hair and a brown mustache. The body had a scar on the right breast near the third rib, evidently the result of a burn.

"The recent decision of the supreme court in the Boyd case has awakened the democrats to the fact that we should be looking out for our own interests in the way from the township organization to the state house."

"Who will be the democratic nominee for supreme judge this fall?"

"I could not say, but if the independents nominate a man of ability and brains, the democrats will endorse the same."

Judge Brady has been mentioned.

He is a good man and would fill the office with much credit.

The democrat will unite with the independents on any good man to relegate Judge Cobb to private life."

Judge Boyd is reelected as governor, will you again become adjutant general of the state militia?"

"That matter will rest entirely with Mr. Boyd. As I understand it he will have to go to his appointments all over again in case the supreme court decides that he is a citizen and therefore the rightful governor of Nebraska."

Dr. Timme will protest.

The County's Post Mortem Bills Are Too Big for Him.

When the county commissioners meet Saturday afternoon they will be called upon to pass upon $350 of bills presented by Dr. Coulter, who offices with Coroner Harrigan. These bills are for fourteen post mortem examinations made since February 1. They are all certified to by the coroner. The bill as filed shows that post mortems were held on Elsie Williamson who was wounded to death by McNamee, the man who came from Elkhorn and died of consumption. Dennis, who died with trunks and one man who was run over by cars. Nearly all of the others are cases where the cause of death was equally as well known.

In addition to this bill Prof. Mueller, the coroner, has a bill of $200 for the services for examining a stomach and the other $100 for examining a liver. Both of these bills are certified to by the coroner.

Commissioner Timme denounces the presentation of the bills as a raid upon the treasury.

As a member of the committee on judiciary, he will report against the allowance of the bills. He states that he is anxious that the coroner shall investigate the cause of every death, and that he will oppose the payment of $100 per month salary to a physician selected by the coroner to carry on the business of making post mortem examinations whenever a death occurs.

CHOSING A CHANCELLOR.

Regent Burnham says the Board Will Not Quarrel.

Mr. Leavitt Burnham, one of the regents of the state university, stated yesterday that he was not aware of any fight in the board of regents over the selection of a chancellor, as stated in the Bee's Lincoln correspondence. He said the utmost harmony had always prevailed among the members and there had been no bickering on any subject.

It was true, he stated, that J. Clark Redpath was a candidate for the position of chancellor, and his appointment had been urged by a number of friends, but Mr. Burnham declined to state whether or not he favored it.

One of the prominent candidates for the place, he said, was Prof. James Canfield of the Kansas university, but the candidacy of Lieutenant Dulles was a surprise to Mr. Burnham. He also expressed ignorance of the report that Judge Cobb had been offered the position.

With reference to the report that Gere was trying to induce Morrell to resign in order to increase the former's chances of re-election, Mr. Burnham stated that he had no reason to believe that that was the case. Mr. Gere, he said, was very ill, and while his health was outside the bounds of regents and Mr. Burnham did not think Mr. Gere would be a candidate for re-election.

Speaking for himself, Mr. Burnham said he had no personal animosity against Gere, but he had been on the board for two full terms, and while his relations had always been harmonious, he did not care to serve any longer.

Mr. Burnham said the board of regents was not in session at the time, and at which time a committee consisting of Regent Gere and Morrell and Acting Chancellor Bessie would report on a person for chancellor. This committee was appointed when it was known that the legislature had made some provision for the payment of a chancellor, and was instructed to recommend some suitable person for that office.

AFTER THE COURT HOUSES.

Nebraska Democracy Will Fight for Everything in Sight.

"There are too many county court houses in Nebraska in possession of the republican party," said General Victor Vifquain of Lincoln to a reporter yesterday afternoon, while engaged in a short conversation at the Paxton hotel. "We propose this fall to stir things up and capture a few of the county court houses."

THIN COATS AND VESTS.

75 Cents.

The thin coats and vests which we are selling for the exceptionally low price of seventy-five cents, are making the heat more tolerable for dozens of men who have bought them in the past few days, and will cool off dozens more when their splendid value becomes better known. These garments are made of genuine French Nankin. They are cut in good style. They are made in good shape. The colors and patterns are in good taste. They are made with patch pockets, have pearl buttons, the button-holes are made with silk, and the backs of the vests are made of the same material as the vests themselves. They are just as good coats and vests as you can buy in any other house in Omaha.

For double the money, but to make it more comfortable for you, and not make your pocketbook sweat, we are selling them while they last for seventy-five cents.

We give you your choice of about two hundred Black Alpaca Coats, in sizes from thirty-four to forty, worth a dollar and fifty cents, at seventy-five cents each. They are a suitable coat for office, street, or store wear, and also can be used as waiter's jackets and barber's coats.

At this price we give you a grand assortment of handsome plain Brilliantine Coats and Vests. They are in an assortment of popular shades and colors, and are made with every attention that can be paid to making. They come in all sizes, and are worth anywhere you look, three dollars and a quarter.

The Coats and Vests which we are selling at this popular price are bound to be rapid sellers. They are made of corded mohair, which you know all about. They come in a large assortment of shades and colors, and are in a number of styles of cords. Four dollars invested in a coat and vest outside of our store won't better the quality a single bit.

If you're a man like a good many others, who think there's nothing like a "skeleton" made out of flannel, we've got just the thing to suit you. They're in all wool goods, in plain and neat mixtures in the good old grays and tans, and the newer and nobbier shades besides. These garments are positively worth four seventy-five, but we've found a way to sell them for less, so we've made the price two ninety.

You want to buy something still better? We've got lots of very fine goods at three dollars and twenty-five cents, three dollars and fifty cents and even four dollars and fifty cents. At these prices we will guarantee you a positive saving of from one dollar and seventy-five cents way up to three dollars. These statements unlike the celebrated "air ship" that nobody went to see (?) are not backed up by WIND, but are based upon
