LUCK BETTER THAN THE LAW.

"Shorty" Dwyer's Escape from Prosecution for Murder and Assault.

W. E. MEAD WAS NOT AN EMBEZZLER.

He Sucs His Prosecutors for Heavy Damages-Mrs. Fenn Fined for Practicing Medicine-Other Local Matters.

Luck is beating the law without half trying in "Shorty" Dwyer's case. Dwyer, whose real name, it has been learned, is John Drable, was arrested last fall for killing James Connor in a lodging house on Tenth street. It was a pretty clear case as Dick Cushing, one of the chief witnesses was stabbed by Dwyer in the fight in which Connor was allied.

Cushing and another witness were held in jail and testified against Dwyer at the trial of the case, and were then released, as the county attorney thought he had a sure case against the accused.

The jury, however, failed to agree and Dwyer's case was continued until the present term of court. Cushing and the other witnesses immediately left town and when the case was again called the other day Dwyer was released for want of prosecution. He was at once rearrested on the charge of stabiling Cushing and was the charge of stabbing Cushing and was placed in the city jail. Yesterday Dwyer was dismissed and ordered out of the city, as Cushing's presence dered out of the city, as Cushing's presence is a witness could not be secured. Dwyer had just completed a four years' term in the Missouri penitentiary for burg-lary when he got into trouble over Connor's killing in Omaha.

Not an Embezzler.

W. E. Mead, who was accested at Kansas City a few weeks ago and brought here to answer a charge of embezziement preferred by Seiberling & Co., an agricultural implement firm of Akron, O., was discharged by Judge Heisley in police court yesterday.

Mr. Mead was the Omaha agent of Seiberling & Co. and had a contract for several years yet. He was thrown out of a job by the formation of a trust which his employers joined. At the time he hav $801 in his possession, which he held to apply, as he claimed, on salary due him from the firm. It was the retention of this money that led to his arrest. He was given a preliminary hear-

The court held that there was nothing whatever in the evidence to show that Mr. Mead was ar embezzier or had any intention of defrauding the company in any way. The judge further remarked that Mr. Mead's conduct all through the case had been that of an honest man who was only claiming what he thought was justly due him. The case was

Mrs. Fenn's Case.

Monday when the case was called for trial Mrs. Fenn showed fight and declared that she would clear her skirts of the prosecution that she claimed was instigated by the doctors of the old school. The county attorney was ready, but Mrs. Fenn was not so the case was continued. Mrs. Fenn was not, so the case was continued. Both sides began looking up the law in the case, and the weman finally determined to plead guilty and appeal to the mercy of the # Indians in Court.

John Gray Hair and Jim Wild Waves two husky Winnebagos, were in police court yesterday as witnesses against two lads who were charged with swindling the guileless sons of the prairie out of 50 cents of the coin of the realm. It appears that the Indians wanted fire water and gave the boys 50 cents with which to purchase the desired drink. The boys took the money and disappeared and the Winnebages are still thirsty. The case was continued.

Proved an Alibi.

In the case of the state against Frank Brace, who was charged with having burglarized the Boston Store of $600 worth of goods, the defense succeded in proving an alibi. At 2 o'clock yesterday the jury returned a verdict of not guity. Bruce was released and was just walking out of the court room when he was rearrested by Ser-geant Ormsby on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Court Notes.

The sheriff of Sarpy county arrived in the city Weanesday night, bringing with him John Smith. John broke into the store owned by Cyrus P. Spearman at Springfield on the night of May 23. He was captured while in the act of carrying away the contents of the store, waived examination and was held to the district court. Upon his way up here he told the sheriff that he was ready to plead guilty and take his sentence. With this understanding he was taken before Judge Estallanding he was taken before he was taken before he was taken before he was take telle and sentenced to one and one-half years

In this case Olsen is suing to recover the value of a stock of goods. The suit grows out of the failing of the Meyer building on lower Farnam street. The deceased owned a stock of goods situated in an adjoining building. When the Meyer building fell, the Olsen building was crushed and destroyed together with its contents.

This work was commenced about a year ago, the object being to string a new and better wire from Red Butte to Echo, to place all the wires on higher poles and on the same side of the track. The work had proceeded as far as Rawlins when the Adams management or dered it stopped. Superintendent Korty showed President Dillon and party the ne cessity for the improvement and he was directed to go shead with the work. This wigive employment to a large number of me all summer. Councilman Conway Surrenders a Committee Chairmanship.

The chairman of the council committee on grades and grading is now Peter Elsasser, who was formerly the second member of the committee. The change took place yesterday when Tim Conway, the ex-chairman turned over all of the papers to his successor. Some of the members of the council looked for a fight when Conway was relegated to second place on the committee, but the fight did not come. Conway was glad enough to get out of the chairmanship and turned over all papers with as much satisfaction as though he was canceling a claim of long standing. Elsasser received some twenty reports many of which have been tied up for from one to three months.

"I don't want to have any trouble with the council," said Mr. Conway, "but I'll make it warm for some of the officious gentlemen before I quit. I am glad enough though to get rid of the chairmanship of the grades and grading committee. It was too much work for an inexperienced man. It is a piece of spite work on Tom Lowry's part, but I'll get even with him if I have to form a deadlock in the council.
