Wanted-Pupils for the piano, organ and guitar by an experienced tereber lately from Chicago. Room 304 Merriam block. Those who attended the Congregational church yesterday were gratified at hearing the Orphan quartette, the reorganization of which was made possible by the temSorary presence in the city of Prof McDermid whose home is now in Winnipeg. The four voices blendid as pleasantly as in the days of old. It is to be hoped they will be heard often during Prof. McDermid's stay here. Referee Ross heard the arguments in tho case of Henry against Evans, the law suit which has required the expenditure of so much time, money and newspaper space during the last few years, id the library room of the county court house Saturday afternoon. The case will be returned to the court in a few days with the report of the referee.

A strawberry and ice cream social will be given in the school house at the end of Franklin avenue tomorrow evening for the benefit of the mission Sunday school, which is held there every Sunday. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to getting an organ for the school.

M. P. Ellis came near being victimized out of his home last Friday by a treacherous oil lamp. All the family were away and Mr. Eills was left monarch of the household. He too left the house about midnight and left the lamp burning. When he returned some time later the lamp had exploded and the room was in flames. He did not summon the fire department, but went to work with a pail to carry water and empty it on the flames. The room was gutted and all the furniture was completely ruined before the fire was extinguished. The damage will amount to several hundred dollars.

Children's day was observed last evening at the Trinity Methodist church. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion. A concert was given in which the children of the Sunday school took part, the programme consisting of recitations and singing, all of which was nicely performed. Elder C. C. Morrison, the boy preacher of Red Oak, addressed a large audience yesterday afternoon at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms. George Baker, a member of the Twin City dye works baseball club, sprained his ankle badly yesterday afternoon while playing a game near the fair grounds.

the attractions at the lake with unalloyed pleasure. The breeze made excellent sailing and the lake was covered with white winged craft and row boats. Manhattan beach was alive with bathers and merry makers. The big pavilian has been com-pleted and sheltered hundreds of guests from the sun. The water toboggans were a great attraction and were kept going continually. The people were distributed all along the beach and enjoyed the day's outing to the fullest extent. In the evening the electric lights brilliantly illuminated the lake front in the vicinity of the hotel and made the evening still more enjoyable

Suits for Partition.

Three suits have been commenced in district court by Attorney Frank Trimble in behalf of Agnes Folsom, to effect the division of the Folsom estate, comprising nearly $75,000. In each of the suits Florence Fol som and J. B. Blake, guardian of George B Folsom and administrator of the estate of Adele Folsom, are made defendants. Similar suits were commenced several years ago, but it is alleged in the petitions that he yade null and void, because Blake had net filled his bond as administrator of the es-tate, because Wright, Baldwin & Haldane attempted to appear in one of the suits in be half of the minor heirs and it was afterwards found that there had been no service on the heirs, and for other similar reasons. In on suit the amount of the property in question is $19,000, in the second $24,000, and in the third $32,000. The pisintiff wants a partition effected and her two-fifths of the estate set

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Beautiful June Sabbath Spent in Pleasant Sylvan Glades.

FAIRMOUNT PARK DRAWS OUT MANY.

Basky Dells and Mossy Banks Lure the Weary Cit from the Hot and Dusty Streets to Hear Sweet Music.

Fairmount park was the point aimed at by a large part of the population of Council Bluffs and Omaha, and most of the people that aimed at it struck it. All the motors not in use on other parts of the line were put on to do duty on the park branch, and every one went packed. Not only were all the seats and the platforms crowded, but the only thing that prevented the cars from carrying loads on the roofs was the fact that the company had neglected to provide ladders by which to ascend. Daibey's band was the attraction. It was the first concert of the season, and the public showed its appreciation of the pleasure furnished by the park commissioners, in unmistakeable terms. All around the band stand was a mass of humanity, walking, lying on the green grass, or rd ng in carriages. The tramp and the hotel clerk, the attorney and the deacon, the working man with his family, the young man with his sweetheart and the young man in search of one, were all there, and enjoyed themselves hugely.

The attendance showed plainly that Fairmount park is coming to be recognized as the people's resort, and there were nearly as many there from Omaha as from the Bluffs. The pavillion for refreshments is fast near ing completion, and when it is done there will be another attraction added to the already large list. There is talk of putting in a large number of seats for the accommodation of the crowds. Just in front of the band stand are several natural amoutheaters whice can be utilized in this way, and it is probable that this will be one of the first improve-ments to be made.

The concerts will be made a regular feature of the rest of the Sunday afternoons during the warm weather. There is also talk of bay ing a celebration in the park on the Fourth of July, with fireworks in the evening.

Pythian Memorial.

The Knights of Pythias held their annual memorial exercises yesterday afternoon in accordance with the plan laid down. At 2:30 the members of the lodges of this city, together with about twenty representatives of the Underwrod lodge, No. 275, gathered in the hall on Pearl street and proceeded with the exercises according to the ritual. After this part of the programme had been com pleted they went to Fairview cemetery, ac-companied by Daibey's band, where they decorated the graves of their dead comrades with flowers. The ritual followed out in this ceremony is singularly beautiful and was highly enjoyed by all all who witnessed it.

Can Have a Fruit Palace.

L. A. Caspar is an enthusiastic worker for Council Bluffs. Seeing that subscrip tions for the proposed fruit palace were not coming in as rapidly as they should, he now comes forward with a novel propisition. It is to the effect that if he can have the assistance of the ladies in decorating the palace, and the citizens will give him $5,000, he will put $20,000 cash into the enterprise and make it a success. As he is financially and morally responsible, the proposition seems to be meeting with great favor, and it is probable that the contract will be closed. Mr. Caspar also proposes that if any other man will make a like proposition he will re-tire in his favor, and also pay the $250 pri-yate subscription which he has already made. He is not so anxious to assume the responsi-bility of such an undertaking as he is to have the enterprise pushed to a success.

Mr. Caspar is peculiarly fitted by experience and natural talents for managing such an exhibit, and it seems that his proposal opens the way for an easy and practical solution of the problem of how best to secure a fruit palace.

In addition to the proposition Mr. Caspar generously promises that in case there is anything made out of the enterprise he will give such profits to the city. There is more than enough subscribed to the former plan to provide the $5,000, and it is probable that most of the subscribers would consent to changing to the new scheme Do not forget that Haller's Pain Paralyzer will cure all cases of dysentery, relieving the griping pain and restoring the bowels to healthy action.

The sheriff was on his way to the police station to ask Chief Seavey's help in hunting for his slick forger when he saw his man on Farnam street. Not a One-Man Government. At the time of Secretary Chase's last resignation—which, by the way, Judge Chittenden thinks was not intended by its author to be accepted—Mr. Lincoln came into the register's room one day and asked him how long the treasury could be run under an acting appointment. Chittenden was horror-struck at the idea of letting Chase go out, and

As the Irishman said. 'In this country one man is as good as another, and, for the matter of that, a deal better.' No, this government does not depend upon the life of any man."
