

SHE WAS FATALLY BURNED.

Ellen Johnson, a Servant Girl, Receives Injuries That Will Kill Her.

SHE WAS COVERED WITH BLAZING OIL.

Lamp in Her Room Exploded—Her Injuries Fatal—Scared a Policeman—Delos Beard Badly Hurt by a Fall.

For twelve days and nights the firemen did not have a call. Last night between 9:30 and 10 o'clock three alarms were turned in.

The first call was from box 35 at Eighteenth and Clark. A policeman was passing the residence of John Adams, Sixteenth and Clark, and saw a lamp flash up. He immediately called the fire apparatus, but there was no blaze and no damage done.

Box 27 was next rung in and called the department to the house of L. M. Anderson, 1919 Burt street. The damage to property at the Anderson residence will not amount to much, but one woman was so badly burned that she will die. The fire started by a lamp explosion in the room of Ellen Jonsson, a servant. The first the family knew of anything wrong was when they saw Miss Johnson running down the stairs with her clothing on fire. Mrs. Anderson and her two sons quickly grabbed some blankets and rushed to smother the flames, while they turned the rest of the household turned their attention to the fire. Bed clothes, curtains and the wall paper were all ablaze. Chief Sutter had his men form a bucket line, and a little water soon put out the fire. The loss would be less than $50.

Mrs. Moore and Van Camp were called to attend the suffering woman. An examination showed that the body from the knees upward was badly burned, as were also the arms and Everything possible under the circumstances was done to save the life of Dr. Van Camp said that the woman would surely die, as so much of her flesh had been burned. A call at the Anderson residence by a fireman failed to elicit any information about the woman's condition. In a manner in which the fire started. It is not known whether the dying woman had any near friends or relatives in the city or not.

At 10:30 p.m. the Burd street alarm, Fire Reporter Boring, telegraphed the fire department. On Izard street between Eighteenth and Nineteenth his buggy ran into a rock pile. The joint three Mr. Bend into a ditch and the car was overturned. The right shoulder, besides injuring him internally. As soon as possible the injured man was conveyed to his home and Dr. Davis summoned. The physician stated that his patient was be he could not say.

ROYAL SPONSORS.

They Assist at a Christening of a Child of the House of Bile.

[Copyright 1891 by James Gordon Bennett.]

LONDON, June 29.—[New York Herald
Cable—Special to THE BEE.]—Alexandra

Victoria Alberta Edwina Louise was the names with which the infant daughter of the duke and duchess of Fife was christened today. Mother and father desired a simple ceremony, but it was graced with every possible royal favor. Among those present were the queen, the prince and princess of Wales, the Princesses Victoria and Maud of Wales, the duke of Clarence and the duke and duchess of Teck and the duke of Cambridge. The marquises of Lorne and the Princess Louise were not present. It is said they were not invited. Her majesty and the queen of Denmark, the infant's great-grandmothers, acted as sponsors. The princess of Wales, as proxy for the queen, handed the child to the archbishop of Canterbury, giving it a kiss heard all over the chapel. The infant was dressed in Irish lace, an heirloom of the Eife family. The christening water was brought from the river Jordan by Lord Rowton, who recently returned from the Holy land. There was a tremendous crowd in St. James street, prin-

Especially of ladies. The infant was held aloft by the nurse while passing and received hand clapping and cheers. The queen wore a black silk dress, black lace shawl and white lace bonnet. The princess of Wales wore a lovely tightly fitting drab dress and a bonnet of sky blue.

Great and general regret is expressed over the resignation of Captain Shaw, chief of the London fire brigade. He has held the post for 25 years and has been a most efficient and capable officer.

position since 1861, having retired from the army in 1860 and for a year has been head of the police and fire brigade of Belfast. He was made a companion of the Bath in 1879 with a salary of £1,300 a year.

WAR ON MEREDITH.

How it is ———— Federation or Section of the
 WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE, }
 513 FOURTEENTH STREET, }
 WASHINGTON, D. C., June 29. }
 Master Workman Powderly and President of the Federation of Labor, are

Gompers of the Federation of Labor are expected here within a few days to add another chapter to the hot contentions which has long been going on between the Knights of Labor and Chief Meredith of the bureau of engraving and printing. Powderly will come to support the ultimatum of the Knights. He is present the ultimatum of the knights. He is said to be not in sympathy with the threat of the knights to boycott McKinley, but it is believed that he has been outvoted on the board. At all events all doubts on the subject will be dispelled within a few days when the ultimatum is presented. The Federal Union, the opposition to tion of Labor, the opposition to the Knights of Labor, is to take up the matter for the good of the reputation of the labor interest. The president of that organization, Mr. Gompers has promised to come down here about July 10 and hear the case. A new phase of the contest has come out by the protest of a num ber of the Knights of Labor against the action of their leaders in carrying on a fight against Meredith. The protestors say the whole row is a result of an indecent conspiracy, of which three discharged employees are the ringleaders. Their names are Jordan, Kinney and Moore. Jordan now keeps a saloon at the corner of 10th and 11th streets.

loon on Ninth street. CURES Headquarters of the crowd that Goldie do not represent him. He and his associates do not represent over 12 per cent of the 300 plate printers employed in the bureau. It is said that about $20,000 have been collected from time to time from local Knights of Labor in order to carry on this war against Meredith. P. S. H.

White and Colored Miners Fight.
SEATTLE, Wash., June 29.—Two companies of the First regiment national guards left for the Franklin coal mines early this morning. The only news received so far is that one white miner has been killed, three wounded, and one negro guard wounded. Over a hundred shots were fired during the riot last evening.

Slave Trading Dying Out.
LONDON, June 29.—Dispatches receive from Zanzibar state that the British officers engaged in fighting the slave trade in east Africa report this trade upon its last legs and that the Brussels anti-slavery act will effectually kill the whole business.

RISEING CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Corn is looking well but some wheat is backward and oats were lodged good deal by the heavy rains and hail.

Lamp in Her Room Exploded—Her Injuries Fatal—Scared a Policeman—Detos Beard Badly Hurt by a Fall.

The first call was from box 35 at Eighteenth and Clark. A policeman was passing the residence of John Adams, Sixteenth and Clark, and saw a lamp flash up. He immediately called the fire companies, but there

Box 27 was next rung in and called the department to the house of L. M. Anderson, 1919 Burt street. The damage to property at the Anderson residence will not amount to much, but one woman was so badly burned that she will die. The fire started by a lamp explosion in the room of Ellen Jonsson, a servant. The first the family knew of anything wrong was when they saw Miss Jonsson running down the stairs with her clothing on fire. Mrs. Anderson and her two sons quickly grabbed some blankets and tried to smother the flames, while the other two rest of the household turned their attention to the fire. Bed clothes, curtains and the wall paper were all ablaze. Chief Suttler had his men form a bucket line and a little water soon put out the fire. The loss will be less than $50.

Drs. Moore and Van Camp were called to attend the suffering woman. An examination showed that the body from the knees up was badly burned, as were also the arms and

Dr. Van Camp said that the woman would surely die, as so much of her flesh had been burned. A call at the Anderson residence by a B.E.U. reporter failed to elicit any information about the injured woman or the manner in which the fire started. It is not known whether the dying woman had any near friends or relatives in the city.

While answering the Burt street alarm, Fire Reporter Beard met with quite a serious accident. On Izard street between Eighteenth and Nineteenth his buggy ran into a rock pile. The jolt threw Mr. Beard into the air, and when he fell he dislocated his right shoulder, besides injuring him internally. As soon as possible the injured man was conveyed to his home and Dr. Davis summoned.

The physician stated that his patient was seriously hurt, but just what the result would be he could not say.

ROYAL SPONSORS.

They Assist at a Christening of a Child of the House of Effe.

[Copyright 1891 by James Gordon Bennett.]

LONDON, June 29.—(New York Herald Cable—Special to THE BEE.)—Alexandra Victoria Alberta Edwina Louise are the names with which the infant daughter of the duke and duchess of Fife was christened today. Mother and father desired a simple ceremony, but it was graced with every possible royal favor. Among those present were the queen, the prince and princesses of Wales, the Princesses Victoria and Maud of Wales, the duke of Clarence and the duke and duchess of Teigr and the duke of Cambridge. The marquiss of Lorne and the Princess Louise were not present. It is said they were not invited. Her majesty and the queen of Denmark, the infant's great-grandmothers, acted as sponsors. The princess of Wales, as proxy for the queen, handed the child to the archbishop of Canterbury, giving it a kiss heard all over the chapel. The infant was dressed in Irish lace, an heirloom of the Fife family. The christening water was brought from the river Jordan by Lord Rowton, who recently returned from the Holy land. There was a tremendous crowd in St. James street, principally of ladies. The infant was held aloft by the nurse while passing and received hand clapping and cheers. The queen wore a black silk dress, black lace shawl and white lace bonnet. The princess of Wales wore a lovely tightly fitting drab dress and a bonnet of sky blue.

Great and general regret is expressed over the resignation of Captain Shaw, chief of the London fire brigade. He has held the position since 1861, having retired from the army in 1860 and for a year has been head of the well-known fire brigade of Belfast.

of the police and fire brigade of Belfast. He was made a companion of the Bath in 1879 with a salary of £1,300 a year.

WAR ON MEREDITH.
 How it is Federation of Section of the
 WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE,
 512 FOURTEENTH STREET.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 29,]
Master Workman Powderly and President
Gompers of the Federation of Labor are expected here within a few days to add another chapter to the hot contentions which have long been going on between the Knights of Labor and Chief Meredith of the bureau of engraving and printing. Powderly will come to present the ultimatum of the Knights. He is said to be not in sympathy with the threat of the knights to boycott McKinley, but it is believed that he has been outvoted in the board. At all events all doubts on the subject will be dispelled within a few days when the ultimatum is presented. The Federation of Labor, the opposition to take up the matter for the good of the reputation of the labor interest. The president of that organization, Mr. Gompers, has promised to come down here about July 10 and hear the case. A new phase of the contest has come out by the protest of a number of the Knights of Labor against the action of their leaders in carrying on a fight against Meredith. The protestors say that whole row is a result of an indecent conspiracy, of which three discharged employees are the ringleaders. Their names are Jordan, Kinney and Moore. Jordan now keeps a saloon on Ninth street. Kinney is in charge of the crowd that gathered around the Gold building. He and his associates do not represent over 12 per cent of the 300 plate printers employed in the bureau. It is said that about

White and Colored Miners Fight.
SEATTLE, Wash., June 29.—Two companies of the First regiment national guards left for the Franklin coal mines early this morning. The only news received so far is that one white miner has been killed, three wounded, and one negro guard wounded. Over a hundred shots were fired during the riot last evening.

Slave Trading Dying Out.
 LONDON, June 20.—Dispatches received from Zanzibar state that the British officers, after a long and hard fighting, the slave trade in East Africa is dying out.

Outlook at Rising.
RISING CITY, Neb., June 29.—[Special.]
THE BEE.]—Corn is looking well but some wheat is backward and oats were lodged

good deal by the heavy rains and hail,

good deal by the heavy rains and hail,