OUR TEAM IS OUT OF SIGHT.

Omaha's Petted Champions Join the Ranks of the Contract Jumpers. ONLY FIVE OF THE MEN REMAIN LOYAL

Shannon and Bis Follows Refuse All Flattering Offers and the New Management Gives Up in Disgust.

All hope of continuing a professional baseball cluo in Omaha this year was abondoned yesterday morning.

This was by action of the citizens' committee on the receipt of positive information that Griffin and Eiteljorg refused to remain. With Shannon, McCauley, Twitchell and Donnelly, these two men also accepted advance money from the Washington American association club, and only remained over here to square themselves, if possible, with the Western association. This, however, was uspossible, and along with the other deserters they will be blacklisted.

The only men who have remained true to their obligations to this association are Baker, Walsh, Clarke and Traffley. What Halligan's intentions are nobody up to date has been able to find out, but the probabilities are that he is to follow Shannon. He is too promising a ball player to be neglected by Shannon in his coup de main in behalf of the American association and the two or three virulent local enemics to the game. Shannon's actions were most culpable, but Shannon's actions were most culpable, but the future will develop whence the inducement for such a base betrayal of the city which had made him a petted and pampered favorite, and the basebail patrons will be apprised of all the particulars as soon as they are collected. The fact is palpable that he made big money by disintegration and distruction of the Omaha basebail club, as he was offered at 000 in cold cash in addition to was effered $1,000 in cold cash, in addition to the handsome salary he was drawing, to get his men in line, and start for his men in line, and start for Denver last night. His money was to have been placed in his hands the moment he boarded the train with his men.

Energy and Halligan, too, were both as-sured of material increase of salary, but all to no purpose. The money back of the scheme to wreck Omaha's chances of continuing her club, outweighed the ridiculously larger offer made to Stennon. It is universally admitted that Enteljorg and Halligan were both underpaid, in com parison with the money being paid inferior men on the team, and in equity the citizens' committee unbestiatingly resolved to do the right thing by them, and wholly counterbalance the injustice done them by the old management. Still all this affords no extenuation for their actions in the case, but is mentioned merely to show that the gentlemen who had volucteered to uphold Omaha's interests, were disposed to do the right thing from the very outset.

There was no question about the most ample financial backing, as the whole business element of the city was ready to come forward to save the club under any or all circumstances. The desertion of all the players but three or four made this a forlorn hope, and it was looked upon as an unwise move to continue with a club made up of dis-carded players from other clubs, and better to wait and build a solid structure for next

The paseball patrons must rest content with the situation, as deplorable as it is, and put their faith in what is to come. The present wreck has but developed the popular hold the great American game has upon the people and there is every assurance that the presen fall and winter will encompass the solidest basebell organization the city has known, and next spring there will be a fresh start and under such anspices as will assure a grand success, with no blatant blackguard to villify and slander the people and no mercenary head and front to freeze everybody out in an attempt to hog everything in sight.

Another thing, the climax has not yet been reached by a long shot, and there is to be an afterclap that will meet with the uproarous approbation of every true lover and supporter of the game. Nero fiddled while Rome was burning, as all we old Romans know, and we also know the mon-strous old emperor fied atterwards to the shanty of one of his ex-slaves in the country and cut his own throat to rid himself of the haunting evils of his sins.

There is a long story yet to be told, as soon as the proper parties get it in shape, con-nected with the wrecking of the Omaha base ball club, which will be interesting from chapter one down to last Sunday night, whe the team was plied with liquors and piloted the rounds of the city brothels, in fur-therance of the vile scheme to consummate the ends of the enemies of enterprise

WESTERN ASSOCIATION. Lincoln Takes Another from the Kan sas City Champions.

Lincoln, Neb., July 15 .- [Special Tele gram to THE BEE. |-The Farmers showed their ability to win today when they made un their minds to do so. The Cowboys put but were outgeneraled by the agriculturists. Ehret was in the box for Lincoln, and with the exception of a ridiculous toss to first, about ten feet too high, when he had a dead sure thing, he played a faultless game. Swartzel of the Kansas Citys was not very far behind him in pitching. The two Wil-sons, respectively cateners for the Farmers and Cowboys, divided the honors about

But the hero of the occasion was Farmer Roat who stopped every ball within a radius of a hundred feet and dispatched them in-variably to first with a celerity that was fatal to the cow punchers. Shortstop Ray-mond did almost equally as well.

Up to the fifth inning no runs were made by either nine. In the fifth Farmer Raymond made a base hit. He then stole second and was advanced to third by Burkett being given his base on balls. Roat's sacrifice hit brought him in among deafening plaudits. In the sixth Wilson made a base hit, got to third on a wild throw of his namesake, and made the second and last score on Monk Cline's sacrifica hit fice hit. Manager Rowe is of the opinion, therefore, that his original theory of sacrifice hits is all right. Score:

Duluth Used Up. Sloux City, Ia., July 16.-Today the Huskers won their third consecutive game, and used up the Lake Superior boys in awful shape. At the opening Duluth had the best of it, but became badly rattled in the fifth, after which it was circus play all around. Umpire Gaffney was hit in the neck in yesterday's game and was unable to appear. Hart for Duluth and Meakin for Sloux City made the decisions. Barston was hit rather freely and Dewald put up his usual game.

Burlingtons Beat the Indians. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., July 15 .- [Special relegram to THE BEE.]-The Pine Ridge club of noble red men wrestled this after noon with the Burlingtons through seven innings of baseball. The novelty of the occasion attracted an immense crowd of onlookers who packed themselves into the grand stand like sardines in a box, and lined the fences as thick as flies. Peculiar interest at-tached to the contest in the fact that within the confines of Plattsmouth lies the historic battle field on which the flower of the Sioux and Pawnee nations bit the dust in a most sanguinary engagement. Mingling with the ghosts of the past were the real live descendants of the relentless warriors of the plains, battling almost upon the exact spot of their ancestors' ensanguined field with their white foes in a contest of civilized pastime. It may have been that the blood of their proud and untamed ancestors cried aloud from out the ground, for many an easy liner was badly fumbled, and several flies were missed. As ball players they are above the average, but could not compete with the now reorganized and invincible Burlingtons, who put up an errorless and faultless game Sam Patterson's delivery was too speedy and deceptive, only four base hits being made by the reds, while the Burlingtons pounded the sphere all over the field. Little Bear behind the bat, Red Wing on secand Hawk Eve on third did excellent work, as did White Horse in left field. Score by innings:

Base hits: Indians, 4; Burlingtons, 16. Errors: Indians, 7; Burlingtons, 0. Struck out: By Indians, 6; by Samuel Patterson, 7. Umpire: McCoy.

The baseball editor of THE BEE succeeded yesterday aftergoon in keeping Eddie Eiteljorg, the premier pitcher of the Western association, from aut of the ramshackle confines of the American association, by signing fines of the American association, by signing him for the Chicago National league club at a salary of $425,per month for the balance of the season with $250 advance money, and local baseball patrons can have the satisfaction of anowing that the star of the whole of Omaha's late aggregation went back on his contract with the wreckers and is landed safely under the banners of the national agreement. Statement of the Doctors on the Late Electrocutions.

Naw Youk, July 15 .- Under the electrical execution law the prison warden, when the executions occur, is required within ten days thereafter to file certificates of death, Warden Brown of Sing Sing complied with the law today, and with the certificates were deposited a statement signed by the doctors and warden. It is affirmed that the four men recently put to death at Sing Sing walked unaided and unrestrained to the chair; that unconsciousness was instantan-cous with the turning on of the current, and that the application was continued until the men were certainly dead. The fact of an autopsy and the taking away of specimens was stated and the opinion was expressed that the method is the best in use.

BUT HE DIDN'T KICK.

Experience of an Omaha Gambler with His Partner. Episodes in which the "dead games" are nterested sometimes get into print, and sometimes they don't. It may be as well to state en passant that the following belongs to the former category:

"Only two days ago there resided in this city an individual of speculative propensities known to the members of the "profesh" as Brick Price. He don't reside here now. His mail might reach him at Scattle, but this is not guaranteed to be a straight tip.

The facts connected with Mr. Price's disappearance are not numerous, but as he considered them sufficient it would be out of place for a disinterested party to kick. Brief and another speculator who is best known by the euphonious and suggestive sobriquet of Studnorse Bill, have for some time past been engaged in running a snide joint not more than 1,500 miles from the police station. The business of doing up suckers with neatness and dispatch was successfully carried on and dispatch was successfully carried on. Bill acting as principal while Brick starred satisfactorily as an accessory. They might be there yet but for a certain weakness that Bill entertained for the fair sex.

Tues lay afternoon a friend entered the place and stated that two susceptible females were in the city. Bill waited to hear no more, but at once donned his coat, turned over the bank roll of about $250 to Brick to avoid being touched if he happened to get elated, and was gone.

avoid being touched if he happened to get elated, and was gone.

Now it so happened that Brick was of the opinion that Bill had "done him dirt" in days gone by and at once realized that here was the opportunity to get even. He waited only until Bill was fairly on the street when he pocketed the money, made tracks for South Omaha and bought a ticket for Scattle.

No Bill didn't sound and what's more he No. Bill didn't squeal, and what's more, he won't. Think a man who fishes for suckers right along will holler when he gets caught imself! Don't you believe it. basn't a word to say, and it was only by the merest accident that the story got out. Some of the boys got onto it, and unfortunately everybody is not born dumb.

SUGAR INSPECTORS.

Many Clamoring for a Difficult Government Position. Mr. John Peters, collector of revenue for he Omaha district, is receiving a great many letters from parties who would like to be ap pointed sugar inspector for the state of Nebraska. Under the bounty law it will be necessary to have at least two sugar inspectors for the great Oxnard sugar factories at Grand Island and Norfolk. The bounty to be paid upon sugar manufactured in the United states is 1½ cents per pound for all sugar that stands a tests of 92 degrees and 2 cents per pound for all that goes over 98 de-Mr. Oxnard says that their A I sugar last year went 99.8 degrees and he thinks a large portion of their output this year will draw the 2 cent a pound bounty. The company has already forwarded to Washington, as re-quired by law, the preliminary statement with regard to the probable output, the kind of sugar manufactured and the process and resources of the plant. In this statement the Oxnard company states that the probable output this year will be about five or six mil-

Mr. Oxnard is anxious that the men anpointed to inspect the sugar shall be thoroughly competent. It requires a thorough knowledge of chemistry and the use of the polariscope and other delicate apparatus to be able to inspect sugar. The chances are that not one man in fifty among those who have applied, to the government for the position of sugar inspector knows any more about how to make a scientific chemical test of the sweet granules that will be produced at Grand Island and Norfolk than an East Omaha bull-frog knows about the music of Wagner.

SPASMODIC ACTIVITY OF THE REBELS.

Congressional Party Is Still in the Field-Balmaceda Not Strong at Sea-British Sympathy Waning.

PANAMA, July 15 .- Although active hostilities between the congressional and government forces in Chill were resumed a few days ago and resulted in a victory for the former and the capture of Husseo, there seems little reason to doubt that this incident was merely a spasmodic movement, meant more as a demonstration of the fact that the revolution is still alive. This fact the very insignificance of the place operated against tends to demonstrate. It is very probable that the present condition of affairs will continue until the entry into office of Senor Don Claudio Vicuna, tne president-elect. Then negotiations of satisfactory arrangements will not only be possible, but very probable. Meanwhile interest must be kept up, hence the late descent on Huasco. According to newspaper reports this move was pending since the middle of May, when the transport Maipoa left Iquique to aid in receiving and distributing arms. She appears to have now turned up with munitions for an army of 25,000 men, and the blow has been struck. Otherwise the states munitions for an army of 25,000 men, and the blow has been struck. Otherwise the status and the status of the status o port Imperials keep moving about the Tara-paca coast, but are not strong enough to en-force the blockage of the port. They have to keep well out of the range of the big con-gressional ships. The foreign element in Chili seems to be greatly favoring the congressional cause.

The sympathy, both direct and indirect, of the British element with the congressional party is not serious.

The Balmaceda congress has passed an act providing that hereafter all import dues or storage charges must be paid in gold or silver, calculated on bills at 38 pence. This de-cree has had the effect of enhancing the prices of all imported goods, and it is stated prices of all imported goods, and it is stated that the increase has been generally between
