Shannon, Griffin, Eiteljorg, Sutchiffe and Halligan Given Places in the Field-Yesterday's Western Association Games.

WASHINGTON, July 19 -- Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- The question as to the future of the "Omaha contingent" of baseball players, whose fate has agitated sporting circles during the past week, is settled. They will play in Washington. Griffin and Eiteljorg arrived yesterday, and they come with their absolute and unqualified written releases. Halligan stopped over to see his mother in Ohio and arrived here this morning. Sutcliffe stopped over to visit his family in Illinois and will arrive tomorrow morning. Shannon took advantage of the respite and went to Connecticut to visit relatives and will also arrive here tomorrow and all the new men will take part in tomorrow's game. Thus all doubt of their coming is removed. The team is wonderfully strengthened, and all lovers of the game are made happy.

Griffin and Eiteljorg stopped off at Chicago, and Mr. Anson took advantage of the opportunity to see if money was not an inducement for Eiteljorg to join his team. Mr. Eiteljorg informed him that he had accepted advance money from Washington and an proposition could be made that would induce him to jump his promise to the National club. A similar proposition was made by the Cincinnati league club to Griffle to jump his Washington contract, and to Sutcliffe by the Boston league club to jomp his contract, but they were made of sturdier stuff and declined all overtures. In the game tomorrow Halligan will play right

He is now a member of the sophomore class at Princeton. He has played tennis about three years, but was never entered in a tourney before this. In playing for first place he defeated Hoicombe in three straight soits. Mr. Denise relies chiefly on his back court play. His drives are very good, and he is especially noted for his peculiar back-hand service. He plays a cool, graceful game that is much admired. 2001, graceful game that is much admired. W. D. Osgood, the son of Captain Osgood of General Brooke's staff, is known as a "star" player. At the spring tournament at Lincoln he captured second place in the singles. Fitzsimmons and Hall.

Sr. PAUL, Minn., July 19.-Next Wedneslay night occurs the battle of the year for supremacy in the middleweight class. It will be the greatest ring event of the present decade. Both Fitzsimmons and Hall are in prime condition already and ready to fight for their lives. The stories from Beloit indicate that Hall is sanguine, and everybody who has been out to White Bear lake to see "Fitz" knows that he feels positive of a vic-"Fitz knows that he feels positive of a vic-tory. He remarked today to a reporter: "I shall not stop training till Tuesday, as I must gain a pound of flesh and train up instead of down. Today I have ran around twice four miles. I weigh 150 pounds and on the night of the light I in-tend to weigh 154. I am in perfect condi-tion. I shall claim the rorfeit if Hall weighs over 156 pounds and I shall fight to win from start to finish. Hall is a clever pugilist. He will endeavor to win and I have $5,000 worth of confidence that he won't." The sale of lickets progresses steadily. Upward of one thousand have already been taken and there is a scramble for the best seats, that is, the $15 places.

Not only has this fight aroused the sport-ing world, but the church-going people are greatly excited. Mr. Noves, ex-president of the chamber of commerce, called upon Mayor Smith vesterday and requested the executive to put a stop to the fight. The visit was the outgrowth of a correspondence between the two gentlemen, in which the mayor informed Mr. Noyes that the mill would be conducted within the law. The mayor insists that the fight will bring a great deal of money to the city; that it will do great good in advertising St. Paul, and that he thinks it is a worthy enterprise. Today nearly every pulpit in the city was aroused against the fight, and an indignation meeting has been called for tomorrow night at the Newmarket hall. However, the preparations for the fight are completed, and there seems not the slightest probability of its failing to

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., July 19. - [Special Felegram to Tuz Bas.]-Today's game of ball between the Burlingtons and the Lincoln Giants was the most interesting and exciting ever played on these grounds. The score was tied in the eighth inning, standing 10 to 10, and three more innings had to be played to decide the contest. Both teams played with vim and zest, and after the first down to witness a great game. Their expectations were verified and excitement ran high throughout the eleven innings. Per-rine pitched a splendid game and Creighton begind the bat drd excellent work. In the seventh the Lincoins make five runs after two men were out and in the eighth two men got in on Motz's wild throw from first to home in an attempt at a double play. When the Burlingtons went to bat in the eighth the game looked dubious, with the score 10 to 7 in favor of Lincoln, and when the first two men went out Plattsmouth's hopes sank to zero. But Miller, the base stealer, got to first, stole second and third and crossed the plate on Tom Patterson's safe drive to center. Then Sam Patterson, with critical eye, picked out the hypnotized willow wand, stepped up to the plate and slashed the ball out clear over right field fence into a potatoe patch for a home run and amid the uproarous yelling of the exultant throng the two Patterson boys came sailing home and the score was tied. In the minth, tenth and eleventh the Lincoln's went out in one, two three order, and in the last half of the eleventh Sam Patter-son again crossed the plate with Motz and Perrine on bases and the great game was won. Story of an Indiana Girl's Wreck, Desertion and Discovery-What a Brother Found Last Night.

About six years ago pratty Mollie Caldwell left her home at Logansport, Ind., to visit relatives in the west. The young girl, about seventeen years old, then the daughter of a wealthy was and highly respected judge 10 Cass county, Indiana. She had been educated at a young ladies' seminary and the usual restrictions had been placed upon her actions. This may account in a measure for her high spirits and unusual happiness when she found berself for the first time on a train absolutely free and able to do as she pleased. Before she had journeyed far Miss Caldwell made the acquaintance of a fine looking young man who was then and is now engaget in the grain business at Auburn Soon the couple were engaged in a lively flirtation. The young man with his handsome face and pleasing ways soon complete master of the neart of the dark-eyed girl graduate. By the time Red Oak, In., was reached, Harkness-for that was the young man's name-had induced the girl to leave the train with him. Upon a promise of marriage as soon as Omaha was reached the girl spent the night with her lover at a hotel. The journey was continued and the girl was over anxious to reach the city where she supposed she would be married to her handsome lover. One excuse after another was given for the postponement of the ceremony and finaly Mrs. Caldwell went to Auburn, where she lived for a while as the mistress of the man who ruined her. After awhile she was thrown aside for new conquest and the broken hearted girl, with what money she had, managed to reach Omaha. Upon her arrival here she determined to lead a better life, and with this object in view, sought em-ployment. When her small amount of money had been exhausted, and no work of any kind in view she drifted back to the bad and

THEY PLAY TENNIS.

Something About the Young Men's Christian Association Club.

The Young Men's Christian Association tennis club, organized in the summer of 1889 is the largest and best club in the city. The grounds are charmingly situated on a plat of ground on Harney street between Twontieth and Twenty-fourth streets. The club has about fifty members. Included in its ranks are some of the best tournament players in Omaha. Its five well-kept dirt courts are in constant use during the summer months, and spirited and well-contested matches are of daily occurrence. At the formal opening at the grounds this season, a large number of visitors were prea-ent, and many were the expressions of ad-miration at the fine condition of the grounds and the excellent appointments of the club. The spirit of the club is very progressive, and it is owing to the untiring efforts of Messrs. W. S. Sheldon and John Brown, its genial and popular secretary, that the tour-nament closed Saturday night, was such a grand anosea grand success.

The tournament committee is perfecting arrangements for a "free-for-all" tourney to be held here the second week in August, be open to city players.

Many valuable prizes will be put up by the club to be competed for, and the winner at the senior singles will capture the championship of the city. The event is exciting great interest in tennis circles, and the cracks at the various clubs are in daily practice in its anticipation

CHATTANOOGA MINERS.

They Meet and Take Action to Redress

Grievances. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 19 .- At a largey attended meeting of working people with the federation of trades representing sixteen trades and callings in the city it was unanimously resolved that the present trouble existing at Briceville, is but the natural outcome of the long and persistent violation of law on the part of the mine owners in refusing to permit the election of a check weigher to insure fair weight for coal moved, and also of the un-American attempt to compel employes to sign an agreement not to affiliate with any organization. This open violation of the laws of the state and the open attempt to intimidate the men were both brought to the attention of the state authorities and by them utterly ignored and left unredressed. The governor was censured for taking an armed force to assist in the work of intimidation and opposing the miners, and the militia was condemned, the opinion being expressed that all laboring men, union or non-union, in their ranks should return home, as they are acting contrary to every dictate and im-pulse that should exist in the hearts of fair and honest working citizens. meeting further passed resolutions endorsing the miners and condemning the authorities and mine owners. H. H. Schwartz, the chairman of the executive committee. Was sent to Briceville to present the resoluti and state the feeling existing here. H. н. н. Schwartz, B. R. Thomas and H. A. Markey were appointed a committee to publish the resolutions and request all labor unions in the state to take like action. They will also forward to the governor the following petition: To his Excellency. Governor Buchanan-At a formal and representative meeting the fol-lowing resolution was unan mously adopted. Resolved. That we, the laborers and mechanics of Chattanooga and Hamilton county, in open meeting assembled under the auspices of the federation of labor unions hereby respectfully petition your excellency to call at the earliest moment a special ses-sion of the legislature to consider the peni-tentiary and convict lease system.

SUPREME COURT NOT IN IT.

Judge Mokay of Kansas Makes Another Peculiar Move.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 19.-Goorge W. Mc-Kay, the alliance judge in the twenty-fourth district, has taken another turn at the supreme court. He placed a warrant in the hands of the coroner of Harper county for the arrest of the sheriff, who had obeyed the orders of the sherin, who had obeyed the orders of the supreme court instead of his own. B. A. Burr, who had twice been arrested before—once while the supreme court had the case pending before it-was for the third time ar-rested on an order from McKay. The bench and the bar are awaiting with breathless anxiety the next move of the jurist who presides over the Twenty-fourth district and langus at the plutocratic judges in Topeka, who think they can dictate to him because they are called supreme judges. This morning the attorneys for Burr submitted to the supreme court the necessary papers for having McKay arrested for con-tempt of court. Judge Valentine is the only judge now in the city. This case will become historic.

Stars Win Again.

A game was played Saturday afternoon between the Young Men's Christian Association juniors and the Twenty-seventh street stars. The Young Men's Christian Association boys were not in it, the Stars winning easy by a score of 21 to 5. The Young Men's Christian Association boys played with only six of their men, which accounts for the defeat. This makes two games the Young Men's Christian Association boys have lost out of six games. They expect to go to Ashland Wednesday and Hastings Saturday to play the Young Men's Christian Association boys at those points. The score :
