LON KNIGHT COMES IN FOR HIS SHARE.

His Work Alleged to be Worse Than Blogg's-Milwaukee and Duluth Have a Hard Tussle-Other Games.

DENVER, Colo., July 23 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-Although the Denvers outbatted the visitors and made numerous long hits, they were unable to win. The principal feature of the game was Knight, who is posing as an umpire. The exhibition he has given in the two series of games just completed has been the worst ever seen on the Denver grounds, even Blogg of last year not excluded. An unjust decision in the ninth prevented Denver making the two runs that would have tied the score.

In the first Tebenu hit safe, stole second and reached third on Beard's hit. A passed ball and O'Connor's two bagger scored both players. Cline took first on balls, as did Raymond. Tebeau's error scored Cline and D. Rowe's hit scored Raymond.

In the fourth Ehret's base on balls, a wild pitch and P. Wilson's hit scored one for Lincoln.

O'Connor's home run after Beard had singled out and Burns had been hit by the ball gave I enver three in the fifth, but in the same inning Burket made a hit, Dave Rowe was given first and hits by Stafford and Rost scored three for Lincoln. In the sixth Denver scored one on Gilliland's hit and ne succeeded in getting 'round the bases on Lincoln's errors. In the same inning Lincoln made two on McGarr's errors. This ended the scoring, though in the seventh Lincoln had three men on bases, Jack Rowe knocked a fly to Fournier, who caught an ambitious runner at the plate, a very neat play. In the ninth with a man on second and another on third. McGarr knecked a clean single down on the inside of the foul line, but Knight said foul and McGarr afterwards

Barston Was Easy

DULUTU, Minn., July 23 .- The Milwaukees won today's game by doing the heaviest hitting and a little the most frequent. Barston, for the home team was no earthly good, was wild and was easily found. McHale was substituted for him in the seventh inning and the Brewers did not score after that, but one scratch hit being made off his delivery. Phenomonal Smith was in the box for the visitors at the opening, but Vickery went in at the fifth inning and did good work. Attendance about one thousand.

FITZSIMMONS AND HALL BOTH TALKING.

Each Claims to Be Able to Lick the Other-Slavin Given a Round Roasting by Arthur Lumley.

St. Paul, Minn., July 23.-[Special Telegram to THE BRE. |-This has been a memorable day in the history of this slow-going old village. The sore and disgusted sports, representing every city of any considerable mportance in the country, have kept the atmosphere sulphurous with their imprecations. All day they have lingered here, hoping that the great mill between Fitzsimmons and Hall would come off somehow or some way, but hope was abandoned this evening, and there is a general stampede for out-going trains. Out of pocket and out of temper, a more rattled crowd never assembled under the sun. The only complacent people are those behind and in support of Hall. The opposition, or the Fitzsimmons contingent, claim the Hall wing were overjoyed at the interposition of the authorities, and welcomed it as a providential deliverance from certain defeat. Fitz, himself, declares that Parson Davies did not only hair this interference with delight, but that he sided and abetted it, and has balked every attempt to get the fight off on the question. He said that the instant the mill was formally declared off, Hall boarded a brougham with a lot of kindred spirits and fled to the races. Then, when his friends proposed Hudson, Wis., and the Twin City club, the Hall people claimed that their man was out of reach and that he had lost form by his day of leisure at the race track.

On the other hand Fitz staved in his room and begged and beseeched both sides to miss no opportunity to get the battle off. The big red-headed slugger actually pretended to shed tears when it was finally announced to him that there was no hope of getting the Unique if Not Veracious.

A tale of a proposed midnight fight, which may or not be true, is very interesting in this connection. It is said that a neat little coup had been arranged last night with the aid of the St. Paul police by which the fight was to come off at midnight in the amphitheater. Mayor Smith was very wroth at Governor Merriam for interfering with a municipal affair, and he was not unwilling to lend his policemen to this plan so as to get even. The police were to surround the building and prevent any and all county sheriffs from approaching the building. Their endeavors to carry out the plan to circumvent Governor Merriam's manuale and the state law was cleverly arranged, but like many another deverly arranged scheme, it failed. Sheriff Bean got wind of the affair and immediately ordered four companies of militia to march to the amphitheater and see that the law was obeyed. The mulitia took possession of the building and grounds immediately. A cordon of soldiers was placed about it and Colonel Bend reigned supreme. The force guarding the Athletic club's amphitheater was discontinued this morning, and this evening the city is assuming its normal state of quietude and dullness.

Hall Was Willing.

I spent several hours with Davies, Klein, I spent several hours with Davies, Klein, Wakeley, McCoy and Donaldson this afternoon, and they claim the Fitzsimmon blow and biuster is all for effect. Hall was a terribly disappointed man when informed that the fight would not take place, and he importuned Davies and Klein to use every effort to get it off in private. He said the money hung up cut no figure, that he would make the fight simno figure, that he would make the fight sim ply for glory; that Fitzsimmons laid down once before him for £15, and that he was now ready and anxious to prove to the world that he could make him lay down again. He said further that he would keep himself in condi tion for ten days longer, and that if the fight could be got off anywhere, he would be there The money received for the sale of tickets was refunded this morning, and during the day Fitzsimmons and Hall will each receive a check for $1,500 from the Minnesota club as in honorarium in part recompense of their outlay in training. The total loss to the ciul will not be less than $10,000. It is given out that all the officers will resign in short order and the organization wil in all probability be disbanded Replying to rumors that negotiations were still in progress looking to a meeting across the state line, Parson Davies, in behalf of Hall, informed me this evening that an en counter at the present time is now absolutely out of the question, and that it is useless for any of the visiting sports to remain in town in the hope that something may yet turn up.

New Orleans' Last Offer. In behalf of the Southern Athletic club, George M. Franks of New Orleans this afternoon made a final proposition to Parson Dayles and proposition to Parson Dayles and Jimmy Carroli to bring Fitzsimmons and Hall together in the Crescent City in ten days for a purse of $5,000 and all expenses or a purse of $10,000 and expenses for a fight in October. They were given until 6 o'clock tonight to reply. Fitzsimmons is favorable to the acceptance of the first proposition, and Hall will certainly be agreeabl The Omaha delegation consisting of probably half a hundred well-known citize

The letter is breezy and interesting all the way through, but there were parts of it that smote upon Arthur T. Lumley of the Illustrated News and James Wakely and Charles Johnston, the backers and nearest friends of the champion of the world. Mr. Lumley was not at all pleased with a part of the letter in which Slavin insinuated that Lumley was not a responsible stakeholder. Nevertheless he was not violent in his displeasure. He could afford to laugh at the lusinuation. What worried Messrs, Wakely and Johnston was this paragraph: I was rather surprised and exceedinly amused to hear that Messrs. Wakely and Jonaston had posted $1,000 with Mr. Lumley to bind a match jetween myself and Sullivan. They had taken the precaution to let me go wellon my journey home before they ran this terrible risk. The more so, as I journeyed to St. Louis with the object of doing that which they are newspretending to do.

Mr. Lumley went into the Heraid office. Mr. Lumley Went into the Heraid office yesterday and said: "I am greatly sur-prised at the lethernlieged to have been writprised at the letter alleged to have been writ-ten by Slavin. Alis easy to read between the lines and see, the hand of Mitchell in it all the way through. I like Slavin first rate, although I am the friend of John L. Sullivan, who is not only champion of the world, but in my estimation likely to be came. The letter doubt-less was written or dictated by Slavin, but it seems to me very clear that Mitchell's init seems to me very clear that Mitchell's in-fluence is visible all the way through it. Not only that, but Mitchell has had and is having a wrong influence on Slavin. When the Australian came here he would not allow himself to be introduced as champion of the world. When filly Madden so introduced him be made a speech denying that he claimed to be champion of the world and say-ing that all he warried was the bread and beef he could get by fighting. This was the way Slavin acted all the time he was here, like a good, manly, straight-forward fellow. As soon as he returned to England, how-ever, he was introduced as champion of the world, greeted and cheered as champion of the world, and so far as I can learn he made not the slightest objection to either the in-troduction or the greeting. That sort of thing is not like Slavin.

"As to Slavin's letter, I want to say that Messrs. Wakely and Johnson posted $1,000 forfeit with me fully twelve hours before

FIGHTINGO ON PAPER AGAIN. Stavin and Mitchell left this country. Slavin had publicly said, 'If there is any possible chance to make a match with Sullivan I will remain in America. He certainly was notified in good time that there was a chance to van as soon as he covers our money, make a match. I even sent a man to the steamer so that there could be no mistake about it. My man saw Slavin and asked him if he would leave a representative here to make a match. Slavin said: 'No, I'll not do anything new, I'm going to England and I'll see about this when I get to England.'

"It strikes me that Slavin has seen about it since he got to England. He knows very well that he can make a match to fight Sulfi. well that he can make a match to fight in carnest with all his talk now, why doesn't he post some money in England! If he puts up any money there I'll guarantee that Charley Johnston will cover it as soon as it is osted. Slavin knows that.
"As for the excase that I am not a responsible man to hold the stakes for a contest between Sullivan and Slavin, that is very lame, I do not think that I am the proper man to hold the stakes in such a contest because I am a warm personal friend of Sullivan, but Slavin knows quite well that was only the temporary stake holder to take care of the $1,000 deposit. If he had covered that it would have been easy enough to find a permanent stakeholder. Now, I have this proposition to make: Mr. Johnston will call at the Herald office temorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. He will deposit $1,000 forfeit to bind a match between Sullivan and Francis Patrick Slavin. The contest shall come off this fall. Slavin says he is coming here in October. He can bring the rest of the stake with him and put it up then. As soon as Mr. Johnston hears from Sullivan he will put up the balance of the stake, if Slavin wants to cover it. He need not go all the way to Australia to make a match with Sullivan. He can get it here fast enough and he knows it. Besides the $1,000 deposit with the Herald, Mr. Johnson will leave $1,000 in my hands, so that Slavin's backers can cover which ever deposit they choose. By the way, I wonder why Slavin is so anxious not to fight Peter Jack-son. It is hard to believe that he is afraid of Jackson and yet several Australians have brought word to this country that just about the time Slavin sailed from Melbourne for England he was due to spar eight round-with Jackson at Larry Foley's place. Jack son was there and ready to go on, but Slavin had disappeared, and the next heard of him was in England. Of course I don't believe that Jackson drove Slavin out of Australia but why doesn't Slavin fight Jackson now Peter is willing."

Kissed and Made Up. LONDON, July 23 .- In explanation of the disgraceful quarrel that occurred between Mitchell and Slavin in a Liverpool theater on Wednesday night Mitchell writes that Slavin and himself had been to the races and had indulged in liquor freely. During the sparring exhibition Slavin lost his per and both set to in earnest, giving the audience a rare chance to see the two champions on their real merits Afterwards the two men shook hands and supped and took wine together. Slavin telegraphs that he is the best of friends with Mitchell. In spite of these assurances the theatre in which the pugilists were giving exhibitions has cancelled their engagements.

Sully's Forfeit Posted. New York, July 13 .- Charley Johnston of Brooklyn on behalf of John L. Sultivan called at the Herald office today and deposited $1,000 to bind a match with Francis Patrick Slavin to fight for the championship of the world. The money is to be held until September I for Slavin or his backers to cover. Johnston insists that the fight shall take place in America. The news that Sullivan had posted the money was cabled to England.

DRIVEN OUT.

South Omaha's Police Station Moved in a Hurry. South Omaha's police force had occasion to hustle about 2:30 this morning.

The ramshackle building in which the station was located has been getting more and more dangerous of late, and last night actually began to tumble down.

About midnight the walls commenced to crack, but the men in charge thought they could stick it out until morning. This proved fallacious, however, for the condition grew worse rapidly and about 2:30 the rear wall began tumbling in.

Then the night force commenced to hustle out the furniture and prisoners. No one was hurt, nor was any of the city's property greatly damaged. The building is a wreck. DIED IN MOTHER'S ARMS.

Vatican's Policy in France.

ROME, July 23,-In connection with the reception accorded on Monday last to Mgr. Ferrata, the new papal nuncio at Paris, by President Carnot and in view of the nuccio's announcement that he hoped to draw closer the ties existing between the vatican and France, the following facts may be interesting:

Mgr. Ferrata, previous to leaving Rome, in order to join the post assigned him, had a long conference with the pope, Cardinal Rampolla and Cardinal Rotelli, the ex-nuncio at Paris. Political subjects were touched upon at length. Mgr. Ferrata, it is understood, as a result of these conferences, must have mapped out with the pope a fixed and precise line of conduct for the application in France of the republican policy of Cardinal Lavigarie. The vatican is absolutely decided n spite of the threats and the persuasions o monarchists, to continue the policy of ad hesion to the republic in order to restore France to union and to religious and politi-cal pacification. All the authorities of the holy see are of one mind upon this point, and the renewal of the triple alliance will only give strength to this evolution, which will mark a new departure in the international ecclesiastical policy of the holy see,
The programme of Mgr. Ferrata will consist: First, in applying his principle to the constitutional right party of M. Plau in the chamber of deputies; second, in prevailing upon the bishops and clergy, one after the other, to make a solemn act of adhesion; thirdly, to constitute a vast Catholic union in the country outside of the dynastic parties. The vatican wishes above all that the monarchial parties should not meddle in the movement so as to deteriorate it and lead it astray. The pope was very much astonished to see that this old party was seeking on all sides to place itself in the new grouping in order to be able to attain its leadership or direction and to retain its representation This attempt to create confusion and to turn aside the real purpose of the movement should not succeed and Mgr. Ferrata is in-structed to see that the evolution is accomolished to the profit of the great new and relgious interests of France

Case of Double Dealing. Sr. Petersuurg, July 23.-It was reported in April last that a naval captain named Schmidt had been condemned and executed in secret for selling the plans of the defenses of Kronstadt. It is now officially announced that Captain Schmidt nas just been sentenced to banishment to Siberia. This leniency, it is explained, is due to the fact that the goverament had obtained proof that Captain Schmidt had fallen into the hands of a few usurpers, who induced him to sell the plans to a Jew. This Jew, it is alleged, acted in a very treacherous manner with the unfortun-ate captain, as he retained the bribe given by the foreign power, which eventually ob-tained possession of the plans, and then be-trayed Schmidt for a reward to the Russian
