

SUMMER SUBURBAN SOCIETY.

Daings of the Fashionables During the Dog Days.

MOVEMENTS OF WELL KNOWN PEOPLE.

What Omaha Neighbors Find to Entertain Them When Times Are Dull and Life at a Stand-Still.

Nebraska City.

Miss Dora McCoy returned home Tuesday. Miss Stevenson left for the south Wednesday.

Miss Minnie Levi of Omaha is visiting in the city Monday.

Mrs. Charles Edmonds went to Omaha Tuesday.

Mrs. James Butler left Thursday for Chicago on a visit.

Mrs. Lena Farnum, who has been visiting friends in Ames for the past two weeks, has returned here.

Miss Minnah Hawke started Monday evening for Chicago. She was joined at Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Will Rector.

Mrs. Reel left Thursday for a trip to her home in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. William G. McMillan, who has been visiting Captain Morrison and other relatives in the city, returned to her home at Albion, Ia., Monday.

Miss Martha Brandt, the bright young daughter of Editor Brandt of the Staats Zeitung, gave a party for her young friends Monday evening.

A party was given Saturday night at the Thorp hotel in honor of the Misses Silverburg of Chicago, who are cousins of Miss Jennie Blum.

Mrs. R. M. Rolfe and Mrs. Emmens Rolfe gave a 7 o'clock tea at the residence of R. M. Rolfe Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. George Tennie is in Kansas. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, a son, on July 25.

Mr. George Haer was up from Grafton Tuesday.

Miss Nettie Greay has been in Sutton for a few days.

Logan Stephens arrived home Tuesday afternoon.

of Omaha here with Mrs. E. D. Cummins in this city.

Mrs. C. S. Dawson and Mrs. George E. Drey and daughter, Elva, attended the "Kaukana" matinee in Omaha on Wednesday.

Miss Minnie Houseworth, who has been the guest of relatives in the city for a week, returned home to Lincoln Wednesday morning.

The Misses Annie and Florence Weir, who have been the guests of Mrs. P. C. Minor in this city, returned to their home in Omaha Tuesday morning.

William Balaban has returned from Michigan City, whither he had been called by the sudden illness of his son Francis, who has just returned on a short vacation. He reports France to be convalescing rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Klepper of Nebraska City, accompanied by Miss Barbara Keas of Lincoln, are here visiting the families of O. F. Johnson and J. E. Simpson during the week, returned to Nebraska City Wednesday morning.

The birthday of Mrs. Falk, the wife of the minister of the Swedish Congregational church, was the occasion of a surprise party Monday evening, tendered her by the members of the church.

The second meeting of Star of Nebraska lodge, No. 4, Degree of Honor, of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, occurred at the hall Monday evening, and was largely attended by the members of both sexes.

The following persons were duly initiated: Messrs. and Mesdames E. S. Grousel, C. W. Sherman, Fredrick Meadows, Nellie Farmer, Elizabeth Bibby and Misses Lettie Smith and Elizabeth Bibby.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Youngers, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brown, are rascading in the Rockies.

Mr. J. H. Lendmalich and niece, Miss Virginia McGrew, are spending a few days in Wyoming.

Miss Elsie Jayne has returned home from a sojourn with her sister, Mrs. Willis Beatty, Beaver Crossing.

Miss Hatlie Elmore handsomely entertained a number of friends at her home Saturday evening of last week.

Mr. W. W. Cameron has purchased and taken charge of an elevator at Chester. The factory will be ready for occupancy in a few days.

Mr. J. D. McCreary, assistant superintendent of the Kearney industrial school, is spending an extended vacation here with his family.

Following are the teachers tired by the board of education for the ensuing school year: Superintendent and principal, H. L. Chaplin; assistant principal, Miss L. L. Chaplin; grammar department, Mr. Earl of Friend; second intermediate, Miss Kate Fisher; first intermediate, Miss Nellie Lave; first primary, Miss M. E. Burnett; second primary, Miss Nettie E. Ladd; third ward intermediate, Miss Doris Coombs; third ward primary, Miss Ethelwyn Spear.

Mayor F. W. Crew visited Grand Island Tuesday.

Ed Roe of the Gate City hat company, Omaha, witnessed the ball game Tuesday.

Misses Gussie Ricks and Zoe Morrill of Chapman are visiting Mrs. Harry Schickel Tuesday.

W. A. Wilson and wife, with some Iowa friends, left for Denver and the mountains Tuesday.

Hon. Henry Grosshans of Sutton, was in the city Monday.

Roy D. Fuller and Miss Mabel Bralley were in the city Monday.

John T. Cassel, of the Kearney Hub, was in the city during the week.

Henry G. Golden of Brooklyn, N. Y., was a Beatrice visitor over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kincaid of New York, are in the city.

Fred A. Clausen and Miss Edith Martin were united in marriage Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Underhill of Chicago, are visiting friends hereabouts over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Stobbins of South English, Ill., are visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Evan Baldwin and daughter of Lawrence, Kan., were visiting in the city Friday last.

John Wood of Seabrook, Wash., was visiting old acquaintances in this city during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Holman of Kansas City, Mo., visited friends in the city over the Sabbath.

Mr. Maxwell has come to Kearney where he intends remaining for the remainder of the summer.

T. T. Slattery of Galesburg, Ill., was visiting his old friend, H. M. Chase, this city during the week.

The Misses Alice Kimball and Eva Hussey of Des Moines, Ia., were visiting friends in the city last week.

Miss Ida Head of Chicago, is visiting for the summer with her friend, Miss Carrie Stewart of this city.

J. A. Minick of New Orleans, La., was in the city for a few days during the current week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Holmes, wife and daughter and Mrs. Humphreys of Ellis, were visiting friends in the city last week.

Frank Crowell has returned from a seven week tour of Hot Springs, Ark., much improved in health and spirits.

Mrs. S. B. Dodge and daughter, Miss Lillie, departed last week for a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives at Rochelle, Ill.

Senator A. S. Paddock returned home from Washington, Friday last. He will probably remain at home during the balance of the summer.

THE BUREAU OF CLAIMS.

Who Compose Its Council and How It is Managed.

ABLE JURISTS, EXAMINERS AND EXPERTS.

Beneficial Effects on Claimants of Recent Congressional Action—How to Prosecute Claims of All Kinds.

About sixty days ago a new departure was inaugurated by the San Francisco Examiner, now the leading paper on the coast. Its proprietor, Mr. Hearst, son of the late Senator Hearst of California, who has a very large fortune at his command, conceived the idea of establishing a bureau of claims at Washington, manned by the ablest lawyers and specialists conversant with the routine work in the various departments and bureaus of the government.

When the announcement of this new departure was made negotiations were at once entered into between the Examiner and the proprietor of the Examiner to join hands and inaugurate this enterprise. These arrangements have been perfected and agreements entered into by which the Examiner is to prosecute all claims arising in the territory where the Examiner enjoys so extensive a subscription patronage.

Under this agreement all applications for claims, either for pensions, Indian depredations, and other claims, of all kinds, are to be taken in hand by the Bureau of Claims in Omaha and through it forwarded to headquarters at Washington where they will be prosecuted to a final and speedy conclusion.

The Examiner takes pleasure in offering to all its patrons and particularly to subscribers, the services of the services of its new bureau which, we have no doubt, will prove of great advantage to them, both in prosecuting new claims to a successful issue and in expediting all claims entrusted to the Bureau.

The Bureau of Claims has frequently been referred to in these columns, but up to this time no mention has been made of the manner in which its important work is performed. This is one of the most interesting features connected with the enterprise.

To begin with, the services of three most eminent counselors have been retained. These are A. L. Hughes, O. E. Weller, and F. J. Burke. They are eminent "general counsel" and men of mature years and learned in the law. They have made a specialty of practicing in the district courts, the United States court of claims and before all the departments and bureaus of the government. They are qualified to advise in every matter of law, and as soon as it is presented, this saves a great deal of time, because when a claim has been passed upon by the local land office, when a claim is rejected by them, it means that it is either outlawed or that it lacks certain elements which would lead to its final approval.

Examiners and Experts. Besides these gentlemen there are also a practicing attorney, an examiner and expert in the various departments of the government, to prosecute claims, namely, those of patents, pensions, postal and land claims and Indian depredations, in fact in any department of the government. He is generally one of the best of his kind in the country, and he is compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

In the Bureau of Claims these would be placed in the hands of well known and responsible people, pushed with the greatest vigor, and the minutes of no moment would be lost. The Bureau of Claims therefore is the medium through which these appeals cases should be prosecuted.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

statement of loss, including each specific article lost, its value, date, county and state, name of tribe of Indians committing depredations, names of witnesses, and such other information as they can give. All letters will be promptly answered and all information concerning form of application for claims, terms, etc., will be given with as little delay as practicable. No letter will be answered unless the sender encloses requisite stamps for reply. No information concerning any particular claim will be imparted until the applicant has become a member of The Bureau of Claims Bureau Association.

Address all letters relating to claims to MANAGER OMAHA BUREAU OF CLAIMS, Omaha, Neb.

The claims must not be based on depositions extending back beyond 1870. Holders of the Bureau of Claims who may file claims for collection, are respectfully requested to furnish The Bureau of Claims with the names and addresses of other parties who have suffered similar losses at the hands of Indians. Many people are as yet unaware of the recent favorable legislation which these claims can now, if properly prepared and presented be collected.

But Indian Depredation claims are not the only ones which The Bureau of Claims desires to handle. In brief, it will look after any claim which any citizen has against the government or any department of the government and which is specially serviceable to soldiers of the late war.

Pensions for Aged Soldiers. Strange as it may appear, there are thousands of veterans of the rebellion, who are old, weary, infirm and beyond the skill of a physician or surgeon to restore to health. Many of these are incapacitated because of wounds which they sustained in the late war, and yet, many of these are provided with pensions.

Pensions for Infirm Soldiers. The thousands of poor fellows who are permanently disabled, having served at least ninety days in the war. They were once honorably discharged. These are entitled to pension, even though the infirmity from which they suffer was not the result of exposure in the war. The only condition is that their prostration is not the result of vicious habits.

Pensions for Soldiers' Widows. There are thousands of soldiers' and sailors' widows in this country who do not know they are entitled to pensions. And yet, by writing The Bureau of Claims, when their case is just, they will be able to secure these pensions. A widow who is without other means of support than her daily labor and that her husband served at least ninety days actively in the war, is entitled to a pension. She who married the soldier prior to June 27, 1890. Proof of his death must also be advanced, but his demise need not have been the result of any service.

Securing Patent Rights. There are thousands of inventive men and women in this country who have inventions which are known only to their friends. Yet the inventor does not know how to protect his invention to the manner in which its important work is performed. This is one of the most interesting features connected with the enterprise.

Pensions for Soldiers' Parents. There are thousands of soldiers' parents who are also ignorant of the fact that they are entitled to pensions. These must be secured to their son or daughter, who is without other means of support than her daily labor and that her husband served at least ninety days actively in the war, is entitled to a pension. She who married the soldier prior to June 27, 1890. Proof of his death must also be advanced, but his demise need not have been the result of any service.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

Appeals from Local Land Offices. These appeals are frequently most annoying to both parties. The local attorney cannot personally prosecute the case in Washington. It would cost him to prosecute him worth, to say nothing of his fees, which, as has been shown, are generally as high as the amount collected. He is generally compelled to trust the claim into the hands of a man who she does not know, whose first move is to bleed the claimant and then to refer the claim to him. Between these men the applicant hangs in uncertainty until the final adjudication has been made.

papers on bar the Washington expenses only in unsuccessful claims. When claims are allowed, a reasonable fee will be charged to cover actual cost.

All letters will be promptly answered and all information concerning form of application for claims, terms, etc., will be given with as little delay as practicable. No letter will be answered unless the sender encloses requisite stamps for reply. No information concerning any particular claim will be imparted until the applicant has become a member of The Bureau of Claims Bureau Association.

Address all letters relating to claims to MANAGER OMAHA BUREAU OF CLAIMS, Omaha, Neb.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head-aches and fevers, and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who cannot have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. OMAHA, NEB. NEW YORK, N.Y.

SYPHILIS A Written Guarantee to CURE EVERY CASE OF SYPHILIS FULLY REFUNDED.

Our cure is permanent and not a patching up. We guarantee to cure every case of syphilis, whether it be in its early or advanced stage, and to refund the money if we fail to do so. We cure every case of syphilis, whether it be in its early or advanced stage, and to refund the money if we fail to do so. We cure every case of syphilis, whether it be in its early or advanced stage, and to refund the money if we fail to do so.

MAGIC CURE FOR MEN ONLY.

$50 for a cure of Long's Falling Sperm, or any other disease of the male system. We guarantee to cure every case of syphilis, whether it be in its early or advanced stage, and to refund the money if we fail to do so.

LADIES ONLY

MAGIC FEMALE REGULATOR, Safe and Certain to a day or more if refunded. We guarantee to cure every case of syphilis, whether it be in its early or advanced stage, and to refund the money if we fail to do so.

DR. MCCOY'S VENEREAL (or private) DISEASES

And Nervous Diseases of the Reproductive Organs. We guarantee to cure every case of syphilis, whether it be in its early or advanced stage, and to refund the money if we fail to do so.

HUMPHREYS' VETERINARY SPECIFICS

For Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Dogs, Hogs, etc. We guarantee to cure every case of syphilis, whether it be in its early or advanced stage, and to refund the money if we fail to do so.

WIDOWS

Under the new law, entitled to pension at $3 per month with $2 additional for each child under the age of sixteen years, provided the widow has no income sufficient for her support other than her daily labor. To get this pension widow does not have to prove that soldier's death was due to his service in the army.

PENSIONS.

THE BEE EXAMINER

Bureau of Claims, OMAHA, NEB.

Washington office, situated a few doors from the Pension Bureau, organized to secure "Justice to Veterans." Prosecutes Soldiers' Claims of all kinds in a most efficient manner and with the least expense to the claimant. Pensions under the new law for soldiers, widows, and children. Pensions under the old law. Increase of pension and additional pension under the old law and the new law. Officers' accounts adjusted, correction of muster secured and difference of pay collected. Pay, bounty, prize money, extra pay and commutation of rations collected. Honorable discharge secured and charge of desertion removed.

WHAT WILL SECURE PENSION. SOLDIERS who served ninety days or more in the late war and are now disabled wholly or in part can get pension under the new law at from $6 to $12 per month. Pension is given under the new law for the following disabilities, whether contracted in the service or not: Ill health from chronic diarrhoea, rheumatism, disease of the heart, disease of kidneys or liver, pneumonia, malaria, chills and fever, disease of the lungs, and all other diseases and ailments; also for piles, ruptures, partial deafness in one or both ears, partial loss of sight, results of measles, results of blood poisoning, disease of eyes and all injuries and wounds. If you have any disability mentioned here and are not drawing pension for it, write us at once.

Under the new law, entitled to pension at $3 per month with $2 additional for each child under the age of sixteen years, provided the widow has no income sufficient for her support other than her daily labor. To get this pension widow does not have to prove that soldier's death was due to his service in the army.

CHILDREN

Under sixteen years of age at soldier's death entitled to pension under the new law. All claims entrusted to this Bureau are thoroughly and vigorously prosecuted and no Fees Charged

In any case until successful. All letters of inquiry, or for advice will be promptly answered. No charge for advice.

Address, BUREAU OF CLAIMS, Bee Building, Omaha, Neb.