ULTIMATUMS are not easily persuaded to get together.

That Alton boycott stays "on its last legs" a good long time.

Job work is a trifling slack just now and this accounts for part of the nerve manifested by the Typothete.

Mrs. HETIE GREEN has many millions, but she is usually litigating for more and losing her lawsuits.

SUPERINTENDENT FITZPATRICK can afford to wait a year for a raise in pay as well as a three-year contract.

GOVERNOR THAYER'S world's fair commissioners will have to be introduced to each other before they can call themselves acquaintances.

THE Chautauque meeting at Long Pine is the last of the series of Chautauques in the state and promises to be the best.

EIGHT grain men have already taken office in the board of trade building. This ought to be satisfactory proof that the grain men mean business and propose to trade in the open board.

A GRAND jury in the fall will make life very uncomfortable for a few officials who have been living off county and city plunder.

JUDGE O. P. MASON has been appointed commissioner of labor. The judge must feel about as much at home in his new place as Chief Two Strike would feel wearing a ghost shirt in a fashionable drawing room.

ROBERT R. GREEN ex-postmaster of Kearney, an old and enterprising citizen, has been appointed world's fair commissioner by Governor Thayer.

THE gentleman who owns the alliance and resides at Lincoln insists that millions of dollars are lost every year to Nebraska farmers because the city papers boast of the big crops raised in this state.

THOSE Kansas independents have no more sense than to elect Judge McKay a justice of the supreme court.

WISCONSIN has for many years been the last state called in the national convention, and so has three times made her vote name the winning man.

THE BEE will shortly publish for the information of harvest excursionists and to assist in creating an interest in the harvest excursions concise but carefully compiled statements of the resources and attractions of the principal cities and towns of Nebraska.

Under this provisional arrangement a large number of the products and manufacturers of the United States upon

THE RIGHT OF PROTECTION. Is an alien who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States entitled to the protection of this government when in a foreign land?

It appears that Gerber came to the United States about five years ago, leaving his family in his native town in Rostan Poland.

FOR POLITICAL REASONS. The republicans of the United States will agree when they have once thought the subject through that for political reasons, if for no other, Omaha should be selected as the place for holding the national republican convention in June, 1892.

THE following table, showing the republican votes in these states and the total number of votes cast for 1888 and for 1890, will be a very significant hint to the republican managers that the republican party must carry the states of the central west or be defeated.

Table with 4 columns: State, 1888 Rep. vote, 1888 Total, 1890 Rep. vote, 1890 Total. Rows include Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa.

RECIPROCITY WITH SPAIN. The most important thing accomplished by the present administration in respect of the commercial interests of the country is the reciprocity agreement with Spain applicable to trade between Cuba and Porto Rico and the United States.

HARVEST EXCURSIONS. The railways have practically agreed upon August 25 and September 25 as the dates for the harvest excursions.

POSTAL TELEGRAPHY. An Omaha Journalist, Mr. Edward Rosewater, who has for several years given much attention to the project of the movement for postal telegraphy, is now doing public ser-which duties are now collected in Cuba and Porto Rico will enter those islands free, and others will enter there at materially lower duties than at present.

THE PROGRESS OF THE NEGRO. After 300 years of servitude of the most debasing character, in which he was treated as a chattel, subject to barter and sale in common with the brutes of the farm, a revolution occurred and out of it the black man of America emerged a freeman.
