

PREPARING FOR BUSINESS.

Nebraska State Board of Health Organized at Lincoln.

PECULIARITIES OF SOME PHYSICIANS.

Interesting Cases Developed in Which Medical Institutes Are Not Held Upon for Certificates of Ability.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 1.—[Special to The Bee.]—The state board of health met at the state house today, and the secretary organized by electing Dr. J. V. Bestgen of Fremont president, Dr. C. F. Stewart of Aurora vice president, Dr. F. D. Haldeman of Ord secretary and Dr. E. T. Allen of Omaha treasurer.

The board was assigned rooms on the third floor of the building near the gallery of representative hall. About two hundred physicians called in person, some with their diplomas wrapped around a wooden roll and others carrying big frames enclosing the precious documents. The board has received about five hundred applications for certificates under the new law.

The day was consumed in registering these applications and explaining the law to the callers. The board estimates that there are about two thousand physicians in the state, and the secretaries think it will be two months before they will be all properly registered.

It is the intention of the board to meet about every two weeks, and the next meeting will be held August 13. Some physicians have misunderstood the new law and sent their certificates in violation of the law. These are of no use. The board must have the diplomas, that they may be examined as to their genuineness.

Of the 200 physicians in Omaha only about twenty-five have applied for registration under the new law. Many of them probably have decided to take action in hopes that the board would hold a meeting in Omaha, thus saving the trip to Lincoln and the carriage of diplomas. The secretaries say it will be inexpedient to meet in Omaha. Under the interpretation of the law made by the attorney general, diplomas must be deposited with the state board and left in its possession for ten days before issuing certificates thereon.

If a meeting of the board were to be held in Omaha it would be necessary to transfer to the city a large number of diplomas or else store them in Omaha. In the latter case they would not be easy of access to the secretaries, who are supposed to examine the diplomas critically in order to detect bogus documents.

The secretaries report a general disposition among physicians all over the state to comply with the law, but it brings out a few queer cases. One practitioner has no diploma, and he has had his Methodist minister write a letter vouching for his character and ability. In another case the applicant wants a certificate on the strength of having been a doctor in the army. Others display an astonishing amount of bitterness. The board has appointed Alow & Penfold of Omaha general distributing agents for its blanks, which will be sent free on application.

STREET CAR FARES RAISED.

George H. Bush has sued the Lincoln street railway company for $1,000 damages for being put off a street car. The city ordinances require every street car company to sell six tickets for 25 cents, and to have them on sale in their cars. The Lincoln street railway cars the Lincoln street car company has offered twenty-two tickets for $1, to be bought at designated business places, but has refused to sell them in the cars. A few days ago Bush got on a car to ride home and offered the conductor 25 cents for a ticket. The conductor had none to sell and Bush refused to pay fare. This occurred several times, the conductor allowing him to ride, but on Wednesday the car was stopped and the patrol wagon called. The police decided that no ordinance or law had been violated and refused to make an arrest. Last evening Bush tendered a quarter as usual, without getting the tickets he asked for. He then refused to pay, and the conductor under orders, forcibly put him off the car. Hence the suit. The people of Lincoln are very much interested in the case, because there has been a general complaint as to the arbitrary ruling of the new street car company. They have been in the habit of getting six tickets for 25 cents. They protest that it is an unnecessary inconvenience to look up a downtown office to buy street car tickets, and they object to the increase in the price.

THAT ALLEGED MURKIN.

Waldo Wilson has returned from Denver. He denies the story of the young woman from Dunbar, Miss Jackson, who said they were married and lived together in Lincoln for the past several months. He says she came up to nurse him and he never pretended that they were married, although he paid her attention. He says she was very bad shaped and that he was constantly discovering new leads in the investigation. He says she was working night and day, but it has been a physical impossibility to finish the job. He has gone through the accounts, and it now only remains to make up the billings. He assures the board that he will have his report ready by next Wednesday without fail.

IT IS INTIMATED THAT THE EXPERT'S SHOWING WILL MAKE DAMAGING DISCLOSURES.

The members of the board have received an inkling of what is to come, but while they will not commit themselves, they say: "It will pay to wait for the expert's report."

The board is anxious to close the investigation and make a report to the governor, but even Secretary Allen, who did not favor the expert's investigation because of the delay, has expressed a wish to let him that it will prove a wise policy. Attorney General Hastings has the findings of the board prepared, except as to the disclosures which Expert Leavitt may make. He says the case can be closed in twenty minutes after the expert's report is in.

ASSESSMENT REVEALED.

The returns of the assessor filed with the state auditor show some curious facts. Gosper, Kimball, Loup and Scott's bluff counties report one steam engine apiece. Cass, Cheyenne, Kearney, Phelps, Saline and York have one each. Saline is assessed at $5,000, York at $3,000 and the others range from $5 to $100. Douglas reports three, assessed at $200; Grant, assessed $1,500; Pawnee two, assessed $25; Barry three, assessed $250.

The only automobile reported in the state was in Dodge county, assessed at $75. Thirteen counties report fifteen patent rights from $1 to $25 each. Twelve other counties report patent rights with the following number. Thirteen counties report water crabs ranging from $1 to $400 each.

Twelve counties report gold and silver pieces, twenty-three no diamonds or jewelry, five no money of banks or brokers, twenty-eight no bonds or stocks, sixteen no season or eating house property, three no investment in real estate, eight no railroad or sleeping car property, twenty-seven no telegraph property.

THE TOTAL ASSESSMENT OF THE RAILROADS IS $29,438,488.

WALDO WILSON'S RETURN.

Governor Thayer, when asked if he had anything to say about the story in the Omaha paper of Friday alleging that he was to resign soon, replied: "I do not think I should make any statement but hardly thought I would take the trouble to answer it. The story is very improbable, yes, utterly preposterous. I have not seen the paper since it appeared, and I do not know what it says. I do not like to injure any man's business. It states that Tom Majors was in Omaha and was up all night, night before last, and that that paper had a reporter on his track. The fact is, Governor Majors left Omaha on Friday last, Thursday, with me, on the 7:10 train, and came to Lincoln where he remained all night. The public can see how little faith can be placed in the statements of the great 'fakir'."

THINKS IT IS A SCHEM.

Governor Thayer, having dropped an intimation that he knew of some of the inside workings of the alleged combination between John M. Thurston, J. S. Harrison and others for the nomination of President Harrison, was asked by a Bee representative to unburden himself. He declined to reveal his own thoughts, but expressed himself emphatically in the following language: "I have noticed that there is such a plan and that there has been for some time. That the chief scheme in existence is that there is no shadow of a doubt. John M. Thurston had one of his regular interviews in the office of the Republican cabinet. In that interview he held up James G. Blaine and 'Red' Clarkson as the ticket to be nominated by the national republican convention in the fall. He said that he was not invited to take the position of secretary of the convention last March. Thurston as secretary of the interior and Clarkson as postmaster general, and it seems they cannot forget that incident. No one admires Mr. Blaine more than I do, but I am thoroughly convinced that under no circumstances will he be nominated. It is not his name that is to be used. The only ticket that I believe in is that of Harrison, and I believe I speak the sentiments of the republican population of Nebraska in expressing the conviction that when the time comes the delegation from Nebraska will give him their support."

OFF FOR DETROIT.

Messrs. R. H. Oakley, C. A. Atkinson, A. C. Zimmerman, C. C. Montgomery, M. W. J. McNeill and S. J. Alexander, the committee selected to go to Detroit and capture the 1892 Grand Army of the Republic encampment for Lincoln, left on the Burlington flyer this afternoon. Their special car bore immense banners, with the inscription, "Grand Army Headquarters, Lincoln, Neb., 1892," in three-foot letters. The inside of the car was decorated with mammoth corn stalks.

THE DELEGATION WAS ACCOMPANIED BY THE FOLLOWING NEBRASKANS, WHO WILL SHOUT AND WORK FOR LINCOLN: Paul Vandervoort and John B. Farney of Omaha, L. D. Eichman of Fremont, Church Howe of Nemaha, General Dilworth of Hastings, Captain Humphrey of Pawnee City, John Jensen of Geneva, Senator J. C. McPherson of Lincoln, M. Holmes of Tecumseh, Mr. Pierce of Waverly, Colonel J. E. Hoover of Blue Hill, J. C. McBride of Major, Mr. Archer, W. J. Cooper, A. Hurlbut, M. L. Troster, Harry Hotchkiss, Harry Downs, L. C. Pace, W. Westervelt and C. W. Lyman of Lincoln.

THE CALIFORNIA, COLORADO AND WYOMING DELEGATIONS, OR A PART OF THEM, AT LEAST, WERE ON THE SAME TRAIN, AND LINCOLN PRESENTED their ladies with beautiful floral tributes.

The bulk of the Lincoln quota left this evening in special cars. With them went a car with twenty-five persons from Juniata. It bore banners reading, "Michigan-Nebraska," Adjutant General Cole having recruited the veterans from old Michigan soldiers now living about Juniata.

STATE HOUSE NOTES.

The case of Oscar and Margaret Jones vs. Samuel J. Howell and William Coburn has been appealed to the supreme court from District court. Howell got a judgment against the plaintiffs for $420 in the county court, filed a transcript in the district court and got a judgment. Sheriff Coburn levied on thirty-eight shares of stock of the Nebraska tile and pottery company owned by Jones, and also on the Jones homestead. The Joneses allege that they received no summons and had no knowledge of the action. Hence their appeal.

THE CASE OF IDA GILMORE AND CHILDREN AGAINST RUDOLPH ULRICH, CONRAD MOST, ET AL HAS REACHED THE SUPREME COURT FROM SAINE COUNTY. MRS. GILMORE SUED THE DEFENDANTS AND THEIR BONDSMEN FOR $3,000 FOR SELLING LIQUORS TO HER HUSBAND, AND GOT A VERDICT FOR $300.
