The ordinance requires the purchase from the city of a license by all drinkers of intoxicating liquors. The license to vary in their cost from $20 to $50 according to the expense of the liquor which the purchaser drinks. The ordinance further provides that each applicant for a license shall be examined and approved by the applicant's wife. In presenting the ordinance Mr. Bowes explained that an enforcement of its provisions would yield a revenue to the city of $10,000 a year and at the same time would greatly promote the cause of temperance.

The adjourned meeting of the anti-prohibition republicans was held last evening at the court house. The south side room was well filled. The political complexion of the gathering was mixed, and democracy largely prevailed. Major Richmond called the meeting to order and named L. Biederman as chairman. The selection was enthusiastically endorsed, and Mr. Biederman expressed his appreciation of the honor in a brief speech.
