TECHMSER, Nob., Aug. 5 .- (Special to THE Bgg. 1-A very novel judgment, was found in a justice docket of this county rendered several years ago by L. C. #### McCool Junction Prospects.

McCool Junction, Neb., Aug. 5.-|Special to THE BRE. ]-The busy little town of Mc-Cool Junction has no mayor to extend a friendly welcome to the harvest excursionists but its citizens and business men would be pleased to have any excursionists come and see one of the best pusiness points in Nebraska. McCool Junction is surrounded by the very best improved farms, of wonderful fertility, which are watered by the Blue river and its tributaries.

What McCool wants is a manufactory for making twine, more especially binding twine. There is an immense acreage of flax and m dications are that tons of flax straw in locality will be wasted, as there will be no need for it. The Blue river furnishes abund. ant water power for a factory. H. R. Vanderveer is building a large storage elevator on which he has a large force of help so as to have it completed in time to get his share of the crop that will be marketed ere. Any one interested in the manufacture of twine will find it to their interests to cor-respond with McCool Junction.

day.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Aug. 5 .- | Special Telegram to Tun Ban |-This evening the B. & M. depot at this point narrowly escaped demolition in consequence of the derailing of a couple of cars of the fast stock train No 64. The train comprised eighteen palace stock cars loadad with cattle and nogs for the east and came through the yards at the rate of twenty miles an hour. When it struck the switch at the south end of the depot two cars in the middle of the train were detailed, the front car running along the inside rails until one of the rails broke. The other car plowed up the platform and track for a distance of 100 yards. The train came through at 7:35 just ahead of passenger No. 8, and it is a miracle that some one was not hurt, the platform being somewhat crowded at the time. The cause of the accident is stated to be a defective wheel under the first car derailed, and that the switch was not quite closed. Traffic was delayed about two hours, but neither the cars nor the stock were hurt except considerably shaken up.

Severe Storm at St. Paul.

Sr. PAUL, Neb., Aug. 5.-|Special Telegram to THE BEE -This morning about 2 o'clock the severest thunder storm of the season visited our city. Lightning struck the residence of Dr. A. N. Scott and it was burned to the ground. Mr. Scott and a young son, the only ones of the family at home, had a narrow escape. Most of the furniture was saved. The house was insured for $800.

Police Judge Norton's residence was also struck, but the damage is slight. A fire was seen in the hills east of here, but no information can be gained as yet as to what it is.

COMMANDER VEAZEY'S OPENING ADDRESS. Business Session of the Encampment

Finally Opened-Women's Relief Corp Begin Their Ninth Annual National Convention.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 5 .- The next encamp ment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held at the national capital, Washington, D. C. This was decided today on the first ballot and although the partisans of Lincoln feel disappointed, there is a general resolve by the veterans from all quarters to make the encampment at Washington one worthy of the capital of the union. The twenty-fifth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic began its formal session this morning. All that art and culture could do to make the mammoth building attractive hadbeen exorted in the decorations which adorn the interior. Despite the immensity of the hall it was crowded to the utmost. A few minutes before the opening General Veazey and staff entered the hall and were escorted to the grand stand. The appearance of the commander-in-chief was the signal for applause. General Veazey rapped the assemblage to order. He announced the formal opening of the oncampment and directed the adjutant general to call the roll of the departments. Every state and territory in the union was represented and the roll showed the fullest attendance of delegates in the history of the organization.

General Veazey's Address.

The opening address of the commander inchief was listened to with enrapt attention "Comrades," said General Veazey, "this is the silver anniversary of a birth. The wedding occurred when the bridegrooms, the youth of the land enlisted in its defense. Abraham Lincoln celebrated the marriage nuptials. Columbia was the bride. Her vesture was the nation's flag. The pledge to reestablish that flag over the dominion of secession, was the price of her hand. When that pledge had been grandly redeemed through a bloody strife, through suffering and death, and after the victors had placed on the brow of the bride a new diadem, whose gems were honor, valor, liberty, unstained with slavery, a country united and free, the fruit of that marriage was the Grand Army of the Republic, an off-spring worthy of its royal parentage.' Reference was then made by the general to the increasing esteem in which the Grand Army of the Republic is held by the people generally and comrades in particular. A touching allusion was made to the numerous deaths in the order during the past year. Special mention was made of Sherman and Porter. A tribute was paid to the present and prospective usefulness of the Sons of Veterans, an organization which was increasing in membership yearly.

Touches the Negro Question.

In touching on the "negro ques-tion" as affecting the Grand Army of the Republic, General Venzey reviewed the difficulties which had existed over colored posts in the department of Louisiana and Mississippi ever since it was organized in 1889. Continuing, he said: "The charge had been made from different sources that the organization of the posts was tainted with such irregularities as to be utterly destructive of their legal existence. Our rules and regulations provide a plain procedure for the department to pursue in order to test the validity of such charges. As the department of Louisiana and Mississippi never. o far as I am intermed resorted to that pro cedure, I have held with those posts that they must be regarded as having a legal existence until otherwise regularly adjudicated." The commander-in-chief ordered an investerritory at the same line for instance, a department made up of white posts and another of black posts, or one of foreign born and another of native. I think the question must be answered in the negative. The idea is contrary to the usages and universal under-standing of the order bitherto. If additional departments in the same states may be formed on lines of color or birth, they may be formed on lines of color or wirth, they may be on lines of personal antipathies or upon disagreements of any kind. But without adverting further to the obvious ovils likely to follow from establishing dual departments in any state, it is enough that it is clear that the rules and regulations do not provide for nor warrant the establishment of but one de partment in any state or territory. The report of the surgeon gen-ral is chieffy interesting in beir own candidate, General Hurst, a com-plimentary vote. It is also well understood that Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Maryland will caucus in favor of Palmer. The New Jersey caucus last evening voted in favor of Mr. Hedges, but Mr. Hedges said that their sup-port has been changed to Palmer.

Before the New York delegation united on almer, the chances were decidedly in favor of Weissert, and even now he is a formidable caudidate. Some of the eastern states which might have supported him will probably vote for Palmer, but Maine and Illinois have already caucussed in his favor, and it is well understood that Michigan will declare for Weissert in the morning. The states of California, Kansas, Illinois and Minnesota have already declared for Smedburg, and several other western delegations are counted for the California man. Altogether it promises to be a very inter-teresting three-cornered struggle, with the chances somewhat in favor of Palmer, since he is to receive the united support of the New York delegation. Only once in the history of the order has New York had the com-mander-in-chief and had it been a week ago that delegation would be able to unite upon a man whose election would have been con-
