MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 8 .- (Special Telogram to THE BEE.]-It was literally too warm for the Minneapolis and Omaha players to wield their bats this afternoon. The thermometer registered an even 100 degrees out at the park, and players and spectators suffered intensely from the sun's awful heat. In the field both teams played a spiondid game, the only errors being the muff of a thrown ball by Sommers and a bad throw by Smith. Neither Mitchell nor Fee was hit hard and Walsh's two-bagger and Tredway's home run were the only long drives of the sizzling contest.

Treadway was the hero of the day. He made five great catches in the field, made a pretty assist to third base, and scored two of the Miller's three runs. In the second inning be made a tally on his one-sack drive, an error and McGlone's single, and in the fourth put the ball over the right field fence. Minnchan made the other run for the lo cals in the eighth on his single, a timely hit y Sommers and a sacrifice. Omaha had scored but once up to the ninth and there made a rally, but fell short of vic-tory. Clever fielding was done by White, McGlone, Walsh and Smith. The concluding game will be played tomorrow at Minnehaha park. Score:

Fake Fighters Thriving.

CARROLL, I.I., Aug. 8.-|Special Telegram to Tar BES.]-The sports of this city are on the verge of delerium tonight over the prospects of a real prize tight where the red blood will run and some man will be dis-figured for life. The time is set for 4 o'clock tomorrow morning, purse $500 and gate re-ceipts, and only a select audience, and that a few, to witness it. About two hundred and thirty have put up the amount necessary to gain admittance and are happy. Mr. Terpin, the champion striker of Illinois, and Prof. Pitts of Indiana, the heavyweight of that

Prof. Pitts has not been seen. He is the dark horse. The facts of the case are that here, as at Boone, the sports are being worked for suckers by these two imaginary fighters. SPARKS OF SPORT. Hanton and O'Connor Champions. HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 8.-The double scull race for the championship of the world came off here this evening between Hamilton and O'Connor and Gaudaur and McKay. The water was without a ripple. The crews got away together, Hanlon and mate pulling twenty-six to the minute. After 300 yards had been covered Hanlon and O'Connor began to draw from their opponents, whom they led by over a length when a mile had been covered. Here the leaders dropped to twenty eight strokes, while Gaudaur and McKay were puiling hard at thirty-five. At the mile and a half buoy, which was reached in 8 minutes and 35 seconds, Haulon and O'Connor made a beautiful turn, while their opponents made a poor one. In the homestretch the leaders did not exert themselves and when within a quarter of a mile of the wire they stopp rowing and Hanlon dropped his hand in t water. The losing crew was pulling hard and managed to gain a couple of lengths by this manoeuvre on the part of the Toronto crew. The re-unchanged sult, however, was unchanged and Haulon and O'Connor arrived at the finish winners by fully four host lengths, in 18 minutes, 261, seconds. There was much dis-appointment because the record was not broken. It was generally believed that the Hascalt Made 'em Tired.

Mr. Moritz Kretchmeyer succeeded Quiun and with the true fire and ardor of a born orator proceeded to interpret Quinn's re-marks into Bohemian. It took him but a precious few minutes to tell all that Mr. Quinn knew on the subject and he gave way to Isaac Hascall who delivered a long harangue which evidently wearied the mos harangue which evidently wearied the most enthusiastic of his admirers. He talked of the silver question and urged the men to stand firm. If the moneyed people in Omaha could afford to see the city go to the devil, he was sure the workingmen could, many of whom had so little to lose. John Rosleky was then called for and said that he was not feeling very well in health but having been invited to address them by a committee he had attended for that purpose, It was evident that the meeting did not feel

Somebody in the hall interrupted him and Somebody is the hall interrupted him and enquired what he was going to talk on, and he replied, "on the lockout in general. He then expressed his sorrow that demagogues had treated this subject with great levity when it was really a very serious question, and one that should be be dealt with in a very sober manner. This remark called forth a volley of words of disapproval from several parts of the hall, principally in Bohemian, and seeing that he could not get a fair hearing, that he could not get a fair hearing, the speaker concluded to leave the hall. As he did so he was greeted with bisses and groans and excited remarks both in Bohemian and German.

Bacon's Brief Remarks.

Mr. James Bacon then addressed the gath ering and desired it to be understood that while he was no or tor he always said just what he meant. He entirely disapproved of the council committee going down to the smelting works and pleading the cause of the locked out men. They were never asked to do it. "If they wanted to do anything of that kind, why didn't they do it in the first place: We are the men who walked out, and we mean to stay out until they ask us to come back. of Last Thursday. YUMA, Ariz., Aug. 8.- Cocopah Smith, an American trapper, accompanied by Gardner, a bunter, and Espito, a Cocopah Indian, have returned from the gulf of California and give additional details concerning the earthquake and the tidal wave of Thursday last. About i o'clock that morning a heavy shock struck the country about five miles below Laredo, a colony in the state of Sonora, Mexico, on the Colorado river. The sky darkened and a hunder storm arose accompanied by great flashes of lightning. The river rose as a huge wave from the gulf was driven inland and corrals, fences and landing places were washed away by the rushing waters. Th shaking of the ground increased and the crackling, grinding noise of the crumbling hills was intensified. A second shock caused the earth to open in many places, some fissures being from four to seven feet wide and from twenty to thirty feet long, seemingly fathomless. The men were felled to the ground by the force of the shock. About a mile from Leredo was noticed a fissure in the middle of the river bed, into which the Calo rado was pouring with much noise. A third shock of carthquake destroyed three small habitations of colonists and cracked the remaining ones. No human beings were lost but a large amount of live stock was killed.
