Denver went to but first and was blanked with commendable dispatch, but Omaha got a run in her half. a run in her half.

After McClellan had fouled out to Big Wilson, Dennis Kennedy presented both Old Pop and Flanagan with a bag. Then Dungan, who is keeping up his whirlwind lick, pushed out a single and Pop scored, Flanagan going to third and Dungan to second. Only to be put out, however, when he got there, for Fournier had made a good return to Wilson and Wilson fired it down to Beard in time to do the buoiness. Waish fouled out.

In the second the Tebeaus picked a few berries themselves. Walsh threw Beard out at first. Then Werrick made a bit, the Chippy bird got his base by a little foxy maneuver-ing, and the boy from Parce smashed the bail way out toward Missouri Valley for a home run. Georgie Wilson waited for four wide ones. He got 'em; then Kennedy made a nit and Big Wilson, who runs something after the fashion of a load of coal, was nipped at third by McClellan's accurate return of the ball. Harry got second on the throw in, only to be left, however, as Peach Pie O'Conner was slammed out at first by Billiam Traffley.

It was a horse collar for Omana, as it was for Denver in the third; but in their half o the latter the Lambs gobbled up a brace of earned runs. McClellan fouled out, Smith made a two-sacker, Flanagan ripped open the atmosphere in three several places, and King Dungan made a home run.

Walsh's foul out ended the inning.
It was eggs for both sides after this until the seventh, when each added an earned tally. Denver got hers on Wilson's three base drive and Kennedy's single, while Omaha made hers on three singles in succession by McClellan, Smith and Flanagan. After Denver's blank in the eighth, Omaha tied the score.

Fields made a bit and stole second and ran in on Coleman's fine slash to left. Then the fatal ninth was reached, and Mr. Tebeau turning to the grandstand, exclaimed: Here's where we break your hearts!

And White Wings proved himself double-barrelled prophet. Fournier opened up with a short fly to Coleman, which Coleman graciously muffed, but old Pop Smith was hovering about the edges, and he recovered the ball in time to fire Harry out at second, which station he had unwisely sought to reach on Coleman's Clever playing that, wasn't it? "Now, boys, let's play in earnest!" chirped Peach Pie from the ceacher's cage. And in return Wilson hit her out, and so And in return wison his her out, and so did Kennedy, and so did the Poet, and these shots, together with Traffley's wild, weird and wonderful throw, and a supplemental safe drive by one Oliver Perry Beard, settled all dispute to Denver's claim on her third straight, for no less than four of the Denver lelegation gailoped across the plate. The next three men went out in order and the lambs came in to do or die. But not until Flanagan had run Omaha's total up to 6, on his own rattling three-bag-ger and Dungan's third safe one. As I stated yesterday, the ninth inning must be eliminated, then we'll win every This afternoon closes the seance with the Springfield Took the Second. SPRINGFIELD, Neb., Aug. 12 .- Special to THE BEE.]-The Springfield Whitings returned home last night from Weeping Water where they took the second game of ball from the Republicans by a score of 7 to 5. Weeping Water played Kimmerer, and Kimmel the Lincoln Musee battery, and Vapor of Omaba on second base. Mr. Kimmerer was touched up for a three bagger by Harlan and three two baggers by Fox, Hall and Berline of the locals. The Weeping Water sports in order to get even from last Tuesday's game hired the battery, and fully expected to scoop up the game, and a few dollars on the side. Betting was free on the start, and everything was promptly covered by Spring field backers after the first inning. Pitcher Harlan struck out twenty-one men, Kimmerer fourteen. Score by innings:

Sam Did His Best. PLATISMOUTH, Neb., Aug. 12.- | Special Telegram to Tus BEE. | - The Lincoln Giants again pulverized the Plattsmouth team and demonstrated the fact that they are ball players par excellence. Plattsmouth played all right up to the fatai fifth, but then went to pieces and the visitors scored five runs. Perrine and Dunn each made fatal blunders, Perrine throwing to second when an easy put out could have been made on the home plate. Dunn likewise held the bail in his hand and let a man steal home. Some of the boys seemed to overlook the fact entirely that there was more than one runner when the bases were literally alive with them. The Giants played an immense game although they were guilty of three paltry little errors of no account whatever, but Plattsmouth bunched hers and made it as Plattsmouth bunched hers and made it as when the bases were literally alive with them. The Giants played an immense game although they were guilty of three paltry little errors of no account whatever, but Plattsmouth bunched hers and made it as easy as possible for the other side. Charley Miller took in a couple of splendid files in the left field and Sam Patterson in the eighth knocked a home cun over the right field feace, bringing in Miller and Yapp, being the only runs made. Umpire McCoy was rather hard on the boys also, and fate was against them. Score:

Only a Few of the Smelter Men Attended Last Night's Meeting.

MEN ADVISED TO WAIT PATIENTLY.

Several of the Leaders Take Advantage of the Opportunity to Deny Various Accusations Concerning Their Habits.

The meeting held last night at Metz hall by the former employes of the smelting vorks was not so largely attended or so en thusiastic as previous meetings of the kind held since the shut down at the smelting works, but the hall was fairly well filled during the first half hour of the meeting. James Bacon offered a few words of an couragement to the men, advising all hands to be firm and keep a stiff upper lip. He believed the fight would be eventually won by the laborers if they would hold out long enough. Just how long that would be he did not state positively, but he thought the laborers had the best of the fight so far as it had

Then Mr. Kretchmeyer addressed the meeting in Bohemian, and the laborers began to show signs of restlessness. They began to leave the hall, two, three and half a dozen at a time, until nearly all but those who understood Bohemian had gone out. Mr. Kretchmeyer's speech was virtually a reproduction of the same talk that he has been giving all along—a vehement denuucla-tion of capitalists and corporations, and a tirade against all forms of law that were in opposition to what he considered right and

When he had finished his Bohemian speach Mr. George Washington Brewster of the printers' union commanded the attention of the house. He had just returned from a very important Business trip to Kansas City and ther points, he said, and had found upon his return that he had been unmercifully reasted by Tire Bre. This had caused trouble in his household, he said, for his wife had gotten hold of the paper and he said that he had decided to shut the paper off so his better half could not read such ancomplimentary things about him. Mr. Brewster then proceeded to say that he was not a self-appointed leader of laboring men. The laboring men had called upon him to speak because they knew that he was their friend. He then took up the printers strike and gave the employing printers several vigorous slaps. He spid that a great many of the employing printers would be glad to take the union printers back, but they lacked the moral courage to come square out read such uncomplimentary things about lacked the moral courage to come square out and say so. He said the work that was being turned out by these establishments since the strike showed that the employers had a gang of "blacksmiths" doing their work. He believed the printers would win in the end and the locked out smelting works men would also come out all right if they would stand firm.

Mr. Kretchmeyer then spoke in German and rattled away for twenty minutes teiling the few who stayed to hear him that certain newspapers were enemies of the labor laws and that the capitalists would cave in shortly if the laboring men would stand solid for the eight hour law. Fully half of the sents were vacant when Kretchinover finished his specch and the enthusiasm was very meagre as com-pared with the demonstration Mr. Kretchmeyer awakened at previous meetings.

The chairman announced that the next meeting would be held on Saturday night, when they expected to hear from the smelt-ing employes at Denver and Kansas City. WILL TAKE OPTIONS.

HASTINGS NOTES.

Affairs in the Eighth Judicial District Very Much Mixed. HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 12,-|Special to THE BEE.]-The Hastings lawn tennis club is making arrangements to send four teams to the state tennis double tournament at Omaha. Aithough the weather here has been most unfavorable for tennis, Hastings intends to do her best toward making the Omaha tournament a success. The judicial situation in the Eighth district is quite mixed. It now looks as though Ragan of Adams will go into the independent convention with 15 votes, Gaslin of Harlan with 10, Fletcher of Franklin with 8, and McNeerey of Webster with 12. It is probable that the votes of Pheips and Kearney counties will be divided between the four candidates. With 26 votes necessary to a choice, and two wavering counties, it will be seen that no one candidate will have things his own way.

The Green City land company, under the management of Dr. J. E. Hilts, is quietly agitating the paving question among the business men. While the matter might be brought to a settlement at once, Dr. Hilts prefers to keep the matter before the proprty owners and by moral suasion bring them to his view of the question.

Finer weather than the present for harvesting never blessed any land. Although insufferably hot in town, the temperature is exactly right for small grain. New oats are dentiful and of an excellent quality.

Water scarce, poor crops and no money. Good cotton crop has been made in but one settlement—the colony of Tiahualile,in which President Diaz and one of his ex-ministers are personally interested. These people have obtained water from the river thereby depriving the planters of the Laguas, district and their hundreds of dependents. A riot has been narrowly averted. COOL WAVES FROM THE WEST.

New Yorker's Today Utter Ferrent Prayers of Thanksgiving.

REFRESHING SHOWERS BRING RELIEF.

After Three Days of Intense Suffering, Heat Stricken Gothamites are Once Again Decidedly Comfortable.

New York, Aug. 12.—The prayers of a great city seem to have been answered. The fulfillment was deferred through three days of awful heat and consequent suffering, but tonight men who sellem think of God in times of even temperatures are uttering fervent thanksgivings and panting mothers of sickening children are lifting up their faces to the August Body and the praises of their hearts to their Maker. By 12 o'clock the temperature went to 83, while the humidity only fell to 7s per cent, but the pleasant breeze that came up continued and perspiring pedestrians felt the heat less than on Monday and yesterday, although the humidity was the highest experienced this week. Rain felt later and during the afternoon the edge of the cool wave from the west commenced cutting its welcome way through the steaming superheated atmosphere. Tonight the freshening breeze is reviving a wilted numanity. As the wave appeared to the expert view of the chief observer over the western horizon the warm wave was tottering to the grave in the depths of the Atlantic. This was its last day on earth

Up to 2 o'clock the weather had been from to 8 degrees cooler than vesterday. At neon it still stood at 82 degrees and at 1 o'clock the temperature was only 85 degrees, 7 degrees temperature was only 85 degrees, 7 degrees lower than at the corresponding hour yesterday. The mercury registered 89 at 2 o'clock. At 3:30 o'clock it had dropped to 70 and was at the same point at 5 o'clock. A 6 o'clock the temperature at other cities was: Boston, 80; Philadelphia, 78; Wash-wington, 76; Chicago, 64; St. Louis, 70; New Orleans, 80. The highest temperature in the constructions. ature in the country was 84 degrees, at Jupiter, Fla., and at Galveston, Tex.; the lowest was 48 degrees, at Ft. Assimilatione, Mont., but during the night the mercury went down to 38 degrees at Minuedosa, Man., and in LaCrosse and around Lake Michigan the temperature during the night was 50

There were not many cases of prostration reported through the hospital dispensaries and they have been busy today in the treatment of illness due to the continued heat. At the hospitals there were no less than 250 dispensary cases, which is 150 more than the ponsary cases, which is 100 more than the average. Many mothers carried moan-ing babies and tiny sufferers from summer complaint, prickly heat fevers, and the like, brought on by the terrific heat of the past three days, and there will be great morality among the little child-ren for days to come as the result of the hot wave's visit to the city. Deaths from the heat today are principally cases from yester-day or the day before. For the twenty-four hours ending at midnight there have been twelve cases of heat prostration of which three were fatal. Since Moreday at 6 a. m. the beginning of the hot wave, there have been thirty deaths because of the heat.
