An ebony case was picked up Saturday night on lower Main street and is now in the office of the chief of police, who will give it to its owner in case he shows up.

Miss Cora Mikese entertained a party of young friends last Friday evening at her home on avenue C. Mrs. Mikese and daughter were the main features of the evening's enjoyment.

Mrs. Ernestina Husz died Saturday at 4 o'clock at the residence of her son, William Husz, in Silver Creek township at the age of 73 years, of cholera morbus. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock.

Sam Glover was arrested Saturday night charged with being an abusive character. Yesterday the charge of grand larceny was placed against him, it being claimed that he stole a gold watch and chain from a man named Shaver, who works for Dr. T. J. Cady.

A concert and pantomime will be given on the evening of September 1, on the benefit of that institution. Great preparations are being made for the event. The lawn where the entertainment is to be given is one of the prettiest in the city and adds greatly to the beauty of the home.

Superintendent Stone of the motor line has announced that hereafter mail carriers will be allowed to ride on the street cars free while engaged in the performance of their official duties. According to his advice, newspaper men have no rights, and they will be allowed to pay or walk, as heretofore.

John Schenck of the school board is at work on a new catalogue of the public schools, which will be the finest of its kind issued for seven years. It will contain all the names of the graduates since the founding of the high school, and will be a valuable appendix for reference when completed. It will contain over one hundred pages.

The following are the names and positions of the members of the baseball club of this city, which will go to Papillion tomorrow to play a game with the club of that town: Travis, catcher; Etnyre, pitcher; Askwith, first base; Wright, second base; Hest, third base; Schurz, shortstop; Shea, right field; O'Connell, middle field; H. Schurz, left field.

The funeral of the late Charles Donahy took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence on Third avenue. A large number of friends were present and the services, which were conducted by Rev. M. K. Stewart, were very impressive. The following acted as pall bearers: O. Williams, W. Williams, M. Moore, H. Vandever, H. Hardin and A. Burke.

John Kelly and John Welch, who were arrested last Friday for larceny and given thirty days in the county jail, had their thirty days expire yesterday. They had evidently stolen. No owner has been found for them as yet, but it is supposed that the clothing was taken from a man named Welch, the owner will call for his stuff as soon as he makes it.

The residence of A. M. Mayne, at the corner of Ninth street and Sixth avenue, was visited by smoke Saturday night. The thieves did not enter the house, but confined their attention to the front porch, from which they took four pairs of rubber pants which belonged to Mrs. Mayne. The value of the stolen property is estimated at $25, and there is no clue to the thief.

It will be a strange sale.

Think of it! A blanket sale in dog days, when the mercury is trying to climb out the top of the ladder. Did you ever hear of such a thing? Yet that is just what Messrs. Fotheringham, White-law & Co., the Boston Store people, are preparing for a surprise in the way of a special sale next Saturday. During the early part of the season they purchased at a big discount the largest stock of blankets and comforters ever brought to the Missouri valley, and just for the fun of the thing they are going to see how many people can be induced to buy such things for winter use, as they buy their coal at a big cut in price in hot weather. The date of the sale is not fixed yet, but when it comes off it will be the most sensational affair of the kind ever heard of in Council Bluffs.

Ended with a Free Fight.

Thousands of pleasure seekers visited Manawa yesterday. All day long the motors were crowded, standing room being at a premium. The guests carried on their faces across the lake, many of whom tried the bathing. In the afternoon there was a yacht race, in which the Ida S., Eva Pasche, Spy, J. C. Bixby, Metcalf, and the Fishhook took part. There were not enough wind to make the race exciting, and it attracted but little attention. At the end the Ida S., the yacht, and having come in first, second, and third respectively.

In the evening considerable excitement was caused by a free for all scarp which was given as a part of the party program, but was the occasion of more remark than any of the other attractions. A young man from Manawa was arrested for refusing to settle his bill at the shooting gallery. He was brought to the east side of the lake in the M. E. Robinson, who was followed by a number of his friends. When they arrived at the dock the captives tried to rescue their companion from the marshal's grasp, and in doing so they got into their feet in it, but their heads as well, for the marshal struck out to the right and left with all the strength of his 300 pounds of avoirdupois. The boys' noses and backs commenced to rival the mosquitoes in pain. He was quickly re-enslaved by Lee Eisenberger and Charles Nicholson, who were acting as constables, and the work of destruction went on. One of the crowd was arrested and the rest had a hasty retreat in terror at the thought of having their feet in the Manawa jail. All the parties were from Omaha.

Charles Heister, J. J. Maloway and "Reddy" Deisinger were also arrested, charged with selling liquor contrary to the Manawa ordinance.

Will Enlarge the Reading Room.

The board of trustees of the Young Men's Christian association held a meeting last Saturday night at which it was decided to enlarge the reading room. Such a move has been contemplated for a long time past, as the room now in use for the purpose is much too small for convenient use. The move has been made on account of the expense. Contributions have now been made sufficient to defray all the expenses, and as the only difficulty is out of the way work will be promptly commenced tomorrow. The room now used as a reading room will be used for games, and a reading room will be made by cutting off the south end of the auditorium by means of folding doors which can be opened for meetings when needed so as to use the whole room as at present. The change is one which will be highly appreciated by those who use the reading room privileges.

An Orphan Bicycle.

One unknown man left a Columbia bicycle standing in front of the court house last Saturday afternoon, and disappeared. The machine remained there untouched all afternoon until evening, when the janitor of the court house took it in and hid it. Nothing has been heard of the man who left it, and it is supposed that the machine was stolen, and that the thief, failing to find any place to dispose of it, left it standing on the street in front of the court house. The janitor of the court house is now putting in his spare moments in trembling fear that his chances for having a bicycle of his own may be suddenly snatched in the hand by the rightful owner turning up and proving his title.

At Manawa.

Friday was a lucky day for Manawa. All the resorts and features of entertainments were crowded. Several private parties visited the lake. Twenty rosy checked Council Bluffs girls formed one company and made special merit of the occasion. The company was composed of about forty ladies and gentlemen from Omaha, were also at the lake and indulged in a bath, a banquet and a picnic. Two tall boys from Omaha and a merry company from Papillion added to liveliness of the day.

Drank Kerosene.

A little eighteen months old child baby met with a dangerous accident at the residence of its foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaSalle at 200 Harmony street, yesterday afternoon. A quantity of oil had been used to bathe a pet dog to relieve it of fleas, and the child which had been an interested spectator of the operation, seized the opportunity to investigate the matter. He drank a large quantity of the fluid and ten minutes after was in convulsions. Dr. Smith was called by telephone and succeeded in relieving the sufferer and suggesting a possibility of his recovery.

Why He Struck Her.

George Hefflin's Serious Charge Against His Wife.

George Hefflin was arrested last evening at 1701 Leavenworth street on the charge of wife beating. The Hefflins have been married about ten years, but of late have not been living happily and about a month ago separated. Hefflin is a butcher, and until last Wednesday was employed by Hamilton Brothers, and is reported to be a hard working and industrious man.

A day or so ago the husband came into possession of a couple of letters to his wife from South Omaha in which she had been exceedingly angry, and he went to his wife's dressing room to demand an explanation. Words passed and in the heat of passion Hefflin struck his wife a couple of times, knocking her down and bruising her to some extent.

The letters which were the cause of the row were shown to a Bee man at the police station after the arrest.

One is from a man who signs the name of Cudding and the other from a man named Stevie. Judging from the wording of the letters these South Omaha people have been in the habit of having a high old time at the Hefflins' rooms, but the woman of the fact it appears that Mrs. Hefflin has been in the habit of providing young girls for the amusement of her South Omaha friends, as well as plenty of good things to eat and drink.

While the dressmaker talks very bitterly against her husband and charges him with cruelty and neglect, there does not seem to be much truth in her stories. When seen in his cell by a reporter and told about his wife's charges, Hefflin, who appears to be a straightforward man, declined to speak her-his of his wife beyond saying that he supported her as long as she lived a respectable woman, but that she had been unfaithful to him as long as she kept up her wayward mode of life.

It was proven to Hefflin's satisfaction that his wife was untrue.

The matter will be fully investigated by the police today.

Geosler's Magic Headache Wafers. Cures all headaches in 30 minutes. At all druggists.

Here's Conviction.

Hon. Joseph Medill, proprietor of the Chicago Tribune says, editorially:

The editor had occasionally heard that a Dr. Keeley, residing in Dwight, professed to cure drunkenness by the use of some tincture of gold; but not having any faith in the vague reports he gave no heed to them. Last winter, about Christmas, a Chicago friend casually told him of two or three Chicago men—hard drinkers—who had been restored to sobriety at Dwight by Keeley's "gold" treatment, and on expressing doubts as to the wisdom of making an investigation he was satisfied himself of the wonderful efficacy of the medicine. This the editor proceeded to do. And he published in the Tribune from time to time the evidences concerning the remedy. In order to be fully satisfied he selected several notorious drunkards, the most hopeless and desperate dyspeptics he was able to find, and sent them to Dwight for treatment at his own expense as experimental test cases. When these poor wretches of alcoholic appetite were speedily restored to sobriety, and came back cured men, he ceased to doubt. Thomas and others, the editors of the Tribune refer to others who also had been cured to relate their personal experience and to make an investigation of the case. He looked upon drunkenness as a more terrible affliction of the human race than consumption, because the latter limit the life of the victim alone, whereas the former scatters ruin, misery, disgrace, crime and death all around it. Whoever by his science can deliver the dyspeptic of the evil spirit which possesses him is entitled to the credit of performing an act akin to a miracle. The editor of the Tribune is glad he has contributed to the diffusion of a knowledge of the benediction of gold remedy since the beginning of this year, for in that brief time several thousand inmates who visited Dwight almost hopeless have been restored to their families and friends emancipated from their thralldom and cured of their terrible disease.

When the San Francisco Examiner established its claim bureau it printed the following prospectus:

The Examiner has received so many complaints from its subscribers in various localities on the coast of the delay, extortionate charges and unsatisfactory work performed for them by the various claim agents that it has decided to establish in Washington a bureau for the collection of all legitimate claims against the government or its various departments. This bureau will be in charge of its Washington correspondent, who has had much experience in the prosecution of claims against the various departments of the government. Charges for services performed by this bureau will be nominal and designed to cover only the actual cost of the work and such legal services as may be necessary in order to properly present claims to the heads of the various departments and the court of claims in the supreme court.

Pensioned After Death.

In the report of pensions granted Wednesday the Nebraska list is headed by the name of Richard Melody of Stuart, 15th county. In this case the pension comes too late to be of any benefit to the man who earned it by suffering for his country on the battle field. Melody was the man whose death in the Omaha medical institute led to the official investigation of that place and the arrest of its managers early last month. A brother of Melody is a member of the city council at St. Paul, Minn.
