HAVE GONE TO JOIN DULUTH,

Lincoln's Little Base Ball Team Yields up Its Young Life.

TOO MUCH DAVE ROWE PROVED FATAL.

Peace About to Be Declared Between the National and the American-Results of Yesterday's Games.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 20 .- | Special Telegram to Tak Bee. |-The Lincoln Baseball club is no more. It has been decided to withdraw from the Western association and disband the club. Banker Mosher, who owns the franchise, called a meeting of the persons interested. Messrs. Mosher, Little, Harley, Lemist and Townley were present, and after a long discussion it was decided by these gentlemen that since they had already lost in the aggregate about $8,000 on account of Dave Rowe, that they did not care to take any further risks. A game is being played this afternoon for the benefit of the club. This will be the last game that the club will

The immediate cause for the disbanding of the Lincoln base ball club is the reported rascality of Dave Rowe, the late manager of the club. The members of the club are very free in the expressions of their opinion of Dave Rowe as a manager, and every other way. Bitter words of condemnation are heard on every side concerning his trickery and abuse of the confidence placed in him by the people of Lincoln. The players say that when they left for the late extended trip July 1, that F. W. Little of the street railway company gave each of the boys his check for $50, and they left feeing perfectly satisfied that they would receive their salaries in full on their return home. It is certain that Dave Rowe received at ceived from him only small amounts ranging from $1 to $5 apiece during the entire trip, He is at least over $2,000 ahead from this source. Mr. Little is reported to be out nearly $3,000 through his faith in Rowe's solver, J. H. Harley, R. W. Towley and others signed a $2,000 note for Rowe, on which he secured the cash to pay advance money to the players. The citizens of Lincoln raised a subscription fund of $3,200 and the Lincoln street railway company contributed $1,000 more. About two morths ago friends of the club sold $5,000 worth of tickets for the remainder of the season. About July 4 Mr. Little advanced Rowe $1,350 to pay up salaries, Rowe making a most pathetic appeal for

The earnings of the club this season have been in the neighborhood of $13,000. To this should be added the sale of Darebrough to Kansas City for $200, and $500 more for score cards, to say nothing of other minor sources revenue. Early in the season Rowe issued 100 season tickets at $35 each. There is no record of the saies, but the lot, if sold, would have brought $3,500. He worked one of the hotels on the quiet for $25 a month for his influence on visiting clubs. It is also known that he borrowed money of several persons. The money received on the trips away from me was more than sufficient to pay all salaries. It is therefore estimated that Dave Rowe has done the Lincoln people up for about $10,000 or $12,000 from a conservative standpoint.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 20.-The Post-Dispatch this afternoon says that at the meeting of the American association in this city it was resolved by the magnates to effect a compromise with the national league. The deal is now on and unless some hitch occurs everything will be peaceful in the base ball world within a very short time.

The league people have been talking peace for some time, and the overtures looking to a truce have come from them. A meeting to organize the details for a compromise will be held next week. It will probably occur on Tuesday. Brush and Von der Ahe agreed between themselves on a plan at their last meeting, but each had to get the approval of his associates and next week when the conference is held it will be found what each organization will demand and what each will

Four Clubs to Finish.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Aug. 20 .- The Western Association directors at a meeting tonight decided to finish the season with four clubs-Sioux City, Kansas City, Omaha and Denver. A new schedule to comprise fortytwo games will be made up and the season inaugurated Saturday, Omaha opening a Sioux City and Kansas City at Denver.

Henry Fournier Finally Pitches Another Good Game.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 20 .- [Special Tele gram to THE BEE.]-Fournier pitched today very much as he did in the early part of the season, and the Omaha's could not touch him. The men from Nebraska should have been shut out, their only run being the result of a wild throw by Brennan, who was too anxious to catch the third man at first The hiut given Werrick the other day his playing was not satisfactory, has had a good result. Today his batting was the feature of a hard bitting team's work, he making two singles and two three baggers. The fielding was very sharp on both The Omahas made the two fine double plays and would have made another if Pop Smith had not made a poor throw. Score:

AMONG THE AMATEURS. Beatrice and Fremont Quit on a Nine

Inning Tie. BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 20 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The third game between the Fremont and Beatrice teams was played this afternoon in the presence of a very fair audience. The game, to say the least, was rocky. Several very fine plays were made by both clubs, and some phenomenal batting was done, as will be indicated by the score, in the sixth inning. Aside from this the game was void of thrilling interest. The game resulted in a tie and was called at the end of the minth inning, for reasons unknown to the ordinary spectator. OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 17 .- To the Sporting Editor of THE BER: The way THE BEE has been booming the amateurs of this city. state and vicinity, is something they ought to appreciate, and it certainly looks as if they do, as there has been a large increase in games since THE BEE published the amateur ciub directory three weeks ago. Hefore this was issued there was a poor show for clubs to hear of other clubs, except writing.

chasing, etc.; but as it is now all they have to do is to pick up Tue Bee, and if they want a game in this state or Iowa they can

I have one suggestion which I think a good one, and that is to request through Tox Box of all clubs in this city and surrounding country to send to Tux Box not later than Friday of each week, club names, grounds, time, etc, of games to be played the following Sunday. By this means there would be crowds attend these games and work up en-thusiasm for them, and in a season or two the amateur crink would be as plentiful as the professional. Further, the "Omaha's" are absent most of the time, and a majority of cranks would rather see a good juvenile amateur game than a professional I speak not for my own benefit, but thousands of others. The Ber would be commended for this work in bringing this about, as it is for its good work already. AN EX-AMATRUE.

Down at Sarpy Mills. ALBRIGHT, Neb., Aug. 20.-To the Sport-ing Editor of The Bre: All who wish to witness a good game of ball Sunday should go out to Sarpy mills and see the Maroons of South Omaha and Altright's Choice ball club play the last of a series of three games for the champiouship of South Omaha. Nancy Hanks and Margaret Dissappoint a Great Crowd at Chicago.

NOT IN CONDITION TO MAKE RECORDS.

Patrons of the Earatoga Track Get a Fine Day's Sport-Other Notable Turf Events Yesterday.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 .- There were over six thousand disappointed spectators at Washington park today. Both the Hawthorne and Garfield park tracks closed down and the large crowd went to Washington park expecting to witness a grand contest between Nancy Hanks and Margaret for a purse of $2,000.

After two preliminary races had been decided the two famous trotters were called to the post. Nancy Hanks was first out, and as she cantered by the grand stand with Bud Doble behind her a great cheer arose. A moment later Margaret, driven by George Starr, the "Snapper" Garrison of the trotting turf, made her appearance and received a warm welcome.

After scoring once they were sent away on even terms, and traveled neck and neck around the turn and into the back stretch. When well straightened out Nancy Hanks began to draw away and like clock work came strong, winning the neat easily by two lengtos. When the time-2:2014 -was posted, on-lookers could scarcely believe their eyes, for the track was lightning fast. The second heat was a repetition of the first, only that the time was a second and a quarter faster. At this juncture President Mitchell announced from the judges' stand that Margaret was wholly unfit to race, and that Mr. Starr had asked permission to with draw her. The request was granted, and Mr. Doble expressed his willingness to send Nancy Hanks against time, but a neavy rain set in and that part of the programme was postponed until tomorrow. The Seer, driven by the veteran jockey, James Golden, of Medford, Mass., was a strong favorite, and in the fourth heat was behind a group of five just rounding the final turn. Jockey Golden essayed to get into the inside,

STORY OF ALMY'S CAPTURE.

Won, A. C. Time: 52%.

How the Cowardly Murderer of an Innocent Girl Was Caught.

HANOVER, N. H., Aug. 20. - Although large part of the crowd agreed with Sheriff Brigham in his appeal for protection for Almy when he should be brought out of the barn, several pistol shots, fired in the crowd while Brigham was talking, showed that there was a difference of opinion at that time When Almy refused to come out as he had agreed to the temper of the people changed and a general cry was sent up, "Don't fool with him any longer; bring him out dead or alive, and do it quickly."

Those who had been in conference with him having retired, a force with Winchester rifles was brought and after locating him as near as possible from the outside the firing was commenced by the riflemen. Almy responded with his revolvers, but the shooting resulted in nothing except to bring another demand from Almy for a second talk with Solicitor Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell, notwithstanding, the in creased desperation of the murderer went up to the hay mow. Of this second visit the solicitor says, "Almy was flourishing his shooting irons in a manner even more dangerous than before. As he put them under my nose, the expression on his face led me to think that my life hung on a very slender thread. He said to those within hearing: 'Stand back, gentlemen, I hold Mitcheli's life in my hand and if you wink I'll shoot him." After some reference to our talk at the first meeting he again asked me if I would guarantee protection and a fair trial in the courts. I assured him that he should have both. He then called again for John H. Fuller, who came up where we were. After going over the same talk again he handed one of his revolvers to me and the other to Mr. Fuller. I have since learned that Sheriff Brigham, who had secured a po sition unknown to Almy, had his gun levelled on the parleying murderer, and was at one time at the point of pressing the trigger. The carriage driven by Sheriff Randall was then called for. It was driven up with the curtains down. The crowd became furious at the prospect of losing a chance to see Almy as he should be driven away. They demanded a view of him and said they would take a hand in the affair unless the curtains were pulled up. They removed the curtains. Sheriff Brigham was soon seen coming down from the hay mow with other officers bring-ing the murderer. He was placed in the carringe, but the people were so massed in the front of the barn doors that it was a long sufficiently to allow the team to pass out. Four officers with drawn revolvers were in the wagon and shouted to the people to stand back. Almy was so surrounded by officers that he was scarcely visible and a rush was made for the carriage. The officers finally got the wagon clear, the horses were whipped into a rapid pace, and Almy was taken to the Wheelock hotel. There was a grand rush of the several bunired teams which soon arrived in the village Almy was taken into the dining room at the head of the stairs on the first floor. The office was instantly filled with people, who were still loudy calling for a sight of Almy. Five officers with drawn revolvers were sta-tioned at the foot of the stairway and prevented any passage. The streets about the hotel were packed solid with a turbulent crowd, who were pressing toward Almy's retreat. The officers soon became convinced that the crowd meant business and Sheriff Bridgeman came out and announced from the steps that Almy should be seen tomorrow when he would be arraigned at the prelimin-ary hearing. This plan was not satisfactory and the cry went up "We want to see Almy today and we are going to do it."

The sheriff assured them they should see him as soon as his wounds were dressed. When this had been completed the people were allowed to file through the room. stream was kept up till over a thousand had passed, when Almy fainted, and the doors were closed.

An examination of the murderer's body showed that he had been shot three times, twice in the left leg below the knee, the lower shot breaking the large bone. The last shot scooped a hole out of the top of his head but did not touch the skull. This shot was fired by some one while Almy was talking with Dr. G. H. Hoffman about surrendering. None of the wounds are very serious.

Almy says there is nothing in his past career that is bad except that he had gambled some. He will be arraigned before Judge Cobb tomorrow, probably in the after-on a warrant sworn out by N. A. It appears that the wounds in Almy's leg were made by Charles E. Hewitt, the plucky state college student, who stood his ground and emptied his revolver into the haymow while Almy was firing out of it, neither party being visible to the other during the shooting. He escaped unharmed. At 1:30 p. m. Almy is sleeping and guarded by Sheriff Brigham and his deputies.

Aimy had on a belt filled with cartridges He had in his pockets a large knife, tooth brush and some matches. It is little short of a miracle that with all the shooting that occurred today no one was hit but Almy. Bul-lets whistled closely by the heads of the men who were guarding the side of the parn oppo site the men who were using Winchester

The Association press reporter had an in-terview with Almy while he lay on a cot in a room of the Wheelock house. He shows the effect of his hiding in his thin pale face. He says he killed Christie, but had no idea of committing rape. After he killed the girl he went direct to Mr. Warden's barn, and was there when her body was brought to the From his hiding place in the parn he had a full view of the house at the time of the fight. FARMERS IN SESSION.

Kansas Farmers form a New Protective Organization.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 20. - One hundred delegates, representing every organization claiming allegiance to the people's party, met this morning and organized an alliance commercial convention, with Noah Allen of Wichita as chairman. The scheme is one providing for the amalgamation of every business organization which has grown our of the farmers' uprising in this state.

The convention was called, and seems to be manipulated by the Mutual Protective as cciation, an organization which has for its object the fighting of foreclosures in the courts. It is well known that the executive committee of the farmers' alliance does not look with favor on this organization, and a few months ago had a meeting for the pur-pose of entering into negotiations with eastern money lenders to pay off the individual mortgaged indebtedness of the members of the alliance who conscientiously desired to be relieved of debt. Frank McGrath, who set the ball in motion, is in attendance at the convention. When the first session of the executive board was held, at which the payment of the mortgage indebtedness was discussed, Mr. Mc. Grath stated that the alliance would convince the capitalists that it was not organized for the purpose of repudiating honest debts but

LIVES LOST IN INDIANAPOLIS Streams Overflow and Two Boys Drowned-Other Casualties.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 20 .- One of the most terrific rain storms in the history of Indianapolis occurred yesterday. The dam of the state ditch and Pogue's run soon filled and the water spread to the adjacent territory. In the business part of town gutters and sewers were entirely inadequate to the work of carrying off the water, many cellers and basements were filled up, and the loss to goods will be up in the thousands of dollars. The overflow of Pogue's run was accompanied by the loss of at least two lives. Frank Kink, an eight-year-old youngster, being dared by his companions, waded out too far and was caught by the current and swept away. Another lad named Oliver Rekel, who was assisting in saving some lumber, was sucked into a sewer and was seen no more. Neither body was recovered and both were doubtless swept off into the river.

The heavy rainfall was accompanied by terrific thunder and lightning. A thunder bolt struck Olson's bolt works just after the employes had commenced work. L. N. Kil-berlin, bookkeeper, John J. Blackwell, foreman, and Charles Lynn, a mechanic, were knocked senseless. The latter was at first thought to be killed outright, but all three subsequently recovered. Reports from the the outside townships show that a considerable amount of stock was killed by lightning and several barns were burned.

OLD-TIME TELEGRAPHERS.

Their Annual Meeting a Most Pleasant Event.

Washington, Aug. 20.-The Old-Time Telegraphers association and the National Society of Military Telegraphers closed their annual meetings in this city tonight by holding a joint social reunion at the National Rifles' hall. Telegraph instruments had been placed in a corner of the stage, which was connected with the main office of the Western Union company. A circuit had been made up by many of the principal cities of the northwest south and southwest. The wire from the hall was then connected with this circuit and during the evening many of the announcements that were made by the presiding officers were telegraphed over the long circuit. Telegrams of con-gratulation and greeting were received from many places, which were connected with the hall by wire.

At the last moment last night Henry appealed to the governor for a respite, stating that Shoo-maker, one of his accomplices, was to have a hearing, during which some new facts might

REMARKABLE SKIN GRAFTING.

Eight Hundred Pieces of Cutiele Transferred to Scalded Limbs. LIMA, O., Aug 20 .- One of the most wonderful cases of skin grafting that has been made in the history of the medical science is in progress here. Up to the present time over eight hungred pieces of flesh have been taken from human arms and grafted to the body of William Shaw, who was scalded atthe Standard Oil refinery on July 4 and for a long time was on the verge of the grave. Careful treatment and gentle nursing res med him, but left his lower limbs, which had been scalded, entirely, helpless. The grafts are about three-eights of an meh in diameter and are taken from the arms between the elbow and the shoulder. The lifeless skin on the scalded parts is torn away and the grafts applied. A thin skin is bound around the parts, holding the grafts in their places and serving to prevent patrefaction. Frequently the grafts fail to attach and have to be replaced by fresh ones. This explains why 800 of them have already been used. This is an extraordinary number and yet many more are expected to be used before entire re-covery is looked for. Yesterday six men, some of them even unacquinted with the sufferer, came over from the relinery and had grafts taken from their arms. Since the grafting was commenced Shaw has steadily improved and will now undoubtedly recover

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 .- According to an official report at the state department, says a Washington dispatch, there is nothing for the administration to do just now in Chinese matters and therefore nothing is being done.
