

MCKINLEY STARTS HER OFF.

Ohio's Republican Campaigner Opened Wide by the Major at Niles.

TARIFF AND THE SILVER QUESTION.

The Battle Will Be Waged on Those Two Issues, on Which the Parties are so Squarely Opposed.

NILES, O., Aug. 22.—This little city, one of the busiest iron towns in the Mahoning valley, was today the scene of the greatest political gathering in the history of the state with the possible exception of the Grant-Cooking meeting of 1860 at Warren, three miles west of here.

Many thousand visitors were expected and accommodations for that number were provided for. The committee of arrangements had not overestimated the crowd for between twenty-five thousand and thirty thousand were in attendance at the meeting.

The campaign formally opened in Ohio today with the republican party, said Major McKinley, "will be unusually interesting because of the importance of the state and country of the results in November."

"The campaign formally opened in Ohio today with the republican party, said Major McKinley, "will be unusually interesting because of the importance of the state and country of the results in November."

This, he said, had been pointed out by ex-President Cleveland, and Governor Campbell were had declared the same thing.

past the five targets firing at each as it was reached, a sight was presented which differed in a marked degree from the usual shooting competition.

The visitors dispersed and wandered about the center and received the command at their quarters to await the result of the competition.

The names of the victorious marksmen and the score made by them during this competition are:

GIVEN THEIR MEDALS.

Cavalry Marksmen Decorated in the Presence of a Notable Throng.

Yesterday was the last day for the department competition at the Bellevue rifle range, and it had been announced that the final award of medals in the cavalry competition would be made during the afternoon.

The B. & M. sent a special train to the range, leaving at 10 o'clock. This train was completely filled with prominent society people of the city.

PLANS FOR THE COMING ENCAMPMENT.

What the Committee is Doing—Twenty-Five Bands Will Be There—The Revised Official Programme.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Aug. 22.—[Special to THE BEE.]—There has been unusual activity in Camp Sherman today. E. C. Cook of Chicago, who furnished most of the tents, arrived on the grounds last night and with a party of fifty men has been engaged in putting up tents today, and the sun set this evening upon 400 tents pitched and ready for the reception of veterans and friends from all over Nebraska, and active work in the same line will be resumed early Monday morning and carried forward without interruption until Camp Sherman, the national grand camp and the band camp are all in perfect order.

Will Seize the Beer.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Secretary Noble has instructed the commissioner of Indian Affairs to direct Agent Bennett of the Indian agency in Indian Territory to seize all packages of beer that may be shipped into the Indian country and turn them over to the United States marshal, to be labelled as provided in section 2, page 140 of the revised statutes.

Cedar Rapids' Success.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Aug. 22.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Deals have been closed whereby Cedar Rapids gets two large manufacturing concerns. The Helvetia condensed milk company of Highland, Ill., has purchased the condensed milk factory and will erect another building of equal size. They will use about 30,000 pounds of milk from the commencement and it will be one of the largest institutions of the kind in the west.

Iowa Flyer Wrecked.

MISSOURI, Aug. 22.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The west-bound overland flyer was derailed in front of the depot in this city at noon today. The train was slackening up for the station and the damage was confined to the engine, which tore up the platform of the depot for thirty feet. The train was taken off and sent on with another engine. The engineer and fireman jumped. Those on the platform awaiting the arrival of the train had a narrow escape. The debris will be cleared up and trains will not be delayed.
