Peace Conference of the Base Ball Magnates Widens the Breach.

TERMS AS PROPOSED BY EITHER SIDE.

Each Party Wants the Best of the Bargain, and Both Want to Ignore the Western-Yesterday's Games.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.-There was no meeting this morning between the National league and the American association, the withdrawal of the association people last evening as a result of Kelly's jump to the eague having temporarily suspended negotiations. Representatives of the league, however, neld a meeting and prepared a reply to the letter sent to them by the association committee last night.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.—The following is a copy of the letter sent this morning by Mr. Lewis Kramer, the chairman of the American association committee, to the representatives of the league, stating the ultimatum of the association :

GENTLEMEN: We in good faith accepted your proposition for a "peace conference" and attended with the intention and disposition to make an earnest effort to settle all existing differences in some manner which would be honorable both to your people and ours alike. While we were thus engaged, in a conference looking to a fair and honorable settlement, we were apprised of the fact that one of your clubs had (we trust without your knowledge, consent or permission) entered our ranks and induced one of our players to jump his contract. You will, of course, agree that in view of the conference, which was well known to all your club members who had authorized you to represent them, any such action was not in good faith, but a positive violation of the letter and spirit of the negotiations which had passed between us.

In view of this, we feel that we cannot properly continue our nezotiations until your second GENTLEMEN: We in good faith accepted your erly continue our negotiations until your peo-pie kave shown a disposition to meet and treat fairiv. Unless, therefore, you can guarantee to us the player mentioned and good faith in our negotiations and dealings, we shall be compelled to withdraw entirely from the conference. Louis Kramer.

Reply of the League.

The following is the reply of the league representatives:

representatives:
C GENTLEMEN: We are in re-cipt of your communication of this date. By mutual consent and in good faith the National lengue appointed a committee of three to meet a like committee from the association for the purpose of harmonizing any differences existing between the two organizations. After organizations are consisted representative the Apprenentations. izing your committee representing the Amer-can association submitted the following decan association submitted the following de-nands as a basis for sottlement:
First. The reversal of the decision of the Na-lonal board in the cases of Stovey and Bier-auer, and the remanding of said players to be Athletic club of the American association.

Second. That all players now under contract with the American association be subject to reservation by the association as may hereafter be provided.
Third. That the legality contracts of Vickery and Shriver with the Chicago club be subject to discussion.
Fourth. That all players who have signed two contracts shall be suspended.
Fifth. That the national board as now constituted be abolished.

Sixth. The adontion of a new national agree-ent or compact. Seventh. That the Western association be denied admission as a major party to such new agreement.

denied admission as a major party to such new agreement.

Eighth. That the American association's circuit shall be composed of Chicago, Brooking, Boston. Philadelphia, St. Louis, Baltmore. Cincinnati, Washington. Columbus, Louisville and Milwaukee. That the right of the American association to maintain clubs in said cities shall be perpetual; that is to say in case any club should resign its membership, disband or be expelled, the American association shall have the right at any time to establish another club in such city.

We were discussing these demands when your committee withdrew for conference. Upon your return you announced that since early in the evening you had been in possession of the information that a player claimed by an association club had been siened by a National league club and that such information and just been confirmed. Mr. Phelps then journ'to meet at 10 o clock this morning. So since the hour of adjournment to change the situation as existing at that time.

At 10 o'clock this morning we were at the place of meeting prepared to proceed with the business which brought us here. After waiting some time your communication was received in which you make the following additional demand, viz: "Unless, therefore, the league committee can guarantee to us the return of players mentioned, and good faith in our negotiations and dealings we shall be compelled to withdraw entirely from the conference."

We respectfully submit that this last demand occupies precisely the same status as any of the other demands above mentioned, and is a proper subject for discussion in joint conference. We are here for the purpose of discussing and adjusting, if possible, any and all ence. We are here for the purpose of dis-cussing and adjusting, if possible, any and al differences between the two organizations and are prepared to proceed in compliance wit our understanding at the time of adjournment last night. We, therefore, hold ourselve ment last night. We, therefore, how ourselve in readiness to meet you and will remain her until 5 o'clock this afternoon and unles otherwise advised. John T. Brush, Rejoinder of the American.

To this communication the association re-

GENTLEMEN: Your letter was received as we were about to leave the city. It is a v great surprise, in view of the fact that stated to you very positively last night adjournment that we could not and would stated to you very positively last night at adjournment that we could not and would not meet you this morning at 10 o'clock unless you would have your club members correct the wrong which was done in direct violation of a spirit of fair dealing. This announcement was not made in temper, but merely because of a desire to maintain the self respect of our association and the delegates. As to this you must agree that we could under the circumstances do nothing less. In the statement and enumeration of the propositions and domands you have perhaps unintentionally somewhat confused your propositions with ours, and have omitted several made by you. This is, of sourse, under the circumstances wholly immaterial, but to correct unintentional errors we call attention to the following facts:

First—That your delegates have admitted that the Stovey-Rierbauer decision is utterly unfair and unjust.

Second—That the reserving of players under contract was not applied alone to the association haves.

Second that the property of the association players, but to league players alike, his can hardly be called a demand on our part, as you were earnestly urging this also. Third—Upon the statement of your Mr. Hart as to the facts surrounding the signing of Vickery and Schriver we very readily agreed that if they were true Chicago is entitled to their services.

agreed that if they were true Chicago is entitled to their services.

Fourth—Your fourth proposition is scarcely stated fair. You will recollect that we not only claim that contract jumpers be in some way disciplined, but also the clubs which had encouraged and persuaded them to jump.

Fifth The proposition about the National board was made at the very outset by your Mr. Brush.

board was made at the very outset by your Mr. Brush.
Sixth. We did favor a new agreement to be framed in terms equitable for lesgue and association players alike.

Seventh. The idea of getting rid of the Western league was brought out at your suggestion and concurred in by us.

Eighth. We only ask in addition to what we have now permission to locate clubs in Brooklyn and Chicago, giving you permission at the same time to locate in Baltimore and St. Louis. We ask no more than we are willing to give.

same time to locate in Baltimore and St. Louis. We ask no more than we are willing to give.

Ninth. We proposed to give to you in behalf of ourselves perpetual rights of territory; this to protect against combinations, triews or jobs on the part of any clubs. You will see at once that in your nurried note you have somewhat confused the facts.

You have also omitted two of your propositions, to wit:

First. First pour had formulated a plan for reducing the salaries of your players in which you wanted our co-operation.

Second. That you wanted us to merely forgive and forget the admitted wrongs done our association, with the promise that you would not do so again: provided we should not ask or expect any restitution.

We in candor, confess that we had most carnestly hoped that our differences would be settled, but so long as your league recognizes and encourages the conduct referred to in our former note we think it is hardly disposed to meet us half way.

We shall at all times hold ourselves in readiness to meet and treat with you fairly, and to meet you half way in any settlement, but we cannot submit to any other or further impositions.

DON'T WANT THE KING.

pudiate Kelly, the Jumper. BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 26.-The directors of the Boston Baseball club of the American association say that nothing will be done about the jump of Kelly. Today they sent a telegram to President Kramer asking that the Kelly matter be not considered in the conference at Washington. They do not need and will have no use for him, even if he was retained. The club will not make the slightest move to get him back. There would be no proceedings against him or the club that secured him.

Manager Bancroft of the Milwaukees said that Kelly came to him upon entering the grounds yesterday afternoon and told him what he had done, and that he had signed a contract for the remainder of this season and the beginning of next for $20,000 - $13,000 down, besides a ticket for Europe for himself and his wife, Mr. Bancroft said that Presi-dent Von der Ahe of the St. Louis Browns could have signed Kelly in St. Louis in the last trip of the Cincinnatis there. Kelly signified his willingness to sign with Von der Ahe. It was Von der Ahe's intention to play him in left field and behind signified the bat, and next year to play him at the head of the Chicago association nine.

Kelly afterwards changed his mind and said he wanted to play in Boston, where his home was. Von der Ahe interposed no objection, and asked him if he could go right away. He took the train that same night for Boston. That the Boston association nine could not sell out is shown by the fact that President Kramer holds a deed of trust for of per cent of the capital stock of the club Even were this not so the association would keep a club in Boston on new grounds were the present club disposed of in any way.

In the $5,000 stakes for 3-year-olds, Faustine sold favorite 5 to 1. The first heat was a succession of breaks, but in the next three he covered himself with glory, lowering his record to 2.17, and baving the bonor of making the three fastest heats ever trotted by a stallion in a race.

Neither Gaslin nor Ragan Presented Their Names as Prospects Were Unfavorable - Other News from Nebraska Towns.

MINDEN, Neb., Aug. 26. - | Special Telegram o THE BEE. |- The independent's judicial onvention was held in this city today. Frederick B. Beat of Alma was nominated for the judgeship on the eleventh formal ballot. It was ascertained early in the day that neither Gaslin or Ragan could be nominated and their names were not brought before the convention until noon. It was thought that Shafer, county attorney of Phelos county, would be nominated on the second ballot, but combination was made by the Bear and Ragan men which finally nominated Beal.

When balloting began, a resolution was adopted requiring each candidate to sign a pledge renouncing allegiance to all old parties. Shafer of Phelps, Fietcher of Franklin, Beal of Harlan and Hewitt of Adams very promptly signed, but McNeeny of Webster exploded a bomb in the convention by flatly refusing and denouncing in scathing words any such proceedings and charging it as the cian of demagogues in a scramble for office. The chairman of the convention announced that McNeeny's name would be dropped and it was dropped. Gaslin was not in the hall luring the convention but Ragan was.

REGARDED AS FINAL.

Factions Believed to Be the End. Copyright 1891 by James Gordon Bennett. Paris, Aug. 26 - | New York Herald Cable Special to THE BEE. |- The entire Chilian legation at Paris talged of nothing cise yes terday but the Herald dispatch concerning the great battle. The legation, and even the Chilian minister himself, has been entirely without news as the wires have been cut during the past three days. So surprised was the legation that all day its members discussed how it was possible the Herald could have received such a dispatch. Had it not been for the circumstantial evidence, the nature of the cablegram and the fact that several members of the legation were at the editorial rooms yesterday morning while the dispatches were being received over the Herald's private wire they would have been disinclined to accept it without further confirmation. Now they eagerly took forward to the Herald to supply them with information. The Herald representatives during the day had an interview with a gentleman who probably has a broader knowledge of Chilian affairs than any one in Paris and on this account what he says is of the highest imporance. On account of the responsible position he holds be stipulates that his name shall not appear in print.

"Do you look upon the battle, probably now being waged or perhaps concluded, as final!"

"Almost so. If the government is defeated the insurgents will, without doubt, take Vulparaiso and cause great demoralization among the supporters of the government." "And will they win!"

"I scarcely think so. The odds seem to be enormously against them from their topographical position and the numbers and discipline of their soldiers. The government eems to have an enormous advantage in range and their position is almost impregnable. A railroad runs along the mountain side and can bring them the reinforcements which the newly elected president, Claudia Vicuna, is gathering."

"And what are the insurgents' chances?" "If there were treachery in Fort Callao and their friends were to send them the reinforcements from Valparaiso they have promised they could win."

"How are they comparatively equipped?" "The government has got infinitely better cavairy and in case the insurgents are descending they could sweep the valley, for the insurgents come from the north where horses are almost unprocurable. On the other hand, the insurgents are superior in artillery, being armed with the latest type of Armstrong guns, whereas the government weapons date back to ISSO-2," "Which side do the people take in the of the 3,000,000 inhabitants of Chili, 2,950,000 persons don't care one way or the other. The insurgents are backed up by the richer classes, the ones that have wielded the power and now find themselves thwarted by the rule of President Balmaceda. There has not been one popular movement during the

"Suppose the government loses, what then !!! "If," he replied, "it is a crushing defeat the insurgents will capture Valparaiso and the government would be much weakened at San Diego, but it must be remembered that they have got 10,000 troops in the north, considered to be the flower of the army, and might make a stand with that force, and if the insurgents most with a crushing defeat they will find themselves exactly in the same posinothing but a fleet and but a fragment of an army. Then it remains to be seen whether the men and officers may not see fit to discontinue the war which has been ruining the country since it began." "How do you look upon the future finan cial position of Chili, provided peace and order are restored?' "The financial and economical condition of the country is as sound today as it was a year ago. Before the revolution took place the revenues of the country, which are held in equal proportions by the revolutionists and the government, will come back." "Whatever the government may be when established, are the revenues sufficient to meet the expenses and pay the interest on the national debt?" "Yes, ample, and also sufficient, over and above, to give a surplus of from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 per annum. Chili only owes abroad £8,500,000. The interest and sinking fund only impose an expenditure of £4,000,000 a year. She has no international debt unless you choose to count the government certificates. Chill's revenue is $60,000,000 annually. Her expenses, includ ing the external debt, are from $53,000,000 to $54,000,000. She has state property amounting to $75,000,000 or $100,000,000. Notwithstanding the abnormal state of affairs she paid the interest on her debt June 1, after six months of revolution, without borrowing a cent. To those knowing Chili this was not a surprise. She similarly paid this during a four years' war with Peru. No matter who wins now the country will retrieve its position."

COSTLY MISTAKES BY THE INSURGENTS.

Their Retreat Cut off and Opposed by Overwhelming Numbers-Beginning of the End-War Items.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26 .- A telegram from Valparaiso, dated the 24th inst., has today been received in this city, of which the following is a translation:

The insurgents succeeded in landing 10,-000 soldiers at the bay of Quinteros, north of Valparaise, where they started along the shore toward Valparaiso under the protection of six of their mer-of-war and eight armed transports, besides all the boats of their fleet provided with maitralleuses, endeavoring to surprise the city by a rear

A government force of 5,000 men was immediately dispatched from Valparaiso and succeeded in delaying the crossing of the Aconeagua river near its mouth, while a sufficient number of troops were moving by rail to protect Valparaiso and oppore the insurgents by at least 15,000 men, with a prospect of a further increase of forces from other quarters.

The Losses Were Heavy.

The government forces succeeded in stopping the insurgents for forty hours with a oss to the enemy of about 3,000 of its mon, notwithstanding the fire of the insurgent fleet besides that of the land force.

This operation enabled the government to select the best positions for its 12,000 troops, although this advantage cost the loss of half of the gallant division of 5,000 men, which contested the march of the rebeis and their crossing the Acaruagna river.

The rebel fleet has been kept at bay by the fire of Fort Andes, and the insurgent forces are deprived of the expected protection of their men-of-war, while the government forces are constantly receiving reinforcements from the interior. Now the rebel forces will be found without any possible way of retreat. Such is the situation Strict Neutrality Must Be Observed. Berlin, Aug. 26.—The National Gazette states that an English steamer, which arrived at Kiel, is believed to have a cargo of war material on board for the Balmacedan war vessel, Presidente Piuto, which arrived at Kiel yesterday. Should this be the case t is generally understood here that the Ger-man authorities at Kiel, acting under special Instructions from the imperial government, will insist upon the neutrality of the port of Kiel being strictly observed by the English steamship and by the Chilian war vessel. In other words the German authorities will prevent the English steamships from transfer-ing her cargo, should it consist of war ma-terial, to the Presidente Pinto, while those two vessels are in German waters.

MANGEUVERING FOR POSITION. Chili's Opposing Armies Have Given Up Fighting for the Present.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26 -The following dispatch appears in the Herald this morning from Valparaiso, Chili: Neither of the armies now confronting each other along the eastern shore of Valparaiso bay seems disposed to renew hostilities justat present, and outside of some unimportant skirmishing there was no fighting today. As near as can be learned the commanding generals of the two armies are watching each other closely and managuvering for position.

mong the people, being familiar with warfare, has realized the fact that it is well nigh impossible to procure Valparaiso by a direct attack along the lines he apparently had in view when he commenced the attack or Vina Del Mar Sunday and was unsuccessful. chance to make a direct attack on the city

President Balmaceda and his officers are not novices in the art of war and do not pro-pose to allow the insurgents to take a trick unless they earn it. He is strengthening his army as much as possible and there is an im-pression that his idea is, if possible, to cut off he enemy's line of retreat to his ships before he gives battle, and then he hopes to give bim a crushing blow which will wipe him out of existence and thus end the revolution. This appears to be about the situation, and until one or the other of the commanders has got into the position for which he is striving t is probable that there will be no hard The city was quiet today.
