NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Strange Developments in Connection with the Pension Business.

NUMEROUS INDICATIONS OF FRAUD.

Application of Mrs. Bartholomew Donohue Brings Out Some Curious Facts—An Investigation Will Be Instituted.

A strange case has just come to light in connection with the pension business. Mrs. Bartholomew Donohue applied for a pension some days ago and her application was signed by Dr. Macrae. Yesterday Dr. Macrae received a letter from the head of the pension department demanding an explanation, and stating that Bartholomew Donohue had been drawing a pension for several years past. Dr. Macrae was somewhat mystified, as he plainly remembered being called out on July 4, 1887, to attend the husband of the would-be pensioner, who had fallen under the wheels of his own engine on the Burlington road and had been killed before the physician could reach him.

One theory is that there are two Bartholomew Donohues in the company and that Bartholomew No. 2 is the one referred to in this afternoon's paper. It is also possible that the pension department had been misled by some one else, and that the pension belonging to Bartholomew No. 1 ever since the latter's death. It is a peculiar case, and will probably receive some attention from the department.

Where is Cupid Now?

David Ross, who lives in Cut-Off island, appeared before Justice Cones yesterday morning with a tale of woe as long as one's arm, which he proceeded to unfold. He said he had been paying attention to Mary Robinson, another Cut-Off islander, for some time past, and that about June 25 she took a ring from his pocket and had kept it ever since. He had repeatedly asked her to give it back to him, and at last he threatened to have her arrested. She laughed at him, and as this was galling to his pride, he had decided to carry out his original design. He accordingly filed an information charging her with the larceny of the ring, whose value he stated at $100. Mrs. Robinson was brought into court by a constable, and after pleading not guilty she was dismissed on bail until this morning at 9 o'clock, when she will have a hearing. She told the story much as Ross did, except she said she dared him to have her arrested when he made the threat. The whole affair is apparently the work of a very clever woman, who will probably be patched up without complaint to $50.

Preparing for the Fair.

The Woman's Relief corps is getting up a fair which will be held October 21-23 inclusive, the receipts to be used for the benefit of the relief fund. The programme of the first night will consist of a camp fire, at which many of the most prominent speakers of this section of the country will take part. A literary programme will be rendered the second evening, and on the third there will be a fancy dress ball without masks.

Among the money-making schemes which are being devised, one of the most novel is that of an autograph quilt. Muslin blocks are being sent to the prominent old soldiers in various parts of the country with the request that they write their names and official ranks thereon. The names will then be embroidered, the blocks pieced together, and the quilt sold at auction. General G. M. Dodge was the recipient of one of the muslin blocks, and yesterday the ladies received his autograph, accompanied by a check for $25, as a contribution to the relief fund.

Result of Jealousy.

An information has been filed with Justice Hammer by Laura Hutterfield, charging her husband, H. W. Hutterfield, with assault and battery. She claims that her husband, who is the proprietor of the Kansas City house on South Main street, administered a beating to her night before last. Hutterfield was arrested yesterday morning and his hearing was set for next Tuesday. It is stated that the quarrel between husband and wife is occasioned by the former's jealousy because he thinks his wife is too willing to accept attentions from other men.

Work of an Incendiary.

Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock an alarm was sent in to the fire department from near the corner of Washington avenue and second street, a fire having been discovered in a small frame building at 235

A SICK HEAD.

Washington avenue. The boys responded quickly and in a few minutes the fire was out, with almost no damage done. The house had a front porch 12 feet wide, and the flames cannot be accounted for on any ground except that they were the work of an incendiary. In fact, distinct traces of oil were found on one of the partitions in the front room, it evidently having soaked through the cracks, so that the incendiary origin can hardly be doubted. The building belongs to a young man named Christensen, and is located on Leavenworth street. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the deed.

Constipation poisons the blood; DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure constipation. The cause removed, the disease is gone.

"The Fairies' Revel" and the "Butterfly's Carnival," consist of forty-eight children, representing fairies, butterflies, frogs, grasshoppers, butterflies, Prince Oberon, and his guards; Moth, the Miller; Uglia, the ogre; Puck, the jester. Those donating refreshment will please send same to 238 Broadway.

Tucker-Anderson.

Mr. C. E. Tucker and Miss Barbara Anderson were married Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's parents on Avenue B, Rev. Stephen Phelps of the First Presbyterian church officiating. It was a very quiet affair, only a few intimate friends being invited. J. J. Anderson, brother of the bride, acted as groomsmen and Miss Estima Lachow as bridesmaid. After the ceremony had been performed an elegant lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker are well known in Council Bluffs. Mr. Tucker is chief clerk of the freight inspection bureau, while his bride has been for a number of years a successful teacher in the public schools. They will reside at 1215 Avenue A.

Fight Between Partners.

George Fraike has commenced a suit in superior court to compel George Tripelow, his partner to account to him for the business, and to divide the profits. He alleges that the partnership was formed last February for the purpose of carrying on a meat market on Broadway, at the foot of Glen avenue. In May the business was closed up, and from that time to this he has been trying to get Tripelow to have an accounting and division of the proceeds of the business, without success. He asks the court to dissolve the partnership, and grant him such relief as he is entitled to.

Continuing the Bonds.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.—Information was received at the treasury department today that certain bankers in New York were selling 4 per cent bonds and buying 4 1/2 per cent bonds with a view of having the latter continued at 2 per cent and using them as a basis of circulation of national bank notes. There has been an increase of over $5,000,000 in the total of circulation since July 1, and it is understood that there is a strong disposition on the part of several banks in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia to still further increase it. The amount of 4 1/2 per cent bonds continued at 2 per cent today was $454,000, making the total to date $52,463,000.
