INDEPENDENT NON-PARTISANS

Third Political Party Nominates Its Candidates for Judicial Honors.

TAKING THEM FROM THREE PARTIES.

L. W. Osborne, T. B. Minahan, Lee Estelle, A. M. Ferguson, G. A. Mogney, H. J. Davis and Frank Irvine Are Candidates.

The independent district judicial convention met yesterday afternoon at Gate City hall. Allen Root was elected chairman and S. P. Brigham was elected secretary.

After some preliminary discussion, a recess of ten minutes was taken for the purpose of caucusing upon the candidates. During the caucus Mr. Brigham of South Omaha made quite a speech, in which he held that the convention should nominate a clear cut independent ticket, absolutely free from all alliances with the two old parties. He referred to the appointment of the four district judges last spring as being an exhibition of hoggishness on the part of the two old parties, and he thought that the independents should cut loose from both the democratic and republican parties. Mr. Brigham declared that the old parties were taying plans to join hands and defeat Edgerton, and that both the leading newspapers of Omaha, representing the two old parties, had been urging such a course. He therefore arged a straight-out action on the part of the convention.

When the convention was again called to order the chairman, Allen Root, made a speech that seemed to strike a responsive ebord in the minds of most of the delegates. "We have not the insterial in our party," said Mr. Root, "to fill all these positions on the bench. Let us take good men who lean the bench. Let us take good men who lean toward us, who have proven themselves to be honest and upright in their dealings with the people. We are a young party and it would be folly for us to nominate men who would cause us to binsh afterwards." Mr. N. O. Strickler spoke earnestly in the same strain. He believed in nominating good, strong lawyers, men of integrity and ability, who would be a credit to the conven-tion nominating them. His remarks were greeted by applause.

mr. Jeffcoat then moved that the conven-tion proceed to take an informal ballot for the purpose of bringing out the candidates. The representation for the four counties was as follows: Burt county, eleven dele-cates: Dougles county twelve delecates: The informal ballot showed that the fol-lowing gentlemen had supporters in the coun-ties excepting Burt were ropresented. The informal ballot showed that the fol-lowing gentlemen had supporters in the con-section: Less Estelle H J Davis A M

Iowing gentlemen had supporters in the con-vention: Lee S. Estelle, H. J. Davis, A. M. Ferguson, T. B. Minahan, L. W. Osborne, George Magney, Frank Irvine, E. Wakeley, G. W. Covell, H. M. Hopewell and J. R. Clarkson. The seven highest stood as fol-lows: Estelle, 14 votes; Davis, 14; Fergu-son, 14; Minahan, 13; Magney, 16; Osborne, 18; Irvine, 14. 18; Irvine, 14.

The formal nominations were then taken

The formal nominations were then taken up one at a time. Mr. L. W. Osborne of Blair was first placed in nomination and received the unan-imous indorsement of the convention. T. B. Minahan of Omaha was also nominated by the unanimous vote of the convention. Judge Lee Estelle was next nominated and then A. M. Ferguson.

A. Herguson. The fifth nomination was that of George A. Magvey. He received the hearty support of R. M. Carpenter and Charles Nowns of Sarpy county. In fact Mr. Magney was the Barpy county.

Barpy county nominee. Mr. V. O. Stickler made a strong speech, in Mr. V. O. Stickler made a strong speech, in which he said that while Mr. Magney was a personal friend of his and he was in favor of recognizing the volce of Sarpy county in the nomination of one of the candidates, yet he believed that a stronger man for the ticket could be selected. He thought if the Sarpy county delegates wished to nominate a Doug-las county mar they should take some one who was mount in the county. He held that

Iss county may they should take some one who was known in the county. He held that Magney was practically unknown. R. M. Carpenter, president of the Sarpy county alliance, became very indignant at Mr. Strickler's remarks. He thought that Douglas county had no right to deny Sarpy county the privilege of nominating a man that would be acceptable to the people of that county. Mr. Carpenter charged that Douglas county had always tried to bullyrag

Douglas county had always tried to bullyrag Sarpy county in conventions, and with the assistance of the Union Pacific had cheated Sarpy county out of everything that was worth mentioning. Mr. Strickler resented the idea that he had any interest whatever in common with the Union Pacific. Mr. Strickler ther nominated Judge H. J. Dayis.

Both names were voted for, Magney receiving 11 votes and Davis 10 votes. Mag-ney was declared the fifth nominee of the

Mr. Davis was again brought before the convention by Mr. Strickler and was unani-mously endorsed as the sixth nominee. There was some talk at this juncture of leaving one vacancy to be filled by Burt county, but the sentiment of the convention was in favor of proceeding with the nomin-ation of the seventh candidate. The names of Frank Irvine and E. Wakeley were suggested. Mr. Root said: "Gentlemen, I have just this to say about the nomination of Judge Wakeley. He stands in a position to be selected by the democrats and republicans as compromise candidate to defeat Judge Edgerton for the supreme court. We cannot afford to run such a risk. To nominate Judge Wakeley today might urge on this fusion the two old parties, and it would draw the fire out of our ticket."

Frank Irvine was nominated as seventh candidate and then all the nominations were made unanimous.

following gentlemen were selected as a judicial central committee: Douglas county -D. C. Deaner and J. H. Taylor; Sarpy-Charles Nownes: Burt-William Berry; Washington-J. C. Wright. asking Mr. Strickler to propare a careful ex-planation of the Australian ballot law to be published in the newspapers of the state.

Judge Wakeley Not a Candidate.

"In tonight's BEE," said Mr. V. O. Strickler, "I am quoted as saying that Judge Wakeley was a candidate for the supremo bench, and, for that reason, it was unwise for the independents to place him upon their ticket. This is a mistake. I at no time said that he was a candidate for the supreme A reporter for THE BEE prior to the meeting of the convention handed me a list of names of the probable nominees, and I re-marked that I thought there was some doubt about Judge Wakeley's nomfination, owing to the fact that he had been mentioned in connection with the supreme judgeship a matter of fact I know that Judge Wakeley is not a candidate for the position."

After the absolution of the novices, the traditional banquet will be served, to which the ladies will be admitted.

Missing Boy.

Louie, the 9-year-old son of S. L. Bray, disappeared from his home at 3914 North Twenty-third street, several days ago and is causing his parents much uneasiness. When last seen he had on a red waist, straw hat and was barefooted. The missing boy has gray eyes and dark hair. Any information concerning him, sent either to police headquarters or to Mr. Bray, will be thankfully received.

PASTORS AND PEOPLE.

Doings of the Week in the Churches of Omaha.

The coming annual conference of the Methodist church to be held in this city the second week in September suggests a forecast of the probable changes, if any, that may take place in the personnel of the Methodist clergy in Omaha.

The congregation of the First Methodist church has requested the return of Rev. P. S. Merrill for another year, and he will undoubtedly remain.

Rev. G. M. Brown of the Hanscom Park church will remain another year.

Rev. Crane of the Seward street church, Rev. Beans of Trinity and Rev. Webster of the Walnut Hill church will in all probability be returned to their present charges. Rev. Allen of the Castellar Street church and Rev Bross of Monmouth Park will also be returned according to the present schodule. Rev. Hodgetts of the South Tenth Street church will probably go to New Mexico to take charge of the missions there. In all probability the Newman Methodist church will be closed and abandoned and Rev. Ware will be assigned to some other charge in the conference. This has been an unfortunate and unsuccessful church enterprise from the beginning and the prominent members of the congregation have about con-cluded that the burden had better be laid down and the membership united with other churches where they can assist in building to cope with the financial burdens that must be borne by all church organizations. Revi Ware has done excellent work since he took hold of the charge at the Newman church, but the membership is small and the finan-cial burden very heavy. The property will probably be sold back to the parties from whom it was purchased. The Jewish Congregational of Israel has Pueblo. decided not to build a new temple at present on Harney street as was contemplated early in the summer. The enterprise will be de ferred for a year, and then a fine new ten ple be erected much more elaborate expensive than that contemplated year. Dr. Rosenan, the rabbi returned yesterday from a two months' va-cation in the east. He lectured in Cincinnati in the temple where his father is the rabbi and also before the Young Men's Christian association of that city. Dr. William S. Friedman, rabbi of the Temple Immanuel in Denver, was a guest of Dr. Rosenan last week and made Tuz BEE office a pleasant call. The Second Presbyterian church has been closed for a month undergoing repairs. It is being beautifully decorated and repaired during the pastor's absence. There will be no services there until next Sunday, when Rev. S. M. Ware, the pastor, will be home and the church will be reopened.

HE ACTS QUEER.

Reasons for Thinking That Paul B. Tate is Partly Demented.

It is a question now whether Paul B. Tate, the young bank clerk who is accused of absconding with $5,000 belonging to the Merchants' National bank, is not insane. Judging from all the circumstances surrounding the case he is certainly demented. About three weeks ago J. H. Tate, father of the young man and a business man of high standing, received a telegram from his erring son dated New Orleans. The opening sen-tence read: "Sail for Havana today," and this was followed by broken sentences conveying no meaning. Nothing further was heard from him until ten days ago, when a letter was received from him dated at Ogden. This stated that he had seen the Omaha papers containing the account of his flight. He denied his guilt emphatically and said he could prove his innocence beyond any question. He asked his father's advice as to the best course to pursue in order to settle the matter. The letter also stated that Paul had taken the name of F. M. Lawrence. The rest of the letter, some three or four pages, contained nothing but disjointed seutences with no discernible meaning. Mr. Tate at once wrote to his son and advised him to meet Mr. B. B. Wood, give himself up and explain the whole situa-In reply to this letter a telegram was received from Paul at Gunnison asking where he should meet Mr. Wood. To this the father telegraphed him to meet Mr. Wood at

The same day another telegram was re-ceived from him at Gunnison, the body of which was as follows:

"As per telegraph previous will meet Mr. W. Grand hotel, Pueblo. "To Operator—If parties not in send to 1623, Latbrop street, Kountze Place, at once. F. M. L." Telegrams were sent by the father in reply to these assuring him that Mr. Wood would meet him as arranged, and on August 27 the following telegram was received dated Pueblo: "Telegrams received. Shall await arrival of Mr. W. F. M. L."

of Mr. W. F. M. L." In accordance with these arrangements Mr. Wood proceeded to Pueblo, accompanied by Mr. Pritchett, attorney for the bank. Young Tate met them as agreed and at first said he was willing to go back without any trouble. Afterwards he changed his mind and refused to go with them. A war-rant was served on him and he was put under arrest. His surrender was due entirely to the forts of his father, who did what the de-icetives were unable to do. The actions of the young man form strong grounds for the idea of insanity.

ONLY TWO CANDIDATES NOMINATED.

There Were Seven Names Considered and the Political Excitement Was Intense-Other Nebraska News Notes of Importance.

BURWELL, Nob., Aug. 29,- Special to THE BEE. |-Three o'clock this morning witnessed the close of the first judicial convention under the auspices of the new party in this town. All day yesterday politics were rife in Burwell, and at 9 o'clock last night music was in the air. Two candidates were to be nominated for district judge, one to fill the unexpired term of F. B. Tiffany and one to succeed Judge Harrison. Aspirants were thick, but only seven were placed in nomination in the convention. Each one of the seven, though, was in it to stay. They were Thompson of Hall, Carter of Loup, Doyle of Greeley, Martz and Norman of Valley, Welch of Blaine, and Bartley of Garfield. Chairman Sillik called the assembly to order and after a temporary organization was effected, committees on credentials and permanent organization were sent out. It was suggested that some time would be occupied in preparing the reports and speeches were called for from the aspirants for judicial honors. After some five or six had expressed themselves as being fully cleansed from all republican and democratic pollution the committees announced their readiness to

But one of the delegates whose candi date had not been heard from made strenu ous objection to this and; being sustained the chair, the speaking was kept open until 11 p. m. Nominations now being declared in order, seven names were mentioned and the parties were appropriately eulogized.

On the first ballot it was evident that things were not as unanimous as might be, but good order was kept throughout five ballots, when it was announced that J. R. Thompson had received 35 out of the 68 votes cast. Mr. Thompson was then unanimously icclared the choice of the convention and the County after county was called and "passed." On the ninth ballot i: became evident that Bartley was winner and Greeley county delegates went wild. Patrick Barry, when the chairman began to announce the vote, called a balt and persuaded the chairman to say he was not sure as to the result and ordered a new call of counties. On this call Bartley received 40 out of 68 votes, and was declared the comined
