COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE - NO. 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by Carrier in any part of the City. H. W. TILTON, - MANAGER. TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 42; Night Editor, No. 42.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Plans Perfected for the Medical Society of the Missouri Valley. SESSONS WILL BE HELD AT THE GRAND. Many Prominent Physicians From Various Portions of Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri - Valuable Stolen Papers Found.

MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. P. Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal. Craft's chattel loans, 204 Sapp block. If you want water in your yard or house go to Bluff's, 302 Merriam block. Miss Henrietta Valders is with Keene and the other members of the company make a strong support. The saloons may have been closed Sunday but there were four drinks before the court yesterday morning. E. Jefferson was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of larceny. He spent the night in the city jail. W. S. Sarkey of Walnut who has been confined in the St. Bernard hospital has been transferred to the city hospital.

Charles Adams, charged with stealing a nurse from the Swanson music company, will have a hearing this morning in police court. There is the promise of a rush to hear Keene Wednesday evening. Those who want choice seats should be early at the diagram. The County Board of Supervisors met yesterday, but on account of its being a holiday, adjourned until today, without transacting any business. Hon. John U. Otis, congressman elect from Kansas, will address the people on the leading political topics this evening at Peterson's hall on upper Broadway. The regular drill of the Dodge Light Guard will be postponed from Tuesday, September 8, to Wednesday, September 9, on account of the meeting of the republican club at their quarters. The council was to have met last evening in regular monthly session, but owing to the fact that it was Labor day they contented themselves with meeting and adjourning until Wednesday evening. Tom Hunter, Joseph Dodds, John Lovelace, Frank Allen and James Dilkes were fined $1 and cost $2 for being on the street yesterday morning for shooting craps Sunday night. They paid the fine and were released. A large number of veterans and their families will visit Omaha this evening, to attend the dedication of the new headquarters of the U. S. Soldiers Home. Those who meet at the Grand Army hall on Pearl street to take a motor train at 8 o'clock. The public schools opened yesterday. The school book complications took up more time and caused numerous questions to rise. The changes will necessarily make the preliminary organization of the schools a little more prolonged than usual. The attendance is reported larger than usual. Early yesterday morning the members of the Union Pacific assembly No. 1380, Knights of Labor, gathered at their hall, and in a body headed by Darby's band, marched to the Broadway depot where they took a special train for Omaha. There was no public observance of labor day here beyond the closing of banks, courts, etc. All members of the Lincoln post and the Ladies Relief Corps are requested to meet at the Grand Army of the Republic headquarters this evening for the purpose of accepting the invitation of E. S. Grant, post of Omaha to be present at the dedication of their new hall. The two organizations will go to Omaha in a body and will start at 7:30 o'clock.

Council Bluffs Talent. Council Bluffs has already a national reputation in musical circles by the production of such artists as Fanny Kelllogg, Miss Neally Stevens, Miss Collins and others, whose names are familiar. Frank V. Hadellet's name begins to gain a coveted place on the honored roll. He has returned from a tour made in connection with the Iowa State band, and will remain here until September 16, when he will be tendered a testimonial by the National Conservatory at New York, where he will further his studies. The Saturday Review of Des Moines says of the artist: "A recent temporary addition to the membership of the Iowa State band is a Council Bluffs gentleman, Mr. Frank V. Hadellet, a very talented artist. He was engaged by Mr. Phinney during the recent Chautauque tour, and he will remain with the band until early in September when he returns to his native city. He is a native of Council Bluffs, N. Y. Mr. Hadellet is a pupil of Mr. Otto Osterle, long the solo flutist of the Iowa State band. He has received a great credit upon his colored teacher. He writes music for the piano, and plays with much expression, and with musical experience and training is sure to make a success in his chosen profession. He has many friends here who will follow his career with interest."

Removal sale. Bargains in shoes. L. Kinnehan has removed from 323 Broad. way to No. 11 Pearl street.

It Will Be a Great Speech. The speech of General George A. Sheridan at the Masonic temple in this city this evening will not only be the opening of the campaign here, but it will be the event of the season. General Sheridan is one of the most eloquent orators of the day and those who have heard his political speeches in this state so far this year pronounce them to be the most eloquent, witty and humorous. He has the eloquent diction and oratorical ability of Ingersoll and the wit of Horne. His speech will be of such a nature that it will interest all, regardless of party and democratic greenbackers and alliance men will hear something to set them to thinking. The ladies are especially invited.

Bitten by Dogs. Late Saturday afternoon A. T. Whiteley was bitten by a dog on Sycamore street. He was engaged in the taking of the school census, and was talking to a woman named Brown, when a dog jumped at him, biting him severely. The wound, an ugly one, was dressed at the hospital. The authorities notified the animal will be killed.

TEXAS ON THE TRACK. Advertising Cars from the Lone Star State Coming Today.

If you want to know what the Nebraska advertising train will resemble go down to the Union depot today. There the Texas advertising cars will be on exhibition, vide this dispatch:

Chicago, Ia., Sept. 7.-To the Editor of The Bee: The three Texas exhibit cars, which have been an exhibition at Chicago and at other fairs, will be on the K. & M. train at the Union depot Tuesday only, being enroute to the Nebraska state fair at Lincoln. The party consists of twelve persons, accompanied by ex-Governor Hubbard of Texas, who speaks on the commercial relations between Texas, Nebraska and the northwest.

W. W. H. SLASSON, Director Texas exhibit car.

News From Mexico. CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 7.-A number of the governors of states are expected to arrive here and participate in the president's feast September 15. Fifteen thousand soldiers will probably take part in the sham battle which is to be fought on that day.

Miss J. P. HANCOCK, who resides at 1108 Avenue A, heard some one running past their home. Mr. Haney got up to see what was the matter and arrived at the door just in time to see two men throw a bundle into the weeds in the yard and run away. Yesterday morning he investigated and found the bundle lying where they had thrown it. It turned out to be a package of valuable papers, some of which were letters, and others deeds, mortgages, etc. The papers were evidently the property of Phil Davis of Omaha, claim agent for the Fremont & Elkhorn Valley railroad. They were brought to The Bee office where they await the owner. It is supposed that they were stolen from some one's safe or office.

No Fake, But a Fact. We have determined to close out our business in Council Bluffs. Our time is limited, and we have marked down prices so low that goods will sell themselves in a hurry and this clear out our immense establishment. We will sell furniture, carpets, cooking and heating stoves, crockery, glassware, tinware, curtains, all sorts of housekeeping goods, for nearly one-half the usual prices. Nothing reserved. Everything must go, cost or no cost. The stock is complete. First come, first served. Those indebted to us must call and settle promptly, and save costs, as we can show no partiality. Mandel & Klein, 820 Broadway.

and favorably inclined toward that country, where his father resided many years. El Universal, the semi-official organ of the government, says an officer of the famous Sappier (the crack) regiment, is accused of having ordered a soldier beaten to death. ANNOUNCEMENTS. Russell's comedians in the great farce comedy, "The City Directory," (up to date), will occupy the stage of the new Boyd theatre till Wednesday evening. Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a special Wednesday matinee will be given, at which the highest priced seats in the house will be 50 cents. The third act of "The City Directory" is entirely new since last season, and all of the music and much of the dialogue of the entire piece is new. Luke Schoubratt and Willis Sweatman, together with Dan Daly and Charles Swainan, are the comedians, and are the ablest that Russell has in his troupe. Amelia Grover, the American dancer, will appear at the matinee. The regular night price for the "City Directory" are $1.00, 75c, 50c and 25c. Patti Rosa, who comes to Boyd's next Sunday night, recently took part in an all fresco performance of "As You Like It" in Chicago for the benefit of the Elks. Louis James, Joe Haworth and other prominent actors were in the cast, and the fame of the performance penetrated even so far as the sleepy village of Carlsisle, Pa. The chief distinction of which town is the fact that an Indian school is located there. The sapient manager of the Carlsisle theatre, evening of the "As You Like It" performance, as Manager Wheeler yesterday received a letter from that functionary reading: "Dear Sir: Our people are anxious to see Patti Rosa in her new play 'As You Like It,' and you can do well here for one night. Have your singing and dancing in the new play! They take immense with my people. I will give you 50 per cent and put up your bills good." Manager Wheeler replied that he had not yet purchased the play, but would communicate with Mr. Shakespeare, the author, and try to secure the right to produce it (with songs and dances) in Carlsisle. Mr. Wheeler's rehearsal in which he opens at the Boyd on Thursday evening of this week, is to some a revelation of dramatic work. It is strong in its studied effects, acute and telling in its interpretation, and the play fairly teems with gems of thought, and these have led to its abuse by alleged elocutionists and would be tragedians. The world long since named the Richard of Barrett and that of Booth great, and it is by their marvelous conceptions that it has been judged. But Mr. Wheeler's interpretation is particularly his own, and makes it as it was born in Bulwer's mind. It is fiction, but it is the very grandeur of fiction, and that is what Bulwer intended it for. Mr. Wheeler's Omaha rehearsal will be as follows: Thursday evening, "Richard III," Friday evening, "Richard III," Saturday evening, "Richard III." Cheap prices during the entire engagement will prevail. First floor, 75 cents and 50 cents; balcony, 50 cents and 25 cents; gallery, 25 cents.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

AMUSEMENTS. Jacobowski's tenebrous "Erminie" had its premiere at the Grand Opera house, and all things considered, was fairly successful. There were a number of good things, and perceptible newness on the part of a number of the leading people, but these drawbacks, attenuated upon every "first night," will wear away under the repeated production of the opera. The opera is exceedingly graceful and shows the composer in the light of a student who has not yet reached the maturity of the French and German schools. It has the distinct flavor of a certain personality, which is particularly enjoyable these days. One cannot but admire the skill and discretion with which are blended the elements that go to make this charming opera popular, without detracting from its worth as a refined and musical production. But these observations may seem somewhat out of place in view of the fact that "Erminie" has been given probably more times throughout the country than any of the modern comic operas. In keeping with the brilliancy and musicianly handling of the score, Harry Paulton has written an exceedingly clever book, the lines of which were fairly well brought out by the members of the company. Miss Laura Clement in the title role was pleasingly acceptable. She looked the part and sustained it manfully. Although she lacks the humor of the role which was so distinguishing a feature of Pauline Hall's impersonation, it was a carefully conceived performance, worthy of being classed among that artist's best efforts. Mr. John Brand as Ravennas brought a dignity to the character hardly in keeping with the score or book. But Mr. Brand is not a comedian and the role is universally assumed by a member of that class. Mr. Brand's part remarkably well and sang it with intelligence. In Cadrou, "the jallied," Mr. Charles Drew has a character which just exactly suits his varied capabilities. Essentially low comedy, he brings to the role a vast experience which stamps him in good stead in this characterization, and he was as he has been throughout the engagement a dominating force. Miss Lillian Swain made a pretty and piquante Javotte. Mr. Henry Hallam was not in his best form as Eugene. Miss Barker as the Princess gave a comedy tinge to the performance that was very enjoyable. Of the rest of the cast nothing need be said, except that they were individually unsuited to the parts assigned them. The chorus sang well, and the orchestra under Carl Torraine played the score in an acceptable manner. The perfume of violets, the purity of the lily, the glow of the rose, and the flush of Hebe combine in Pozzoni's wondrous Powder.
