Walter I Smith has returned from Atlantic, where he went to open the September term of the district court. He found the whole country rife with politics. Judge Smith decided very wisely that it wouldn't be best to try to run his court in the face of so many counter attractions, and he adjourned until next Monday.

Another Sensational Edition of the Kimball-Champ Case.

SOME VERY JUICY ALLEGATIONS.

Petition Presented to the Court Urging that the Alleged Assignment Be Set Aside On Account of Fraud.

A big sensation was sprung last evening by Attorneys John Y. Stone, T. C. Dawson and L. W. Ross, in the shape of a petition filed in the district court to set aside the assignment of the Kimbali-Champ Investment company. Some of the allegations of the petition are decidedly juley in their nature and, if proved, will show up the business transactions of the defunct firm in anything but a favorable light.

The plaintiffs in the suit number 113 in all, and are the other members of the company of which Kimball and Champ were the main factors. In the petition is alleged that Kimball and Champ have converted to their own use $103,000 of the corporation funds, and have also made use of the credit of the corporation to further their own personal affairs. It is alleged that at the time of the assignment corporation was in reality solvent, and that Kimbali and Champ attempted to cancel the indebtedness of the corporation by executing deeds on their real corporation by executing deeds on their real property after mortgaging. It to its full value and then using their power as directors to ac-cept these deeds as full payment. The liabil-ities were in fact then only $35,000. It is claimed by the petitioners that Kimbali and Champ executed a deed June 25, previous to the making of the assignment, to Emil Hansworth, Kimball's coachman, to 160 acres of land in Osceola county, and that Hans-worth, a few days later, mortgaged the same property back to Kimball and Champ to secure a loan of $3,000 which it was pretended was made to him. A further claim is that Gage, the third director of the corporation, new nothing of the fact that the assignment was contemplated until after it had been ade, and that none of the stockholders were aformed of the move until after it was all

It is alleged that the same attorney who counselled with Kimball and Champ previously to the assignment, and who drew up the assignment papers, immediately became counsel for the assignee, M. F. Robrer. It is further alleged that Robrer is a personal friend and follower of Kimball and Champ, and is manipulating the affairs of the corporation to advance the interests of Kimball and Champ at the expense of the other members of the corporation. The petitioners also claim that C. B. Towle, who was and still is the secretary of the company, has been excluded from the company's affairs, and is allowed to have no part in its councils. The petition is a lengthy document, and contains many other allegations, but these are the most important. At the close the court is asked to remove Kimball and Champ from the directory of the company, and to set aside the assignment and to appoint a receiver until a meeting of the stockholders can be held. The case was submitted to Judge Macy last evening and an order was issued by him for a special hearing of the case to take place next Saturday morning at bidding the assignee from disposing of the property of the corporation until the hearing is had. o'clock. An order was also made for

Peter Ehlers is the plaintiff, and wants a judgment against Trimble for $620 by reason of some crooked work he did while eashier of the bank. He alleges that while cashier of the bank. He alleges that the bank failed March 12, 1891, and that on that day trouble re-ceived a deposit of $500 from C. J. Henry Ehlers, contrary to the provisions of the statutes. On May 15 he received another eposit of $300 from Fred Leitzke, and both of the claims were assigned to the plaintiff in the present suit. He alleges that the action of the defendant in thus receiving the deposits while the bank was in an insolvent condition was the cause of the two depositors losing their property. It is further alleged that Trimble is about to move out of the stats, that he refuses to pay the claims, and is about to convert his property into money with intent to put it out of the reach of his creditors. A writ of at-tachment was issued for the amount of $620 and was served by a deputy sheriff yester

Republicans Pleased.

The republicans set the ball rolling in good shape last night by a grand rally in the Masonic Temple. By 8 o'clock every seat in the room was occupied, and seats in the windows on the radiators and comfortable standing places on the floor were in demand. Attorney C. M. Harl acted as master of ceremonies for the evening. In a few eloquent and vigorous words, in which he called attention to the evident signs of prosperity all around, and to the no less evident fact that the drouth, the postilence, the chinch bug and early frosts had failed to keep their appointment with Governor Boies, he introduced General George A. Sheridan, the orator of the even-

General Sheridan alluded to the two parties, each of whom wants to run the light of aspirants for the same position, each one putting in its claims for the honor by ex-hibiting its past record. On the one side was the republican party, with a record that anyone was at liberty to invest-igate, while on the other was the democratic party, whose main purpose was to keep its record in the background as much

He then took up the tariff question, and in a hasty sketch he showed how rain and disaster had followed the acts of the democratic party whenever it had been in power; how free trade from 1783 to 1789 had taken every dollar out of the country and left it bankrupt, and how the successive raisings of the tariff had resulted in the increase of manufactures and the consequent increase in prosperity of the country.

Boies New England dinner speech then came in for a choice share of the speaker's ridicule. He had not entered the state, after reading Boles' speech, prepared to find pov-orty and ruin staring him in the face every-where. He was most agreeably surprised at getting a square meal at Clinton for 50 cents immediately after crossing the line, and at every step new signs of the prospheity of the state greeted him. His description of the exhibits he saw at the state fair was an eloquent tribute to Iowa's wealth of resources, and his only possible conclusion, after look-ing about the state, was that Governor Boies was either an ignoramus or else an unquali-

He ridiculed Governor Boies' assertion that a merchant who goes over to England and buys $100 worth of goods and pays a tariff of $50 is compelled to make the consumer pay the extra $50 pluss the his profit, and declared that if the governor was to live three or four hundred thousand years and all the democrats, living and dead, to help him, he would never be able to find a single article where such a statement of facts were true.

The speech was so highly entertaining and instructive that the audience was held until il o'clock. At the conclusion a call was made for members of a young men's republican club and a large number of young men

As a talented representative of the highest class in the entire school of comeay work, Patti Rosa has been commended by the most astute critics of America, England and Australia. She possesses that delicate touch that can draw the line of pure comedy, and ier work is free from the coarses character istics of farce as it is also free from broader significance of burlesque. orime element in her success and popularity is her ability to win the admiration and love of women and children. The refinement of the woman is shown in her work, and to children she is a veritable good inirv of the stage. Her visits each succeeding season are looked forward to with anticipations of enjoyment, the full fruition of which never fails. It is one instance in which the pleasur of realization is greater than that of a pation. Her engagement at Boyd's theater, opening next Sunday night, in her plays "Imp" and "Dolly Vardin" will enlist the attention and patronage of all who enjoy oure, innocent and legitimate stage enter

The advance sale of seats for the engage ment of the eminent tragedian, Mr. Thomas W. Keene, at Boyd's new theater, which commences Thursday evening next, will begin at 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. Keene will be supported by an excellent company and will present the following repertoire: Thursday evening. "Richard III."; Friday evening. "Louis XI."; Saturday matinee, "The Merchant of Venice," and Saturday evening, "Richard III." The prices of reserved tests for the entire companion. served seats for the entire engagement will be $1 for the first floor and 75 cents for the balcony. General admission to first floor 75 cents, general admission to balcony 50 cents gallery 25 cents.

Lincoln J. Carter's scenic production, "The Fast Mail," which will be presented at the Farnam street theater next Thursday evening by an excellent company, is one o the most successful plays put on the stage in recent years. The story is thrilling, and justice is done the startling and resilistic scenes by a perfection of mechanical effects. Among other productions is a representation of an engine room on a Mississippi river steamboat with the furnaces under the boiler fired up. A train of cars shoots across the stage in one scene, and in another there is a vivid, beautiful and awe inspiring representation of Niagara Falls by moonlight with the singing waters and graceful mist that rises about it. The company is said to be excellent throughout.

"Olivette," Audran's charming comic opera will be produced at the Grand Thursday night by the Garrow opera company. Of "Olivette" descriptively little need be said as it has long been a favorite with the public. The company is well cast, Mr. Drow doing Coquielicat in his usual irresistibly funny manner and the other parts are equally well disposed of. The opera was the compa-ny's greatest success in the east and will, no doubt, be well received here. ITS MINTER WORK.

but it was necessary for the members of the association to support it. In closing, the president referred to the coming fall exhibit of the association, and expressed the opinion that an art loan exhibit in connection with the fall exhibition would form an attractive feature.

Professor Wallace spake about the new art school. He said it would not be ready for purish with the last of the week but he art school. He said it would not be ready for pumls until the last of the week, but he was very sanguine of the ultimate success of the school and expressed the opinion that there would be at least one bundred pupils by October. The night classes, he said, would provide instruction for a large number who had not been sole to attend day classes, especially young men and school teachers.

teachers. The school was discussed at some length by a number of those present and then the question of an art loan exhibit was taken up. There was a great diversity of opinion at first as to the feasibility of securing an interesting collection of curios or an extensive exhibit of works of art, but after a full discussion of the subject in all its bearings it was the general opinion that, with vigorous work, an excellent collection might be made. On Motion of Mr. Clem Chase, it was un-animously decided to hold a curio and art loan exhibit in connection with the fall exnibit of the association, subject to such restrictions as the board of managers might The board of managers will hold a meet-ing in a short time and decide upon the plan
