TROTTING THAT STIRRED THE BLOOD.

Young Horses Had the Track at Lincoin-Driving and Running Races on Eastern Tracks -Today's Tips.

The second day of the races at Union park attracted a fair crowd, not nearly as large, however, as the excellent character of the card deserved. The weather was all that could be desired, with a cloudy sky and refreshing south breezes. The track, an exceptionally fine one at all times, couldn't have been in better condition, barring the dust, and drivers and owners were in a high state of elation in consequence of these favorable auspices. Dalbey's band from the Bluffs filled the autumn air with its inspiriting strains, and altogether the afternoon was a most enjoyable one.

The judges yesterday were the same as on the previous day. Today lasties and children will be admitted

Promptly at 2 o'clock Starter Mc Elroy summoned the horses for the 2:32 trot, purse $500. The entries were: Jos. ch. s., M. L. Williams, Lincoln, Neb.; Happy May, b. m., Britton & Perry, Wayne, Neb.; Billy Burton, b. v., D. A. Williams, Sioux City, Ia.; Chestnut Wilkes, br. m., W. C. Swartz, Silver City, Ia.; Hornpipe, b. s., S. Whitford, Kansas City, Mo.; Welshman, b. g., Peter Dellier, Sioux City, Ia.; Sorrei Dan, s. g., Thomas Russell, Marysville, Ky.; Ivica, b. s., W. J. Dyer, Lancaster, Wis.

Lyica sold favorite in the peols with Horn.

Ivica sold favorite in the pools with Hornpipe a good second. Ivica draw the pole with Happy May second, Joe third, Horn-pipe fourth, Welshman fifth, Chestnut Wilkes sixth, Billy Burton seventh and Sorrel Dan eighth.

After seven trials the gang got an even send-off, with Ivica and Joe rose and nose, setting the pace, with Sorrel Dan and Hornpipe having an even thing. The positions were maintained to the first quarter, which was made in 37. These positions were un-changed at the half, in 1:125.

At the three-quarters Ivica showed a shade in front of Joe, 1:49, but rounding into the stretch they were on even terms again, rushing down to the wire neck and neck, with Old Bob Kneebs, who was driving Ivica, using the silk unsparingly. He succeeded in getting the little bay's nose under the wire first, but it was a close call. Time: 2:26. The second heat was an exciting one, being taken by Joe after one of the sharpest fin-ishes ever seen on the track. Ivica led the procession clear round to the stretch, when Joe's driver loosened up, and the big chest-nut responded nobly, collaring the bay and holding on even terms to within fifty yards of the wire, when he shoved his big nose in front and kept it there, winning the heat in 2:25%. The quarters were made in 36%, 1:13 and 1:47%.

The third heat was also taken by Joe. Ivica was driven hard, but was unequal to the task, the big chestnut beating her out by a good two lengths. Time, 2:274. The quarters were: 37, 1:1294, 1:4097.

Joe had no bother in taking the fourth and

The second event was the free-for-all pace, purse $600. The entries for this event

Storm, blk s., Kirk Brothers, Mason City, In.; Prince T. r. g., A. Thompson, Omaha; Edward Rosewater, r. s., E. Soloman, Omaha; Almont Bashaw, b. s., Frank Burns, Ida Grove, In.; Wilkie Russell, b. s., King Hill Stock Farm, St. Joseph, Mo., and Deacen, b.g., G. B. Dougherty, Leon, Ia. Storm was the favorite in the betting.

Deacon drew the pole, Prince T second, Storm third, Wilkie Russell fourth, Ed Rosewater fifth and Almont Bashaw sixth. After a half dozen ineffectual attempts to get off. Starter McElroy fined the divers of Deacon, Rosewater and Russell $5 each, and on the next trial they got away. Prince T led for a quarter, when Bashaw and Storm both passed him, Rosewater breaking badly, being hopelessly in the rear. Bashaw took the lead at the half, and although closely pushed by Storm and Russell came in a winner by a short length. Time: 2:17%. The quarters were made in 34, 1:07, 1:411 Foxy old Bob Kneeps got at least two lengths the best of the start in the second heat and was never headed. This, however, is saying much for a starter of Mr. McElroy's ability. If Kneebs can't get the best of it, he don't want anything, and it is a queer thing that this class of drivers always coddle the starter. Storm made a game struggle for the heat, but the handleap he received at the start, was too much for him and Bashaw won by a length. Rosewater acted much better in this heat and finished third. Time: 2:17½. The quarters were 35, 1:09 ard 1:42.

The third heat was a sinch for Bashaw, who jumped into the van from the word "go" and stayed there to the finish. The first quarter was made in 34, second in 1:07%, the third in 1:41% and the mile in 2:17%. It was a fine race in every detail, being the fastest three heats ever trotted or paced over this track, and the fastest three heats over any track in Nebraska or Iowa, excepting at Independence. Bashaw won first money, of course, Storm second, Rosewater third and Russell fourth. Summary; Almont Bushaw

In the second heat Accident rook the lead. Weston and Goldie Saturn behaved badly, several breaks causing the latter to be shut out and almost resulting in the retirement of the former. Accident won easily.
In the third heat Accident did some excellent work, but was closely pushed by Cricket and, at the three-quarter pole, the latter shot his nose in the lead, but it was only for a moment, Accident resuming his advantage. Brudbury was skirmishing on the flank of both, and in the home stretch, where Accident broke, Bradbury shot ahead, leading Cricket by a couple of feet and Accident by half a length.

Mr. Chairman, republican men of the state of New York: I have been a republican all my life. I regard your action as a trumpet call to duty, a command to undertake a crusade against the democracy of this state with all that implies of Hillism and Tammanyism, that command I shall obey. To it I propose devoting all my energy and strength and whatever of skill I have.

deserve to win. That is haif the battle. The other haif is to go and get it. I accept your invitation with all that it means. This acceptance means immediate retirement from a place of bonor and preferment bestowed directly by your choice of 1888, one thing at a time. I understand this invitation to come from all the representative of the whole republican party of the state. Then, if that is true, I will lead where you dare follow. [Great cheering.] I will do my best to put before the people of this state what you have been struggling for in the legislature and out of it for nine years.

There are great pletures for the jury of the great state of New York to pass upon. The one pleture the legislature record of the republican party in nine years; and the other the legislature and executive record of the democracy through the same period of time.

I challenge the democratic picture in vain for one feature that makes for right-cousness in life or government. [Ap. plause.] Persistent. dogged persistency. being resistance, audacious resistance to the voice of the people at the polis. I see all through that nine years the epitome of democratic existence. What is Tammanyism? What is triumphant democracy? They are exemplified in two centers, New York and Albany-two cyclone centers of democratic inducace. What is Hillism? What is Tammanyism? What is triumphant democracy? I appeal to history. I appeal to the record of your memory. The republican record of nine years has been a perpetual protest against the doctrine of prostitution, through purely political and partissan purposes, the great powers of public office.

Time and again we have been met with the veto. Time and again we have been beaten back by abhorrent forces in an abhorrent way. Time and time again, inspired by your voice and your vote, the legislature has come to the attack for good government. We have wested from an unwilling executive the lowest tax rate for thirty years. The collateral inheritance tax law, that utilimately will free your homes from the st form in state departments should be another. The republican party's record for what we have, for what we propose to do, interpreted by the light, not hatred or malice, but the light of what we have done, promises the people of the state of New York better government in our cities and more quiet in our homes, lighter taxation and a stronger front in the state against all abhorrent forces, than the attitude of the democratic party promises on the same questions.

We are entering upon an important campaign. The significance of it is not to be interpreted from reading the pistform, but from the track our party has made in its onward march, from the monuments which we have left on all hands and which our opponents have destroyed right and left.

The republican party has always been grandest, has always been greatest and has never occan defeated when it had its eye fixed upon its principles. It was not the names of the generals of the war of the rebellion that conjured success. It was the everhaling right that moved us forward to victory. The party does not strand for anything good when it was not aggressive. The democratic party has been driven from one end to the other by quirrels for leadership.

They have written over the entrance to their liatis: "No working man need apply." They have written sundry and other basics which we will discuss on some future occasion.

And now, Mr. Cha'rman and fellow republican, when I find myself in such a hunpy family as this I appreciate that I am a memopolist. I want to monopolize all your loyalty, all your affections, and, as you have observed. I desire to monopolize all the convention.
