IT LASTED S'X RATTLING ROUNDS.

Mr. McAuliffe Didn't Have the Walkover He Was Looking For -Jere Dunn's Decision Against Gibbons.

New York, Sept. 11.-Sporting men say that no prize fight in the entire county has attracted such universal interest since the great battle between Dempsey and Fitzsimmons, as the light-weight championship match between Jack McAuliffe and Austin Gibbons, which was contested tonight before the Granite association of Hoboken. Prominent sporting men from all parts of the country were present, eager to see Gibbons, the young Jerseyman, who, though victorious in all his previous batties, had never before faced a man in McAuliffe's class. Owing to the fact that Gibbons had decidedly the advantage in both height and reach, many people believed that they were going to see a repetition of the Dempsey downfall in New Orleans, as Gibbons is another of those long, lanky, powerful fellows of the Fitzsimmons

It may also be said that never in the annals of the prize ring has there been a figurer with so slight a record who was backed so heavily as Austin Gibbons. McAuliffe, of course, had been the favorite in betting circles all along, and even today the odds were $100 to $50 on the champion, but the manner in which the odds were snapped up was really astonishing. Many of McAuliffe's intimate friends and most ardent admirers looked for the short end of the betting.

Neither of these pugilists had ever been defeated, although both had fought draws. McAuliffe, it should be added, has by far the

It Pleased the Managers.

The managers of the Granite association of Hoboken were greatly pleased this afternoon when they heard a car load of sports had come in from Troy, another from Philadelphia and a third from Boston to see the fight. The signs betokened a profit club had not foreseen. By 7 o'clock the big space in front of the building was packet with people, and a line of men forme from the doors several hundred fee There was no chance to in until 7:20, however, an when the crowd was allowed to find its waas best it could to the entrance the jam wa terrifle, for the doors were narrow. A lor stream peured into the big building, which seats 3,200 persons, and it was filled before o'clock. The price of admission was $10 for the 800 seats that were immediately su rounding the platform and $5 for the other

Kings of the Fancy Present. The fighters arrived in Hopoken before articles of agreement the men were to scal at 135 pounds five minutes before eatering the ring and they were to be in their corne at 9 p. m. As is known, the Granite association gave them a purse of $4,000 and ther was a stake of $1,500 a side as well. The

was a stake of $1,500 a side as well. The whole amount was to go to the winner.

All the well known sporting men of this vicinity were present. There has not been such a representative crowd of sports at a ring side since Sullivan and Kilrain fought in Mississippi. Among those who were present were the Dwyer brothers, Mike and Phil, who never miss a good scrap; Frank Stevenson, Gus Tuthili, Jack Dempsey's old backer; Charley Johnson, Hugh McLaughlin and Robert Fury; Ridge Leveln, Rod Mc-Mahon, Davy Johnson, Billy Connors, Al Adams, Lon K. Myers, John Flood, Billy Adams, Lon K. Myers, John Flood, Billy Kane, Fred Walbaum, all the best known McLau. Barnes, Garrison and George Taylor.

When They Weighed In.

It was just 9 o'clock when Gibbons stepped on the stage platform, accompanied by his brother Jim, Charley Norton and a couple of assistants. He got a rousing reception, but it was nothing to the cyclone of appliause that greeted McAuliffe, who was five minutes late. McAuliffe's squires were Jimmy Carroll, the Brooklyn middleweight; Con McAuliffe and Edward Stoddart.

When they weighed in McAuliffee tipped the beam at just the limit, 135 pounds, while Gibbons weighed 13032. Gibbons was very cool after he took his seat and underwent the faming process, and even offered to bet a friend who sat close by among the spectators a cigar that he would win. Police Captain Hays and a dozon policemen surrounded the stage and Referee Jere Dunn was notified that in case of any disorder the mill would be stopped. McAuliffe looked to be in the Jimmy Carroll protested to the referee tnat

Gibbons had a bandage on his left wrist. It was only a linen rag, but Carroll wanted "If you show me anything in the Queens berry rules that forbids me wearing it," said Gibbons, "I'll take it off; otherwise I'll keep

Carroll had to go away without having ac-complished his purpose. During this delay the crowd was letting off cheers first for one contestant and then the other. The yells for McAuliffe showed that he was the favorite with the populace

McAuliffe Forced the Fighting.

At 9:28 the men were ordered to shake hands. They both wore knee breeches, but were bare from the waist up. The gloves they were weighed a good four ounces. The slock was set in motion and the fight From the very outset of the battle McAuliffe forced matters. He went over to Gib-bons' corner and smashed away there. He showed great speed and power, but Gibbons countered a couple of times on the Brooklyn-ite's face and body, and when the first round was over it was about even. Even Gibbons' friends were surprised that he should do so well at the start. In the second round McAuliffe had the best of it. He got in a couple of his noted straight-arm right-handers and cut Gibbons badly under the left eye. Gibbons did not stop to wipe away the blood, however, and he re-turned a fine right-hander on Jack's cheek. McAuliffe felt the blow and kept away from Gibbons Was no Snap.

When Gibbons came out for the third round he was looking all right, but one more dash at his left cheek reopened the cut and sent blood flying again. The Paterson lad was game, though, and he went back at McAuliffe with a dash. Mac's shifting tactics were here shown to great advantage. He impeed way from his great advantage. He jumped away from his opponent's rushes with the nimbleness of a cat, and would come back at his man with a look on his face that meant business. His right went out with a viciousness, and it could be seen that he wanted to end the battle briefly. He was up against some hard flesh, nowever, and had to take back some stiff raps on the face.

There were several clinches in the fourth round, and it seemed as though Mac was as willing to rest in as Gibbons. When he broke away, though, he renewed his attacks without any sign of weakness. His two hands were flying on Gibbons' body fast, but the latter succeeded in dodging most of the Brooklyn man's leaders for the head. Gibbons also planted a rattling right-nander on Mac's cheek. McAuliffe had much the best of the round.

Fooled Mac a Triffe.

In the fifth round McAuliffe had his man fairly dazed. He delivered two right handers on Gibbons' jaw and Austin tottered a little. McAuliffe thought he had him then, but Gibbons was not done yet. As McAu life came at him over in his own corner Gib bons let go his right in a swinging blow and caught McAuliffe full on the law. For a moment it looked as though McAuliffe was going to fall over on his back, but he knew too well how to handle his feet, so to speak, and he remained head up. He did not like that creater wither head up. He did not like that cracker, either. Jack had apparently intended to finish his opponent at just about this juncture, but the obstruction he met with made him alter his programme. The round ended with the men The new electric clock had done its work perfectly so far, there being no hitch.

Here the Police Came In. When time for the sixtn round was called Gibbons came up with surprising freshness. He certainly had been well thumped up to that time, but he had also given McAuliffe a taste of severe medicine too. His left cheek was looking badly and when McAuliffe hit it was looking badly and when McAuliffe bit it again, as he promptly did, the wound opened again and there was another stream of blood. He was not badly winded it is fair to say. While he had been in his corner he talked with his second easily. He made a crack at McAuliffe's head but missed, and then Jack went at him once more. McAuliffe got in one more on the bruised, cheek and a clinch one more on the bruised cheek and a clinch followed. They were pounding each other at close quarters at a vizorous pace when Police Captain Hayes made his way to the ropes and declared that the fight must end. There was a great hullabaloo, and the men went to their corners. Everybody hoped that peace might be patched up with the authorities, but it was no go. The captain said it must stop. Then the house expected to hear the referee say he would have to make it a draw, but he did not. Jere Dunn's Great Nerve.

He shouted that "McAuliffe had won." When the news was communicated to Gib-bons he was about as mad a man as ever was seen in a ring. He ran over to McAuliff's corner and cried out that he had been cheated. Of course McAuliffe did not think so, so that the Paterson man jumped to the ropes near several reporters.

"This decision is given against me," he cried, "because I have a little blood on my face, it's an outrage, I am not defeated. I could go on fighting this way for two hours and I'm reads." Later in the evening Gibbons brought out Referee Dunn and protested to him. Dunn said he could not change his decision, and that it had to go, and that settled it.

Bantam Weights Matched. NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 11 .- Cal McCar thy and Tommy Warren signed the Olympic club's articles of agreement today in the presence of witnesses. The men will fight with five-ounce gloves to a finish September 22, at 9 p. m. sharp, for $1,500. The winner of this fight will be regarded as the pest 11spound man in America.

Omaha Takes Another Game from

Ransas City by Hard Hitting. Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 11.-Omaha took another game from the Blues today the same way it took vesterday's game, by heavy hitting in one inning. The crowd was small and the game was a listless one. Ex-Pitcher out of the fight, and that is something the John McCarthy made a very bad umpire.

DUN'S REVIEW OF THE WEEK.

Money Plentiful for Legitimate In vestments of Every Kind. New York, Sept. 11 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: All returns of the condition of business are encouraging. There is no room for doubt about the improvement in trade. From nearly every city reporting there comes the same cheering information that business is better and prospects brighter. At Boston business is in creasing. At Philadelphia the iron market has improved. Business is encouraging at Buffalo, decidedly improving at Cincinnati and Cleveland and it may be noted that at eastern points generally some improvement is seen in collections. Receipts of wheat at Chicago are five times those of last year, of corn double, of rye seven times and of oats and dressed beef about a third larger, and some increase in wool, while a decrease of a third appears in barley and cured meats. Dry goods sales in August were the largest ever known, the clothing trade is very large with fair colleclections and the shoe trade excellent. Money is plentiful for legitimate trade. At Minneapolis sales of lumber are large, with prices stiff, and receipts of wheat 1,400. 000 bushels against 800,000 last year; at St. Paul improvement is seen and reports are brighter. At St. Louis shipments of money to the cotton states are increasing, but the market is comparatively easy, and at Denver trade improves, and also at Kansas City. Even at the south the improvement is general, especially at Louisville, Memphis, Savannah and Atlanta, and at New Orlean trade is more active, rice being especially strong and money in good demand. The enormous receipts of wheat have de-pressed the price, at one time below $1 per bushel at New York. At western points the receipts thus far have been much more than double last year's and for this week have been 5,800,000 bushels in four days. The ex-ports continue large, but the belief is grow-ing that foreign crops are not quite so short as has been reported, though short enough to cause an unprecedented demand from this country. Thus the price of wheat has fallen 5% cents during the past week, with saies of only 22,000,000 bushels. The fall since the highest point in August has been 16 cents here and 19 coats in Chicago. This week there has been a semi-panic abroad as the new crop presses heavily upen markets overloaded with American purchases. At Liverpool the price dropped 734 cents, and foreigners have ceased buying here.

Corn declined but little, and oats only cent. The market for cotton was stronger by about a quarter before the government report appeared, and has since advanced a little further. Pork products are higher, and oil about 5 cents lower. The great industries are making satisfactory progress. Produc-tion has been maintained for three months within about 10,000 tons weekly of the largest quantity ever reached, and the consump-tion cannot be far behind. A larger demand is seen for fluished products, and especially for bar iron, and the plate mills are full of orders, but in rails no change is observed. Wool is selling fairly well at all the important markets and there is seen a better demand for dry goods which gives better demand for dry goods, which gives much encouragement to manufacturers. The boot and shoe trade is progressing quite as well as it was a year ago, with fair prices and encouraging demand.

The financial outlook is clearer. Exports of merchandise from New York for the past two weeks have exceeded those of the same weeks last year by more than 50 per cent, while in imports there appears a decrease of about 20 per cent. The opening of Germany and Denmark to American pork products has lifted the price of parts were the period of the price of parts were the period of the price of pork 50 cents per barrel. With the greatest crops ever grown, and an unprecedented foreign demand for grain and meats, the prospect must be considered un-usually encouraging.

The business failures occurring through out the country during the past seven days number 214, as compared with a total of 217 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 193,

CLOSING DAY AT UNION PARK.

Two Mighty Good Races Ended a Successful Meeting.

BLUE SIGN GAINS A NEW CLASS.

Story of a Hat Chase for a Purse-Brutus Girl's Pretty Performance-Lively Times at Latonia.

Yesterday closed the Union Park races. The day was cloudy and threatening, and in consequence many who otherwise would have attended remained away. As it was, there was a fair crowd on hand, many of whom were ladies. Previous to calling the horses for the first event a 100 vard sprint race between Nat Campbell and Clem Hough for a $50 purse took place on the stretch in front of the grand stand. Campbell won in 10 1-5. Immediately after the horses for the 2:21 trot, purse $600, were summoned to the track.

The entries were: Blue Sign, b. g., by Ensign, J. Hofshines, Leon, Ia.; Pilatoga, s. s., by Bayard, Bochamp & Jarvis, Concordia, Kan.; Prince T. r. g., unknown, A. Thompson, Omaha; A. K. Davis, b. g., unknown, Podrant & Son. St. Joseph, Mo.; Abdallah Wilkes, b. s., unknown, R. T. Kneebs, Sloux City, Ia.

After long and tedious efforts tee horses finally got away, A. K. Davis, however, having at least three lengths the worst of it. Of course Old Bob Kneebs pushed his bay stallion into the lead from the start, and it looked as if he intended to stay there. Just after leaving the quarter post, however, went up and Blue Sign sailed by him like a bird on the wing. He gathered himself well and was ratifully regaining his lost ground when suddenly he went to pieces again and Prince I. took second place, and in these positions they finished. The quarters were made in 35, 1:08, 1:425. Time: 2:1887.

The second heat, barring a second's time, was a repetition of the first, Blue Sign, Prince I and Wilkes keeping in line to the quarter, when Bine Sign went to the front, Prince I, a half length behind find Wilkes a length worse off and Davis on the run to save his distance. Some Crooked Driving and Riding Roundly Rebuked. LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 11 .- [Special to THE

BEE. |-- The first race of the afternoon was a trot for foals of '87 with a purse of $350. Sabin's Counsellor, D. T. Sabin; Kate Caffrey, Ed. Pyle; and Misfit, James Brittain, entered The first heat was won in 2:33, Kate Caff-rey second, Misfit third. In the second heat Sabin's Counsellor was crossed by Kate Caffrey and thus headed off shortly after they passed the judges' stand on the first turn. Caffrey kept up the lead and passed around the course and under the wire ahead. The mare was driven by her owner, Ed Pyle. The decision of the judges was awaited with im-patience. Finally Starter Tough announced that he had seen Ed Pyle drive on a number of tracks and that he had always felt that he was a square driver. If he (Pyle) had done anything wrong it must have been when his (the starter's) back was turned. In this astance, he was sorry to state that Mr. Pylo had done something he had never expected of him and that he would have been willing to lose the money which Pyle would lose rather than have it occur. Still the judges had heard both sides and Mr. Pyle said that he did not believe when he entered upon the stretch that his croping would retard Sabin Counsellar's speed. The judge then quoted the rule, showing that for a violation of it, the ruler or driver night be suspended or the horse might be placed at the end of the line. The judge had considered the matter and had conclude to place Kate Caffrey behind and thus cause her to lose the heat. This announcement was received with cheers. The heat was trotted in 2:28%.

In the third heat the horses strung all the way around the track, Kate Caffrey keeping easily in the lead, Sabin's Counsellor second and Misfit nearly an eighth of a mile behind. The red flag was waved, otherwise the last mentioned trotter wome have been distanced. Time: 2:30.

In the fourth heat the horses passed under the wire and with the same characteristics as in the preceding heat. Best time: 2:294. Summary Kate Caffrey, b. m.

The second race was in the 2:31 class trotting for a purse of $500. The contest was uneventful, slow time being made, though the hears were without a broak, Guelph winning in three straight heats. Summary

Eghertine, ch. s. 7:27, 2:26. In the bicylcle novelty race, the entries were Will Pixley and Deal Wertz of Omaha and E. Mockett of Lincoln. It was for a mile and half, a prize to be awarded the rider who should lead at any of the three half miles The track was heavy and the boys worked slowly till they reached the home stretch each time, where they numbed for all they were worth. At the end of the first baif mile Mockett led Pixley, with Wertz third; at the second half the positions were un-changed, and in the third half Wertz and Pixley changed places. The time for the half mile was 1:34, the mile 3:1416, and the mile and a haif 4:58.

The trotting dog Doc gave an Indian runner 100 yards and beat him by about a quarter of a mile.

There was a half mile running dash for coits, between Little Winnie and Teil Tale.

Both coits kept together around the course and Winnie won by half a head. No time

An improvised consolation race for a $250 purse was next trotted. The entries were Shadeland, Acme, Cullerton, Harry K, Saturu, jr. and Montgomery. The first heat was won by Harry K in 2:40. The second heat was trotted in the rain, a storm having broken on the course just as the first heat closed. Harry K won, beating Cullerton by less than a head, Sature, jr., coming in a dozen lengths behind, having broken all around the course. Time: 2:424. The third heat resulted as before, Harry K. leading. dommary: Harry K. b. h... Cullerton, gr. h.

The announcement was received with cheers. It was occasioned by the report that a combination had been formed in whose interest the race was to be thrown. Half an hour was required to get the horses off, the nonkeving exhausting the patience of every one because there was a most falling and everybody was chilly. On the start Nellie Bly, Florine and Roudy got off together, Little Joe was tardy and did not get his stride for some time. Lizzie N, was farthest from the pole and was fourth in the order The attention of everybody was directed to her driver. At the first turn he drove he wide of the pole, giving all the others a lead which he did not seem desirous to deprive them of. At the second turn there was a difference of half a dozen lengths between Lizzie N. and Roudy, the latter being fourth Along toward the quarter all the other horses bunched and the driver of Lizzie N was making a bluff at whipping the mare with his right hand and pulling her back with the left. It was not until the home stretch was reached that Lizzie N overtook he rest and then it was evident that she was pushed to her best.

The crowd jeered at the performance. The rider of Lizzie N, Charles Berger, was called up by the judges, and after the interview the order of the horses was announced, Florine first, Little Joe second, Nellie Bly third, Rouny fourth and Lizzie N fifth. Starter Tough then said that Lizzie N. her owner, Milo Norton of Beaver City, Neb. and her driver were expelled from all Amer-ican association tracks, that the race was forfeited and the bets were off. The crowd cheered the announcement.

The reason for this action was the com plaint made this morning to the judges Lizzie N was the favorite last night in the pools. As soon as this was dircovered cer tain parties supposed to be connected with the ownership bought up the field against the mare. The latter lost and thus occasioned Lively Day at Latonia.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 11.—There was some ively racing at Latonia this afternoon. Sir Planet beat a strong field, and in the last race Purvear D won from Judge Hughes. The decision of the judges in the last race caused considerable dissatisfaction among the backers of the favorite, Judge Hughes. People gathered around the judges' stand calling the name of Judge Hughes and denouncing the decision of the judges. The inish was an extremely close one, and resembled that of the other day in which Pom ret, the favorite, was only given place.
