

SIoux CITY LETS THE FLAG.

had to game won easily until the ninth inning, when a succession of bad errors allowed the Bostonians to score. The game was called on account of darkness. Score: Boston, 10; Sioux City, 0. Errors: Boston, 2; Sioux City, 1. Earned runs: Boston, 10; Sioux City, 0. Earned runs: Boston, 10; Sioux City, 0.

FOUR CLUBS WILL KEEP IT ON EARTH.

Will Meet Again Next October—New York Downs Chicago as Usual.—Boston Won Easily from Columbus. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 17.—Representatives of the Western Base Ball association met in special session here today. The meeting was a secret one. At its conclusion Mr. Buckenbarger of Sioux City, who had acted as secretary, handed the following report of the meeting to the Associated press representative: KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 17.—At a meeting of the Western association held at the Midland hotel September 17, 1891, at 2 p. m. there were present: Denver, by D. S. Packard, president; Omaha, by W. H. McCord, secretary; Sioux City, by E. E. Mulachy and C. M. Buckenbarger; and Kansas City, by John W. Spass and E. R. Martin. The Denver club moved that the season of 1891 be deemed and declared closed September 15, 1891, at 6 p. m. The motion was carried. Year: Denver, Sioux City, Omaha, Nays: Kansas City.

It was resolved that the association should remain intact and that each of the clubs be declared in full standing. The Omaha club announced itself in full life, with no thought of disbanding. The meeting adjourned to the regular annual meeting in October next. After the meeting the president announced the averages of the several clubs and under this announcement the Sioux City club stands as the pennant winner. Mr. Spass offered to closing the season and wanted to further contest the pennant race, but he was outvoted. Of course the Sioux City club wanted to close so as to insure its position. Omaha was anxious to be relieved of football games, and the Denver club insisted that in justice to it no championship games should be played elsewhere when it is having none. The many demands of the Kansas City club for additional games to settle the relative merits of that and the Sioux City club finally resulted in the decision to play a series of exhibition games to be played at Kansas City on Saturday and Sunday next, and at other points hereafter. The Secretary Young was notified that Sioux City was the winner of the championship of the Western association, was ready to play the world's champion, and was the champion of the pennant of the National league. They Don't Like It. Kansas City protested against the decision of the meeting and will appeal to the National Board of Control. The Kansas City management holds the opinion that the season should continue so long as any clubs survive, and that the championship should be fought by the survivors. DENVER, Colo., Sept. 17.—The report received here tonight from Kansas City that a meeting of the Western association had been held here, that D. S. Packard, president of the Denver club, was present, and that the season had been closed and the pennant awarded to the Sioux City club, surprised Mr. Packard and Manager Jim W. Cantrell. Both these gentlemen are in this city, and neither were in attendance upon the reported meeting. They are very indignant about the matter, and declare that the entire affair is a scheme of the Kansas City management to get the clubs to "do up" the Denver club. They declare that they are ready to play out this season and are holding their men for this purpose. Telegrams were sent by Mr. Packard to-night to N. E. Young, president of the National league, and to C. C. Beardsley, president of the Western association, notifying them that he had never been notified of the Kansas City meeting nor was present as reported, and that he would not consent to the award of the pennant for the reason that the Denvers have won more and lost less games than any other club in the association.

MISTEROUS BASE BALL MEN.

League Magnates Trying to Break Up the Association.—NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—A carnival of base ball mystery was begun by the league magnates last night. This morning they met in parlor F, Fifth Avenue hotel. Their object plainly is to get rid of the American association if they cannot do it by the usual means. They are trying to establish a truce between the rival organizations. John T. Brush of Indianapolis, the bare mention of whose name strikes terror to the association's heart, reached the Hoffman house last night. He was met by M. Stander and Robinson. The arrival of his brother, Frank D. Robinson, will look out for the interests of the Cleveland club. Charles H. Byrne of the Brooklyn club was also there. Suddenly the trio disappeared in the night. It is believed that they will be compelled to wait in suspense until their momentous labors are finished. It is an open secret that Frank Robinson has been working hard to bring the Baltimore club into the league. Mr. Byrne has been trying to persuade the latter to bring the Baltimore club into the league. Mr. Byrne has been trying to persuade the latter to bring the Baltimore club into the league. Mr. Byrne has been trying to persuade the latter to bring the Baltimore club into the league.

Will Stop the Fight.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 17.—There is considerable excitement in sporting circles over the grand jury's reported interference with the McCarthy-Warren fight, which takes place before the Olympic club next Tuesday night. The Olympic club had begun to congratulate itself that everything was to smooth running order. The state law permits of glove contests before regularly chartered athletic clubs. The grand jury, which has only been in existence two weeks, has however, very moral body and has started in on prize fights without much delay. The outlook is that the grand jury will make its report tomorrow and will call upon the proper authorities to stop the McCarthy-Warren fight.

Foot Ball.

The second game of football between the undergraduate college boys, assisted by a few of their graduate friends, and the team from the Young Men's Christian association, will take place at the base ball grounds at 4 p. m. today. The former game had many spectators, and this one promises to be far better.

UNITED IN DEATH.

Forbade to Marry a Young Couple Kill Themselves. WOODLAND, Cal., Sept. 17.—The lifeless bodies of Miss May Adams and J. W. Montgomery were found this morning with a revolver and bottle of poison lying beside them. Both were shot through the brain. It is thought that the young man was Adams and then himself. Miss Adams was the daughter of an ex-member of the legislature, and Montgomery the son of Judge Montgomery of Stockton. The supposed cause of the crime was committed because of the refusal of the lady's parents to permit the marriage.

NORWAY'S ELECTIONS.

CHRISTIANA, Sept. 17.—The elections for members of the storting (Norwegian parliament) which have been in progress for some time past, have reached the first series and will conclude in December. The returns are not yet in, but it is supposed that the liberal party will be victorious. The liberal party is in union with Sweden, and three members of the moderate party, who incline towards Sweden.

FOURTH DAY AT GRAVESEND.

Both Parties to the Great War Keep up Their Lick. ONLY ORDINARY SPORT AT LATONIA. Nebraska's Fair Ground Races Draw Many People—Good Racing Offered There—Affairs on Eastern Tracks.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, L. E. Sept. 17.

The association was again favored with perfect weather, and the track was in magnificent shape. The attendance showed a slight decrease and most of those who were present wandered around in a dissolute sort of way. First race, purse $1,000, one and one-half miles. Nine starters. When once started the race was a close one. The lead was held to the end, winning by a length and a half. Tormentor, 12 to 1, beat Boss, 12 to 1, a length. Time: 1:13.4.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

St. Louis Easily Gets Away With the Athletic.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 17.—It was a pitchers' battle today, Lettger having the best of it at critical stages of the game. A double play by Lyons and Comiskey in the first saved the game for the Browns. Score: St. Louis, 10; Boston, 0. Errors: St. Louis, 1; Boston, 2. Earned runs: St. Louis, 10; Boston, 0. Earned runs: St. Louis, 10; Boston, 0.

FAIR SPORT AT LATONIA.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—There was a fair crowd and moderately good quality of the track was in fair condition, though rather dusty. The finish of the second race was very close and many thought that Tarquin had won. Three races were won by favorites, two by horses that were pretty well backed and one the second, by a long shot. Mr. Stone will sell most of his stable, including Kingman, on Saturday, September 20.
