NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Lively Session of the School Board Last Night.

E. E. WRIGHT ELECTED SECRETARY.

List of Janitors' Salaries Presented and Unanimously Adopted—Other Officers Named—Much Important Business Transacted.

The school board met last evening in regular monthly session with all the members present excepting Mr. Schoeninger.

Chairman Stacy of the committee on supplies reported that the seats ordered for the Second avenue building and one room in the high school had been delivered and set up, and that he had ordered 300 seats for the Harrison street building after consulting with Mr. W. W. Wright.

The committee on grounds and buildings was instructed to put down a six foot brick walk in front of the Pierce street school and to put the plank walk that formerly did duty there down on Union street.

Chairman Shubert reported that J. H. E. Park of the Carson Coal Company had informed him that he would be unable to furnish hard coal at the price named in his contract, and that he had offered to furnish soft coal at the price named in his contract, which was awarded him by the board. He moved that H. A. Cox, of the firm of A. T. Thatcher & Co., be awarded the contract on hard coal as well as on soft.

The motion was carried.

Chairman Hunter reported that he had sold the school board of school seats to the Council Bluffs Savings bank for $10,000, and the money was in the hands of the treasurer.

He reported a list of janitors as follows: Washington avenue, $115; Bloomer, $80; Hill, $70; New Pierce, $50; Third street, $45; Park street, $40; Eighth avenue, $200; Eighth street, $25; Second avenue, $45; average, $10; Fifteenth street and Old Pierce street, $14; Gunn, Woodbury Clark, Twenty-third street and Thirty-fourth street, $7.50; general janitor, $5. The report was adopted.

Superintendent Sawyer reported that he would receive the pupils into sections and teach each section half a day. This had caused a great deal of complaint, but he saw no way out of the difficulty unless the present accommodations were enlarged.

The report was received and the action of the superintendent approved.

He also reported a total enrollment of 3,150 pupils.

The report of J. W. Devey, treasurer of the district, was presented, showing the following expense:

Paid for school house and sites..... $23,540.80

Paid on bonds and interest..... 5,600.00

Paid for fuel, rent, repairs, insurance..... 14,550.11

Salaries and janitors..... 1,920.00

Paid for general supplies..... 3,850.05

Paid for other purposes..... 4,200.45

Teachers' salaries..... 26,073.75

Amount on hand..... $1,129.52

School house fund..... $3,225.29

Teachers' fund..... $1,469.02

The work of choosing a secretary for the school year was then proceeded to by ballot. On the informal ballot there were three candidates and the vote stood as follows: E. E. Wright, 3; George C. Brown, 1; George H. Gables, 1.

Shubert stated that he told Mr. Wright last Saturday what the duties of the position were, and that Wright had decided he could not take the office at the salary of $25 per month. He then presented Mr. Wright's resignation, signed by the other members of the board, however, stated that they had seen him since that time and he had changed his mind.

Another ballot was taken with the same result. Hunter then nominated B. F. Wadsworth, and on the next ballot the vote stood, Wadsworth two, Wright two, Gable one. On the third formal ballot the vote was, Wadsworth three, Wright two. It was evident that there could be no agreement and the board proceeded to vote for a treasurer.

Ferdinand Wies and A. C. Graham were nominated and on the informal ballot the vote was, Wies four, Graham one. On the formal ballot the vote was the same, and Wies was declared elected.

The balloting for secretary was resumed. At the end of the fourth ballot the vote gave Wright four, Wadsworth one, and Wright was declared elected.

After allowing a large number of bills, the board adjourned until this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

Important Litigation. The case of the Citizens' Savings Bank of St. Louis against John T. Stewart is on trial in the district court. It was commenced in 1888, the object being to quiet the title to ten acres of land adjoining Fairmount park on the south, valued at $15,000. The land in question is a part of the property of T. W. Walker, who lived in this city until his death, and who at one time was worth over $100,000, most of which was invested in St. Louis property. By the decrease of real estate values in this city Walker was reduced from wealth to poverty, and little by little his property slipped out of his hands on sheriff's sales and attachments.

Among the property which was thus taken was that now disputed. It was bought by the Citizens' Savings bank of St. Louis and a suit was afterward commenced to quiet the title to the land as against John T. Stewart, who claimed to have bought the property of Walker prior to the commencement of the suit by the bank. In support of his title, Stewart produced a judgment which he had secured in 1885 in the superior court, and on which a levy had been made on the property. This unexpected turn of affairs led to the trial of the original case being postponed until the new difficulty could be put out of the way. In the trial it developed that the notice of the filing of the petition had been published by Stewart's attorneys in the Oklahoma, a weekly evening circulation of the county, and that on the east end of the county, and that on this publication that case had been brought to trial. The decree of the court awarding the property to Stewart was set aside on the ground of fraud and the case was appealed to the supreme court and affirmed last winter.

Now the original case comes up for trial, and Stewart's defense is that the description of the property was misstated in the petition in the suit by which the bank became the owner of the property in 1879, and that his dealings with Walker, after the filing of the petition were therefore in good faith. He also alleges that the papers in the case are missing, so that he cannot support his claim, excepting by affidavit. Most of yesterday was taken up with the reading of depositions in the case, and the result is to be introduced today, among them the editor of the Acorn, who will swear to the circulation of his paper.

The First Shot. An interesting incident which somewhat affects the claim of the Eighth New York cavalry to the honor of firing the first gun at the battle of Gettysburg occurred at the dedication of the Illinois monument. Ex-Governor Beveridge asserted that Lieutenant Marcellus Jones, of company E, Eighth Illinois cavalry, fired the first shot over Marsh creek, the enemy was first discovered, and he fired at a man on horseback. A man in the audience, who proved to be Colonel E. M. McCarthy, of the First Texas legion, now living in Hagerstown, Md., arose and asked Jones what kind of a horse the man was riding. Jones replied: "A white horse." Colonel McCarthy replied: "I am that man. That morning I was riding a gelding and was at that spot. The two enemies of twenty-eight years ago were introduced and talked over their experiences of the battle. The coincidence will compel the Eighth cavalry to prove their right to the claim."

A Patriotic Movement. The Seventeenth Regiment Veteran Association of Connecticut volunteers at its reunion at Danbury a few days ago adopted a resolution which reflects honor and credit upon that patriotic organization. In part it was: "We deem it proper and fitting to the loyal women of America that a fund should be raised to erect a monument to their great and unselfish devotion to their country." The fund will be a national one, and the monument will be placed where the majority of the Grand Army comrades want it. Every man can contribute his mite, and every boy and girl can help to build this just tribute to the loyal women whose unflinching courage sustained the soldier, and sailors of the union in their great struggle of 1861-'65. The monument will be erected in the name of the gentlemen named below: The Rev. Beveridge Warner, General W. H. Noble and G. G. Weils, of Bridgewater; C. C. Bellows, Mount Vernon; A. Homer Wyington, Newark; State Senator Meade, New Canaan, and Colonel S. G. Blakeman, Shelton.

Defining "Banquet." The Philadelphia Ledger takes the loftiness of a word that is in very frequent use; Styling a public dinner a "banquet" is a gross error, and a mistake that is, if the use of the word "banquet" is to add more dignity to the occasion or even to be more uppish or pompous or "toplofty." Banquet, from the French and Spanish, means little bench, a little seat, and when spelled banquetta means a three-legged stool. It has reference to sitting while eating, instead of taking refreshment in "stand up" fashion, as at one of our city parties on a table or a lunch counter. The truth is that "banquet" is simply a grandiose expression—ambitious and somewhat "affected."
