

CALFAGHERS WROCKED OUT.

Young Mitchell Gives the Ambitious Den- verite an Unequivocal Drubbing. BOTH MEN WERE BADLY PUNISHED. Boston is Gaining an Uncle in the Race for the Pennant—Speed King and Base Ball Notes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 23.—The fight tonight between Johnny Bennett, known as "Young Mitchell," California's representative middle-weight pugilist, and "Tony" Gallagher, the Denverite, attracted more interest here than any similar event which has taken place in this city since the Corbett-Jackson contest, and the rooms of the Occidental club were crowded at an early hour in the evening.

The fight was for a $5,000 purse, of which $750 went to the loser. The betting was brisk and from odds of $100 to $70 on Mitchell it turned to nearly even money before the fight began.

Mitchell's weight was announced as 154. His seconds were Jack Linn and Sam Fitzpatrick. Gallagher weighed 153 and was seconded by Pat Masterson and Jimmie Carroll. Peter Jackson was the referee. Both men appeared in the pink of condition, Mitchell being somewhat heavier than his muscular opponent. Gallagher stopped Mitchell's rushes easily, once with a straight left on the chin.

The battle opened at 8:50 with Gallagher feinting for an opening and Mitchell breaking ground. Gallagher got to two hot lefts in the wind and on the right hand. Mitchell layed while Mitchell's head and left, the latter being unable to counter effectively.

The second round was also marked by rushing by Gallagher. From the third to the sixth rounds the tactics were much the same. Gallagher's long left usually reached its mark, as he maintained a position near the middle of the ring, while Mitchell placed around him, taking every opening that was presented, but in ducking almost invariably catching a terrific left full in the face. At the close of the fourth round Gallagher was badly swollen from a right hander. Mitchell had for an opening, scored twice effectively, but Gallagher's right drove to the chin kept him from too free a drive.

The sixth was marked by hurricane puging. Gallagher scored straight lefts on Mitchell's chin, but Mitchell's right drove to the chin kept him from too free a drive. The eighth to the tenth rounds honours were about even though Mitchell was apparently the more confident of the two. Both men were now exchanging blows of the muzzie and Gallagher's injured optic was bleeding freely at the end of the twelfth from frequent and hard fistings.

Successful Work of Two Bold Robbers at York. DEPOT OF THE BURLINGTON PLUNDERED. Mounted Men Follow the Burglars but None of the Cash Recovered—How the Matter Was Accomplished.

YORK, Neb., Sept. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The B. & M. depot was robbed at 12:30 today. The depot was in charge of George Wheeler, the freight agent, at the time. He left the office for a few minutes to go out in the yard and seal a car.

When Wheeler got back he immediately discovered the robbery and saw the two men just leaving the depot grounds. He telephoned the police and a heavy force was put forth to catch the bold thieves. They were traced a short distance and then lost. Mounted men have been patrolling the surrounding country all the afternoon but have as yet discovered no traces of the robbers.
