TO WAR WITH CHILI.

Prospects of a Collision with the United States Discussed.

WAR SHIPS ORDERED TO THE SCENE.

President Harrison Determined to Maintain the Rights of Citizens.

EGAN; DESCRIBES THE SITUATION.

American Legation Surrounded by a Howling Mob of Rebels.

DEMAND BALMACEDA'S SYMPATHIZERS.

Critical Condition of Things in the Southern Republic-Not at All Prepared for Anything Like Positive Trouble.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 28.-(Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-War with Chill That was the subject discussed not only by Washington today, but the president, Secretary Tracy, Special Counsel John W. Foster, Assistant Secretary of State Wharton and Commodore Ramsey, chief of the bureau of navigation, Navy department. But the United States will have no war with Chili. That much is as good as settled. President Harrison has set his foot down upon the provocation for it, and the revolutionary government must right itself. The president was given an opportunity to institute a vigorous foreign policy and he immediately accepted the opportunity.

The conference alluded to was occasioned by one or two lengthy cablegrams from Minister Egan, at Santingo, stating in brief that an armed force congregated about the headquarters of the legation and demanded him to give up a number of Balmaceda's followers who had taker refuge in his house and the legation headquarters and sought protection under the flag of the United States.

Surrounded by Police.

That he had demanded of the Chillan authorities the dispersement of the force, and in its place a cordon of police had been posted. The officers were interfering with the ingress and egress of those who had business with the legation and for the present, not only was the official business at a standstill, but the neighborhood of the legation had became a bedlam, the privileges of the representatives were restricted and the family privileges of the minister completely dismembered. At appeals of Minister Egan were drowned in the din of the Chilians for the blood of the refuges within the legations doors.

Mr. Egan's cablegrams made a fuil report of the situation at present and briefly reviewed the condition of affars during the past few weeks. The communications from Minister Egan were in cipher, they were pointed, however.

Exonerated Minister Egan. In the opinion of the officials who considered them they expuerated him from any blame which may have been charged against him for acts done or left undone. He asked for instructions and the question uppermost before the president and his counsellors was "How far shall we demand the rights of an asylum within our gates at Santlago!" It took President Harrison but a few min utes to conclude that the Chilians had made of Minister Egan a prisoner in effect and that also in violation of the most vital of American principles. The president said that the right of asylum for refugees in times of war had never been questioned i America; it was guaranteed in almost all countries, but it was not respected in the South American republics. If a similar condition of affairs existed in the United States we would beyond a doubt give protection to the refugees.

Question of Protection. Would we not guarantee to American citizens abroad or others within our gates, as much protection as we would give foreigners in our country! Was not our legation headquarters in Santiago a bit of United States territory for the moment! Especially it was the duty of our government to protect our own citizens in foreign lands at all hazards

There was left, therefore, but one thing for this government to do and that was to instruct Minister Egan to demand the release of American citizens who had been arrested and cast in prison on suspicion of being spies or sympathizers with the enemy of the junta. This instruction was at once cabled Minister Egan and every precaution taken possible to preserve the lives and liberties of the American citizens and those seeking protection within our doors at Santiago. Minister Egan had reported that many persons seen going out of the legation had been arrested for no particular reason, but were held as "suspects."

Must Felease All Americans. These must all be instantly released. The environments thrown around the legation must be removed. There must be freedon for all to come and go who would visit the United States legation. There must be no catechism or detention of any one within the precincts of the legation. As precautions, the president directed that the San Francisco. which weighed anchor at Calloa yesterday, be recalled and ordered to proceed at once to Valparaiso for transports of her marines to guard our citizens and interests there, also that the marines of our new man of war Baltimore now at Valparaiso, to proceed overland t Santiago and put themselves in harmonious action with these from the San Francisco Communications were also sent to the commander of the white squadron to keep within call of our diplomatic and naval representatives at Santiago and be ready to put into the nearest port on a moment's notice, all ships at his command.

Marines Prepare for Action. The marines of the San Francisco and Baltimore will form the cordon around our logation at Santiago in place the Chilean police. American faces will be seen there hereafter and guarantee to our citizens their rights. The menacing attitude of the new authorities will be repressed. This ail will be communicated to the new president of Chili by Minister Egan tomorrow if it has not been told him already. There is no fear of war with Chili. The rights which belong to the Amerecan people and the legation there will preserved in such a straightforward way now that the junta will not care to question the purposes. If this programme should be resisted there would of course be a | pearance.

clash of arms but it could not be a war, for the new government of Chili has not the resources to make a contest with the United States which would rise to the dignity of a mite Cannon in England. LONDON, Sept. 28. - Within a few days experiments are to take place in Wales with an American invention known as "Snyder's dynamite projectile." Foreign governments are interested in the tests and several of them will have military and naval experts to watch the results. Some four or five years ago Mr. F. H. Snyder of New York conducted a series of trials at Sandy Hook and on the Potomac near Washington, After proving he possibility of firing dynamite shells from nnon with gunpowder, a company to ex-oit the invention was started in New York. Mr. Snyder came to England to exhibit his invention. While the government seemed anxious to learn about the invention, it threw many obstacles in the way of a trial. Snyder shipped his gain to Turkey, where successful trials took place at the Dardanelles. London capitalists then formed a company with £300,-000 capital. Two years ago grounds for tests were produced in South Wales, and a local license was obtained, but the commissioners forbade the trial until special government license had been obtained. This was finally obtained and a short time ago a private exhibit. oltion was made by the shareholders. A single shot wrecked strong steel armoured targets and pieces of the sheels were found a mile and a half from the point of explosion. After the approaching trials are over Mr. Snyder will return to America, where further experiments will be made.

WILL REMOVE THE RESTRICTION.

France Will Let Down the Pork Bars

and Italy Will Follow. Panis, Sept. 28. - When the chambers resume legislative work next month, the efforts of Mr. Reid, the American minister, to secure the withdrawal of the pork prohibition, are certain to be crowned with success. The committee of the senate will give immediate attention to the bill passed by the champers. In official circles the opinion prevails that the rescinding of the German pork prohibition was hastened by the vote of the French chamber of deputies and that Germany, seeing that the French government kad resolved to withdraw the prohibition, seized the chance afforded by the postponement of the French oill to get ahead in complying with the American demands.

The Brazilian government has approached M. Ribot in regard to the projected prohibition tariff on coffees, fixed under M. Melines and approved by the champer of deputies, at 125 from the 100 billion Brazilian and approved by the champer of deputies, at the champer of deputies, and the champer of deputies and the champer of deputies. and approved by the chamber of deputies, at 165 francs per 100 kilos. Brazil takes annually 9,000,000 francs' worth of French products, and among the leading arguments that will be used to induce the senate to modify the proposed tariff, is the danger of Brazil retaliating—a result which would aid America's scheme to capture the Brazilian markets. markets.

Rose, Sept. 28.—Newspapers here dis-credit the report that the United States will exclude Italian imports in reprisal for the prohibition on American pork imports. They express the belief that the prohibition will be rescinded as soon as France and other states escind their prohibitory regulations.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Parents Have a Right to the Custody of Their Children. Washington, D. C., Sept. 28.—The comnissioner of Indian affairs has received a copy of a recent decision by Judge Green of the district court of the territory of Oklanoma directing the restoration to his parents of an Indian boy placed in the government Indian school at Chilloco by the Indian office officials. The father of the boy began habeas corpus proceeding to secure possession of his son, who, under an act passed at the last ession of congress had been compelled to at-end school. Judge Green held that as the adian office had not issued as required by to act, rules and regulations to compel at-endance of Indian children at schools proided for them, the retention of the boy conary to the will of his parents was illtrary to the will of his parents was illegal. The effect of this decision is regarded by the commissioner of Indian affairs as likely to ove prejudicial to the schools, and it is the on to carry the case to a higher court. The judge, in his opinion, took the ground that the right of a parent to the custody of his children belonged to the Indian as well as to he white man.

Prompt Response of Neighbors to the Cries of the Victims Probably Averted Murder-Other Nebraska News.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 28 .- | Special Telegram to The Bug. - Shortly before sundown this evening occurred one of the boldest robberies ever known in Lincoln. At that hour Mrs. Turner and her young son were the only occupants of their residence. which fact had apparently become known to the thieves. They walked into the house despite the protests of the women and her son and proceeded to ransack the drawers. The son, a boy of about 16, sought to stay their progress, when one of them seized him and endeavored to stiffe his cries, meanwhile drawing a knife and attempting to use it, inflicting a slight wound across the young man's throat.

The woman succeeded in drawing the attention of the neighbors, who in turn called the police. Before the officers arrived the thieves had started from the place, but one was overhauled and some of the plunder was found on his person. He gave his name as Jimmie Hope.

Corner Stone Services of West Point's New Catholic Church.

WEST POINT, Neb., Sept. 28 .- [Special to The Bee. |-Sunday was a gala day for West Point. The laying of the corner stone of the new Cathoric church brought hundreds of people from the country and surrounding towns. Bishop Scannel of Omaha and President Hoeffer of Creighton college and Governor Thayer arrived on the noon train to participate in the ceremonies, and were met by the Juvenile brass band, a reception committee, composed of representative business men, and the various Catholic societies in the county. The various carriages formed into line together with the societies and the Grand Army of the Republic and fremen and marched up town and to the residence of Fred Sonnenschein, where Governor Thaver and some of the reception committee alignted. The bishop, clergy and societies then marched to the church. A slight drizzling rain prevented many from coming to town, but nevertheless about 2,000 people assembled before the laying of the corner stone in the afternoon. The busi-ness houses were draped in festoens of bunt ng and flags.

Tha ceremony took place at 3 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Hoeffer, Governor Thayer and Rev. Dr. Russing addressed the people. The rain cut short the ceremonies and the bishop did not speak in consequence.

The new church is to cost $20,000 and will be the finest and largest outside of Omaha and Lincoln. Rev. Dr. Hoeffer paid an eloquent tribute to the zeal and energy of the resident pastor, Rev. Joseph Ruesing, and his congregation. The affair throughout was characterized by all the pomp and splendor characteristic of the church. In the evening a brilliant reception to the bishop, governor and visiting priests was held at Fred Sonnenschein's palatial residence. The house was illuminated throughout by electric lights and handsomely dec orated with flowers. The beautiful arch of electric lights above the entrance illuminated the building without as well as the lawn, which was bedeeked with flags.

The following were the rece ee of the occasion: D. C. Giffert, M. J. Hughes, jr., Fred Sonnenschein, M. Mc Laughlin, R. F. Kloke, B. Y., Yoder, B. Goldsmith, J. L. Baker, A. J. Langer, J. F. Lincoln Women Assaulted. Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 28.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- For the past few nights some virlain had been lying in wait for women on South Sixteenth street and making indecent overtures. Last night a married lady was halted by the fellow, but she was brave, and by her loud outcries put him to flight. The matter was reported to the police and an officer was detailed to the district dressed in citizen's clothes. The officer went there this evening and had scarcely reached the place when a woman's outery was heard near ex-Mayor Sawer's residence. The special policeman and Officer Bartram rushed for the place, joined by several men who live ir that neighborhood who had heard the cries of the woman. But the culprit was too ficet and escaped in the darkness through the alley It was afterwards learned that he had been lying in wait under the trees at Mr. Sawyer's residence and when a lady from the home of W. S. Hamilon, who lives on F street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, approached he grabbed her and attempted to force a handkerchief into her mouth when frightened

TRIED TO LYNCH CHINAMEN.

Raid on an Opium Den Attended with Exciting | cenes.

NEW YORK POLICE ARIVE IN TIME.

Indignant Citizens Insist on Ending the Career of a Number of Wretches-Story of a Little Girl.

New York, Sept. 28 -- A little girl, perhaps 12 years old, walked out of the basement of 104 Parallel street yesterday afteracon about 4 o'clock. She were no hat. Her black hair was neatly combed away from her fore head and tied behind her head with a red silk ribbon.

A short, fat Chinaman stood outside the door. He smiled at the child. Another Chinaman who was about to enter the place turned to look at the girl. There were about 130 Italians standing around in the vicinity of No. 104 who saw the child come out. Every man, acting on a common impuse, rushed upon the Chinaman who stood like a guard at the door, the realized his danger. Hastily opening the door ne jumped inside and closed it again in the face of the mob.

Detective John O'Rourke of the Sixth precinct and Detective Sergeant John O'Brien of the Central office were standing on the corner of Mott street, and they saw the child, too. O'Brien walked up to her quickly and asked her what she had been oing in the basement store. She was frightened and began to cry. O'Brien turned her over to a policeman to take to the station. Then he turned his attention to the base ment.

The mob that had gathered in front of the place had worked itself up to a frenzy of excitement. Mad efforts were made to burst in the door, which had been barricaded within, The glass windows were shattered. The officers ran down Park street. They fought their way through the shouting crowd and at last reached the barricaded door. The officers are strong men and the door yielded to their shoulders. Then a wild cry went

"Lynch the Chinamen," shouted the mob. There were men there armed with shovels and spades and such other weapons as hap pened to be at hand. They pressed hard upon O'Brien and O'Rourke when the doors gave way. O'Brien entered the place and O'Rourke followed. O'Brien turned in the doorway and faced the yelling mob. "I'll kill the first man who comes in here. he shouted. He is a powerful man and his determined stand quelled the mob for a moment. The men fell back and Detective

Joseph Schirmer of the Sixth precinct pushed his way up to O'Brien and both men followed

O'Rourke into the basement. Standing with his back to the rear entrence he held at bay fifteen Chinamen who were endeavouring to escape. But they did not pass O'Rourke—not a man of them. There was a double-quick tramp heard up the street. It was squad from the Elizabeth street station. They, too, were obliged to fight their way through the crowd that was again moving upon the basement store. They took lifteen Chinamen out of the back door. By this time the report had spread among the crowd outside that the child had been as saulted by one of the Chinamen. Again the cries of "lynch them" went up, and one man who carried a rope with a noose in the end throw it like a lasso at one of the prisoners. The rope struck O'Rourke. The police then charged the mob, which was becoming dan-gerous, and succeeded in holding it back unil the Chinamen were safe within the station iouse. Detective O'Brien and another officer remained in charge of the basement. At the police station, the prisoners, were booked. Lee Yung is the proprietor. The little girl says she is Katie Schuyler and that she lived at 125 Monroe street. At first she said she was passing 104 and a China-man tapped on the window and beckened her to go in. She went.

"How long were you in there!" asked

Captain Brooks.

"Only a second. I just looked in. Then I left again and the officer came."

When Captain Brooks put his hand on Katie's pocket she began to cry.

"There's nothing there sir, nothing at all,"

"We'll see "said the big captain. He pro-"We'll see," said the big captain. He pro-duced a small package of opium. Katle then told a different yarn. She said that a Mrs. Campbell, who lives at Monroe and Johnston streets, had sent her to Lee Yung's pince to buy 10 cents worth of opium. Katle was detained and Detectives chrimer and O'Rourke returned to the Park street station. The basement is occu-pled by an opium joint and gambling den and s a dirty little place. There are three large ounks arranged along the side of the room The officers found fifteen new pipe bowls. eleven pipes, eight large pots of opium, five large paper boxes of opium, six complete 'lay outs," two large loaded revolvers and $81.55 in money. All this was put in a large dry goods box and carried to the station "We have a good case against those people new," said Captain Brooks. "They sold opium to a minor. Katle will be turned over to the society people. She will make an excellent witness."

CONFESSED HIS CRIME.

Capture of a Youthful Colorado Matricide.

DURANGO, Colo., Sept. 28.—Raiph Ray, the 30-year-old murderer of his mother, was captured Saturday evening in Canon Largo, N. M., by Sheriff Longnecker, and returned to this city today. He made a confession to the sheriff last night in which he gave particulars of the crime. He said that after ne and his mother had eaten breakfast last Wednesday morning he went to the barn and took two drinks of whisky from a bottle he had hidden in the hay. Returning to the house ne informed his mother that he was going to Farmington New Mexico to attend the fair. Mrs. Hay remonstrated, not desiring to be left alone. This angered him and as his mother passed him for the door with a pan in her hands, he struck her a terribly blow in the back of the head with a hatchet, sinking the iron into her head to the handle. She sank to the floor without a mean, and the son then plunged his hunting knife into her breast three times, wrapped the body in a quilt, nounted his horse and started for Mexico. The father returned from his mine that night, and the crime was discovered sooner than Young Ray had expected, or he would have successfully made his escape across the border. The murderer was arraigned this morning, and without a tremor or the slightest indication of remorse. leaded guitty. Before her marriage she was a Miss Carey, niece of John Jacob Astor, and her alliance, at the time it courred, was a society, event in New York Her trip to Sioux Falls was construed to can a determination to make an application

Today the suspicion was converted into an established fact by the filing of the complaint. This paper was served on the baron in Paris Saturday and he has cabled instruction to an attorney to made an appearance and defense. The complaints that the transfer of the complaints that the transfer of the complaints that the transfer of the complaints that the complaints th clainant recites that the baron and baroness were married in New York May 20, 1875, and that ever since their marriage the baron has pursued a course of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff. While in Paris, France, in 1880 and in 1890 the baron applied four epithets and accused his wife of not being chaste. That on June 14, 1890, the defendant, by fraud and false representation, attempted to procure her incarceration in an institution for the confinement of insane persons.

This last accusation will be decided in the trial. It is maintained that the baron was anxious to secure control of his wife's estate, the annual ncome of which is estimated at $80,000 and o do this it was necessary to prove that she was insane. To escape the evil scheme of her husband the baroness left at midnight, with her maid and box of jewels, the home of her husband in Paris and took the train for Germany and then to America, where she vas advised by relatives to secure a separa-The baron has the possession of three ren and the madam demands the cusody of the daughter Margaret, aged 12.

MISSOURI FUN.

No Charge to Attend the Trial of Criminals in That State.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 28.—That popular entertainment, the preliminary examination of pretty Millie Pfaffmann, who is charged with attempting to destroy the house of Dick Juvenal with an explosive on the night of August 10, drew a crowd of 500 persons to Weish's hall in Armourdate this morning.
Miss Pfaffmann was early at the hall. She seemed not a whit nervous.

There was no charge of admission to the hall today, for the money was raised two weeks ago by Anctioneer Wat Smart's brazen voice, to pay the rent, and by 10 o'clock the hall was filled by a crowd of at least haif a hundred persons. The third of the specta-tors were women attracted by idle curiosity. Three policemen stood at the door and searched every porson who entered and not a single weapon was found. Women were Juvenai nimself was searched down stairs by Deputy Sheriff Bob Bowling, but nothing was found. His vest was searched for a con-cealed dagger but he had no weapon. Juvenal showed no signs of nervousness.

Justice of the Peace Herring took a seat before his desk fifteen minutes before 10 o'clock. Two dozen witnesses were called for the state and among them was Mrs. Maggie Juvenal, divorced wife of the prosecuting witness. Mrs. Juvenal, No. 2 was mysteriously poisoned two weeks ago. The calling of this witness created some ex-Mrs. Juvenal is a woman of medium height, with brown hair and a fair, clear cut face. She was dressed in a close-fitting black silk dress. It was noticeable that she took a chair at the side of her former husband. With her was her little 4-year-old boy, who, as soon as she was soated, left her and went to his father's knee. The trial progressed all day without developing anything that has not siready been published.

HANGED THEM BOTH.

Mississippi Lynchers String Up a Man and a Woman. HOLLANDALE, Miss., Sept. 28, -On Saturday night a quadroon woman named Lou Stevenson called Mr. Davis, a white bartender, from the saloon and while she engaged him in conversation a negro named Grant White appeared upon the scene and shet Davis, killing him almost instantly, without provocation. The negro, White, fled, but was captured near Wayside and brought back to the scene of the murder. The infuriated populace hanged both White and his accomplice, the negro woman Lou Stevenson, to a railroad bridge near the town during the early hours of this morning. There is much excitement here, but no further trouble is expected.
