Sheridan County Politics.

RUSHVILLE, Nob., Oct. 3 .- |Sp. "at Telogram to THE BEE. ]-The democrats of this county met in convention today and unaninously endersed Hon. M. R. Kinkaid for judge, after nominating a full county ticket. I. N. Harbough, the independent candi-pate for district judge, has been billed for two weeks to speak here today Aithough Rushville has never held such a crowd as thronged her streets today, Har baugh's abnouncement failed to draw hearers and the speech was dispensed with. The enthusiasm of the independents is abating and the republican bauner never floated more proudly in Sheridan county than today

Republicans of the northwest all feel renewed courage. Rev. George Martin of Kearney is here sounding the republican toesin and pointing to the republican past, to which every Sheridan county republican will the at the polls. The independents of this county are in trouble with their official newspaper, which claums it has been badly treated by them and ceeks redress in a refusal to allow them ticket in their columns. They have uo organ now.

Democratic Ideas.

HOLDIERDGE, Neb., Oct. 3.- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-The Phelps County democracy met in convention here this morning. They nominated James Q. Rhea for county judge and H. C. Bartlett for sheriff and then adjourned to await the result of the republican convention which met in the afternoon. In the evening meeting considcrable time was put in scoring the republican party for not endorsing their candi-dates. The following resolutions were then adopted:

Resolved. That the democrats of Phelps county in convention assembled send greeting to the democratic state central committee and recommend the endorsement of Hon. J. W. Edgerton for the office of supreme judge at the meeting to be held in Omaha, October 5, not

Would Not Call the Election.

KEARNEY, Neb., Oct. 3 .- [Special Telegram to 'THE BEE.] -Mandamus proceedings vere recently begun in the district court by J. M. Easterling, the alliance candidate for county attorney, to compel County Clerk R.

M. Rankin to make a call for the election of county attorney. The present incumbent, Ira D. Marston, republican, was appointed by the board of supervisors last winter to a vacancy caused by death and the attorney general holds that such an appoint-ment lasts until the expiration of the term for which the preceding man was elected. Acting on this decision the republicans did not place a man in nomination for county attorney, and the clerk will not make a call for such an election unless ordered to do so by the supreme court. The case was withdrawn today by the plaintiff and he will get a decision from the supreme court.

He was ready to work until midnight and begin early Monday morning. Mr. Wharton said he did not desire to cast asked that the council convene to ascertain ust why the committee was called together. Mr. Osthoff moved that the committee hear Mr. Ballou's testimony.

A Witnessfrom Cincinnati. Mr. Wharton knew that the meeting was called at the request of Billingsley, of the Ketcham Furniture company. Mr. Donovan said that a witness had been brought at great expense from Cincinnati and that his testimony should be taken, that he might return to his home.

Mr. Wharton informed the committee that he was perfectly willing to go with Mr. Donovan and take the testimony of the Cincin-nati man and then submit it after the other vitnesses had testified.

Mr. Donovan would agree to that if the re-porters were admitted. Mr. Wharton said the rule had not applied to the taking of Weary's testimony. Ganuon had objected and he would object in the case of the Cincinnati witness The chairman ruled that the taking of Mr. Ballou's testimony should proceed. "What right have you to make such a rulago for embezzling $75,000, and was under bond for $20,000. The bondsman last night turned nim over to Sheriff Dill, and he was also locked up in jail. When Ostrander was arrested there was a run on the bank r three days but the other banks came to the rescue of the Uister County Savings institution and the trustees made a statement showing a surplus of $247,000. As the statement was signed by a number of prominent men of the city who were directors of the bank, it had a reassuring effect and deositors who drew out their money brought

The system adopted by Ostrander and Trumbour was most ingenious and for twenty years baffled the skill of the expert examiners in the employ of the state. In carrying it out forgery and perjury were frequently and effectively employed. The statement showed resources of $2,135,000; due depositors, $1,588,-

000; surplus, $247,000. It is impossible to tell or even conjecture the effect the closing of the bank will have on the people of Uister county. The majority of the depositors are poor people. There are two other savings banks in the city, the Rondont and Kingston, the trustces of which have decided to demand sixty days' notice om depositors should there be a run of any consequence.

The feeling against the trustees who signed the statement is bitter in the extreme, and they are characterized as thioves for making the depositors believe the bank was solvent when they should have known its condition. First Vice President Brodhead, who had executive charge of the bank, also comes in for his share of censure in The Ulster County Savings institution was incorporated by act of the legislature April 12, 1851.

The people had great confidence in the institution. It is said a number of the bonds mentioned in the statement by trustees were hypothecated in New York by Ostrander and Trumpbour. Another method mentioned was that deposits in many cases were entered on the bank's register for only half and a third of the amount received, while entries in depositors' books were made for the full amount, the difference being taken by the thieves. The streets of Kingston are filled with people and depositors are arriving on every train and by all manner of vehicles. Occasionally some of the ex-cited farmers threaten to break into the bank building and get their money, while others suggested that a lynching party be formed to hang Ostrander and Trumbour. Business is virtually suspended. One man who has $7,000 on deposit developed symp-toms of insanity and it is feared it will be necessary to take him to the asylum.

City officials, fearing the threats to burn the jail where Ostrander and Trumbour are contined would be executed, summoned the fire department, members of which are now merits, but it is very unfortunate for them and all concerned, that their title to the pen nant should be clouded by the suspicious actions of those in control of the placing of the New York team. Were I under indictment for murder, with the circumstantial evidence against me as strong as it appears to be against the New York club, I should expect to be hung. From present information and from private advices from Boston I cannot but feel there has been either downright dishonesty on the part of the New York club or gross incompetency on the part of those in control of the team in the cames played in Boston the past week.

"Upon what ground do you base your opin-ion that such is the case?" President Hart was asked.

"Weil, in the first place I should like to know why Rusle did not pitch in at least two of those games. The excuse given by President Day that he was not in good health and was left at home because he had already carned his salary may be satisfactory from a Boston or New York standpoint, but it is far from satisfactory to me or to the Chicago public

"I should like to be enlightened as to why Counor did not play in the first three games and also, I would like to know if he was in jured, ill, or unavoidably absent; why Buck Ewing was not substituted, instead of a man like Whistler. 1 would like to know why Buckley was not put in to catch instead of an Bickley was not put in to catch instead of an unknown amateur: if he was unfit, why, if New York was putting forth its best efforts to win the game, Buck Ewing was not put in to catch. He certainly would have been an improvement over an amateur over if improvement over an amateur, even in he has a 'glass' arm. I would also like to know why Richardson was taken out of the last two games, unless it was not for the purpose of making the team so hopelessly weak that there was no possible chance of winning. If the New Yorks were as badly broken up as they claim why did the series broken up as they claim, why did they con-sent to play two extra games in Boston, one of which should have been played in New York instead of Boston ( I should also like to broken why it is should also like o know why it was necessary to be so secret n obtaining the consent of two-thirds of the league clubs for those games. It seems to me that common courtesy would demand that the consent of the Chicago club be at least in-vited. There are many other questions which doom more appropriate to ask before an inves-I deem more appropriate to ask before an inves-tigation committee than to discuss through the press. Judging from the avalanche of letters and telegrams pouring into me from all parts of the country protesting espe-cially against the New York and Boston games, I am led to believe that if a popular vote as to walch club was the real champion was taken among the patrons of base ball. even outside of Chicago, Anson's team would receive a handsome majority. The base ball public may rest assured that I shall leave no stone unturned to probe this matter to its bottom and to at least place the re-sponsibility for the unfortunate state of affairs regarding the championship where it belongs, and I shall insist upon the expulsion of the gullty parties, be they "magnates, managers, captains or players."

Denver's Opening Day.

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 3 .- The fall meeting at Overland park was ushered in today by the sweetest music ever heard on a rac course in the west. The voices of the pool sellers were hushed at the imperative domand of their customers after the first few strains of Rosuer's Hungarian orchestra and not until after the overture was another bet made. The sports were all out and they brought their overcoats with them on account of the weather. The track was vory heavy The club house was filled with the wives and daughters of the members while the grand stand was overflowing with all sorts and con-ditions of people. While it was a great day for those in attendance the enthusiasm seemed to be shared as well by the horsesonly the riders and drivers were in the dumps. In the three running races the favorites won with but one exception and that exception paid 15 to 1 for suckers when Billy Duncan's colors showed first at the wire.

"Did you leave him in doubt as to whether of these notes were given for $10,000 each, and others given, amounting to $50,000 in all. or not you intended to pay this $1,500," asked Mr. Wharton. The Standifords got the money on these notes. If the signers of these notes are compelled to pay them, it will break them up. "Yes. He worked for the franchise until the ordinance came up for passage and then he voted against it." This fact has been kept a secret until today. This will make the Standifords' liabilities over $300,000. The safe was opened by an expert today and all it contained was small oin amounting to $70.

The grand jury returned fifteen indict-ments for forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretonses and larceny. The county will offer a reward of $1,000 for he capture of the Standiford brothers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 3 .- The scaling schooner Edward Webster, Captain McLean, arrived in port today after an absence of seven months. According to the story told by some of the sallors, the Webster was joined off Copper island July 24 by the schooner Hamilton Lewis, commanded by a brother of Captain McLean, and a joint raid was made on the rookeries. The sailors killed a large number of seals when the Russian authorities opened fire on them, firing volley after volley. The captain of the Webster nevertheless ordered the crew out again on the following day, and when they refused to go some of them were put in irons and fed on bread and water for a number of days. The sailors allege they received harsh treatment during the whole homeward trip. The mate of the vessel said the schooner was not warned against enterthe schooner was not warned against enter-ing the Behring sea, but the men state that the schooner Lillie L was spoken June 20, and that she announced she had been ordered out of the sea by a revenue cutter. #### Franklin's Alliance Picnic

FRANKLIN, Neb., Oct. 3.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-Today was the time for the great alliance ox reast and speaking. Paul Vandervoort was the orator. He was not met at the train by anyone and while a photographer was photographing the pro-cession he hastily climbed out of the band wagon, not caring to be in it. There were just nine voters in line. Last year at this time there were 500 voters and their families. By actual count the men who listened to Van dervoort's harangue against The Bee Rosewater numbered sixty-nine, and half were not members of the aliance. The whole business was the laughing stock of the self-respecting people.
