

THE OMAHA BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE - NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by Carrier in any part of the City, H. W. TILTON, MANAGER.

TELEPHONE: Business Office, No. 43 No. 23 Night Editor, No. 23

MINOR MENTIONS. N. Y. P. Co. Council Bluffs Lumber Co., coal.

City Council Makes Some New Rules for the City Employees.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

City Council Makes Some New Rules for the City Employees.

THEY MUST SELL NO MORE TICKETS.

Riding Bicycles on Sidewalks Also Prohibited—Another Attempt to Pass the Transit Company's Franchise Failed.

The city council held its regular monthly meeting last evening with Mayor Macrae and Aldermen Casper, Graves, Paes, Smith, Van Brunt, Wind and Wood present.

An ordinance was presented prohibiting the riding of bicycles on any sidewalks in the city, and fixing the penalty for the violation at a fine not less than $3 nor more than $50.

An ordinance was introduced for the purpose of granting the right of way over all streets in the city for a street railway.

An ordinance was presented granting the Council Bluffs Transit company the right of way over all streets in the city for a street railway.

The police have been notified of the capture of a man who gives his name as Jess Harris, in Omaha, on the charge of having stolen the gold watch from the Omaha jail.

The following officers were elected by the Homeo Boies club at its meeting Saturday night.

The undersigned wishes to notify the public that an agent, canvassing Council Bluffs and vicinity as a representative of the Twin City Dye works, is a fraud.

A Gentleman Who Knew His Father Some years ago an engineer was wanted to construct a branch railroad in the central part of Georgia.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. E. A. Moorehouse is in Joliet, Ill.

Miss Maude Oliver is visiting friends in Sioux City.

Mrs. W. W. Loomis and daughter, Mrs. W. F. Sapp, are visiting in Council Bluffs.

Judge Walter F. Smith leaves today for Montgomery county to open district court.

P. M. Pickrell of Okaloosa is in the city, the guest of his brother-in-law, J. S. Stewart.

Judge Squires leaves today for Sioux City, where he will open the October term of the United States circuit court.

T. C. Dawson left yesterday for Sidney to attend district court, where he is to be tried in which the state is interested in an trial.

James B. McDermott, who for several years has held the position of bookkeeper for the United States Benevolent association, has resigned his position and left last evening for Louisville, where he will continue in the association.

Personal. Mr. William Bode, a graduate of the Benton Academy of Dyeing and for years former of the city, has accepted a position with the Twin City Dye Works.

Republican Club. The republican club met last evening in its headquarters in the Masonic temple.

Lake Manawa Time Table. For the remainder of the season Manawa trains will run as follows:

Lucky Winners. The following won the prizes in the voting contests at the Catholic ladies' bazaar:

Siberian Gold. The Japan Herald is authority for the figures of gold output in Siberia from 1874 to 1887 inclusive.

Artificial Milk. A Grand Rapids man is going to supply Chicago with a superior brand of artificial milk of his own invention.

Consent These Not. Detroit Free Press: There's a Presbyterian minister in Detroit whose wife is very fond of this city as a place of residence.

THE OMAHA ANNEX AND OTHER INDIAN LANDS CEDED.

The proclamation of the president opening for settlement the tract recently purchased from the tribes on the eastern border of Oklahoma was awaited with impatience by a great number of persons who assembled to take advantage of it, says the New York Times.

WIDENING THE DOMAIN. The proclamation of the president opening for settlement the tract recently purchased from the tribes on the eastern border of Oklahoma was awaited with impatience by a great number of persons who assembled to take advantage of it, says the New York Times.

RIVAL ECCENTRICITIES. Among the many so-called "revolutions" which have taken place in the journalism of New York city during the past six months, writes Colonel Cook-erill, the most remarkable is the recent change in the policy of the Herald.

ABSURD "REVOLUTIONS" IN NEW YORK JOURNALISM. Among the many so-called "revolutions" which have taken place in the journalism of New York city during the past six months, writes Colonel Cook-erill, the most remarkable is the recent change in the policy of the Herald.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

Mr. Bennett said to me on one occasion that he conducted his newspaper on the principle of absolute loyalty and fidelity.

ONE WEEK MORE FREE TO ALL PERSONS APPLYING BEFORE OCTOBER 7TH.

Dr. Copeland and Mansfield of the Copeland Medical Institute continue their Grand Offer to the People of Omaha and Vicinity—Read and Be Convinced.

For the purpose of introducing Drs. Copeland and Mansfield, and their methods of treating disease, to the citizens of Omaha and vicinity, and giving at once practical and substantial proofs of their skill, they continue the following offer, which will hold good until October 7th.

Up to and including this date they will treat all patients who apply to them at their offices, rooms 311 and 312 New York Life Building, FREE FOR THE FIRST ONE WEEK, FINISHING ALL WHO APPLY WITH ALL MEDICINES AND ADVICE FOR THIS LENGTH OF TIME ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT COST.

It is not at all like offers that are sometimes made by advertisers, who advertise free treatment and then charge for the medicine, or advertise free medicines and then charge for the treatment, but means just what it says, nothing less.

Dr. Copeland and Mansfield positively treat and furnish medicines free for one week to all who apply on or before October 7, 1891. It is their way of introducing their methods, and NO ONE, EITHER RICH OR POOR, NEED HAVE SLIGHTEST HESITATION IN AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THIS OFFER.

RESPECTABLE PEOPLE. Mrs. Jane Barrett Tells Her Story—How and Why She Became Fully Convalesced and Fully Restored.

"With the hope of benefiting others suffering as I have, I wish to relate my experience," said Mrs. Jane Barrett, of 519 Wash street, St. Louis, in conversation with the writer.

"For over two years I have suffered almost constantly with terrible aches and pains all through my head and face. My head and nose were stopped up. Roaring, buzzing noises in my ears affected my hearing.

"My throat was so raw, and most of the time I could hardly swallow. I could not sleep for an account of it. The mucus would drop from my head back into my throat, and keep me hawking and raising all the time.

"I was at last beyond anything that journalism—even rural journalism—had ever seen in this line, for rural journalism usually stops with the name of the associate editor." The general impression was that this was a mere pretence upon the part of Mr. Bennett's significance. Finding himself imitated even as to European residence, yachts, etc., Mr. Bennett seems to have made up his mind to furnish the world of journalism with an example of unselfish independence. Naturally the inquiry along the line is: "What next?"

About the time that the World moved into its new building the success of that journal was emphasized by a disease from Mr. Pulitzer to the effect that henceforth the name of no employe of the World should ever appear in the columns of that journal. A faithful night worker, who had been fifteen years in the service, was peremptorily dismissed for permitting an item about a dinner eaten by social members of the World staff to appear next morning in an obscure column.

"My will to be the 'World' was the decree of the proprietor sent across the ocean. The crushing out of all personality and individuality has been a cherished idea of Mr. Pulitzer, and he has executed it with Mississippi severity when the dome of the monument to his successful career had been glided. It is believed that Mr. Bennett heard of this and that his indignation departed in the form of a letter designed to let the American people know that he—Mr. Bennett—was big enough, strong enough and prosperous enough to rise above the petty jealousies and sordid selfishness of a personified newspaper.

"The Perversity of Mankind. "No, sir," said old Farmer Never-swell, "there wasn't a single blamed trespasser on my premises last season."

"What?" cried the whole hunting season? "No, sir; not a single, not a solitary."

"What did you do—stand guard all day with a gun?"

"No, sir; nary gun."

"Keep dogs loose all over your land?"

"No, sir; nary dog."

"Put up signs threatening to prosecute all caught upon your premises?"

"No, sir; not a single threat of prosecution."

"Wasn't there any game upon your place?"

"Place was just alive with rabbit, pheasant and quail, sir."

"How in the nation did you do it, then?"

"Humph! easy enough. I just put up this sign:

COME HERE AND TAKE ALL YOU PLEASE! The doors are all dead. The farmer is five miles to the Constable's. Shoot the hogs, spear the pumpkins, milk the cows, pull down the fences, set fire to the stables, and come right up to the bell rings.

"And, sir, do you know, these here human bein's are so perverse that after a hunter says, 'I give you this sign, couldn't have hired him to come over the fence for $50 cash?'"

Very Different. Somerville Journal, Little Dolly Tenys—What's that you tell me about, ma'am? Mrs. Tenys—That's a tennis racket child. Little Dolly—A tennis racket? Is that the kind of racket you mean, ma'am? Mrs. Tenys—Mercy no, child! The rackets your papa uses on never cost less than $200.

How Much. Puck: Covert Coates—"If I give you this candy will you let your sister that I am waiting here for her?" Birdie Broome—How much more will you give me if I don't tell my big brother!

The Empress Elizabeth of Austria, several years ago, after a severe spell of sickness, was told by her physician to use Johann Hoff's Malted Food Extract to rebuild her weakened constitution. It acted so admirably that she is now able to enjoy the pleasures of the golden cross of merit. There is which she belongs was distributed to the genuine article, which must have the signature of Johann Hoff on the neck of every bottle. Take no other.

ONE WEEK MORE FREE TO ALL PERSONS APPLYING BEFORE OCTOBER 7TH.

Dr. Copeland and Mansfield of the Copeland Medical Institute continue their Grand Offer to the People of Omaha and Vicinity—Read and Be Convinced.

For the purpose of introducing Drs. Copeland and Mansfield, and their methods of treating disease, to the citizens of Omaha and vicinity, and giving at once practical and substantial proofs of their skill, they continue the following offer, which will hold good until October 7th.

Up to and including this date they will treat all patients who apply to them at their offices, rooms 311 and 312 New York Life Building, FREE FOR THE FIRST ONE WEEK, FINISHING ALL WHO APPLY WITH ALL MEDICINES AND ADVICE FOR THIS LENGTH OF TIME ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT COST.

It is not at all like offers that are sometimes made by advertisers, who advertise free treatment and then charge for the medicine, or advertise free medicines and then charge for the treatment, but means just what it says, nothing less.

Dr. Copeland and Mansfield positively treat and furnish medicines free for one week to all who apply on or before October 7, 1891. It is their way of introducing their methods, and NO ONE, EITHER RICH OR POOR, NEED HAVE SLIGHTEST HESITATION IN AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THIS OFFER.

RESPECTABLE PEOPLE. Mrs. Jane Barrett Tells Her Story—How and Why She Became Fully Convalesced and Fully Restored.

"With the hope of benefiting others suffering as I have, I wish to relate my experience," said Mrs. Jane Barrett, of 519 Wash street, St. Louis, in conversation with the writer.

"For over two years I have suffered almost constantly with terrible aches and pains all through my head and face. My head and nose were stopped up. Roaring, buzzing noises in my ears affected my hearing.

"My throat was so raw, and most of the time I could hardly swallow. I could not sleep for an account of it. The mucus would drop from my head back into my throat, and keep me hawking and raising all the time.

"I was at last beyond anything that journalism—even rural journalism—had ever seen in this line, for rural journalism usually stops with the name of the associate editor." The general impression was that this was a mere pretence upon the part of Mr. Bennett's significance. Finding himself imitated even as to European residence, yachts, etc., Mr. Bennett seems to have made up his mind to furnish the world of journalism with an example of unselfish independence. Naturally the inquiry along the line is: "What next?"

About the time that the World moved into its new building the success of that journal was emphasized by a disease from Mr. Pulitzer to the effect that henceforth the name of no employe of the World should ever appear in the columns of that journal. A faithful night worker, who had been fifteen years in the service, was peremptorily dismissed for permitting an item about a dinner eaten by social members of the World staff to appear next morning in an obscure column.

"My will to be the 'World' was the decree of the proprietor sent across the ocean. The crushing out of all personality and individuality has been a cherished idea of Mr. Pulitzer, and he has executed it with Mississippi severity when the dome of the monument to his successful career had been glided. It is believed that Mr. Bennett heard of this and that his indignation departed in the form of a letter designed to let the American people know that he—Mr. Bennett—was big enough, strong enough and prosperous enough to rise above the petty jealousies and sordid selfishness of a personified newspaper.

"The Perversity of Mankind. "No, sir," said old Farmer Never-swell, "there wasn't a single blamed trespasser on my premises last season."

"What?" cried the whole hunting season? "No, sir; not a single, not a solitary."

"What did you do—stand guard all day with a gun?"

"No, sir; nary gun."

"Keep dogs loose all over your land?"

"No, sir; nary dog."

"Put up signs threatening to prosecute all caught upon your premises?"

"No, sir; not a single threat of prosecution."

"Wasn't there any game upon your place?"

"Place was just alive with rabbit, pheasant and quail, sir."

"How in the nation did you do it, then?"

"Humph! easy enough. I just put up this sign:

COME HERE AND TAKE ALL YOU PLEASE! The doors are all dead. The farmer is five miles to the Constable's. Shoot the hogs, spear the pumpkins, milk the cows, pull down the fences, set fire to the stables, and come right up to the bell rings.

"And, sir, do you know, these here human bein's are so perverse that after a hunter says, 'I give you this sign, couldn't have hired him to come over the fence for $50 cash?'"

Very Different. Somerville Journal, Little Dolly Tenys—What's that you tell me about, ma'am? Mrs. Tenys—That's a tennis racket child. Little Dolly—A tennis racket? Is that the kind of racket you mean, ma'am? Mrs. Tenys—Mercy no, child! The rackets your papa uses on never cost less than $200.

How Much. Puck: Covert Coates—"If I give you this candy will you let your sister that I am waiting here for her?" Birdie Broome—How much more will you give me if I don't tell my big brother!

The Empress Elizabeth of Austria, several years ago, after a severe spell of sickness, was told by her physician to use Johann Hoff's Malted Food Extract to rebuild her weakened constitution. It acted so admirably that she is now able to enjoy the pleasures of the golden cross of merit. There is which she belongs was distributed to the genuine article, which must have the signature of Johann Hoff on the neck of every bottle. Take no other.

A REMINDER.

We are the Poor Man's Friend, in that we are offering our Lexington Screened Lump Coal... $3.50 per ton Lexington Screened Nut Coal... $3.00 per ton

16 MAIN STREET. TELEPHONE 48.

NO KICK HERE. S.A. PERCEE & CO. School Shoes. ART THE BEST. TRY THEM. 100 MAIN ST.

COUNCIL BLUFFS STEAM DYE WORKS.

All kinds of Dyeing and Cleaning done in the highest style of art. Faded and stained fabrics made to look as good as new. Work promptly done and delivered in all parts of the country. Send for price list.

C. A. MACHAN, PROPRIETOR. 1013 Broadway, Near Northwestern Depot, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

SUCH THINGS DO NOT HAPPEN AT Council Bluffs Carpet Co's.

A MISFIT!

RAILWAY TIME CARD SPECIAL NOTICES.

Table with columns for destination, departure time, and arrival time. Destinations include Chicago, Burlington & Q., St. Paul, etc.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

WANTED—Men of good appearance. Big money to right party. Call at 636 Main St.

WANTED—3 or 4 furnished rooms in good location. Address I. B. Office.

RAKE Chance—for sale. Bakery doing good business; can be bought right. Fullness clear where demands personal attention. D. F. Bee, Council Bluffs.

FOR RENT—Furnished house of 7 rooms 929 Third avenue.

SEVERAL stocks of merchandise and clear of Omaha and Council Bluffs property to exchange for Iowa farms. If you have a farm to offer, write to Johnston & Van Patten, Council Bluffs.

EXPECT Columbia bicycle, 22 inch, in perfect condition, will trade for good rifle, 10 calibre. C. A. Atkins, Council Bluffs.

CHAIRVOYAGE, mild reading or Psychotherapy. Diseases of all kind diagnosed and treated with hot baths and massage. All letters promptly answered. Office hours, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. No 1425 avenue E. near court 15th street.

FOR SALE or Rent—Grand land with houses by J. E. Rice, 101 Main st., Council Bluffs.

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms, with or without board. Very desirable location. References furnished. 426 Glen avenue, adjoining school park.

CITIZENS STATE BANK

Of Council Bluffs. CAPITAL STOCK.....$100,000 SURPLUS AND PROFITS.....70,000

TOTAL CAPITAL AND SURPLUS.....$170,000

DIRECTORS—I. A. Miller, F. O. Glasgow, E. L. Stewart, E. H. Clark, J. B. Edmondson, Charles E. Hancock, Treasurer general banking institutions. Largest capital and surplus of any bank in Northwestern Iowa.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. Paid Up Capital.....$100,000

Oldest organized bank in this city. Foreign and domestic exchange and real securities. Special attention paid to collections. Accounts of individuals, firms and corporations solicited. Correspondence in view. G. W. F. BAKER, President. A. T. RICE, Cashier.

THE GRAND

Council Bluffs, Ia. THIS ELEGANTLY APPOINTED HOTEL IS NOW OPEN.

N. W. TAYLOR, Manager.

27 MAIN STREET. Over C. B. Jacquemin & Co's Jewelry Store.

Copeland Medical Institute.

ROOMS 311 AND 312, New York Life Building, Cor. 17th and Farnam Sts., Omaha, Neb.

W. H. COPELAND, M. D. T. B. MANFIELD, M. D. Consulting Physician.

Specialties: Catarrh and all diseases of the Eye, Ear, Throat and Lungs, Nervous Diseases, Skin Diseases, Chronic Diseases, Office Hours—9 to 11 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., 7 to 9 p. m. Sunday 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Catarrhal troubles and kindred diseases treated successfully by mail. Send in coupon for circular and medicine. Address: W. H. Copeland, Medical Institute, New York Life Building, Omaha, Neb.

ANCHOR LINE MAIL STEAMSHIPS

THE LARGEST, FASTEST AND FINEST IN THE WORLD. NEW YORK, LONDON, DERRY AND GLASGOW.

NEW YORK, DUBLIN, LONDON AND NAPLES. At regular intervals.

SALON, SECOND CLASS AND STEERAGE. BOATLIFE, EXCELLENT AND ALL CONFIDENTIAL POINTS. Excursion tickets available for return by either the Pacific or the Atlantic.

Apply to any of our local Agents or to ANDERSON BROTHERS, Chicago, Ill.

COOK'S ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES

Special attention given to Electric Bells, Burglar Alarms, Annunciators and Incandescent Wiring.

WALTER V. COOK, 13 PEARL ST. COUNCIL BLUFFS.