FOREIGN FINANCIAL REVIEW.

Little Demand for Discount During the Past Week.

STOCK DEALINGS RATHER RESTRICTED.

Firmness of Paris Prices Felt to Be Largely Artificial—American Railway Securities Very Much Weaker.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Discount was not in demand the past week. Quotations were: Three months, 3 per cent; short, 1⅝ per cent. The abundance of money, increased by the release of quarterly dividends, delays an advance of the Bank of England rate, but the ebbing away of gold to America and the continent may necessitate a rise any day, and under the best circumstances it can not be long delayed. On the Stock exchange dealings were rather restricted. Yesterday was the slackest day of the week. The Jewish holidays and the opening of the settlement on Tuesday tended to restrict dealings. Still prices were well maintained.

The settlement is expected to show a general reduction in the speculative account. Owing to the recent steady realization, foreigners were dull. Despite assurances of peace from European statements, no real confidence is felt as to the general position. The firmness of Paris prices is felt as to be largely artificial. The Russian loan undertaking, it is thought, will add to the burdens already carried by French financiers, and a decline in values appears certain to follow on the completion of the loan operation. Chilian bonds declined to 1½ per cent on the week. Brazilians and Argentines both 1¼ per cent, Spanish seven-eighths of 1 per cent, and French rentes one-half of 1 per cent.

American railway securities were very quiet during the week. Speculative dealings almost ceased, but some investment business was carried on, owing to public confidence that there will be a further rise in values before long. Variations for the week in prices of American railway securities include the following: Increases—Lake Shore, Louisville & Nashville, Erie, 1½ per cent each; Atchison, 1 per cent; Wabash, Norfolk & Western preferred, Northern Pacific preferred, and Union Pacific, one-half of 1 per cent each. Decreases—Ohio & Mississippi ordinary, Central Pacific shares and Denver & Rio Grande preferred, 1 per cent each; New York, Ontario & Western, three-fourths of 1 per cent; New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio, first mortgage, and New York Central, one-half of 1 per cent each. Canadian railway securities were weak. Grand Trunk, first and second preferences, each lost 7 per cent on the week, and Grand Trunk, third preferences and guaranteed stock, three-fourths of 1 per cent each.

Among the miscellaneous securities Rio Tintos have declined three-eighths of 1 per cent owing to a disappointing dividend, while Elmore Copper dropped one-quarter of 1 per cent. Bell's Asbestos gained ¼ per cent. The Mexican railway securities were considerably sold and declined, firsts falling 2¼ per cent and seconds and ordinary 1 per cent each. In bank stocks the Chartered Mercantile of India dropped 3½ per cent on the announcement that there would be no dividend, and Bank of Australia shares fell 3¾ per cent on the appearance of a bad balance sheet showing heavy losses at Melbourne. A dispatch from Buenos Ayres gives yesterday's gold quotation as 3.43 per cent premium.

Havana Market Review.

At the Paris Bourse.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—On the bourse during the week business was dull and prices were weak. Three per cent rentes declined 30 centimes, Credit Foncier 11 francs and Rio Tintos 10 francs. Foreign securities were heavy yesterday and suffered an average fall of one-fourth of 1 per cent. The Imperial Bank of Russia announces that in consequence of a large number of French agencies receiving subscriptions to the new loan the date of allotment has been extended from October 31 to November 1. Banks here receiving applications appear to be already realizing, as an after premium of one-half of 1 per cent was being quoted before the issue price was announced. Sales are now occurring at three-eighths of 1 per cent below the issue price. This implies that bankers are abandoning part of their commission in order to secure sales beforehand.

On the Berlin Bourse.

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—Business was quiet and prices were steady on the bourse during the week. The final quotations include: Prussian 4s, 106.30; Deutsche bank, 148.75; Mexican 6s, 86.80; Roubles, 213.50; Bochumers, 119; Harpener, 176; short exchange on London, 20.33¼; long exchange on London, 20.30¼; private discount, 3¼.

On the Frankfort Bourse.

FRANKFORT, Oct. 11.—During the week business on the bourse was quiet and prices were firm. The final quotations include: Italian, 89.4; Portuguese, 52.70; Russian, 95.50; Spanish, 70; short exchange on London, 20.38; private discount, 3m.

When we reflect that so many human beings die of consumption we must come to the conclusion that everybody should be provided with Dr. Bull's Cough syrup, the poor consumptive's friend.

The NATIONAL HYMN AS REARRANGED FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.

SANTA CLAUS SOAP

My Country: 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where our fathers died;
Land where our Mothers cried,
Over the wash-tub tied
Let freedom ring.
My native country thee—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy tucks and frills
But oh: what laundry bills;
My soul with horror thrills;
When I think of thee.
Let music swell the breeze,
And blow through all the trees
Hail SANTA CLAUS:
Let tired mortals wake
And gladly try a cake,
Let all for cleanness sake,
Join the applause.

Ladies' Home Journal.

Small silver fish have taken the place of coins of bangle bracelets.

Ruby marquis rings with one large diamond in the centre are seen.

Silver cologne receptacles, modeled after the New York obelisk, are popular.

Gold rope circling an anchor formed of the same material, make a pretty pendant for a glove buttoner.

Very unique and, consequently attractive is a gold ring simulating a handcuff, having a blue white diamond in the lock.

A carved moonstone in the midst of diamonds set to simulate stars, for the ornamentation of plain gold concave cuff links, is in vogue.

Two variegated love birds circled by a laurel wreath in which small diamonds nestle, constitute a lace pin that will be seen this autumn.

For lady cyclists a bonbon box of rich gold, having a bicycle wheel of enamel, with a fine diamond in the hub inserted in the cover, is very appropriate.

For a chatelain holder, a silver albatross with outstretched wings, from the feathers of which many fancy chains depend, will undoubtedly meet with approval among those of artistic taste.

A bewitching little moonstone cherub flying with outstretched wings through a garland of gold leaves intermingled with diamonds and sapphires, forms an exceedingly pretty brooch design that has been imported from Paris.

Designs for the ornamentation of silver glove boxes are usually of the standard repousse flower work, and one that is etched with decorations taken from the interior of Ramises' tomb, shows originality and artistic effect.

A jeweler recently exhibited a lady's gold watch with an ancient English angel set in the back. The coin set in which contained the archangel Michael piercing the dragon, was enhanced by having small diamonds mounted around its rim.

A wriggling gold serpent having overlapping scales of various hues, forms one of the latest queen chains. The tail terminates in the swivel of the watch, while the head holds suspended in its wicked looking jaws a struggling bird of pearls and rubies.
