WHAT KILLED YOUNG JAMES SULLIVAN.

Andrew Belgum's Wrath and Its Fatal Result-What the Doctors Learned Too Late-Murderer at Large.

Andrew Belgum, who has been keeping a saloon on Ninth street between Seventeenth and Eighteenth avenues has left the city. and from late developments he seems to have done the wisest thing he could have done. A couple of weeks ago he had a quarrel with James Sullivan, a boy who lived with his mother not far from Beigum' ssaicon. The quarrelended in Belgum's giving Sullivan a terrific kick in the lower part of the body. Sullivan did not suffer much pain at first, but a day or two after the occurrence he was taken to his bed where he has been ever since.

Dr. Donald Macrea, jr., was summoned to attend him, but he steadily grew worse, and yesterday morning at about 20'clock he died. The trouble had been in the nature of an inflamation of the bowels, and it was at first feared that he had sustained a rupture, but it was afterwards learned that this was a mistage. It was the opinion of the physician that the boy died from the effects of the injuries he had received from Belgum's foot, and considerable talk was indulged in upon the streets during the day. The case was reported to County Attorney Organ and Coroner Waterman, and by the direction of the county attorney it was decided to hold an inquest and a post mortem examination at the undertaking rooms of Charles Lunkley. The post mortem revealed the fact that the The post mortem revealed the fact that the deceased met his death from peritonitis. The marks of the foot of the assailant were plainly distinguishable just above the left groin, in the shape of a large brulse. On applying the scalpel a large abscess was discovered lying just beneath the bruise, and undoubtedry caused by it. Drs. D. Macrae, Jr., J. C. Waterman, and F. T. Seybert, who performed the operation, were of the opinion that the death was the result of the injuries he received from result of the injuries he received from The inquest will be held at the undertaking rooms this morning at 10 o'clock. County Attorney Organ stated yesterday that no warrant had been issued for the arrest of Belgum, and there would be none issued until after the inquest had been held. In all probability, however, the issuing of the warrant will be a useless performance, as Bel-gum is undoubtedly out of the reach of the flicers long before this.

The funeral of Sullivan will occur tomor-row morning at 8 o'clock from the family

A New Feature For the Ladies. A beautiful illustrated paper entitled "Fashion," published monthly by Foth-eringham, Whitelaw & Co., Council Bluffs, for the benefit of their patrons. This journal is designed to be a thoroughly first-class fashion publication, edited with the special object of supplying to the ladies of our country the information on many topics which their requirements demand. Of the many fashion papers now existing, not one exactly conforms to this necessity. Our enterprise is unique. To issue from our own city a paper which shall at once compete with the best of its rivals seems to us an achievement to compel atten-tion. No expense has been spared to accomplish this result, and the clever writers, designers, and artists whose services we have secured insure not only an immediate but a continuous

There is no need now of going to London or Paris or New York for the latest illustrations of fashions—they are here at your door. The leaders of the mode in Paris and London send their best and newest designs first to us; notice for example, in this number, the special photographs from Worth. Our facilities afford us a chance to inspect almost every new design which appears in any of the great fashion centers. In addition to these illustrations, the bright letters of Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper, from Paris, and of Lady Violet Greville, from London, will give further interesting information. In order to make this paper attractive to our readers we have added art and literary features which will be of the same high standard that characterizes our fashion department. With articles from such writers as Bret Harte, Mrs. Harriet Prescott Spofford, Miss Susan Coolidge, Charles Eyre Pascoe, Mrs. M. E. W. Sherwood, Mrs. Helen S. Conant and others, in one number, there is a promise of future excellence which we certainly fulfill. The editorial and art departments of fashions are in charge of Mr. Herbert Booth King, whose high reputation and large experience eminently qualify him to conduct a high class journal. We desire to have it distinctly under-stood that in no sense is this an advertising raedium. We think it is sufficient for our reputation to give the information that ladies are seeking, without calling special attention to our being in advance of all other stores in our locality in retail dry goods. We are, as all our readers are aware, large advertisers in the daily papers. We believe that they are the proper avenue of daily communication with the public, and no wise merchant today denies the power of the daily and weekly paper to reach the great body of consumers. This publica-tion is not intended to supply this want. Its title truly describes its mission, namely, "Fashions: An Illustrated Monthly Journal for Women," An Illustrated Monthly Journal fo

John Wallace, who has done odd jobs about the Woman's Christian association hospital for some time, met with an accident yesterday that has laid him on the shelf for the time, and will in all probability render him helpless for the rest of his life. He was carrying a heavy trunk down stairs when his foot slipped and he was thrown to the bottom. The trunk fell on him in such a way as to break his limb at the bip. He was moved to a room in the hospital, where he is suffering terrible agony. Omaha Instance.

The two weeks during which Drs. Copeland and Mansfleid offered to treat and furnish medicine free to ail who applied has expired, and that which many declared impossible has been accomplished. Out of the many hundreds who have applied none were turned away, and not a cent of money was accepted on any pretext whatever. The strength of the physicians and the resources of the laboratories were taxed to their utmost, but the work was accomplished.

Many of the patients who have applied have said: "Doctor, I should like to continue under your treatment and care; I have received great benefit during these two weeks, but I suppose your charges are very high."

Now, to answer all such remarks as this, Drs. Copeland and Mansfleid make the following public offer:

In order to give all an opportunity of availing themselues of their skirt during this favorable season. Drs. Copeland and Mansfleid will, until November I, make a uniform charge for medicine and treatment of 55 a month. This is to all patients and for all diseases. All patients applying for treatment before November I will be treated for 85 a month, and all medicines furnished free, each month's treatment, including medicine, to cost $5 UNTIL CURED.

PAIN AROUND THE HEART.

Miss Alice Link was a guest of L A. McDongali and family. Miss Link is on her way to the Peru Normal college. Congressman McKeighan will address a meeting here this evening. He comes on the invitation of Citizen alliance No. 11. Miss Laura Goodheart, of 3429 Erskin Street, Tells What Drs. Copeland and Mansfield Did for Her. Miss Laura Goodheart, who lives at 3429 Erskit treet, makes the following interesting statement he says:

"It was some nine years ago that my trouble firs egan. From my early childhood I had never ha rs ago that my trouble first y childhood I had nover had good health, and when my present trouble began it made a sectous battle for me to fight against.

"My first symptom was an intense, agontring pain in the left side, in the region of the heart, shooting through my back and along the left arm. "This I had suffered for the past nine years, and no doctors seemingly able to help me, and every attack I expected would result in death.

"This was my condition when I called upon Drs. Copeland and Mansield, expecting their efforts to result as other doctors before them. What was my surprise, after two weeks treatment, to find that the pain around the heart had left me, and I feel so much better.
"I cannot do or say too much for Drs. Copeland and Mansield, for they have cured me and placed me in better health generally than I could ever hope for."

Miss Goodheart lives, as stated above, at $122 Ers-kin street, where she will readily verify her statement.

In speaking with Drs. Copeland and Mansfield in in regard to the above ease, they say:

"Pain around the heart, called by the doctors Angina Pectoris, or Neuralgin, is one of the most unpleasant and dangerous diseases to which the human being is heir. For example, a man goes to bed at eight apparently healthy, and is found dead in his bed the next morning; or a clergyman in the midst of an animated discourse, feels a sudden pain at his heart and drops as if he were shot. However, usually after a few minutes, or at the longest a half hour, the attack gradually passes of. At first there are long intervals between these attacks, but afterward they become of frequent occurrence. A MARVELOUS CURIOSITY,

Something that has to be seen to be appreciated. The only Petrilled Woman on Exhibition in the World.

Exhibition in the World,

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION OR MONEY REFUNDED.

It is a wonderful numan fossil, a perfectly petrified woman, perfect in every feature and form, as if she had dropped asleep in rosy health and been turned into stone by some wicked magician. It was found near Frosno, Cab. in a locality that his turned out more wonderful petrifactions than the whole contineut. Scientific investigation is courted. Flysuchans admitted free.

Ludles will be admitted between 2 and 4 o'clock, when a lady attendant will show them the wonder.
