Booner's California Flyer Achieves a Most Difficult Tying Feet.

LOWERED HER RECORD HALF A SECOND.

Nancy Hanks' Place in the Allerton Race Taken by Delmarch—The Races Were Ended Yesterday.

STOCKTON, Cal., Oct. 13.—Today was not favorable for record breaking, as a strong wind blew in the faces of the horses in the second half of the new kite slatted track. It was conceded by horsemen that the day was 2 1/2 seconds slow. Experts predicted that Suno, who was to trot against the record 2:08 2/5, held by Maud S., could not do better than equal her own record of 2:10 1/5 in the face of such a wind. The attendance was very large.

After scoring twice, Marvin nodded for the word, and Suno went out, taking the middle of the track. She went to the quarter at a very fast pace, making 11 3/16 in 3 1/2 seconds, and half in 1:02 3/8, and trotting to three-quarters in 1:36 1/2. From there the runner came home with her, and she made a grand dash in the face of the strong wind in 2:10 flat, lowering her record half a second.

INHALED GAS FOR SIX HOURS.

Unfortunate Death of a Well Known Traveling Man at the Millard.

RATHER MYSTERIOUS TAKING OFF.

No Cause for Suicide Known—Story of His Friends—The Coroner's Jury's Verdict Harshly Accepted.

Sam D. W. Menneley, a traveling man representing the firm of E. P. Reed & Co., wholesale shoes, of Rochester, N. Y., was apprehended by gas at the Millard hotel Monday night.

Mr. Menneley arrived at the hotel about 6:30 p. m. Monday and found awaiting him several letters and a telegram announcing the illness of his wife at his home in Rochester. He at once sent a telegram to his home and took the clerk at the hotel that unless the reply was favorable he would start yesterday for Rochester. He also made the same remark to others about the hotel.

About 11:30 he went to his room and was in his usual spirit, except that he was greatly distressed by his wife's illness. A physician came to the hotel at the night, and found that the man was dead about thirty minutes.

Mr. F. A. Brown, formerly cashier at the Millard, and a Mr. De Neve, a traveling man, were the last persons acquainted with Mr. Menneley, having known him for years, and both scouted the idea that his death was accidental.

The room which Mr. Menneley occupied had a gas and electric light fixture. The stopcocks of both are close together, and the gas and electric lines are run together.

Persistent efforts were made to find Coroner Harrison, who was telephoned to his home and office, but at neither place could any information as to his whereabouts be obtained.

The coroner said after the verdict had been rendered that he could see no grounds upon which to base the verdict, but that his opinion was shared by all those outside of the jury, who had any knowledge of the case.

There was no attempt on Miss Field's part to speak upon the broad subject of art and its relation to America or the west, but to give it as succinct a manner as possible.

O'CONNOR'S LIFE OF PARNELL.

Character of the Great Leader as Seen by an Irishman.

INFLUENCES OF HIS EARLY LIFE.

Surroundings that Molded His Mind and Shaped His Aims—Personal Traits of the "Uncrowned King."

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Thomas O'Connor's life of Charles Stewart Parnell, has just appeared. It bears but few traces of hurried preparation, yet it is a book of 221 pages, and contains a great deal in a small compass.

It was announced that Mr. Nicholson had been elected president of the Wardens association, Baltimore was selected as the place of the next session, and Chicago for 1892.

This afternoon the delegates visited the work house at Claremont, where a dinner conference was held, at which Mr. J. C. Johnson, superintendent of the institution, read a paper on "Discipline in Female Prisons."
