The November term of the district court opens November 3. The last day for the filing of petitions is Saturday, October 34. The Women's Christian association will hold a meeting of special interest this after-noon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Atkins,

A petition has been filed in the district court asking that a guardian be appointed for Hugh Dupray, who resides in Silver Creek township. The petition states that his mind has become weak through old age. Captain George B. Smith and wife have been transferred from Sioux City to Council Bluffs and put in charge of the Salvation army here. Among the first attractions secured by them is "Jo, the Turk," a quaint worker, dressed in Turkish costume, who gives queer music on a still queerer cornet He is to be here Saturday and Sunday.

One of the largest audiences ever seen in the city gathered in the Broadway theater last evening to hear Rev. Charles Chiniqu deliver his lecture on "Temporance and the Assassingtion of Lincoln." Every cont in the house was taken and even the aisles were full to overflowing. Many were turned away, unable to gain admittance. The lecturer was evidently well posted on his subject as was an intimate friend of the martyred president.

Jeff Green, a young colored man well known in the city, was arrested last evening by Deputy Marshals. White and Fowler on a charge of embezzlement. A man by the name of Walker gave Green a $10 bill about a year ago to get changed, and he alleges that he has been waiting all these months for him to come back with the change. Green has been around the city at intervals all during the time, but no effort has been made to arrest

C. L. Harrison was arrested before daybreak yesterday morning by Officer Peterson just as he had broken out the front window of the Torf saloon on Midule Broadway. In his nocket when he was searched at the police station were found several keys and a few dollars in money, which were about the only effects he had. He said he had spent the evening in the Turf and had gotten into a dispute with Ed. Sherlock, the proprietor, which had ended in his being fired from the place. He knew that if he touched Sheriock's pocket book a little it would be the most cruel revenge he could would be the most crael revenge he could get, and he accordingly broke in the window. He was stated with drunkenness and malicious mischier, and on this charge he was fined $14,60 in police court. Later in the day, however, it developed that revenge had not been his only motive in breaking in the window. George Radio, the proprieter of the Coumbia where the his proprieter of the Columbia, reported that his place was also visited, and the keys which were found on Harrison's person were iden-tified as having been taken from the Colum-bia during the night. When Harrison saw that appearances were so much against him, his tangue could not run fast enough to make all the confessions he wanted to get rid of. He said he had stood on the proprieter of the Columbia, reported that hi east side of Pearl street and seen the bar-tender closing up for the night at 3:30 a.m. Noticing that the partender left the safe door mlocked he waited until the place had been losed and then went in by breaking in the ront window. He got into the safe easily and knocked the cash drawer off with an ice pick, but found nothing. He then opened he cash register and took out $5 which had been left in the drawer over night. John Beno's store right across the street was also robbed, and Harrison confessed to of money, a gold watch and chain and some having played a star part in that engagement | valuable papers. also. "He broke out a window on Peavi street and got inside, but the safe was locked, and as he had aiready laid in a winter's supply of clothing he had notice for anything else in the store so he went out, leaving everything is he found it. He also admitted that he had roken into Sherlock's with the intention of stealing whatever money was inside, when he had been interrupted by the approach of he officer. Harrison was given a hearing before Judge McGee on the charge of burglary. He wsived examination and was bound over to (wait the action of the grand lury in bonds in the sum of $300, in default of which he was taken to the county juil. The three burglaries were only a short dis-

SALINA, Kan., Oct. 22 .- Not less than 10,000 farmers, members of the alliances, were in the city today to take part in the demonstration. The procession formed and moved to the fair grounds, where an immense dinner was in waiting for the participants. The chief attraction this afternoon was Congressman Jerry Simpson, who made a speech while the demonstration was in progress.

President McGrath delivered his annual address before the council. It was in accord with his oft repeated declarations, that the alliance must preserve its business organi-zation intact, that to enter politics as an organization was to impair its usefuless. He urged a speedy adoption of noth the local and general co-operative system, and hoped that all jealousies and political differences would be late aside and united support be given those in charge of the business affairs of the body. He stated that during he past year 349 alhances had been formed 'he council then adjourned to take part in

INDIANA FARMERS.

Mercantile and Insurance Schemes

Discusse 1-Officers Elected. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 22 .- The State Farmers alliance met in secret session today with eighty-one delegates present.

The committee on trade recommended the adoption of the "Illinois plan." This is, briefly, that purchases be made from the National Trade union, which is said to be an amalgamation of different businesses having close relation to agricultural interests, whose purpose it is to sell directly to the consum ers. The businesses represent millions and by selling directly to the agents of the alliance the profits of the middlemen and the ex pense of traveling salesmen is cut off. Another matter was the adoption of a plan of insurance submitted by the National Al-iance Aid association of Washington. This company will, like the Trade union, supply all the capital necessary to conduct the in-surance plan if the alliance will provide the persons to be insured. The cost of the insur ance is thus reduced to the minimum, it i laimed. A programme was adopted for the conven-ion of the National allianco, which meets here November 17.

The following officers were elected this afternoon: Thomas W. Force, president; Mrs. Lou Snyder, vice president; secretary, W. E. Prigg; treasurer, Mrs. Sadie Branden-berg; state lecturer, B. E. Horn, chaplain, J. W. Nolan; state organizers, Thomas Seast, Edward Stoner.
