How Nebraska's Political Pot is Boiling—Fillmore Republicans Preparing to Open the Campaign at Geneva.

HEATRIC, Neb., Oct. 24.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—The mandamus case of S. E. Rigg, chairman of the democratic committee, against A. G. Grim, county clerk, and the candidates of the straight democratic convention, wherein the plaintiff aspires to keep the names of the defendant opponents of the official ballot as members of the democratic party, and that of Dan Aitken, independent candidate for county clerk, against A. G. Grim to compel his name to be placed on the official ballot as the independent and democratic candidate, were argued before Judge Brady this afternoon. The judge will render his decision at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Alliance Advocates in Geneva. GENEVA, Neb., Oct. 24.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—One hundred and eighty teams by actual count comprised the great alliance procession here today, containing 165 voters, who were here from all over the county to hear the great alliance advocates, Messrs. Van Wyck, Edgerston and Hastings, give it to the republican party and the republican candidates in particular. To say that it was a very tame grand rally is rating it highly. To one who passed through the alliance excitement last fall it looks as though the early in Fillmore county, it is rating it highly. The speaking commenced and lasted until 10 o'clock, composed chiefly of ladies and children.

Valentine's Republican Rally. VALENTINE, Neb., Oct. 24.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—The republicans held an enthusiastic meeting here tonight which was addressed by Alfred Bartow, candidate for district judge, followed by Lieutenant Governor J. A. Mahony, who looked up some of the extravagances of the late "reform" legislation. Both speeches were well received, particularly Lieutenant Governor Mahony's comparison on expenditures. The meeting was largely attended and very enthusiastic.

Edgerston's Superior. BLAIR, Neb., Oct. 24.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Mrs. Bittenbender, candidate for supreme judge on the prohibition ticket, talked here tonight. She had a fair audience, consisting principally of ladies. Those who heard her tonight and Edgerston a year ago think that Mrs. Bittenbender is the more capable of the two. After the meeting they undertook to organize a prohibition club, but met with slight success.

Fillmore County Demotion-tration. GENEVA, Neb., Oct. 24.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—The republicans of Fillmore county are preparing to give a most enthusiastic reception Monday. If the weather is good Geneva citizens will see more people here than have been here for a long time.

CHICAGO'S NEW UNIVERSITY.

What the President Expects of the Great Institution.

FOREIGN INSTRUCTORS WILL BE SECURED.

Prof. Harper Might Have Adled to His Faculty Already But For the Many Legal Obstructions.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE BEE, CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 24.—Prof. Harper, president of the Chicago university, has returned to Chicago to-day and will be in his office at his desk at the university's office to-day. The two objects of his trip abroad—to boom the school project and to obtain the rest he was much in need of—have been accomplished and the professor has returned to Chicago to stay. "My mission abroad was principally to see new cities and university buildings," said the professor, "and I have done all of that. I have been in London, Paris, Berlin, Cambridge, Leipzig and many other places, and I have returned with good material upon which to work." engaged no professor, however, I could not. The contract labor laws stood in the way. I saw some instructors I would like to add to the faculty, but the law prevented me. I doubtless doubtfully wander over in this country in the course of time and then probably they will contact themselves with the university. "In less than three months after the school buildings have been submitted, and so into the hands of the contractors Monday. As to the matter of securing foreign instructors have been made, and I doubt very much if there will be any particular ceremony."

Not Well Informed. JOINED THE STRIKERS.

WELSH TIN DIPPERS OBJECT TO TAKING THE PLACE OF DISCHARGED WORKMEN. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 24.—Nothing was done today by the United States district attorney in reference to the complaint filed by the Knights of Labor and Iron lodges of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers against the St. Louis Stamp and Printing Co., charging the latter with importing skilled labor in violation of the contract law.

It was stated this evening that the men who were discharged from the strike of the strikers were not imported under contract but they came only with a verbal understanding between them and an agent of the striking company.

Representatives of the Amalgamated association say that they have positive proof, however that the contract law is being violated and that they intend to push the case to the utter end.

In the mean time the fifteen skilled Welsh tin dippers have joined the ranks of the strikers, saying that they had not been informed that they were to take the place of strikers.

MEXICAN NEWS.

Suing an Editor for Libel—Business Deal in Central America. CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 24.—Messrs. Jackson and Graham, editors of the Anglo-American, have been sued for a criminal libel by United States Consul General Guntether, for having published a letter from Mr. Matthews against him concerning some mining claims. A dispatch from San Salvador to the Associated Press agent here says President Ezetia asserts that he does not aim to effect union of the Central American republics as has been reported. He believes a union may come in time, but he says it cannot be brought about by force, and if it does come it will not be for some years. He has no dreams of becoming the president of the new nation.

Business is exceedingly dull here and in other parts of the country, articles of prime necessity are growing dear and dearer, causing much suffering among the poor.
