WHY DEMOCRATS FAVOR POST.

Members of the Opposition Know His True Value.

VIEWS OF A MASON ON THE CASE.

Lincoln Citizens Generally Argue That Mr. Edgerton is Not the Man for Nebraska's Supreme Bench.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 28.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Talks with the prominent democrats of Lincoln reveal the fact that they are thoroughly disgusted with the assaults made by the World-Herald on the character of Judge Post. Said one:

"We have been regaled ad nauseum with this stuff and we have grown weary of it. The word of Judge Post and some of his fellow townsmen at Leon, Ia., ought surely to be worth as much as that of an ambitious newspaper reporter working under instructions from the editor of the World-Herald."

Many of the democrats declare that they will vote for Post because of "his superior qualifications for the supreme bench," while they would regard the election of Edgerton a "public calamity." Many have used these exact words in describing the situation. Most of the democrats approached make no bones of the fact that they intend to vote for Post but they are adverse to having the fact openly published, as they do not care to enter into any controversy over the matter with any persons in their own party.

Mr. N. S. Harwood, the well known banker and attorney, is a Post man. Mr. Harwood has reasons to feel aggrieved toward the republicans, as he was the leader in the nonpartisan move which was rejected by the republicans. Nevertheless, Mr. Harwood has decided not to sulk into his tent and spitefully support Edgerton, but instead will vote for Post.

Joseph Wurzburg, chairman of the democratic central committee of Lancaster county, has decided that a common police court lawyer is not the man for a position on the supreme bench and he will vote for Post.

John H. Ames, one of the best known lawyers in the city, besides having the reputation of being a wonderfully level headed business man, will vote for Post. He says: "I know Judge Post personally and I know that if he is elected he will make a good judge."

John McManigal, one of the shrewdest democratic politicians in this section of the state, is a Post man although he does not care to have his purposes proclaimed to the world. Rather than see an inferior man on the supreme bench he will cast his ballot for Post.

These men are the leaders in the democratic party of Lancaster county, and their influence is felt in politics throughout the state. In fact, nearly all the opinions expressed by the Lincoln democrats interviewed are but a reiteration of those of these moulders of democratic political thought.

A prominent Mason said today to THE BEE correspondent: "It is amusing to a Mason to see some of the statements made by the World-Herald in regard to this Post matter. Why, if the charges made by the World-Herald were true about Post leading the poor daughter of a Mason astray, she could have got a whole hat full of money from Masons to prosecute the fellow who would be guilty of such an outrage. Furthermore, let me tell you another thing, and as a Mason I am saying what I ought not, but am viewing the matter from the standpoint of a fair minded citizen, and it should be said in justification of Judge Post, that in case the charge of the seduction of a Mason's daughter is brought against a Mason it is sufficient to warrant his suspension until after the case is heard. The fact that Post was suspended therefore signifies nothing. Had he been found guilty he would have been expelled. Any Mason that dares to tell you the truth, will tell you the same thing."

CONFERENCE OF CHURCHES.

The Nebraska conference of Unitarian and other liberal churches will be held at Lincoln, November 4 to 6. Leading Unitarian ministers from Boston, Chicago, and the states contiguous to Nebraska will be in attendance, as well as delegates from the western churches. The position and purpose of the liberal movement will be shown and practical church and missionary methods discussed. Among other papers and addresses a recent convert from the Trinitarian Congregational church will tell why he became a Unitarian. Prof. F. M. Fling will outline "Evolution in Religion." Rabbi Rosenau will trace "The Evolution of Judaism," and Rev. E. H. Chapin will show "Why Unitarians and Universalists should be one working band." Meetings will be held in the Conservatory of Music hall, corner of L and Thirteenth streets.

DELEGATES WANTED.

The governor has been requested to appoint eight delegates to the National farmers congress which convenes at Sedalia, Mo., November 10, 1891. He will be glad to appoint any persons who will signify to him their willingness to accept an appointment. Delegates receive no compensation from the state.

The governor also has six delegates to appoint to the National mining congress to be held at Denver November 18, 19 and 20. Persons wishing appointments will receive such on the above terms.

THAT TRANSPORTATION REPORT.

Mr. Dilworth of the State Board of Transportation says that the World-Herald is wrong in its statement in regard to the State Board of Transportation sending out 20,000 copies of the board's decision on the "reduction of railroad rates," at the expense of the state. Mr. Dilworth says:

"The members of the board are doing this at their own expense. Neither printing nor postage has cost the state a cent. We realize that we have been abused for our decision and we propose to send a copy of our official opinion to every man, woman and child in this state, and neighboring states if wished, to show our reasons for the position we take on the matter of transportation."

HAMMOND GOES TO THE PEN.

Today Charles F. Hammond, the fiend convicted of criminally assaulting his own daughter, was taken into court to receive his punishment. Judge Field sentenced him to imprisonment for life at hard labor in the penitentiary. In passing the sentence Judge Field said:

"This is the hardest sentence I have been compelled to administer since I have been on the bench, and if I were not so sure of your guilt it would be passed with much greater reluctance than it now is."

The prisoner was removed either by the sentence or the above comment of the judge. At 2 p. m. he was taken to the penitentiary.

BOARD OF CHARITIES IN SESSION.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the Women's Associate Board of Charities at the capitol today, Mrs. G. W. Clark, vice president, presided. The report of Mrs. Cascaden, superintendent of the Milford Industrial Home, was very satisfactory. She reported thirty-two girls at the home and twenty-one babies. Several babies have been adopted into good families, and several of the girls have been provided with homes. Four vacancies on the board were filled, Mrs. J. E. Hill, Mrs. Angie Newman of Lincoln, Mrs. Langworthy of Seward and Mrs. Dawes of Crete being elected.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Mrs. Mina Ross asks for a divorce from her husband Enos on the grounds of non-support.

Julius Festner of Omaha formally delivered to the secretary of state $4,000 worth of "house journals" printed by him. He received a check in full for the job.

Governor Thayer will deliver one of his old time republican speeches at North Loup tomorrow evening.

A thief by the name of Waidley who is serving a term in the penitentiary complains because one of the guards, J. A. Albright, knocked him down with a cane. An investigation of the case shows that Waidley has been very ugly for some time and has been making things very disagreeable for Albright. The guard says that he was forced to use extreme measures and did so.

Insurance Rates Fixed.

A meeting of representatives of leading fire insurance firms and the Chicago commissioners was held yesterday morning at the rooms of the local board in the Sheeley block and an understanding reached which will bring about a settlement of the difficulty between warring agents on the question of rates.

A compact was drawn up and signed by all the leading firms in the city, agreeing to do business on a fair and paying basis.

As one leading insurance man remarked, "This settles the matter for the time being, but nobody knows how long it will last."

N. M. STABELL'S CAREER.

For Sixteen Years He Kept His Omaha Defalcation a Secret.

To a representative of THE BEE N. M. Stabell, the embezzling ex-deputy city treasurer who has just been brought back to Omaha for trial, yesterday gave a brief sketch of his life since leaving here in 1875.

During all these years he has been clerking and bookkeeping in stores in various cities and increasing his income somewhat by playing for dances and wherever he could get anything of the kind to do. Ever since he left here he has gone under the name of Alfred Wegener, and by that name alone is known to his family who are now residing in Leavenworth.

He went from here to Kansas City, where he remained for a couple of weeks, thence to Brunswick, Mo., where he stayed six months, then back to Kansas City and then to Leavenworth. He lived there several years and then moved to Atchison, where he remained eight years, returning to Leavenworth six weeks ago. He was married in Leavenworth and became the father of seven children, five of whom are now living, the eldest being eight years of age.

When questioned about the shortage in his accounts Stabell said that the charge was true, and that while he never kept an account of his peculations he thought they would reach about the amount charged, $680.58. He said he was working for $6 a week and took the money $20 or $25 at a time using it from day to day and not knowing just what became of it. He returned willingly with Mr. Johnston, and told his wife that he was coming to Omaha to look after a situation. He said Johnston told him that he was not anxious to punish him, but wanted him to come back here in order to vindicate him (Johnston). He had nothing whatever with which to pay back the money, and Johnston had told him that double the amount would be as nothing compared with the complete vindication that he desired. The latter had also agreed to see the county attorney and see if a complaint for petit larceny would not cover the case inasmuch as the money was stolen a little at a time.

The complaint against Stabell was changed from embezzlement to misdemeanor and the prisoner was arraigned in police court yesterday afternoon under the new charge. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one day in the county jail.

He Had a Fit.

A. Romhild, a resident of Cedar Falls, Ia., reported to the police yesterday afternoon that while enroute from Denver to Omaha with a car load of cattle he was seized with a fit when the train was near Waterloo, and while suffering terribly his money, $18 and a valise full of clothes, were stolen.

Chief Seavey heard the man's story and supplied him with money enough to see him started on his way to Cedar Falls.

ANOTHER OUTLET FOR OMAHA.

Proposed New Railroad Line Which the Lackawanna Road is Pushing.

THROUGH FREIGHT TO NEW YORK.

But Little Life in the People's Party in Illinois—Chicago's Gas Trust Absorbs a Rival—Garden City Gossip.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE BEE, CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 28.

Considerable interest is manifested in railroad circles over a scheme of the Lackawanna for a lake and rail freight route between the Missouri river at Omaha and New York via Green Bay, Ludington, Detroit and Buffalo. The Lackawanna people have long held an important interest in the Green Bay, Winona & St. Paul road, which crosses Wisconsin from Green Bay to Winona, and they also have a heavy interest in the Winona & Southwestern, which is under construction from Winona to Omaha. Between Green Bay and Kewanee, across the Sturgeon peninsular of Wisconsin, a road is being built which the Lackawanna people are behind. Freight is to be taken without unloading the cars or immense ferry boats at Kewanee and carried across Lake Michigan to Ludington, where it will be taken to Detroit on the Flint & Pere Marquette road, which has lately become intimately related to the Lackawanna. In the season of navigation the Lackawanna steamers will furnish a most important link between Detroit and Buffalo, but when desired the Canadian Pacific will be used between these points.

ALLIANCE AND PEOPLE'S PARTY.

The indications are that no effort will be made by the people's party leaders to secure a formal endorsement from the Illinois State Alliance and Industrial union, which began its annual meeting at Springfield this morning. The Illinois alliance is thoroughly under control of the new party and an endorsement in so many words would be superfluous. The alliance is not very powerful in this state, not nearly so much so, in fact, as the Farmers Mutual Benefit association, for it has only about 12,000 members. It is not probable, either, that any special effort will be made by the new party to capture the offices of the State alliance. All the offices, with a possible exception, are already held by people's party men and no shrewd management will be required to retain them in office. No matter who are elected to fill the offices it is pretty certain that the executive committee will be controlled, as it is at present, by people's party men and that the alliance will be used to a large extent to further the interests of the new party.

BASE BALL WAR.

It will probably be war between the City league and American association next year. The former does not relish the idea of the association coming in uninvited and seeking to attract patronage that the City league has had for several years. Consequently the proposition of peace and use of the same grounds made by the association people to the city league management have received no recognition from the latter. Manager Frank Rheims of the City league says that under no circumstances would the clubs play ball on the same grounds as the association clubs.

"We are opposed to the association," said Mr. Rheims, "and will fight it to the bitter end."

COMBINED WITH THE GAS TRUST.

The Economic Fuel Gas company is currently reported to be on the verge of bankruptcy. The stockholders are beginning to draw in their purse strings, it is claimed, and in corresponding ratio the Economic Fuel Gas company has been reducing expenses by laying off workmen and getting rid of the highest priced men. An understanding is said to have been reached between the Economic and the Gas trust which has caused the stocks of the former to rise several points.

LATEST RAILROAD RUMORS.

Word comes from New York that the Denver & Rio Grande, Rio Grande & Western, Colorado Midland and Union Pacific have given notice of withdrawal from the Western Traffic association. These lines propose to form a Colorado association. Their action is opposed by the Missouri Pacific, the Rock Island, Atchison and the Burlington. No one here authorized to speak could give any information on the subject. Several interested officials were seen, but they had not heard of the reported withdrawal until asked about it. Chairman Walker and the other commissioners were at St. Louis holding a session of the board and President Miller of the association is in New York. Notices of withdrawal would be sent to him, and if he has received any neither the commissioners nor officials of other roads here have been advised of that fact.

"There is no reason, that we know anything about here," said an attache of the association, "why those roads should withdraw. They have not, to my knowledge, and I should certainly know, complained of being dissatisfied."

COMING AFTER THE EMBEZZLER.

Roger O'Mara assistant chief of police of Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city on his way to Omaha to bring back Theodore Dorellinger who is wanted in Pittsburg for embezzlement. Mr. O'Mara will leave for Omaha this evening. He says he is informed that Dorellinger is penniless, and what he has done with all his illgotten money is a mystery.

ODDS AND ENDS.

It is announced that the Day Railway Construction company will shortly submit a proposition to connect the north and south side boulevard systems. It is the purpose of the company to construct an elevated electric railway from Chicago avenue on the north side to Jackson street on the south side along Rush street and Michigan avenue. The boulevard will probably be below the tracks.

THE FIRST INSTALLMENT

Of the immense purchase of the cream of the Fechheimer, Goodkind & Co. stock, which our buyer recently made in New York, has arrived and will be placed on sale today. We had expected to be able to place the entire purchase on sale before this time, but "the best laid schemes o' mice an' men gang aft a-gley." The transportation companies have been a trifle slow in getting these goods through, but on Friday or Saturday at the very latest, the entire stock will be on sale. This first installment which goes on sale today comprises something like

A THOUSAND SUITS

in sacks and cutaways, in the very finest of fine Cassimeres, Worsteds, Homespuns, Tweeds, &c., at prices ranging from $12 to $18.

Bear in mind these facts: This is not a bankrupt stock in any sense of the word. The concern that made these goods didn't fail, didn't settle with their creditors; didn't beat anybody. They simply had their own private reasons for discontinuing business together, so they sold out. These goods are not a "job lot" in any way, shape nor manner. They are all the very cream of one of the finest stocks shown in New York this season. These goods are not old shop worn goods; they were made for this season's trade by a concern whose reputation for making nothing but fine goods was national, and whose customers were the biggest concerns in the United States, ours among the number. We cordially invite every man who can appreciate really fine clothing to pay us a visit during the next few days. From a financial standpoint the visit will prove interesting, as it represents a saving of from eight to twelve dollars on a suit of clothes. Do you patronize the custom Tailors? You don't need to.
