

FOR THE GOOD OF NEBRASKA.

Alliance Theories Explored by Mr. Rosewater at Wilber.

HOW TO SUSTAIN THE STATE'S CREDIT.

Rebuke Those Who Oppose the Honest Dollar by an Intelligent Disposition of the Ballot Next Week.

WILBER, Neb., Oct. 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Hon. E. Rosewater arrived here on the 1 o'clock train and was escorted to the Wilber hotel by the delegation of leading citizens and the Wilber concert band.

At 3:30 Hon. J. H. Gramm, chairman of the republican county committee, introduced Mr. Rosewater to the largest audience that has ever assembled in the Saline county court house at a meeting held in the day time.

Citizens from all parts of the county were present in quite a number of numbers. Mr. Rosewater spoke for about an hour, devoting most of the time to an able address on the currency question, contrasting the times of twenty years ago when he first came to Nebraska, with the present.

He stood up for the honest dollar, and exposed the financial schemes of the independent party, illustrating his remarks with anecdotes from his own experience in a way that brought the soundness of his doctrine right home to the members of the audience, among which were quite a number of alliance men.

Mr. Rosewater's statement that he probably owed more money on a mortgage than any other man in Nebraska and that he expected to pay back the same kind of money that he borrowed and supposed that every honest man who owed anything on a mortgage expected to do the same, was a telling hit.

The speaker then exposed some of the rank hypocrisy of the alliance movement, and made the independent's eyes bulge out. Throughout he took an independent standpoint and concluded with an earnest appeal to an old citizen of Nebraska who is largely interested in the welfare of the state, to vote for their own, and the interest of the state, not to place their supreme bench a man whose close friends admit is incompetent for the position, but to vote independently of party prejudice.

Mr. Rosewater was most attentively listened to and frequently interrupted by applause and was loudly cheered and politely congratulated by the audience. He was afterwards accompanied by a number of the leading citizens to where he speaks to night. The attendance was much larger than had been expected.

Republicans of this county have not entered upon a campaign so united and so enthusiastically for years as they have this year. Everything is favorable for the election of the whole republican ticket next Tuesday in this county.

Good Results Will Follow. CURT, Neb., Oct. 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The largest audience ever assembled in the city greeted Mr. Rosewater at the opera house this evening and the people were not disappointed in their expectations. The speaker showed the fallacies of the independent movement in a masterly manner, holding them up to ridicule and censure in plain language. It made a great impression.

The financial question was thoroughly discussed and elicited the approval of every one present. Mr. Rosewater's views were followed by good results on Tuesday next and many of the wavering voters will vote for Post.

NO DISPOSITION TO RECEDE.

Chill Continues Her Argonaut Course Toward the United States.

THREATENING PHASE OF THE SITUATION.

Baltimore's Officers Prepare Their Men in Order to Guarantee Protection from the City's Mob.

Chill continues her Argonaut course toward the United States. The Chilean authorities at Washington, D. C., have shown no disposition to recede from the defiant attitude which they received in answer to the communication from the State department in Washington in regard to the crew of the United States cruiser Baltimore. Pedro Montt, the representative of the provisional government at Washington, sent a cable dispatch, which was received today, urging the junta to adopt a conciliatory policy and to move with great caution, but his advice has apparently had no effect.

Up to this date there has been no sign of an apology for the assault on the Baltimore's men. A reply has been made to Minister Egan's request for an immediate investigation of the case. "I am at a loss to account for the actions of some of the clear headed Chileans for showing such a nonconcordatory disposition in this matter except for the presumption that they are influenced by ignorant advisers or are desirous to give way to popular clamor. While the American and other foreign residents fully realize the gravity of the situation and are fearful of other and perhaps greater complications, the Chilean public appears to have no conception of it."

Several foreigners who witnessed the recent fight are ready to testify that Hontela's Mate Regan, the only man who was killed outright in the fight, was shot by a policeman. Local papers steadily refrain from commenting on the affair. The funeral of Trumbull, the man who died from effects of wounds received in the attack, was not attended by any of the Chilean officers except by an escort of police who accompanied the body to the cemetery. Captain Schley of the Baltimore has applied to the intendant of Valparaiso to protect the officers and men of his ship who were obliged to go ashore on necessary business. The intendant replied that he was unable to give any advice relative to the Baltimore's men coming ashore. He evades the question of protection altogether. Captain Schley does not intend to cease attending to his own duties, nor will he give up his arms and protect his own men.

Necessity for the Cabinet. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30.—[At the Navy department today there is no sign of disturbance over Chilean affairs. At the cabinet meeting this afternoon the cabinet voted to discuss the Chilean situation. It is surmised that Secretary Blaine submitted a communication to the cabinet in which he made to Minister Egan a communication that its details will be made public. There have been no further communications from Minister Egan or Commodore Schley.

Sensational Rumors. During the afternoon all kinds of sensational and in many cases, manifestly absurd rumors have been circulating in Washington from other cities in this country and Europe for confirmation or contradiction. In the latter category the most prominent is the report that the president's cabinet had decided to declare war on Chile; that orders had been issued to the navy to send all the vessels to sea immediately, and that orders had been issued to the army to send all the troops to the front. The report that the president's cabinet had decided to declare war on Chile is entirely unfounded. The report that the navy had decided to send all the vessels to sea is also unfounded. The report that the army had decided to send all the troops to the front is also unfounded.

Decision in an Alien Contract Labor Case. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 30.—[Judge Thayer gives his opinion in the United States circuit court today in the third case represented before him of the violations of the alien contract labor law. His decision is against the government. The case is that of the United States against William Pohlman and John H. Pohlman. Pohlman imported some horses from Scotland and hired two Scotchmen to assist in caring for them. It was alleged that the Pohlmans agreed to furnish them with employment as soon as they had been admitted to the country. The court held that the Pohlmans had violated the law and that the government was entitled to recover the cost of the horses and the expenses of the Scotchmen.

There are now sixty-two persons in the hospital suffering from various injuries. The number is in addition to a very much larger number of persons who are being treated at their own homes.
