NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Captain Hayes the Victim of a Peculiar Dicker in Real Estate.

HE TRADES FOR HYPOTHETICAL LAND.

Stephan A. Mulholland of Omaha

Under Arrest for Working the Swindle—Three Prominent

Dealers Implicated.

A suit was commenced last evening in Justice Swearingen's court, which promises to involve a number of Council Bluffs men in a criminal suit. Stephen A. Mulholland, who lives in Omaha, is the defendant, and he is charged with conspiracy to defraud

Captain W. A. Hayes of this city of property valued at $5,000. According to Hayes' story, Mulholland came to him several months ago and represented himself as the owner of some property in Kentucky, which he had sold $25 net per acre, and he wanted to sell or trade it for property in this state. After some dickering a bargain was struck, and Hayes agreed to take the Kentucky property off Mulholland's hands, giving him in exchange some Iowa land.

The papers were drawn up and recorded, and good things in all respects. Hayes, who was tickling himself to think what a good bargain he had made, when a change came over the spirit of his dream.

He happened to mention the matter to Henry Beecroft the other day, and was surprised to learn that Beecroft had entered into a bargain of the same kind, and had afterwards found that he had unloaded a lot of good property for some time past, and that he had been the victim of a swindle. He was so shocked that he immediately went to the office of the county clerk and had the papers relating to the deal with Mulholland cancelled.

He then proceeded to investigate the case of the other parties connected with the case and with Mulholland are three well known real estate men of this city, one of whom endorsed the notes of the deal, the other two being the third negotiated the deal. Hayes says that after he has finished Mulholland's case he will take the other two to court, and will order them arrested on a lile charge.

Men about town are coming to realize more fully that the place to buy their neckwear, collars and cuffs, socks, flannel and white shirts and all such things is here, and the way to buy them is the way we sell them—close down to the lowest water mark. Boston Store, Council Bluffs, Ia.

CONTENDING IRISH FACTIONS.

Cork the Scene of Another Very Lively

Political Ruction.

ANTI-PARNELLITES ARE CONFIDENT.

They Estimate a Safe Majority in Cork—O'Brien on Redmond and Harrington—Other European Information.

Cork, Nov. 5.—On the eve of the poll in Cork the canvassing is being carried on with redoubled energy on every side. According to an unbiased forecast, the result will be in favor of the anti-Parnellite candidate by a majority of 900 votes.

Patrick O'Brien, M. P., at a meeting today, declared that William O'Brien in a conversation with him when the O'Shea divorce proceedings were pending, promised to adhere to Mr. Parnell whatever the bishops did.

Mr. O'Brien in a speech this evening said that the Redmond and Harrington manifesto was a tissue of grotesque falsehoods. Just imagine, he said, four Irish members of parliament asking the Irish bishops to withdraw their letter and to resign the sixth commandment. The only existing copy of the Boul-tonne proceedings was in the hands of Mr.

Parnell. He said that he was a lie to say that he made a second copy and destroyed it.

It was equally a lie to say that they offered

Mr. Parnell the right to veto the home rule bill. The only proposal was a motion to Mr. Parnell, to give him a consultative voice with Mr. McCarthy on the details of the facture bill. Mr. O'Brien said that he had received a telegram from Mr. Gill, confirming his version of the affair.

Late tonight a crowd of Parnellites attended a meeting of the Parnellites at the Hotel de Ville, where they were engaged in parading in Whitford street and singing

"God Save Ireland." The Parnellites were in high spirits, and they turned and threw their missiles upon the other. The police finally dispersed them. Many persons were cut.

Cork, Nov. 5.—There was another serious election fight at midnight last night between the Parnellites and anti-Parnellites. Among

RESULTS OF THE RASH CONDUCT OF A Party of Tourists in Japan.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 5.—The steamer Sussex, just arrived from Japan brings word that five English naval officers on leave, met with Americans, all brothers, named Castleton, from Philadelphia, and together formed a plan to climb to the summit of Fuji Yami, the sacred mountain of Japan, taking with them rockets and a few fireworks which they intended to explode when they reached the summit. They were accompanied by a guide and a porter. They started on their journey from a group of a group of astounded natives of the village of Katasho on the mountain.

The guides at the end of two days signified their intention to commit
