NEEDED LEGISLATION.

Baking Powder Bill Passed by the Minnesota Senate.

The recent newspaper discussion of the dangerous qualities of ammonia comes from the alarming use of this substance in baking powder.

Not one woman in ten thousand would use an ammonia baking powder if she knew it. Such powders not only undermine the health, but ammonia imparts a sallow and blotched complexion.

Following is the bill recently passed by the Minnesota senate, for the protection of people:

A BILL FOR AN ACT TO REGULATE THE TRAFFIC IN BAKING POWDER.

Section 1.—Any person who shall knowingly sell or procure the sale, or offer for sale of any package or can of Baking Powder, containing any ammonia in any form, legibly and durably branded, stamped or marked in a conspicuous place with the words in the English language, "This Baking Powder contains Ammonia," in letters of great size, or any letters equivalent thereto in length, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine of less than $30 nor more than $50; shall be confined in the county jail not less than ten nor more than twenty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Section 2.—The sale or offer for sale of the substance mentioned in the foregoing section in packages not legibly and durably branded or labeled as therein required, shall be prima facie evidence of knowledge of the character of the substance, on the part of the person so selling or offering for sale and his employer.

Section 3.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Note.—An incident occurred in the house when the senate bill came up for passage, in reference to an amendment proposed by Mr. Dimont.

Section 4.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 5.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 6.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 7.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 8.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 9.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 10.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 11.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 12.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 13.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 14.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 15.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

Section 16.—This act shall be in force on and after its passage.

There was such a place as the South Omaha cattle market, and consequently Kansas City and Chicago received all the cattle from our section of country.

Mr. W. E. Schinner, who has been representing the South Omaha stock yards in New Mexico and Colorado, has returned after a successful tour, the range season being about over.

Seven carloads of cattle were marketed from Van Tassel, Wyo., two of them by B. F. Johnson, four by J. G. Morris and one by C. C. Jansen.

B. Caslok of Elk Point, S. D., brought in five cars of cattle.

J. D. Wilson of Heron Lake, Minn., marketed hogs and cattle.

D. Baker, D. H. and S. H. Donnell, C. H. Crook and M. J. Merriman of Colorado Springs, Colo., are on the market with cattle.

Valuable Business Property Destroyed by Fire.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 18.—St. Paul last night suffered from one of the most disastrous fires in its history, the buildings damaged being those of Griggs, Cooper & Co., wholesale grocers, and Farwell, Ozenum, Kirk & Co., wholesale hardware.

The building occupied by the two firms is a brick and stone structure, five stories in height and has a frontage on Third street of 300 feet and on Broadway of 300 feet.

The flames first made their appearance at 12:44 o'clock in the fourth floor of Griggs, Cooper & Co.'s store.

Within less than five minutes the fire department was on hand in force, but a general alarm had to be turned in soon afterward.

Different Factions Parting in Every Direction—A Loss of Membership and Revenue—Business Agents and Press Association Meet.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 18.—Thus far the future prospects of the alliance have not been greatly improved by the Indianapolis meeting. In fact quite the contrary seems to be the case.

The alliance and the Farmers Mutual Benefit association, as no nearer amalgamation, the third party movement has brought on a bitter factional fight in each, and there is an absolute certainty of a split on the treasury question.

But these are not the only stumbling blocks in the way of the alliance. The Macune and anti-Macune factions are making serious personal charges against each other and the chances of both orders are very low.

This last feature has resulted in a great deal of dissatisfaction and contention already. In the alliance the treasury is so low that it will be impossible to defray the expenses of all the delegates, so Mr. Macune introduced a resolution cutting down the representation two-fifths and it was adopted.

The Farmers Mutual Benefit association it is found that many states are delinquent, Ohio among the number. Today a resolution was passed not to admit the Ohio delegates until the delinquency was made good.

The Ohio delegates would not pay up, and after a long wrangle, the operation of the resolution was suspended in their case.

Various Cities Which Are Holding Indulgences to the Republicans.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 18.—Great interest centers in the approaching meeting of the national republican committee, when the date and place of holding the national convention will be decided.

The following cities are each striving for the convention: New York, Washington, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Omaha and San Francisco.

Nearly all of them have sent delegations or will send them at once. Each state will be represented in which to present its claims.

Acting Chairman Clarkson goes from New York to Washington Friday night.

General A. H. Nelton, Senator Washburne will be the spokesman of the delegation.

St. Paul has joined with Minneapolis to secure the post. Nearly 300 Minnesotans comprise the Twin city delegation which leaves Minneapolis this evening.

The delegation comprises nearly all of the republican leaders of the state, including Governor Merriam, Senators Davis and Washburne, National Committeemen Robert C. Evans, Congressman Johnson of North Dakota, Secretary Johnson of the United States senate and General A. H. Nelton.

San Francisco has raised a special fund of $50,000, with which to pay railroad fare and defray the extra expenses of the delegates by reason of its location being so far away.

The Omaha delegation passed through this city today. It included Senator Henderson, Senator Paddock, John M. Thurston, E. Rosewater and Governor T. J. Major.

The Omaha delegation goes to Washington backed by a guarantee of $50,000, signed by a score of the business men of Omaha.

The delegation will guarantee to defray the legitimate expenses of the national republican convention, no matter what the sum may be.

Making

It warm for the boys. There are several ways in which this can be successfully accomplished, but not always with the same degree of satisfaction to the boy.

It

Is always "somebody else's boy" that needs that sort of warming though. Yours never do. They're too good. They want the kind of warming where you bring them down to our store and fit them out with good, warm clothes.

Warm

Overcoats, we direct your attention to this week; another big lot. If your boy is anywhere from five to twelve years old and a little hard on his clothes, the Overcoat we're selling for two seventy-five is a good one for him.

For

Four dollars and a half we will sell you a boucle plaid Scotch cheviot in a variety of dark colors, that a day's shopping and seven dollars in money won't better. They're with detachable cape, ages five to twelve.

The

Overcoat for big boys, ages up to eighteen, that five dollars and a half buys of us this week, is a "beaut." It's made of heavy, all wool cassimere, either brown or blue, has velvet collar, fine lining and canton flannel pockets.

Boys

Who need something particularly "hot" will find it in our heavy chinchilla ulster. They're cut long, have big, wide collars, heavy cassimere lining, and have more solid comfort to the square inch than any other coat in our house.

Ours is the store where your boy can buy as cheaply as you.
