E. Hoyle, who spent Monday night in the city jail as a lodger, was arrested by Officer Wyatt yesterday morning with a lot of cloth-ing in his possession, which he had evidently stolen. He was charged with vagrancy, and now the police are looking for an owner for the clothes. After holding their turkeys back from the markets until the last minute, in the hope of raising prices, the farmers began to bring them in yesterday, and a steady stream rolled in all day long. The turkey trust is broken, and the prices are hardly as high as they were a year ago. A telegram was received at the Burtington office yesterday stating that the special car "Fernwood" left Chicago last evening with a party of sixteen prominent eastern capital-lists on board enroute for Santa Barbara, Cal., and other western points. It will pass through the Bluffs this morning. The annual meeting of the Bereau Baptist Ladies Aid society will be held Friday after-noon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. T. F. Thickstun, 721 Willow avenue. Full reports will be given, and the officers will be elected for the coming year. All ladies who are interested in the work of the society are invited to be present.

James Lawier was brought up in police court yesterday morning charged with drunkenness. He told a story of how he had come in from Missouri Valley, where he lived, and had been induced to take a hand in a festive game of poker. At the end of the game he found himself poorer by $40, but richer by a large amount of brand new experience, besides a large and healthy jag. He was fined $5 and costs.

A judgment of $7,020 is demanded against John Bereshiem, administrator of the estate, all the heirs being made co-defendants.

Amended articles of incorporation have been filed with the county recorder by the Silver Star Mining company of Montana. The new articles provide for a capital stock of $200,000, which may be raised to $5,000,000. The board of directors is given power to levy assessments on the shares, of not to exceed 2 cents on the share, and not oftener than one assessment in three months. Peter Oleson, formerly an employe of John Hammer, had an altercation with Mr. Hammer near the Ogden house night before last, in which Hammer came out second best.

After wiping up Broadway with him in pretty good shape Oleson let him go. Oleson was arrested yesterday on an information filed in Justice Hammer's court charging him with assault and battery. He was fined $5 and costs. Some weeks ago the report was circulated that John Dunn would erect a four-story building on his lot next to the Revere house, on condition that the prohibitory law should be repealed. Mr. Dunn was referred to as authority for the statement, and, as he never repudiated it, it was made use of vigorously during the campaign as a democratic argu-ment. Yesterday work was commenced on the new building, but Mr. Dunn now states

The exhibit will consist of examples of the work done by the pupils, together with engravings of the buildings of the city, and whatever other features the superintendent may decide upon. The exhibit when completed will be sent to Des Moines, where it will be arranged by the committee having it is charge, and placed on exhibition along with those of the other schools throughout the stay. After the association meeting is over the exhibit will be packed away for a year, when it will be brought out again and sent to Chicago, to be placed on exhibition sent to Chicago, to be placed on exhibition at the World's Columbian exposition. It is likely that the necessary action will be taken by the board some time next week to authorize Prof. Sawyer to go on with the work. There are still four weeks before the opening of the association, and it is thought that in that time a creditable showing can be

SOCIAL LIFE ON CUT-OFF. How the Denizens of the Island

Entertain Each Other. Peter Bonde, a resident of Cut-Off island, gave a dance a few nights ago, to which many of the elite of the island were invited, Mike McCormick, who aid not belong to the elite, was not invited, but he decided to come any way. At the door he was told that he was not wanted, but he insisted on coming in. When he found that Bonde meant business, he assaulted him, and yesterday morning whon Bonde appeared at the office of the city clerk to get a warrant for the arrest of his come guest, both eyes were black and his features were otherwise sadly disarranged as the result of his encounter with Mr. Mc-Cormics's fists. He filed an information charging McCormick with assault and bat-tery, and Constable Nicholson went to Cut-off to serve the warrant. When he had been secured and was on his way back home, McCormick decided not to come any further. He said he was in Omaha, and he defied the Council Bluffs officer to hold him any longer. #### AFTER THE STORM HAD PASSED

Though but of Short Duration, it Did Lo s of Damage.

REPORTS FROM CITIES IN ITS TRACK.

Monuments of Destruction to Its Tremendous Power at Every Place It Touched-A Resume of Its Doings.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 24.-An old time rain storm struck Buffalo yesterday afternoon. The forerunner of the lively gale and detuge came when the people saw big, black funnel shaped clouds formed over the lake about noon. They increased gradually until they enveloped the whole city. When the big spattering drops began falling pedes-trians hustled for places of shelter and the storm burst with all its fury. First the rain came down gently, then a burricane seemed to strike the town like a cannon ball, blowing the rain into clouds of folst. There was a veritable panic on the streets. Women screamed for help. They could not move against the storm, it was so strong. Horse cars were compelled to stand still because the horses could not face the terrific wind.

RIGHMOND, Va., Nov. 24.—The end of the storm struck this city, and while little damage has been done in this immediate vicinity, reports from various sections of the state came down gently, then a hurricane seemed reports from various sections of the state show that the storm was general and that many houses were unroofed, and chimneys, trees and fences blown down. Along the line of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad as far away and a part of the Clifton Forge foun-KOANOKE, Va., Nov. 24.—A terrific wind and rain storm passed over this city. A num-ber of houses were unroofed. Glass in many houses and hotels were broken. In Salem, a number of houses were unroofed and other damage done. The injury done by the storm

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 24.—During the violent windstorm here falling limbs of trees struck two boys, Charley Stone and John Briggs, dangerously wounding them.

Hion Point, N. C., Nov. 24.—A severe wind and rain storm occurred here, blowing down trees winded and dains much lown trees, unroofing houses and doing much other damage. York, Pa., Nov. 24.—At Hanover, in this county, the storm was terrible. Much prop-erty is damaged. Howard Carbaugh was killed by a falling building and seven persons injured. At Carlisle, several school buildings were blown in but fortunately only two pupils were severely injured.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—The wind storm and cloudburst yesterday only lasted ten minutes, but left a track of awful destruction. Georgo White, a fashionable ladies' tailor, was crushed to death and one of his workmen also killed, besides six girls in the establishment being dangerously injured. Ida White, the dead man's daughter, had a leg broken. Nine from workers on the Metzerott building had a narrow escape and colored bodcarrier who was working with them is missing and is supposed to be buried under the debris. About two tons of stone coping was blown from the top of the wnite house onto the porch of the east side, crushing it in, and the flagstag on top of the white house was snapped off. A window in the east room was also blown in. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 24.—The storm yesterday afternoon was a terror while it lasted. In the harbor there was a caldron of boiling vater for a few minutes and every vesse water for a few minutes and every vessel felt the gale to a greater or less extent. At anchor off Henderson's wharf was the large New Haven schooner, W. W. Converse, which dragged her anchor and cut a swath through the oyster fleet, taking with her one and then another of them, until, when she brought up, she had several under her port quarter in a knot. In her flight the Converse of the property of the converse of the formatter of the property of the converse of the property of the proper verse carried away the foremast and broke the main boom of the schooner Holland Point. The tug Easby got the Converse out of her tangle and the smaller vessels were extricated. Several of the oyster vessels fted into wharves on the Canton side of the harbor. On the west and south sides the effect was not so great. The ship James Haines, for San Francisco, remained at an-chor. York, Carlisle and other points in Pennsylvania suffered severely.

Chester, Pa., Nov. 24.—The heavy blow

twenty-five feet of water. Her crew was HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 24.-Yesterday's thunder storm biew with fearful velocity. Two spans of the Clark's ferry bridge over the Susquehanna river were blown away. Arthur Crook, seventeen years old, was blown from the trestle at the Lochiel Iron works and had both wrists dislocated, pesides sustaining other injuries. About eighty feet of the roof of the state lunatio hospital was carried away and a horse and buggy were blown off the approach to the Paxton street overhead bridge. Many houses were unroofed. WILKESBARRE, Pa. Nov. 24.—The heaviest rain and wind storm of the year prevailed throughout the Wyoming valley yesterday afternoon and did very much damage. The rain came down in sheets, and at times it seemed as though another cyclone was sweeping through between the mountains that en LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 24.—A violent hurricane passed over this county yesterday. At Monterey the German Baptist church, a large brick building, was demolished. The large tobacco barns of Jacob Burkhard and Isaac Lehman, in the same vicinity, were blown down and the tobacco ruined. Henry Bunl's barn in upper Leacock was also moved from its foundation and badly damaged. The storm lasted but a few minutes. LOCKHAVEN, Pa., Nov. 2s.—During a heavy wind and rain storm here yesterday afternoon a large tobacco shed on the farm of R. W. McCormick was blown down. The shed contained the crop grown on seven acres of land. The storm was accompanied by thun-der and lightning.

Physical Pa., Nov. 24.—The gale is over and the weather is growing cold. Communication by telegraph was restored in all directions and business is once more assuming its normal condition. The damage done by the storm in western Pennsylvania, castera

Ohio and West Virginia will reach several hundred thousand dollars. ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 24.—The storm here burst many sewers, blew in the gable of Emerald hall, uproofed William Shellenberger's storage building an i dismantled the stock and destroyed the brick side walls the city railway company's electric plant. The engineer, M. Hiteman, was seriously injured by falling debris. The cars will not be run for several days.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Nov. 24.—The storm yesterday brought in a beavy tide, covering the meadows at high water along the shore and far out over the shoals immense breakers tambled, but no damage is reported beyond the wrenching away of a portion of the lower deck of the ocean pier. At Cape May Point some portions of the bluff beyond Cape avenue were still further encroached upon.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 24.—The storm here lasted until 8 o'clock, with hard rain showers. No damage was done to the beach the tide being higher, but not reaching dangerous proportions.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 24.—At midnight the wind on Lake Champlain was blowing a gale. There is little boating at this season of the year, and there was probably no damage in that direction. In this city signs were flying about, but no further damage is known at present. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 24.—Weather experts here yesterday were prophesying a big blow before night, as the city seemed, according to all indications, to be at about the center of a cyclone storm. The barometer dropped half an inch in three hours, and at 3 o'clock stood at 28.49. But the wind never attained a greater velocity than twenty-four miles an hour, which speed was reached at 2 o'clock. The storm—cavorted all about the city in a very lively manner.

New York, Nov. 24.—The tail of the cyclone reached this city about 3 o'clock yesterday. Rushing up the bay and harbor from the southeast at the rate of lifty miles an hour it lashed the water into foam and waves lifteen feet high, dashed around the ferry boats and over the decks while the passengers huddled together the passengers huddled together in fright in the cabins, Outside Saudy Hook the cyclone paid its attention to the in-coming vessels. Nearly all had to wait until the storm spent itself. The cyclone played havoc with the telegraph wires. The storm was the most severe this section and the entire westerly line south experienced this year. The winds are still high and threaten to be stronger, with the temperature at to be stronger, with the temperature at freezing point.

York, Pa., Nov. 24.—It appears to have been a tornado in Hanover county. A number of private properties were damaged, and the Kittery Wagon works were completely demolished, entailing a loss of $25,000. The engineer noticed the wall creaking at several places, but before he cracking at several places, but before he could give the alarm the building was torn apart by the storm. Howard Carbaugh and William Tausinger, employes, were buried in the wreek, and were rescued with difficulty Carbaugh's injuries were fatal, and he die shortly afterwards. Others injured are: Joseph Padder, Jacob Rusher, William Weist, Joseph Ronant, David and Robert Althoff and Adam Rebling. The Kittery Wagon works were removed from New York city to Hanover last summer, and were built on an extensive scale.

Belligong, Pa., Nov. 24.—A church at Hecla, ten miles from this place, was blown down on a number of children who had sought refuge from the storm. John Barnes and Elias Dinkel were fatally injured and a number of others seriously burt. Constipation poisons the blood; DaWitt's Little Early Risers cure constipation. The cause removed, the disease is gone.

Cumberland's Case Postponed.

Judge Smith returned yesterday morning from Harlan, where he went Monday evening to hear the evidence in the case of J. K. Cumberland, charged with murder in the first degree. After holding a consultation with the three other judges of the district bench it was decided to postpone the hearing of the evidence until some time in the future. The reason for this action could not be learned and the time for the trial has not yet been set. It is said that the judgef are rather inclined to favor life imprisonment as a pun-
