THE OMAHA DAILY BEE, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1891-SIXTEEN PAGES.

-=GREAT

Commencing TOMORROW at 1520 Farnam St., Cor. 16th

All Kinds of

From the Stock of---OMAHA RUBBER CO.---1520 Farnam

Goods only Slightly Damaged, Nearly all in PERFECT CONDITION, Good as New.

Come Early so as to Get First Choice.

KNOWN.

Jackets, Oiled Slickers, Gloves, Toys, Dolls, Balls, Syr-inges, Combs, Brushes, Hot Water Bottles, Weather

GREATEST SLAUGHTER OF PRICES EVER

PLEASURES OF THANKSGIVING.

fcciety's Crowning Week of Brightness and Beauty.

EOMETHING ABOUT WELL KNOWN PEOPLE.

Brilliant Receptions, Luncheons, Balls and High Teas Give Interest to a Gay and Fashionable World.

With two big afternoon receptions, teas a Juncheon or two several and a swell ball in the evening, Wednesday was a red letter day in the social life of the metropolis. The fashionable events gave abundant opportunity to the fair sex to air their prettiest gowns, and the receptions brought out the handsome turnouts of the haut monde in large numbers, crowding the boulevards and making the Sherman avenue drive look like a small section of Rot-

It point of largeness, however, the event of the week and one of the pleasantest occa-sions of the senson was the reception given by Mrs. Adolph Meyer at her beautiful rosidence in Kountze place, from 3 until 6 Wednesday.

Weinesday. It was really in the nature of a house warming, for it was the first large affair given by Mrs. Meyer since her occupancy of the new home on Wirt street. Immediately after her re-moval to the new establishment the death of her more than the death of moval to the new establishment the death of her mother closed the house to all social en-tertainments, and for a year and a half the hostess of Wednesday has held aloof from the gay world. But on the day before Thanksgiving the quietness of the residence was broken and Mrs. Meyer gave what is re-garded as one of the most beautiful recep-tions ever given in Omaha. Everything was upon a lawish scale and throughout the art upon a lavish scale, and throughout the art of the decorator, the upholsterer, the florist, vied with the architect, while over all hung the rare grace of the hostess in making all her friends feel en rapport with the house and the surroundings. The drawing room on the west is a beautiful apartment, particularly large and roomy and lighted by a number of immense win-dows. It approaches a salon more than a drawing room and is a study in lover white and gold. Midway of the apartment four columns have been placed, two on either side, Romanesque in treatment, which with the Louis Quinze furnishings gives the room a past centry flavor that is very enjoy-able. In fact one can easily imagine that the days of the Pompadour are repeating them-selves and the swish of her garmonts still disturbs the air while the scent of her favorite perfume penetrates all space with languor-Ous sensation. There is a bijou apartment to the right of the large hallway which is restful to a de-gree. It is the antique room of the house, the chandelier, the side brackets being the chandener, the side brackets being of iron, the stately mantel conforming to the same general style, while a curiously fashioned iron stove, with porcelain doors gives a touch of color to the place. The hangings are mediaval in effect while hammered heads of famous warriors and literatures give an set atmosphere to the and literateurs give an art atmosphere to the apartment that is very restful.

The dining room, however, is undoubtedly the most harmonious room in the house, as it is the most beautiful. The woodwork is of antique oak and everything is thoroughly in keeping. Handsome pictures treating of the hunt, panels of game and fish pieces grace the walls and make the place worthy of the most ardent devotee of Epicurus. The room was exquisitely decorated on this oc-casion, pink being the predominating color. Wide pink ribbons extended from the chan-Wide pink ribbons extended from the chan-liers to the corners of the table, while every-where fairy tapers burned, shaded in pink surah. The refreshments, too, were pink in color, the ices being moulded in the shape of pink candles, and so on through the whole list of good things which were served. Above stairs the rooms were just as cheery as those below, the good taste of the mis-tic below, the good taste of the mis-

as those below, the good taste of the mis-erape clothouse showing itself everywhere, crances, bom ht be said of the excellent thoestries and the night per in the salon, of the statuary, the bronzes and the exquisite fur-nishings, but it is of the reception itself that

W. Nash, Herman Cohen, J. B. Klitchen, John A. Wakefield, S. Kau, Charles Kirsch-braun, Charles Stonehill, John P. Williams, H. Rehfeld, J. Baumao, H. C. Jon-nison, D. B. Hunt, Louis Kirschbraun, Margaret Barkalow, William Krug, Benja-min Gallagher, E. H. Sherwood, E. V. Lewis, Emma S. Thompson, Octa Patrick, Churchill Parker, A. A. Parker, Charles Deuel, H. T. Laly, George H. Boggs, M. G. Cole, Joseph R. Lehmer, George B. Lake, Adams S. Stiger, John R. Brooke, H. Rau, Goldsmith, Al Jacobson, J. B. Hawley, J. M. Gannett, Loo-man, D. C. Patterson, J. Stonehill, H. W. Hyde, Perrine, Richenberg, George N. Hicks, J. Fawcott, M. T. Patrick, Bridsall McAllister, George B. Tzschuck, Frank J. Ramge, W. V. Morse, William Redick, Frank Johnson, P. Her, Alfred Millard, Collins, J. J. Gibson, J. Redick, Frank Johnson, P. Her, Alfred Millard, Collins, J. J. Gibson, A. Redick, Frank Johnson, P. Her, Alfred Millard, Collins, J. J. Gibson, Chris Hartman, E. Sloman, Schlesinger, George C. Cowin, C. B. Rastin, W. A. L. Gibbon, Chris Hartman, E. Sloman, Schlesinger, George C, S. Fisher, I. Oberfelder, Ike New, R. C. Cushing, L. D. Fowler, J. E. House, M. W. Miner, A. D. Morse, M. Kay, Masch, Frank Colpetzer, George Hyn, R. D. Silverstein, Louis Raapke, F. W. Wessels, L. M. Bennett, J. J. Brown, Miss Brown, O. M. Carter, B. Cohn, William A. Paxton, R. E. Gaylord, Charles F. Weller, W. Morse, George Patterson, R. R. Grotte, Benjamin McAllister, E. D. Van Misses Flora Adler, Barker, Hainsworth, Misses Flora Adler, Barker, Mattie Polack, Misses Flora Adler, Barker, Mattie Polack, Misses Flora A

The Vuentefering Recital. Tuesday evening Mde. Muentefering and a number of her pupils gave a thoroughly artistic piano recitai at "Loravilla," the pretty home of Mayor and Mrs. Cushing, on Twen-ty-fifth avenue. The house is nicely adapted for entertainments such as that of Tuesday evening; the parlors are long and afford ample opportunity for the comfortable seating of guests. In addition the rooms were prettily decorated with autumn flowers, hothouse plants, paims and many stands of chrysanthemums. The chandeliors were heavy with smilax, and throughout a dis-criminating taste was shown which greatly pleased those present.

THE pleased those present. Mde. Muentefering, who occupies a high po-sition in the local musical world as a thorough teacher of the plauoforte, has every reason to feel proud of the success her recital achieved. While nervousness on the part of some of the plavers was quite apparent, while now and then wrong notes were struck and runs slurred, taken ail in all it was so excellent that Mde. Muentefering deserves to be congratulated upon the very happy out-come of her first public recital of the season. Several very promising pinalistes were in-Several very promising pinaistes were in-troduced, Miss Clara Hawley, Miss Lora Cushing, Miss McShane, Mrs. Buchanan, Miss Broderick and Miss Grace Detweiler being particularly worthy of more than a mere men-Arctics, Rubbers, Boots, Mackintoshes, Coats, Leather particularly worthy of more than a mere men-tion in passing. Miss Clara Hawley's playing of the "Andante and Rondo Capriccioso" of Men-delssohn was a thoughtful interpretation of a great master's celebrated composition. The tempo was well taken, and a nice discrimin-ation shown in the use of the pedal. It showed careful, conscientious study and ranked among the pleasurable performances ranked among the pleasurable performances of the evening.

Miss McShane was heard to excellent advantage in the "Andante and variations op, 46" by Schuman a duo for two pianes, Mde. Muentefering playing the first instrument. The young lady excells in attack, her phras-ing, too, being a subject of favorable com ment. Miss Lora Cushing with Mrs. Muentefer-ing played a pretty arrangement of "Martha"

Plotow's effective dramatic story in a praiseworthy manner. She is an enthusiastic pupil, and reflects the art of her teacher more, possibly, than any of her associates on the program.

on the program. Mrs. J. R. Buchanan has a crisp, effective touch, and her playing of "Rendo opus 73" by Chopin, with Mrs. Muentefering at the second piano, was a treat to listen to. Miss Detweiler is a promising pupil, Mabel much so that she gives promise of being neard from later in the musical world. Miss Lucy Broderick is also a painstaking pupil, whose playing Tuesday evening was thor-oughly up to the excellent standard set by

New York. At each cover a bunch of the same hardy growers were placed, tied with vellow ribbons.

ingly pretty and the guests enjoyed every moment of the time. moment of the time. There were present Miss Sinclair, Miss Chandler, Miss Emily Wakeley, Miss Ken-nedy, Miss Hall, Miss Hamilton, Miss Hoag-land, Mrs. Will Poppleton, Miss Skinner, Miss Doane, Miss Laura Hoagland, Miss Mabel Balcomba Miss Document Miss

There were eight courses and served with excellent judgment. The affair was exceed-

Strips, Hose, Etc., Etc.

diamonds.

for their homes. Those present were: Misses Munnie Millen, May Reven, Hattie Derby, Kate Clark, Elnora Shearer, Jennie Johnson, Helene Chesbro, Jessie Tyrany, Maggio Casey, Ella Barns, Ina Kennedy, Nellie Reven, Myrtle Chesbro, Pearl Johnson, Hattie Ches-hen Masare Hon, Poetraliald Kenr Butter up a fine drill in a few weeks. Lieutenant Charles H. Wilson officiated as known on the occasion above mentioned.

color to the scene. The house is large program of chamber music in the hallway

the library, the guests having previously ing as toast mistress. Her references to the fair debutante were gracious and well considered. Miss Adler welcomed the guests in a few pleasant words of welcome, and the bealth of Mr. and Mrs. Adler was drunk in sparkling champagne. Speeches were made by Mr. C. S. Elgutter, Dr. Rosenau and Mr. Julius Meyer. After supper the guests re-

copf, Minnie Lobman, Olga Tevelis, Hattic

Omahaothaards.

past year's work.

commence.

erman, Bottenstein, Edr Wessel, Alex sel, Martin Oberfelder, Simon I umpire in the foot ball game Thanksgiving day between the universities of Nebraska bro, Messrs. Honn, Potterfield, Kerr, Butler, Henderson, Maruell, Evans, Miller, Kelpia. and Iowa. Launching a Debutante.

The committee in charge of the promenade concerts requests that members report re-turns for tickets at their earliest convenience One of the most delightful social events of ing day. Another Victim. was tendered Mr. Charles Mack at his resi-

Last Saturday evening a pleasant surprise

Mrs. St. Claire and Miss St. Claire, who have been the guests of Mrs. Metcalf, left for their home in Racine, Tuesday. dence, 1617 South Fenth street. Mr. Mack Mrs. W. F. Allen and Mrs. Bishop will ra-ceive Wednesdays in December at Mrs. Alas usual returned home at an early hour, and corporal. The men are doing nicely in this in the ordinary during the evening, which party at cards at the Merriam Thanksgiving fittingly inaugurated the joys of Thanksgiv- evening.

on Tuesday.

go with her.

Mrs. J. H. Hertsche of Hamburg, Ia., has been the guest the past week of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Metcalf.

Miss Mabel Cardwell of Norwich, Conn., is

Miss Parker of Grand Rapids, Mich., who has been the guest of Miss Mary Poppleton for the past month, will leave for her home

The Misses Wadleigh of Clinton, Ia., who

Miss Bertha Bayliss left Friday for New York where she will take a course in vocal music under one of the able teachers of Gotham. The best wishes of a host of friends

Miss Carrie Stevens of Pasadena, Cal.,

who is visiting filled in Council Buffs, will be the guest of Mrs. J. J. Brown Saturday and Sunday, returning to her California home early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Morse arrived in Omaha last week, and are stopping at the Merriam. They have been sojourning for the past two or three years in the Puget Sound country, and the Pacific coast.

Mrs. J. H. Millard in honor of Mrs. Hugus have been favorites in the social life of Omaha for several years, are expected at the Hoagland residence after the holidays.

and will

a description is required.

Mrs. Meyer was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Udo Brachvogel, Mrs. Boggs, Mrs. Cushine, Mrs. John P. Williams, Mrs. Hellman and Mrs. Rehfeld. Mrs. Meyer, who is alwas a well dressed woman, wore a magnifi cent costume of white brocaded satin, duchesse lace front, trimmed with beaded passementerie, decollete and entraine, her

Mrs Udo Brachvogel, a beautiful woman with a strikingly classical face, wore a gown of black silk embroidered in jet, with court traio, American beauty roses adding greatly to the handsome costume

Mrs. Boggs appeared in a particularly lovely gown of white corded slik trimmed with heavy fringe, edged with lace, the neck being cut square, entraine, and magnificent diamonds

Mrs. Cushing wore an attractive toilette of lemon brocade, trimmed heavily in fringe, entraine Mrs. Williams graced a beautiful gown heavy black faille, made in the style of La Pompadour, and she carried yellow chrysan themums Mrs. Hellman wore black silk with beaded jet front, V-shaped back and front, yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Rehfeld, black silk trimmed with gold passementerie. Assisting in the dinning room and throughout the other apartments were: Misses Mattie and Dollie Polack, Bianche Hellman, Addie and Tillie Newman and Clara Schlesin

ger. Miss Mattie Polack wore a pretty amathyst crepe trimmed with velvet, decollete and en

Miss Dollie Polack, yellow mousselline de sole, which became her beauty well, the effeet being heightened by yellow gloves and slippers

Miss Hellman, a pretty and accomplished yothg woman, were a lavender mousselline de sole, embroidered in pearls, decoliete. Miss Addie Newman, red faille, simply made. Miss Tillie Newman, like her sister, word red, the material being crepe and the gown was just as simply made.

Miss Sclesinger, who is the principal of the Central school, wore a mandarin yellow crepe covered with black chiffon. Throughout the afternoon the Mandelin assisted by several members of the Musical Union orchestra discoursed sweet music from their flour empowered station at the foot of the hall stairs.

The following were the lavited guests : Mesdames Casper E. Yosi, A. P. Wood, J. H. Loomis, J. L. Brandeis, Aaron Cahn, Mar-tin Cahn, Aloert Cahn, J. P. Bay, M. L. Roe-der, Thomas J. Rogers, Allou T. Rector, E. Rosewater, Ben B. Wood, Ernest Riall, F. A. Brogan, A. Mandleberg, Adler, Frank D. Muir, Charles A. Harvey, Guy C. Barton, Charles A. Coe, John Barker, A. Max Holz-heimer, N. P. Feil, M. Goidsmith, R. Wood, J. C. Whinnery, William F. Bechel, A. C. Meredith, Charles C. Barber, George A. Wy-att Joseph F. Barton, S. D. Barbarow, V. Mercalth, Charles C. Barber, George A. Wy-att, Joseph F. Barton, S. D. Barkalow, V. H. Coffman, Louis Braifford, Fred N. Connor, Euclid Martin, Hellman, W. N. Babcock, Charles D. Woodworth, Leo Heller, Louis Heller, Van Court, George N. Clay-ton, Henry Bolin, Arthur Bran-ders, Andrew Haas, C. N. Powell, E. S. Dundy, Jo McComell, J. Haeria J. Charles D. Woodworth, Leo Heller, Louis Heller, Van Court, George N. Clay-ton, Heary Balin, Arthur Bran-dets, Andrew Haas, C. N. Powell, E. S. Dundy, Jo McConnell, J. L. Harris, J. O. Corby, Hulst, J. T. Duryea, C. H. Gard-ner, I. H. Congdon, William Wallace, H. P. Deuel, S. A. McWhorter, L. D. Fowler, E. C. McShaua, C. V. Gallardor, Posenthel C. McShane, C. V. Gallagher, Rosenthal Baltimore: H. D. Esterbrook, Fred B. Lowe C. McShimore: H. D. Esterbrook, Fred B. Lowe, Robert Purvis, John T. Wertz, John M. Thurston, Morris Sloman, J. H. McIntosh Fred W. Gray, Simon Goetz, J. C. Denise, J. N. Cornish, A. W. Kinsman, Becker, J. J. Delss, S. Bergman, Lee Rothschild, Anna M. Yates, E. A. Cudaby, W. J. Broatch, Clement Chase, H. H. Collier, C. E. Burmes-Clement Chase, H. H. Collier, C. E. Burmes-ter, Jeannette Meyer, Albert Heller, E. A. Blum, Thomas Swobe, William H. Christie, Udo Brachvogel, Var Kuran, R. P. Hamilton, Isaac A. Congdon, Archie Poweil, P. R. Dubols, Henry Lebman, William F. Allen, C. W. Cleaveland, J. W. Squire, Council Bluffs: Thomas R. Kimball, Thomas J. Kimball (Lorger A. Loslyn, A. B.

Thomas L. Kimball, George A. Joslyn, A. P. Thomas L. Kimbail, George A. Joslyn, A. P. Hopkins, J. N. H. Patrick, McCasskeli, E. E. Edwards, California: C. C. Valentine, Will S. Keaton, Nebraska City; J. W. Cotton, M. S. Lindsay, Z. T. Lind-say, D. H. Wheeler, M. V. Sheridan, Charlos E. Squires, C. B. Schmidt, John L. Wob-ster, J. J. Monnell, George G. Squires, Lucinda Monnell, Fred Metz, S. P. Morse, Edgar M. Morseman Edgar C. Snyder John Edgar M. Morseman, Edgar C. Snyder, John R. Buchanan, F. P. Kirkendali, O. S. Hoff-Selissona, George W. Kelley, Thomas maeil, Rothschild, Burdette, E. used which won the first premium at the re-J. Pennell, cent show at the Madison Square Garden, the instructor. Two of the younger members of the class also made their initial bow before an audi ance, Missos Bessie Peck and Miss Mary Barker and their interpretation of "William Tell" was, notwithstanding their years, a feature of a most excellent program.

Mr. Kinzie varied the instrumental part of the evening by the rendition of several vocal numbers, chief of which was Steinbagen's sentimental ballad, "You," which won a eucore; "Beautiful Girl of Kildare. Mr. Kinzie's voice is particularly adapted to ballads. It is sweet and pure forceful in the upper register and such voice that women go in ecstacles over. Madame Mueutefering not content in ap pearing with her pupils gave two solos, the "Sonata No 1 op 42" by Schubert, and the "Last movement concerto No. 1" by Meadelssohn. Her interpretation of Schubert's present. music is worthy of all praise. He is one of th madame's favorite composers and you may always be certain of hearing one Schubert number when Mde. Muentefering is an nounced on a program. The sonata was played much faster than is usual with her. and it was thoroughly reminiscent of D'Albert, whose love for this famous master is proverbial. The Mendelssohn number fittingly concluded the program, the big card being reserved for the last. And it was given with a finish that brought enthusiastic ap plause. Miss Broderick particularly dis tinguished herself in the orchestral accompaniment on the second plano, showing a musical mind which quite delighted the art overs present. Delightful refreshments were served dur ng the evening, the whole entertainment eing artistic to a degree. The complete program was as follows :

nvitation to the Waltz-Quartette... . Weber Piano 1. Mue. Muentefering. Miss MeShane. Piano 2. Miss Clara Hawley. Miss Grace Detweiler. William Tell-Duett arranged by. Burgmulier Miss Bossie Peck, Miss Mary Barker. Andante and Variations-Op. 46, duo forschuman Miss McShane, Mde. Muentefering.

onata No. 1, Op. 43 Mde. Muentefering. Martha-Duo (arranged). Flor Miss Lora Cushing, Mde. Muentefering. .Flotow

Miss Lora Cushing, Mde. Muentetering. You-Tenor solo. Mr. Kinzlo. Andante and Rondo Capriccioso., Mendeissohn Miss Clara Hawley. Chopin Mrs. Buchanan, Mde. Muentefering. Celestini Aula-Ree, and Air. Vordi Mr. Kinzlo. Mozart

Mrs. J. R. Buchauan, General and Mrs. Hawley, Miss Hawley, Miss Clara Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Peck, Miss Peck, Major and

Mrs. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Adolon Meyer Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore, Prof. and Mrs. Gil laspio, Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, Miss Barker, Miss Mary Barker, Mrs. Joseph Barker, Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mrs. McShane, Mrs. Byron Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. McAusland, Miss McShane, Miss Ogden, Mrs. Byron Reed, Dr. and Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. McAusland, Miss McShane, Miss Ogden, Mrs. Wicks, Major Bell, Lieutenant Kinzle Mr. Brown, Miss Broderick, Miss Detwiller, Mr. Brown, Miss Broderick, Miss Detwiller, Miss Keene, Miss Ogden, Mr. Martin Cahn, Mrs. Edward Cudaby, Mrs. Spenser, Mr. and Mrs. Alien, Mr. and Mrs. Bartow, Mr. and Miss O'Keeffe, Miss Creighton, Miss Sadie Creighton, Miss Hughes, Mrs. Detwiler, Miss Genea Detwiler.

Miss Grace Detwiller. tulle

A Chrysanthemum Luncheon.

Miss Mary Poppieton, whose advent in the haut monde has been the signal for much gaiety at Elizabeth Place, the beautiful home of the Poppletons on Sherman avenue, gave on Taesday afternoon a yellow chrysanthemum luncheon, which is yet the talk of the sixteen young ladies present. There was little attempt at elaborate floral decoration, the hostess depending upon the pretty arrangement of the dining table for the picturesqueness of the room. In the center of the table a large cut glass bowl was filled with the autumn favorites, a rare variety being Rockwell, Miss Balcombe, Miss Parker, Miss Brown and Miss Hughes. The Brown Matinee.

In honor of her niece, Miss Della Chandler, one of the season's most interesting debutantes and a great favorite in our social life, Mrs. J. J. Brown, gave, Wednesday afternoon a brilliant reception at the Brown residence on Sherman avenue.

The day was beautiful, an ideal forerunner of Thanksgiving, and the leaders of fashion came out in large numbers to pay their tribute of respect and esteem to the hostess and her charming niece. The house has been often described in these columns, for it is one of the most cos and hospitable homes in the metropolis, made housing a solution of the mistress and her accomplished daughter, Miss Clara Brown, who on this occasion remained in the back ground while the younger society favorites enjoyed the opportunity to exchange greetings with the matrons and maids

Mrs. Brown, Miss Chandler and ber intimate friend, Miss Mary Poppleton, received in the north drawing room, which, while not elaborately was tastefully decorated with flowers and palms, the prevailing color being pink. The dining room adjoining and the second parlor on the right of the ballway were as prettily ornamented as the drawing room, red being the prevailing tone.

Assisting the hostess in entertaining the guests were a bevy of pretty young women. Mrs. Brown's design being to make the younger members of the beau monde chief participants in the pleasurable occasion. Aiding the hostess were Mrs. Will Popple ton, Mrs. Hussey, Mrs. Will Morris, the young ladies being Miss Yost, Miss Sherwood, Miss Hoagland, Miss Laura Hoag-tand, Miss Carrie Stavens of Pasadena, Cal. Miss Wallace, Miss May Wallace, Miss Mc Kenna, Miss Parker of Grand Rapids, Miss Stella Hamilton and Miss Clara Brown.

Mrs. Brown, a sweet womanly woman, with the gentlest manners vouchsafed her sex, wore a handsome black silk costume. med with red chiffon, entraine. Miss Chandler wore a beautiful gown of white silk, entraine, and she carried red Miss Mary Poppleton also wore white silk and la France roses. Mrs. Will Poppleton and Miss Poppleton poured coffee, the former appearing in a cos-tume of white figured brocade which set off ber beauty well. Miss Poppleton, a pretty gray crepe en traine, red roses. Miss Hoagland wore a pretty gown of light blue crepe trimmed with mousselling

Miss Laura Hoagland, in contrast with the gown of her sister, wore light grey crepe and brocade, entraine. Miss McKenna, who dresses with excellent taste, graced a toilette of pink and lavender silk, entraine. Miss Yost, bright and vivacious, wore a mart costume of heavy ecru silk, entraine. Miss Carrie Stevens, a former resident of Council Bluffs, and a sister of Miss Neally Stevens, the well known planiste, wore pretty black tulle with gold trimmings. Miss Sherwood, light figured garnet.

Miss Wallace wore an effective costume of ight blue crepe Miss May Wallace, light gray silk, while Miss Stella Hamilton, a vory stylish young woman, whose first year in society is already crowned with favor, wore white silk, entraine, Miss Parker, who has made a host of warm friends since her entrance into the social life of the city, and which is soon to be terminated, wore a graceful costume of lavender Miss Brown was fascinating in a costume of lemon brocaded silk, en traine. Hans Albert's orchestra played throughout the afternoon, the music being a no small feature of the brilliant matinee.

A Pleasant Surprise. A very pleasant surprise party was given Miss Hattie Chesbro at the residence of her parents, 2620 Seward street, by a number of her young friends, on Friday evening. Misses Lena Chesbro and Kennedy en tertained the guests in a highly satisfactory manner by vocal and instrumental music. High five and other games were indulged in to the "wee sma' hours." A delightful iunchoon was served before the guests depar ted

Thanksgiving week was the dancing party final report. given by Mr. and Mrs. F. Adler at their cosy

The discipline committee have been doing good work of late in overhauling the nome on upper Dodge street Thursday evening in honor of their daughter Miss Flora accounts and collecting delinquent dues and fines, something like $200 having been cleared Adler, who, on this occasion made her debut up the past month. in the realm of fashionable life. The Adler

Comrade Hodgins has recovered from his home is well known for its genuine hospitality sprained wrist. and it certainly proved its right to be thus

There is some talk of giving a series of monthly dances at the armory, which were auite popular in past years and could be made very successful this year with a little rustling. With the finest floor in the city to The house was brilliantly decorated with palms, smilax and ferns, while here and there magnificent chrysanthemums gave dance and the means of obtaining the best music, it seems but natural to conclude that the "informai hops" would be well patronroomy and the arrangements made for the comfort of the guests were complete in every ized by the dancing community. Mr. and Mrs. Adler, assisted by the tair debutante, received in the east drawing room, while a large orchestra played a well arranged The long anticipated ball under the auspices of the younger society men was given Wednesday evening under exceptionally Mrs. Adler, who has the pleasant faculty pleasant circumstances at the Millard hotel, of making everybody feel perfectly at home, was costumed in a lovely crepe of pale cive the scene of many a brilliant dancing party in times past. color, trimmed in chiffon and a girdle of turquoise and emeralds, which became he The ball room was a veritable flower show eauty well. Her ornaments were handsome the windows being banked with ferns and chrysanthemums, the chandeliers were con-Miss Adler, already a great favorite in so-ciety, B a beautiful young woman with that maidenly reserve which is most charming in her sex, was gowned becomingly in an ele-cent solder sill waves the most divide works cealed amid ropes of smilax, while palms and hot house plants stood about in the recesses in endless profusion. The orchestra was stationed in the northeast corner of the room entirely surrounded with paims, gant golden silk crepe, "trimmed with crystal fringe, decollete. It was simply made like all her costumes which are noted for their quiet rare exotics and chrysanthemums, the and bolles were present in large numbers, elegance. Her ornaments were also diaonds. During the evening she presented and the picture made by the ever moving humanity was fair to look upon. The younger the guests with a tiny rosebud, a souvenir of the occasion, a graceful and pretty way of expressing her pleasure at their presence. men and women, some of them just fresh After the reception of the guests the rooms from convent hall and seminary for the from convent half and seminary for the Thanksgiving holidays, danced as if their lives depended upon the amount of thorough enjoyment they got of the occasion, and altogether it was a jolly evening, as such upper decomposition to have were given over to the dancers, which were canvassed for the occasion. Later in the evening supper was served at small tables in ourned above stairs, the grand march being evenings deserve to be, the signal for the supper hour. Five courses were on the menu, toasts being given during the evening. Miss Clara Schlesinger official-

The Subscription Party.

The costumes worn by the ladies were en trancing, many of them having been made for the occasion. Among those who were particularly charming were Mrs. Harry McCormick, in a gown of red crepe, decollete and entraine, a most becoming costume for her brunette beauty.

Mrs. John McCormick, pretty and viva ious, whose charms seem to have grown with her married life, wore a handsome gown of blue silk sumed dancing, rounding out an evening which was auspicious to one person at least Miss Margaret Cook wore a dainty toilette of red silk and chiffon. as it was delightful to all the guests present

Miss Fritza Barnard appeared in a gray and pink cashmere, which was exceedingly ecoming to her petite figure. Mrs. Lucien Stephens wore a costume of white silk and lace overdress, a model of the lressmaker's art. Miss Helen Smith, who is regarded as one who were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Heller, Mrs. Hostettor, Albuquerque; Mrs. T. Schlesinger, Misses Tillie Tonnehul, Baltianore; Jacobson, Erie, Pa.; New, Chicago; Garrie Goldsmith, Ella Heller, Mattie Polack, Hollie Polack, Tillie Newman, Blanche Erliman, Isabelle C. Adler, Addie Newora, Sadie Schlesinger, Clara Schlesinger, Botto Has, Clara Rinds-kopf, Minnie Looman, Olga Tevelis, Hattie of the prettiest girls in the metropolis, wore simple gown of white china silk.

Miss Margaret Moore, another of the oretty Omaha girls, wore a strikingly handome gown of yellow crepe, trimmed graceully in morning glories.

Becker, Bottle Sellesohn. Messrs, Charles Elemeter, M. Zunder, Ben Rosenthal, G. Deiches, Julius Meyer, Trau-Miss Alexander wore blue crepe: Miss Pratt, pink silk and chiffon; Miss Weaver, a Bloom lainty costume of pink broadcloth; Miss Arthur Rindskopf, Hegman Heyn, Henry Langstadter, Rev. William Rosenau, Arthur Rosenau, Kaufman, P. Rose, Samuel Schles-inger, Dr. Rosewater, Max Reichenberg, Lou Reichenberg, Sammel Frank. angley, a cream mousselline de sole; Miss Cleaver of Milwaukee, a Grecian costume of old blue silk; Miss May Yates, green silk Miss Bowman, Grecian gown of blue cash mere; Miss Parker, a pretty white creps and mousselline de sole; Miss Ada Parker, a nousselline de soie; Miss Ada Parker, a ovely pink crepe; Miss Doane, always ef-The annual meeting of the company will be fectively gowned, on this occasion wore a white cloth cashmere, made simply, but effectively; Miss Skinner of Cedar Rapids, a red net toilctte; Miss Hughes, a handsome pink brocade; Miss Kelley, a gown of white cloth; haid next Wednesday Devening, December 2, at which time both military and civil officers will be elected for the ensuing year. The board of directors will also be elected at the Kelley, a gown of white cloth; Miss Butts of Council Bluffs, a smart gown of blue cloth with silver passementerie. meeting. Every member of the company shauld be present as most important business will be transacted in which all are interested.

Among the other young ladies noticed were disses Hartman, Overstreet of St. Louis The reports of committees will be read at the nceting comprising a recapitulation of the Ryball of New York, Johnson, Lou Johnson Mrs. McAllister, Miss Turner, Miss Has-kell, Miss McShane, Miss Wateloy, Miss Van Camp, Miss Balch, Miss Tad Balch, Miss Corby. On Wednesday evening Corporal S. F. Mills, company I, R. L. Instructed about a dozen of the men in the principles of aiming GThe gentlemen present were: Messrs. John McCormick, Harry McCormick, Lucien by means of a tripod, upon which the rifle is rested and then aimen at a small disc a short John McCormick, Harry McCormick, Lucien Stephens, Cook, Fred McCormick, Chariton, Fonda, Forsman, Ward, Driscoll, Smith, Burkley, Wood, Allen, Dietz, Clark, Tuck-ert, Miller, Lawrence, Downs, Parker, Fos-benner, Wakefield, Moores, Foy, Knott, Mer-rick, B. A. McAllister, Joplin, Colfax, Pax-ton, Morrow, Ward, Brown and Graves, Mr. distance away, which is elevated and de-pressed at will. All members will have an an opportunity for rille practice on Monday and Wednosday evenings until the first of the year, when the competitive shooting for the Raymond cup will The Gating section, in charge of Sergeant and Mrs. Charles Harvey, Dr. and Coffman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramge Dr. and Mrs. W. B. T. Belt, drilled on Wednesday oven-ing, Corporal F. S. Knapp being the gun lookers on. A delicious suppor was served wholly unconscious of what awaited him, stepped within the threshold. The expression on his face told plainly that the design of the guests had succeeded. After an exchange of pleasant formalities, high five was played the guest of Mrs. J. , E. Preston, and probably remain for a fortnight at least. Mr. E. E. Whitmore is very ill, and will be ind later refreshments were served. Then removed to a mere genial climate just as soon dancing rounded out the evening. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. as he is able to stand the rigors of the journev.

R. Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs J. K. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Lohnes, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dennis, Mrs. C. Durr, Mrs. John Ford, Mrs. M. Parr, Miss Ottillia Trott, Miss Etta Conery, Miss Carrie Butler, Miss Walch, Mr. Joe Dennis, Mr. M. S. Hasie, Mr. H. W. Blum, Mr. C. J. Borthwick, Mr. George Shanahan, Mr. Milton

Ranzie. Their Crystal Anniversary.

A very enjoyable gathering was that at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette A Garner on last Monday evening, the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding. Progressive high five was a part of the evening's entertainment. Mr. John Francis and Mrs. C. S. Potter winning the prizes. After an elaborate lunch, music and dancing was indulged in until the "wee small hours," when the guests departed wishing the happy couple many returns.

Dining His Friends.

The presents of cut glass were many and gave a charming luncheon Wednesday the guests being Mrs. Will Millard, Mrs. Victor Caldwell, Mrs. Lake, Mrs. Judge Wakeley, Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Pinto Mrs. Horbach, Mrs. Clarkson, Mrs. A. P. Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Sholes, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. John Francis, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dough-Hopkins. At the Universalist church, Nineteenth Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Potter, Mr. and P. F. Igoe, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Raiston, Mr. Davis and Miss Fisher.

and Lathrop streets. Friday night, a pleas-ant entertainment was given in the form of a drama in four acts, entitled "Blue Beard, or the Stolen Picture." The affair was under the auspices of the Young Folks' society of the church, and was a brilliant Mr. James K. Chambers gave a most de success. lightful supper and card party at his resi dence on Friday night to his bachelor and A very small pill, but a very good one. De-Benedict friends in the Gmaha club. Those Witt's little Early Risers.

> Dr. Birney cures catarrh. Bee bldg

Movements and Whereabouts. Miss Turner of Kansas City in the guest of Miss Corby. Mrs. J. W. Gannett is the guest of Mrs. . M. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Ramsey leave for California on Thursday. Miss Ijams entertained a few lady friends

Fuesday at luncheon. Mr. John S. Tebbetts is in the city renew-ng old acquaintances. Mrs. J. H. Millard left iast Friday for a visit to friends in the east, The Misses Hoagland entertained a few friends last evening at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. S. G. V. Griswold have taken residence at 2721 Jackson street.

Miss Mann of Utica, a sister of Mrs. C. H. Gardner, is a guest at the deanery. Mr. Stuart Shears took his Thanksgiving turkey with his parents in Lincoln. General Brocke entertained the bachelor officers of the garrison Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. John P. Williams are settled n their new home at 2425 Dodge street.

Miss Grannis of Chicago is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cole on Pine street. Mrs. C. K. Coutant gave a delightful tea last evening to a number of friends at 6:30.

thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old Ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appear-ance to any lady, and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkall, and is as barmiess as dow Mrs Charles Deuel has returned from her extended visit with Mrs. Morton in Chicago. The Goodrich club will give theirs first nasquerade at Goodrich ball next Wednesand as nonrishing to the skin as dow is to the flower. Price $1.00. Ask your draggist for it. SAMPLE BOTTLE mailed free to any lady on re-day Dr. and Mrs. Dallas Bache announce a coupt of l0 cents in stamps to pay for postage and packing. Lady Agents wanted. reception Wednesday, December 9, from s until II. Mrs. William Redick and Miss May Dundy are expected home from Douglas, Wyo., on Fuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hal McCord, who spent Thanksgiving in St. Joe, returned home on Friday Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Field entertained a

1440 Acres -0 Sr. 9/73 int 1 11 Yours for tide to Beauty Ger vause Graham

Mrs. Graham's Cucumber and

Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sense in which that term is oppularly used, but permanently beautifies. It rentes a soft, a mooth, clear, velvely skin, and by taily use gradually makes the complexion several chates whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and which and prevents sunturn and provides and blackheads will never come which you reselt. It cleanses the face far better than soap and rater, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and

MRS. GERVADE GRAHAM. "Beauty Doctor." 103

Sherman & McConnell, Mrs. J. H. Christie; Puople, s Drug Co., C. B. Gurney, James Forsyther, J. C. Bell & Co., Leslie & Leslie; J. W. Clark, W. J. Hughes; pera Rouse Pharmacy: C. S. Torbitt, M. T. Moss & o., Kahn & Co., Cooke's Pharmacy: and in Council Buffa by A. D. Foster, J. C. Dellaven; Seeo. S. Davi Richardson Drug Co., wholesale agenia, Omaha.

ost Street, San Francisso.